THE ACTS AND PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA

FIRST SEDERUNT.

At the City of Edmonton, and within the First Presbyterian Church there, the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twelve years, at eight o'clock in the evening,

Which time and place, Ministers and ruling Elders, Commissioners from the several Presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened pursuant to appointment by the General Assembly held in the City of Ottawa, on the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven. The Right Reverend Robert P. MacKay, D.D., Moderator of the last General Assembly, preached a sermon from the words: Isaiah 21 : 11, 12—"The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, 'Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?' The watchman said 'The morning cometh, and also the night; if ye will enquire, enquire ye; return, come.'"

Then by prayer, Dr. MacKay constituted the General Assembly in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only King and Head of the Church.

The names of the Commissioners having been presented in a printed list, the Assembly, on the recommendation of the Business Committee, on motion of the Clerk, duly seconded, agreed to accept the same as the Roll of Assembly, subject to any corrections subsequently to be made when the same is scrutinized.

The Assembly called for the report on the returns to Remits which was read by Dr. Campbell, Clerk, on whose motion, duly seconded, it was received and it was resolved to deal with its items seriatim.

With regard to the report on the returns, on the question of Union with the Congregational and Methodist Churches, Dr. Campbell moved that it be received and considered in connection with the report of the Committee on Union. The motion was seconded and agreed to.

Principal Scrimger called attention to the fact that the report did not give in detail the votes of sessions and congregations separately, but only the entire vote of each order, and asked if detailed information could be given. The answer was that the materials were in possession of the Clerks for providing further details, and the Clerks undertook to furnish the same, although it might take some little time to prepare such a statement.

With regard to the returns to the other remits, it was agreed to consider them in connection with reports yet to be presented to the Assembly, on which the several returns have a bearing.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on the travelling expenses of Commissioners. The Convener, Mr. W. T. Wilkins, not being a member of Assembly, Dr. Forrest explained that matters were not yet in a sufficiently definite shape to be presented to the Assembly, and asked that the item stand to a future sederunt.

REPORTS ON STATISTICS.

The Assembly called for the report on Statistics which was presented by Dr. Somerville, Convener, and being printed and in the hands of members, he satisfied himself with calling attention to its salient features, and concluded with moving that the report be received and its recommendations considered seriatim. The motion was seconded and agreed to. On consideration, the recommendations were adopted, on motion of Dr. Somerville, seconded by Dr. Baird.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Presbyteries be enjoined to give special attention to securing complete and accurate returns from every congregation and mission station.
2. That the Committee on Statistics of each Presbytery be composed of the Clerk, the Conveners of Augmentation, Home Missions, Sabbath Schools, and such other members as may be deemed necessary, and that this Committee see that there are no discrepancies in the different statistical reports presented to the General Assembly.
3. That special attention be given to the formation of the Roll of Presbytery, that it contain only the names duly authorized by the Church, and that it contain a full list of the congregations and mission stations as at March 31st.
4. That when changes are made in the names of congregations or mission stations or in the groups forming the pastoral charge or mission field, the Presbytery Clerk shall immediately notify the Treasurers of the Church, and thus enable them to correctly report contributions to the Schemes.
5. That Presbyteries be enjoined to fully consider and deal with the matter of statistics and finance as set forth in report to the Assembly at the first ordinary meeting after the Minutes of Assembly have been printed, and distributed, or as soon thereafter as possible, with a view to ascertain the increase or decrease in the several congregations, what congregations, if any, have failed to report, or have not contributed to all the Schemes of the Church.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again in this place, this afternoon at half past two o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AMALGAMATION OF PUBLICATIONS.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on the Amalgamation of Publications, which was given in and read by Mr. John Lowden, Convener of the Committee.

It is as follows:—

The Committees were asked to meet for conference in April, but owing to Dr. Campbell's absence it was not found convenient to do so. Later, the Record Committee met in Montreal, and sent me the following resolution: "Concerning the proposal, the Committee find, that the Record since its beginning, thirty-six years ago, has been published in Montreal; that it can be conducted quite as cheaply there as in Toronto and with equal efficiency; that nearly all the general work of the Church is already centred in Toronto; that Montreal, being the chief city of the Dominion, and a strong Presbyterian centre, it is not unfitting that some small part of the work of the Church should centre there, and its removal, without sufficient cause, would call forth strong protest. Your Committee is therefore unable to see any reason why such a proposal should be entertained, and recommends accordingly."

He moved that the report be received and adopted. The motion was seconded and agreed to.

REPORTS ON COLLEGES.

The Assembly called for the reports of the several Colleges of the Church.

Halifax:—

It was resolved to begin at the East, and the first presented was the report of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, by Dr. Forrest, who emphasized its prominent features as printed and in the hands of members. Mr. J. S. Sutherland moved, that the report be received and adopted. The motion was seconded by Mr. A. H. Scott, and agreed to.

Morrin College:—

Dr. Robert Campbell, one of the General Assembly's representatives on the Board of Governors of Morrin College, reported verbally on the operations of that institution, so far as they have a bearing on the interests of the Church. Three scholarships are given to the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and the Governors have signified their willingness to aid in imparting a high school education to promising lads from the townships, having the ministry in view. He concluded with moving that this report be received and adopted. The motion was seconded and agreed to.

Presbyterian College, Montreal:—

Principal Scrimger presented the report of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and drew attention specially to the federation of colleges movement, which originated with the laymen of the several evangelical churches of the city, including the Anglicans, and asked the sanction of the Assembly to the plan of co-operation proposed. He concluded with moving the following resolution, which was seconded by Dr. D. L. McCrae and carried unanimously:

[1925]

That the reports of the Board and Senate be received and adopted; that the Assembly approve of the negotiations for co-operation with the other theological colleges affiliated to the McGill University; that they be authorized to carry out the proposed plan for next session, and that the motion be further considered at the next Assembly.

Queen's College:—

Principal Gordon presented the report of Queen's College and University, and gave a detailed account of the steps taken to carry into effect the policy of the Board of Trustees as laid before last General Assembly, and which that Assembly sanctioned.

The Parliament of Canada granted the legislation necessary to change the constitution of the University in its relation to the Church, although some difficulty was encountered in securing the same.

Dr. Ramsay submitted the report of the Committee appointed by last General Assembly to co-operate with the Board of Trustees of Queen's University in obtaining the requisite legislation to give effect to the proposed constitutional changes.

Mr. John Lowden then moved as follows:—

The General Assembly receives and adopts the report of the Trustees of Queen's University and the report of the Committee appointed to co-operate with the Trustees in procuring legislation affecting the constitution of the University.

The Assembly records its great satisfaction at the continued progress of the University and at the successful issue of the application to the Parliament of Canada for legislation providing the desired changes in the constitution of the University and incorporating Queen's Theological College.

The Assembly renews the expression of its deep interest in the work and welfare of Queen's University and its hope that the University may continue to enjoy the sympathy and assistance of members of the Presbyterian Church and may also receive aid from other sources now rendered available by the recent changes in the constitution.

When Mr. Lowden was proceeding to address the house, the hour of adjournment arrived and further discussion of the subject had to be deferred.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again in this place this evening at a quarter to eight o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

Macdonald, representative of the Women's Home Mission Society, Western Section, who gave an interesting account of the growth of the Society, and furnished valuable information of the work accomplished by the Society, in detail,—by Dr. George Arthur, who emphasized the importance of prosecuting vigorously mission work among the foreign element of the population,—by Mr. L. E. Gosling, who gave a graphic picture of the hardships of the missionary's lot in the outposts of the field, the distances to be travelled and the dangers encountered and the worries endured in trying to make ends meet on the meagre salaries allowed missionaries,—and by Mr. J. H. Findlay, who showed that in spite of the temptations to which the settlers were exposed, and the lapses from the paths of right in the new land of many whose early training inculcated the fear of God, the work of preaching the gospel to them is a blessed and hopeful one and is crowned with encouraging success.

On motion of Mr. J. S. Sutherland, duly seconded, the consideration of the report of the Eastern Section was postponed to a future sederunt.

It was agreed to make it an order of the day to-morrow to receive the Mayor of Edmonton, who had signified his desire to visit the Assembly, at noon; also to receive a delegation from the Anglican Church at a quarter past twelve to-morrow afternoon.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again in this place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

REPORT ON CHURCH UNION.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Church Union, which was presented by Principal Gordon, acting Convener, who also laid before the Assembly a series of resolutions by way of disposing of the report, the reception and adoption of which he moved, seconded by Dr. W. J. Clark. They are as follows:—

The Committee recommend the following as the deliverance of the Assembly:—

The Assembly rejoices at the large measure of agreement among the negotiating churches which the proceedings of these recent years have disclosed and which, it believes, will prepare the way for a larger measure of union among Christ's people in this land than at present exists.

The Assembly rejoices that a large majority of those voting have declared themselves in favour of the proposed organic union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational communions in Canada, and believes that organic union will soon be consummated.

The Assembly re-affirms the position taken by previous assemblies that organic union is the end to be aimed at and striven for, and assures the other negotiating churches of its sincere and ardent desire to complete such union within a brief period. In view, however, of the extent of the opposition, indicated by the vote, the Assembly deems it unwise to proceed to the immediate consummation of the union, but resolves as follows:—

1. That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee to arrange with the other negotiating churches for the further delimitation of territory within which they shall severally establish new missions, as well as for the fuller application of the principle of co-operation already adopted by the Assembly.

2. That it be an instruction to the Committee charged with the publications of the church to enter into correspondence with similar committees of the other churches as to the possibility of combining their work in whole or in part.

3. That it be an instruction to the Boards of the Colleges to consider the possibility of co-operating with the colleges of other churches, situated in the same localities, so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in teaching.

4. That the Union Committee be authorized, in conjunction with the Union Committees of the other negotiating churches, to provide for the oversight of union congregations not organically connected with any of the three churches.

5. That the suggestions as to a modification of the proposed basis of union made by Presbyteries, sessions or individuals, or that may be made before the first of November, 1912, be referred to the Union Committee for their consideration, in the hope of removing objections and with a view to further conference with the committees of the other negotiating churches.

6. That the following names be added to the Union Committee to fill vacancies, namely: Principal MacKay, Principal Gandier, Rev. J. A. Clark, Rev. R. G. MacBeth, Rev. W. G. Brown, Rev. Dr. Welch, Rev. A. S. Grant, Lieutenant Colonel McCrae, Hamilton Cassels, Mr. Edward Brown, Mr. James Gibson, Mr. James Rodger and Mr. James Balfour, thus constituting the whole committee as follows:—

Dr. W. J. Clark, Convener; Dr. Ramsay, Vice-Convener; Dr. Forrest, Dr. Sedgwick, Dr. John MacMillan, Dr. E. Smith, Dr. T. Stewart, Dr. T. C. Jack, Mr. James Ross, Mr. Anderson Rogers, Mr. D. McOdum, Dr. A. T. Love, Dr. Robert Campbell, Principal Scrimger, Professor Welch, Mr. R. W. Dickie, Dr. Armstrong, Dr. Herridge, Principal Gordon, Dr. M. Macdonald, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Mr. J. A. Paterson, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Lieutenant Colonel McCrae, Mr. Walter Paul, Mr. James Rodger, Mr. James Gibson, Lieutenant Governor McGregor, Mr. T. C. James, Judge Forbes and Lieutenant Governor Rogers, Elders.

While the discussion of Principal Gordon's motion was in progress, Principal McKay moved, seconded by Mr. W. G. Brown, that the report of the Union Committee be received and that the resolutions now submitted, together with the report on the Remit on Union and relative documents, be referred to a special committee to consider the same and recommend a finding for the adoption of the Assembly, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the committee to be named by the Moderator.

This motion being put to the house, was carried and the Assembly resolved accordingly.

The order of the day having now arrived for the reception of a representative of the Church of England in this city, who had signified his desire to visit the Assembly, Archdeacon Gray, of Edmonton, was introduced to the Moderator, and was asked to address the Assembly, which he did, bringing the greetings of the Church to which he belonged, to the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He also expressed the hope that closer relations may before long be established between these two historic churches. He further said that it greatly enhanced the pleasure of his visit to the Assembly that the Moderator was an esteemed fellow citizen and co-worker with him in every good cause. The Moderator, in fitting terms, replied to the hearty words of greeting spoken by Archdeacon Gray, and asked him to convey to the great church whose message he bore to the Assembly, the best wishes of the Presbyterian Church for its prosperity and success.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again in this place, at half past two o'clock this afternoon, of which public intimation was given, and this sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

FOREIGN MISSION REPORT.

The Assembly called for the report of the Foreign Mission Committee. The first to be heard from was Dr. McCurdy, Secretary to the Eastern Section, who, in the absence of the Convener of that section, presented the report as printed and in the hands of members, and spoke specially of that portion of it relating to the mission stations under the charge of that section. He concluded with moving the reception of the report, leaving the business matters embraced therein to be dealt with at a future sederunt. The motion was seconded by Principal Gandier, Convener of the Western Section of the Committee, who referred briefly to the marvellous movements occurring among the oriental nations, and the openings for mission undertakings created by the present situation. The motion was agreed to.

He concluded with introducing to the Moderator Mrs. Steele, daughter of the late Mrs. Ewart, for so many years the President of the Women's Foreign Mission Society, and now successor to her honoured mother in the occupation of the Presidency of that Society. The Moderator introduced Mrs. Steele to the Assembly, which she addressed, giving a short review of the history of the Society from its small beginnings until the present, and an account of the work it is carrying on in eastern lands, as well as among the Chinese and Jews in the Dominion.

Mr. A. E. Armstrong, Assistant Secretary to the Western Section, in the absence of Dr. R. P. MacKay, Secretary, through illness, briefly sketched the fields in which the several missionaries sitting on the platform have been at work, and gave an account of the progress and present condition of the missions in which they are engaged.

The first of the foreign missionaries introduced by the Moderator was Mr. Andrew Thomson, of the Honan Presbytery, home on his first furlough, who addressed the Assembly on the subject of the present condition and prospects of the missions in that field.

The Moderator next introduced Mr. Milton Jack, from Tamsui, Formosa, formerly Chinese, but now Japanese territory, who is continuing the work in that island inaugurated so successfully by Dr. Leslie MacKay, especially the training of students in Oxford College. Mr. Jack, also home on furlough, gave an interesting account of the existing situation in that beautiful island.

Dr. Margaret MacKellar, of the Mission at Neemuch, Central India, now home on her third furlough, received an ovation from the Assembly when she was introduced by the Moderator. Her services to humanity in India had been recognized by the civil authorities, so that at the recent Durbar, she had conferred upon her a decoration emanating from King George, Emperor of India. Dr. MacKellar gave an address full of interest regarding the progress of the Gospel in India during the twenty-one years she had been in that country.

Mr. William McWhinney, engaged in mission work among the aborigines, at Crowstand, Saskatchewan, was next introduced by the Moderator, and gave a vivid account of the difficulties and successes attending the prosecution of his labours among the India tribe to which he ministers.

The last of the band of missionaries, seated on the platform, to be called upon by the Moderator to address the Assembly, was Dr. Donald MacGillivray, who is engaged in the publication at Shanghai of Christian literature for the instruction of the people of China. Dr. MacGillivray made an earnest plea on behalf of China, at the present crisis in the history of that country. The course of the future destinies of the people of that land depends upon their being persuaded to accept the Gospel as the foundation on which the best type of civilization rests.

CHANGE IN CONVENERSHIP.

REPORT OF PROVISIONAL BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF QUEEN'S THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE.

The Assembly called for the report of the Provisional Board of Management of Queen's Theological Faculty, which was given in and read by Dr. R. Bruce Taylor, and is as follows:—

The Provisional Board of Management appointed by the General Assembly of 1911, to take charge of Queen's Theological College upon its incorporation has the honour to present the following report:—

The Act incorporating the College was passed by the Parliament of Canada and received the Royal Sanction on April 1st, 1912.

It is presented in the report of the University (p. 185).

The Board was called to meet in Queen's Theological Hall on April 25th, and met accordingly to consider the matters placed in its hands by the action of the General Assembly and the Act of Incorporation.

On the suggestion of Principal Gordon, it was unanimously agreed that Professor Donald Ross be requested to act as Interim Principal until a permanent appointment is made. The Board desires to present the appointment of Professor Ross to the Assembly for its approval.

The following Committee was appointed to suggest the name of a permanent Principal and to make adequate provision for the maintenance of the different branches of the Theological College: Dr. M. MacGillivray, Convener; Principal Gordon, G. M. Macdonnell, K.C., Dr. W. T. Herridge, Dr. Bruce Taylor, Dr. D. R. Drummond and Hamilton Cassels, K.C.

In view of the forthcoming retirement of Principal Gordon from the position of Primarius Professor of Divinity, which he has filled with great faithfulness during the past ten sessions along with the Principalship of the University, steps will be taken as early as possible to secure the best available man for the Chair of Systematic Theology. Meantime, the Board has pleasure in announcing that the Vice-Principal of the University, Dr. John Watson, has consented to give a course of lectures in the Theological College next session on the Philosophy of Religion. This valuable addition to the teaching staff will doubtless be greatly appreciated by the students and by the Church.

The Board desires to record its high appreciation of the action of Mr. John Penman, of Paris, through whose generosity the Reverend H. Roswell Bates, of Spring Street Presbyterian Church, New York, has been secured for a course of lectures in January, 1912.

The Board also appointed an Executive Committee and referred to it the working out of the financial arrangements provided for, in Clause 21 of the University Act, and the adjustment of other matters which may arise between the University and the College.

A calendar for the session, 1912-13, has been prepared and is submitted to the General Assembly with this report.

For seventy one years the Faculty of Theology of Queen's College and University, has borne a worthy part in the training of a Presbyterian Ministry. Queen's Theological College is now its successor. In close and sympathetic relation to the University, its aim will be to maintain the high standards of the past and to aid the Church in meeting the larger needs of the time.

Even more intimately connected with the Church than was the former Faculty of Theology, it earnestly bespeaks the confidence and generous support of the General Assembly and the ministry and membership of the whole Church.

Dr. Taylor moved that the report be received and adopted.

The motion was seconded by Mr. James Cumming, and agreed to.

RESOLUTION ON CHURCH UNION.

The Special Committee of Assembly on the matter of union and relative documents unanimously recommend the following as the deliverance of the Assembly:—

The Assembly rejoices at the large measure of agreement among the negotiating churches which the proceedings of these recent years disclosed and which, it believes, will prepare the way for a larger measure of union among Christ's people in this land than at present exists.

The Assembly believes that the fact, that a large majority of those voting have declared themselves in favour of the organic union of the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches, is a strong indication that the ultimate result of the present movement will be the consummation of such a union and pledges itself to do all in its power to maintain and deepen the unity of spirit which has marked the source of the negotiations, and to continue to promote the fraternal intercourse and conference with the other churches which have made the present vote possible.

In view, however, of the extent of the minority which is not yet convinced that organic union is the best method of expressing the unity sincerely desired by all the Assembly, deems it unwise immediately to proceed to consummate the union, but believes that by further conference and discussion practically unanimous action can be secured within a reasonable time, and meanwhile resolves as follows:—

1. That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee to arrange with the other negotiating churches for the further delimitation of territory within which they shall severally establish new missions as well as for the further application of the principle of co-operation already adopted by the Assembly.

2. That it be an instruction to the Foreign Mission Committee to confer with the Mission Boards of other Churches with a view to co-operation in every possible way.

3. That it be an instruction to the Committee on Social Service and Evangelism to confer with the Boards of other churches with a view to co-operation in every possible way.

4. That it be an instruction to the Committees charged with the publications of the church to enter into correspondence with the similar committees of the other churches as to the possibility of combining their work in whole or in part.

5. That it be an instruction to the Boards of the Colleges to consider the possibility of co-operating with the colleges of other churches, situated in the same localities, so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in teaching.

6. That the Union Committee be authorized, in conjunction with the Union Committees of the other negotiating churches, to provide for the oversight of union congregations already existing or that may be formed but not organically connected with any of the three churches.

7. That all suggestions made by presbyteries, sessions or individuals, or that may be made before the first of November, one thousand nine hundred and twelve (1912), be referred to the Union Committee for their consideration, in the hope of removing objections and with a view to further conference with the committees of the other negotiating churches.

8. That the following names be added to the Union Committee to fill vacancies namely: Principal MacKay, Principal Gandier, Rev. J. A. Clark, Rev. R. G. MacBeth, Rev. A. S. Grant, Lieutenant-Colonel MacCrae, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Mr. Edward Brown, Mr. James Gibson, Mr. James Rodger, Mr. W. G. 5. When the Assembly has passed the amount, the Committee shall make an equitable division of the amount among the several Presbyteries.

6. That the Presbyteries at their stated meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, in any case not later than the fall meeting, take such steps as they deem best to secure the amount of their apportionment.

That a cheque covering the amount to which the commissioner is entitled as per clause four (the lowest Assembly first class fare rate from the residence of the commissioner to the General Assembly) shall be issued to the commissioner and given to him attached to his standard certificate when vised, which shall not be returned earlier than the second Wednesday of meeting, without express permission of the Assembly, except that no cheque shall be issued to any commissioner whose Presbytery has either not paid its apportionment in full or an amount sufficient to entirely meet the claims of its commissioners for that year.

9. That Presbyteries failing to meet the conditions of clause eight shall have the whole amount of their contribution returned to them, in order that they may make such payment to their commissioners as, in their judgment, may seem best.

10. That all Presbyteries in the Church be instructed by the Assembly to enter upon the Fund for next Assembly, nineteen hundred and thirteen (1913). Presbyteries failing to do so, shall not be permitted to connect with the Fund until they have reimbursed the Fund for the loss sustained by the Fund through their failure to do as the Assembly instructs.

11. The rate for Foreign missionaries shall, when commissioners, be from their residence while on furlough in Canada.

The Committee requests the Assembly to advance, at lowest possible rate of interest, a sum sufficient to meet the claims of commissioners from Presbyteries paying the full amount of their apportionment, and a pro rata amount to commissioners from Presbyteries that have paid part of their apportionment, except that in no case shall any commissioner receive more than the lowest Assembly first class fare rate from his residence to the Assembly.

ities in various cities in permitting the flagrant violation of the Criminal Code by those engaged in the debasing business of social vice, recognize that such action or inaction on the part of police, police commissioners or other authorities, is subversive of the foundations of our national life, and inimical to the best social, moral and religious life of the community; commend the action of our ministers and members who have taken active part in criticising such crime, and instruct the Boards, its officers and all ministers and members strenuously to oppose all forms of toleration of vice by every means in their power at all hazards.

It is as follow:—

The Committee appointed by the Assembly to consider the questions rising out of the Overtures of the Synod of Alberta and the Presbyteries of Yorkton and Qu'Appelle, not already dealt with by the Assembly, beg leave to report:—

1. Re Two Home Mission Executives for the Western Division of the Church.

The Committee considered the Overture from the Synod of Alberta, asking for the appointment of two Home Mission Executives. In view of the extensive changes being made this year in the organization of the mission work of the Church, it is recommended that no action be taken upon this Overture.

2. Re the appointment and standing of Supervising Pastors.

The Assembly recognizes the right of Presbyteries, if they so desire and are willing to make adequate financial provision, to appoint supervising pastors to take the oversight of Home Mission fields within their bounds.

Inasmuch as, according to the law of the Church, ministers without charge are not constituent members of Presbytery, except by action of the Assembly, such supervising pastors, on resigning their charges, cannot be given full status as members of Presbytery without special permission of the Assembly.

The Assembly desires also to make clear that any Presbyteries making such appointment are wholly responsible for their financial support and must not expect aid from the Assembly's Home Mission Committee.

In view of the administrative difficulties rising from the fact that such Presbyterial supervisors do not come under the control of the Assembly's Home Mission

[1957]

COMMITTEE ON THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OF YOUTH.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to recommend a deliverance to the Assembly on the matter of the religious education of youth, as requested in the Report of the Committee on Young People's Societies, and as sought in the overture of the Synod of Saskatchewan, which was given in and read by Principal Dyde, Convener, on whose motion, duly seconded, it was received and its recommendations were considered seriatim. Being so considered, on motion of Principal Dyde, seconded by Dr. Bryce, it was adopted. It is as follows:—

The Assembly's Committee on Young People's Societies' recommendation for appointment of commission, also overtures from Alberta and Saskatchewan:—

Resolved that this Committee recommend to the Assembly the appointment of a commission to make a thorough investigation and scientific survey of the whole subject of religious education in the Church, and with more especial reference to Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies, with a view of providing information and the framing of recommendations for a policy.

That the overture of the Synod of Saskatchewan be referred to the Committee on the supply of students, in so far as it refers to a Board of Education.

NINETEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the same day, at half past two o'clock in the afternoon,

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. Neil Leckie leading in prayer at the request of the Moderator.

The Minutes of the forenoon Sederunt were read and sustained.

OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE.

The Assembly called for the report of the Ladies' College, Ottawa, which was presented by Dr. Bryce, and which, printed and in the hands of members, he briefly called attention to in his remarks to the house. He concluded with moving that the report be received and adopted. The motion was seconded by Mr. A. H. Scott and agreed to.

REPORT re TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on preparing an estimate of the travelling expenses of Commissioners for next assembly, which was given in and read by Mr. James Rollins, Convener, on whose motion, seconded by Mr. J. S. Hardie, it was received and adopted. It is as follows:—

That the Committee on Travelling Expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly be authorized to levy sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000), among the several Presbyteries in order to meet the Travelling Expenses of Commissioners for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

It was resolved on motion of Principal Gandier, seconded by Mr. J. S. Hardie, that congregations be given credit in the column for Assembly Fund in Blue Book for all amounts contributed to Assembly Travelling Expense Fund, during the Church year ending February twenty-eighth, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

REPORT OF DEACONESSSES.

The Assembly called for the report of the Deaconess Committee, and Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home, which was presented by Dr. R. D. Fraser and to the salient points in which he called the attention of the house. He moved as follows, seconded by Mr. A. Henderson:—

That the report of the Deaconess Committee and Board of the Missionary and Deaconess Training Home be received, and that the Assembly express its gratification with the work done and the great progress made therein during the year.

The Assembly recognizes in our Order of Deaconesses an admirable and increasingly efficient band of workers in the home and foreign fields and in the special department of Social Service.

It would draw the attention of sessions and the missionary committees of the church to these trained and consecrated workers, as available in larger numbers year by year; and would urge upon the attention of the young women of our Church the work of a deaconess as a fine field of Christian service.

The resolution was carried.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO STRIKE STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Assembly proceeded to consider the report of the Committee to Strike Standing Committees, as given in at a previous sederunt. The report was considered, amended and agreed to, as a whole, as follows:—

RESOLUTION re ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE, TORONTO.

Dr. R. D. Fraser offered the following resolution, seconded by Dr. Farquharson: The Assembly learns with deep satisfaction of the continued good work for boys and young men in St. Andrew's College, and expresses its cordial appreciation of this Institution which stands not only for the thorough education of boys and young men, but for their moral and spiritual training as well. The Assembly therefore assures Principal D. Bruce MacDonald and Staff of its full confidence in this great work on behalf of the Dominion of Canada and the Church of Christ.

The resolution was adopted.

The motion was seconded by Principal Scrimger, and carried. The following are the recommendations:—

1. That Presbyteries be requested to co-operate actively with the Hymnal Committee in the work of perfecting the Book of Praise.
2. That the Assembly advise Sessions and Sabbath School workers to use all proper and available methods to secure a more general and effective singing of the Psalms and Hymns in our Book of Praise; and urge our people generally to encourage the teaching of vocal music in our public and high schools.
3. That the Hymnal Committee be instructed to confer with the Hymnal Committees of the Methodist and Congregational Churches on the possibility of issuing a common Book of Praise for these denominations.

OBITUARY NOTICES OF DOCTORS CARMICHAEL AND PATRICK.

Dr. Bryce offered to the Assembly the following resolutions, expressive of the sense of loss sustained by the Church in the decease, during the ecclesiastical year just closed, of Dr. Carmichael and Principal Patrick. They were seconded by Dr. C. W. Gordon, and carried unanimously by a standing vote.

Dr. J. A. Carmichael.

The General Assembly is greatly impressed by the unexpected death, since last meeting of the Assembly, of Rev. John A. Carmichael, D.D., the senior Superintendent of Home Missions of the Church. Dr. Carmichael served the church most acceptably in Ontario, and for thirteen years in Regina, Saskatchewan, reaching a high standard as a preacher. His influence in Regina District was quite remarkable and his work will be enduring. Dr. Carmichael's great work for the Church was as Convener and Superintendent of Home Missions. His shrewd and wise dealing with congregations and individual members of the church, his continual diligence and disregard for his own personal ease, his energy in securing missionary laborers and his wise direction of them, and his sympathetic and successful management of work among the foreigners, bring our departed Superintendent well up beside his great and distinguished predecessor, Dr. Robertson.

The Assembly directs that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mrs. Carmichael, of Winnipeg, expressing to her the sympathy of the General Assembly to herself and family.

Principal Patrick.

The General Assembly expresses its great sense of the loss of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, by the death of Rev. William Patrick, D.D., Principal of Manitoba College. Principal Patrick came from Scotland in 1900, and gave eleven years of his life to the Canadian Church, and an immeasurable amount of his service and distinguished learning to Manitoba College. This Assembly especially recalls his eminent ability as a member of Assembly, his just and considerate regard for the views and opinions of others, and his remarkable energy and alertness, suffering as he did under a continuous bodily disability.

Principal Patrick was a most self denying and unselfish man, and had a very broad and deep sympathy for the unfortunate, the suffering and the oppressed. The Assembly expresses its sympathy for the relatives and friends of the late Principal Patrick, and directs that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mr. David Patrick, of Kirkintilloch, Scotland.

LOYAL ADDRESSES.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to draft Loyal Addresses, which was given in and read by Dr. Herridge, Convener, on whose motion, seconded by Dr. R. Campbell, they were received and adopted as follows:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty:

May it please your Majesty:—

We, the members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened in the city of Edmonton, desire to express our loyalty to your person and your throne. We rejoice in the universal peace which prevails throughout your Majesty's wide domain, and in the growing importance of the part which Canada is destined to play in Imperial affairs. We gratefully acknowledge our privileges as British subjects, and we are prepared to assume the responsibilities which they impose upon us, and to do what in us lies, as a Church, to enthrone noble ideals of citizenship in this land. We pray your Majesty to accept our heartfelt wishes, for a happy solution of industrial problems, for the maintenance of British prestige in the modern world, and for your Majesty's long and prosperous rule over us.

To His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada.

The members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at its first meeting since your arrival in this land desire to extend to your Royal Highness a most hearty welcome, and to assure you that the ties which already bind us to Britain will be greatly strengthened by your appointment as His Majesty's representative amongst us.

We learned with profound regret of the threatened serious illness of Her Royal Highness, and now join in the universal rejoicing that the danger has passed and her complete recovery seems assured. We earnestly pray that you and yours may long be preserved in health and strength and that your regime as Governor-General may be a source of real pleasure to your Royal Highness, as it is of sincere gratification to the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

RESOLUTION re GWALIOR MISSION

Dr. Bryce offered the following resolution:—

That the Finance Board of the Church, after consulting the Foreign Mission Board, the Committee of Rev. Dr. Wilkie's Mission, and also the Presbyterian Church of the U.S. (North), whose interests are involved, be asked to recommend some course by which the Gwalior Mission may be if possible brought into closer connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The resolution was seconded by Principal Mackay and adopted.

REPORT ON PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO DR. R. MURRAY.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to consider the Overtures re a memorial to the late Dr. R. Murray, which was given in and read by Dr. Dey, Convener, on whose motion, seconded by the Clerk, it was received and adopted. It is as follows:—

RESOLUTION re PRINTING STITCHED REPORTS.

Dr. Somerville now offered the resolution of which he had given notice at a previous Sederunt, regarding the date of printing of the stitched reports, as follows:—

That it be an order of the General Assembly that all reports of Standing and Special Committees and all other matters for the General Assembly be forwarded to the Clerks, so as to be in their hands previous to the thirtieth day of April, that they may be printed in time to have the Stitched Reports mailed to Commissioners, so as to reach them before they require to start for the meeting of General Assembly, and thus avoid the necessity of distributing copies at the Assembly; and further that papers received after that date be not printed.

This was seconded by Dr. R. Campbell, and agreed to by the Assembly.

MANITOBA COLLEGE ACT OF INCORPORATION.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to examine the Act to incorporate the College of Manitoba, and the amending acts, which was given in and read by Dr. R. Campbell, Convener, on whose motion, seconded by Judge Forbes, it was received and adopted. It is as follows:—

Your Committee, charged with examining the proposed amendment of the act to incorporate Manitoba College, beg leave to report that there is nothing in the Act to which the Assembly can object. But the close of the preamble should run, Now therefore the Lieutenant-Governor by and with, etc.

CHANGE IN FORM OF STATISTICAL TABLES.

On motion of Dr. Somerville, seconded by Dr. R. Campbell, the Assembly sanctioned a change in the form of the Statistical table, by which space will be economized, namely; having one column only for Colleges, instead of a column for each college as at present, the treasurer's books, however, to show that contributions are sent on behalf of the Colleges severally.

LETTER OF GREETING FROM REFORMED CHURCH.

There was presented a letter of greeting from Rev. Benjamin Hoffman, of Zealand, Michigan, corresponding delegate of the Reformed Church in America, tendering to the General Assembly the assurance of the continued regard of that Church for the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and wishing this Church all success in the prosecution of its work for the Master.

The Clerk was instructed to acknowledge receipt of the communication from Mr. Hoffman, and to reciprocate the kindly sentiments to which the writer had given expression.

THE ALMONTE CHURCH PROPERTY.

There was presented a memorial from the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, asking the assent of the Assembly to the Act of the Presbytery in uniting the congregations of St. Andrew's Church and St. John's Church, Almonte, and to sanction the transfer of the property of the two Churches to the congregation formed by the union of the congregations, to be henceforth known as the Presbyterian Church, Almonte."

The following resolution moved by Mr. A. H. Scott, seconded by Principal Scrimger was adopted:

Whereas the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew recently united two congregations, within the bounds and under the jurisdiction of the said Presbytery, St.

Andrew's and St. John's, in the town of Almonte, so as to form one new congregation, to be known as the Presbyterian Church, Almonte, and by reason of the said union the said congregations of St. Andrew's and St. John's ceased to exist as separate and individual congregations;

And whereas the trust deed under which the lands, the congregational property of the said St. John's congregation, were, at the time of the said union, held, contains a provision or declaration, that, if at any time, there shall cease to be a congregation entitled to the use, benefit and enjoyment of the said lands, then and as often as that shall occur, the said lands shall thenceforth be held subject to such trust and for such purposes for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, as the General Assembly or other Supreme Court of the Church may declare, limit or appoint, and by virtue thereof and in consequence of the aforesaid union, the lands the congregational property of the said St. John's congregation are now subject to such trusts and purposes as the said General Assembly may appoint;

And whereas the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew has applied to and asked the said General Assembly to declare limit and appoint the trusts and purposes upon which the said lands the congregational property of St. John's congregation shall henceforth be held,

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, doth hereby declare, limit and appoint that all the lands, the congregational property, which the said congregation of St. John's was at the time of the aforesaid union, entitled to and which were then held in trust for it, shall henceforth be held in trust for the use, benefit, enjoyment and behoof of the congregation, newly formed by the union aforesaid, and known as the Presbyterian Church, Almonte.

LETTER FROM PROFESSOR BIELER.

There was presented and read a letter from Professor Bieler, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, calling attention to the fact that in May next, the Waldensian Church expects to inaugurate the Protestant Cathedral, just being erected, in the neighbourhood of the Vatican, Rome, as well as to the fact that the next meeting of the Evangelical Alliance is to be held in Rome, about the same time, requesting that as he and Mrs. Bieler have planned to be in Europe at that season, they be appointed to represent the Presbyterian Church in Canada at those functions. On motion of Dr. R. Campbell, duly seconded, Professor Bieler's request was acceded to.

REPORT ON THE CHURCH AND MANSE BUILDING FUND.

The Assembly called for the report of the Board of Management of the Church and Manse Building Fund, which was presented by Dr. Baird, who called attention to the salient features thereof, as printed and in the hands of members. MAITLAND CHURCH PROPERTY.

There was presented and read a petition from the Presbytery of Maitland, asking permission of the General Assembly for the trustees of the church property at Ennis-killen, Ontario, to proceed to the sale of said property. Mr. J. S. Hardie was heard in support of the petition. It was moved by Dr. Somerville, seconded by Dr. R. Campbell, and agreed, that the matter be referred to the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, to be dealt with by them.

RECORDS OF ASSEMBLY AND OF SYNODS.

The General Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to examine the Records of Assembly and Synods.

Dr. Somerville read the several reports which showed that the Record of Assembly; Synods of Maritime Province, Montreal and Ottawa, Hamilton and London, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and Honan, had been carefully and correctly kept, and it was ordered that they be attested by the Clerk in terms of the Report.

AMALGAMATION OF BUILDING FUNDS.

The recommendation of the Home Mission Committee, that the two Building Funds operating in the Western Section of the Church be amalgamated, was now taken up and on motion of Dr. Baird, seconded by Mr. J. D. Byrnes, it was agreed to. It is as follows:—

Your Committee would recommend:

That in view of the Amalgamation of Building Funds, approved by Assembly, authority be given the Church and Manse Building Board to secure such an amendment to its act of incorporation, as will permit an increase in its membership, and enable it to include the whole Western Section of the Church in its sphere of operations.

LETTER FROM THE DOMINION ALLIANCE.

There was read a communication from the President and Secretary of the Dominion Alliance, conveying to the General Assembly the greetings of the Council of the Alliance, expressing an appreciation of the work done by this church for the cause which the Alliance exists to promote, and requesting that the Assembly name four members of the Alliance Council. The Assembly instructed the Clerk to answer the communication, and authorized him to furnish the names asked for.

LETTER FROM WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

There was read a letter from the Nova Scotia Superintendent of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, asking the moral support and sympathy of the General Assembly in their efforts to stem the use of the cigarette by the boys of the Dominion, and to aid the Union in procuring legislation to check this insidious evil. On motion of Professor Baird, seconded by Principal Mackay, the Clerk was instructed to acknowledge receipt of the communication and to assure the ladies of the Union of the warmest sympathy of the Assembly and of its readiness to aid them to the utmost of its power in their efforts to combat this great and growing evil, and referred the matter for action to the Committee on Social Service and Evangelism.

OVERTURE re LITERARY DEGREES OF MINISTERS.

There was presented and read an Overture from the Presbytery of Brockville, craving that the General Assembly enact a rule that in the lists of Ministers, embraced in the Assembly Blue Book, not only that their University degrees be affixed, but also that the institution be indicated whence the degree emanated.

The Assembly agreed to receive the Overture, but declined its prayer.

OVERTURE re THE STANDARDS OF THE CHURCH.

There was presented an Overture, transmitted to the Assembly by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, respectfully requesting the General Assembly to take into its consideration the whole subject of the teaching of the Standards in the Colleges under its control and subscription thereto in licensure, ordination and induction vows, and that a deliverance be given in order that the purity and peace of our Church may be preserved," Mr. Anderson was heard in support of the Overture, and concluded with moving as follows:—

That the Overture of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces re Standards of the Church be received and referred to a Committee representing the whole Church, to be named by the Moderator, to report to the next Assembly. The motion was seconded by Mr. W. A. Cunningham, and agreed to. It was left to the Moderator and Clerks to name a committee.

TO CONSIDER OVERTURE re THE STANDARDS OF THE CHURCH.

OVERTURE re DIVORCE.

There was presented an Overture from the Session of St. Andrew's Church, Vernon, endorsed by the Presbytery of Kamloops, asking the Church, among other things to state definitely for the guidance of our own people, what they consider right in certain matters stated. Judge Swanson was heard in support of the Overture, and moved that it be received and considered. The motion was seconded.

Dr. Forrest moved an amendment that it be not received on the ground of its incompetency, inasmuch as it asks the Assembly to pronounce on hypothetical points, which are not before it, and, further, because it asks advice on matters on which the standards of the Church already afford direction. Dr. R. Campbell seconded the amendment. The Moderator gave it as his opinion that Dr. Forrest was right in his contention, nevertheless he would allow the house to deal with the matter.

The amendment, on being submitted to the Assembly was lost, and the motion was carried. It is as follows:—

That the Overture from the Presbytery of Kamloops, (page 341-2 reports), be referred to a special committee, whose report should be considered at the next meeting of Assembly:—Committee: Rev. Dr. Shearer (Convener); Rev. Prof. Laird, Principal Gandier, Mr. Justice Sutherland, Rev. J. W. Woodside.

Dr. Campbell craved leave to dissent from the finding now arrived at, as showing want of regard to the teaching of the Church's Standards on the subject. The leave was granted. Dr. Forrest and Dr. McCurdy asked to be allowed to join in the dissent, which was granted.

REPORT ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Church Property, which was presented, in the absence of the Convener, by Dr. Somerville, Clerk, on whose motion, duly seconded, it was received, and its recommendation, on the subject of a Mutual Fire Insurance Company for the Church, was adopted as follows:

[1993]

The Committee recommends that the Church should not entertain any proposal for a system of Mutual Fire Insurance, and should not, as a Church, and as a department of its work, enter upon any business of Fire Insurance.

In complying with the request of the Convener of the Committee, Sir Thomas W. Taylor, that he be not reappointed to the office, the Assembly would record its sense of the obligation under which Sir Thomas has laid it by having placed so long at its disposal, as Convener of the Committee, his ripe legal experience.

STATED COLLECTIONS.

On motion of Dr. Somerville, duly seconded, the Assembly resolved that the stated collections for the schemes of the Church in congregations in which there are no missionary associations, be made as follows:

1. French Evangelization, on the fourth Sabbath of July.
2. Assembly Fund, on the third Sabbath of August.
3. Colleges, on the fourth Sabbath of September.
4. Sabbath Schools, on Children's Day.

Ordered also, that all congregations and mission stations be enjoined to contribute to the schemes of the Church.

Further, that contributions be sent to the Treasurer of the Church in even dollars as soon as possible after the collections are taken.

VOTE OF THANKS.

It was moved by Judge Swanson, seconded by Dr. R. Campbell, that this Assembly do record its hearty thanks to the Session of First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton, for the use of the Church for Assembly purposes,—to the citizens of Edmonton, for their kind entertainment of Commissioners—and to the Press for their faithful report of the proceedings of the Assembly.

MINUTES.

It was agreed to hold the minutes of this Sederunt as read and sustained.

CLOSED.

The business being finished, the Moderator addressed the Assembly, briefly reviewing the proceedings, and after Dr. Forrest and Mr. Robert McQueen had engaged in prayer asked the Assembly to join in singing the ninety-eighth Psalm Selection, which having been sung, he said:

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, only King and Head of the Church, and by authority of the Assembly, I now dissolve this Assembly and order another General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada to meet in the City of Toronto, and within Knox Church there, on the first Wednesday in June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, at eight o'clock in the evening.

The Moderator then closed the sessions with the Apostolic benediction.

APPENDICES

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION COMMITTEE (WESTERN SECTION) 1911-1912.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly:

The Home Mission Committee in presenting their Annual Report desire to acknowledge the goodness of God for the measure of success that has attended their labors.

A YEAR OF CHANGES.

The year 1911-1912 has brought many changes to the Home Mission Committee. In the beginning of June, Dr. E. D. McLaren, who had labored so faithfully for nine years as General Secretary, feeling that the strain of his duties was greater than he could longer bear, asked permission of the General Assembly to retire from the leadership of the work which he felt was undermining his health. Fortunately for the Home Mission cause, Dr. McLaren has consented to remain a member of the Committee, and its Honorary Convener. The Committee will thus retain his counsel and have the benefit of his ripe experience.

Shortly after the General Assembly, Dr. Carmichael was laid aside with illness. Every effort was put forth by friends, and by the Home Mission Committee, in the hope that the life of this honoured and efficient Superintendent might be spared. In the early autumn, God called him home. The Committee record their sense of the great loss sustained. In the counsels of the Church at large, and on the broad field of mission work where he was most at home, he will be greatly missed. Below is an interesting table showing the growth of the mission work in Manitoba and Saskatchewan during the nine years that Dr. Carmichael was Superintendent.

	Mission Fields.	Augmented Charges.	Self- Sustaining.	Presby- teries.
1911	353	52	147	19

In addition to these 405 charges, Dr. Carmichael had oversight of the work among the Ruthenians. At the time of his death, he had established twenty-five centres among these people. The Presbyterian Church in Canada has known no more faithful son than Dr. Carmichael. Cheerfully, he spent himself in the service of his Master.

MISSION FIELDS.

A year ago there were 731 Mission Fields receiving assistance from the Home Mission Fund. During the year twenty have passed up to the Augmentation Status. In the case of twelve mission fields the development was such that they were able to become self-sustaining without the assistance of the Augmentation Fund. Some forty fields were dropped, merged into other fields, or were by the Committee on Co-operation ceded to other denominations. New fields were opened to the number of 126. Seven were returned to the Home Mission list from Augmentation. The total number of fields now on the list being ministered to by Presbyterian missionaries is 791. This is a net gain during the year of 60.

These fields are distributed as follows:

Synod of Montreal and Ottawa	58
Synod of Toronto and Kingston	119
Synod of Hamilton and London	11
Synod of Manitoba	97
Synod of Saskatchewan	260
Synod of Alberta	152
Synod of British Columbia	94
Total	791
Independent Greek Church (Ruthenian fields)	26
Total number of fields receiving help	817

FINANCES.

While the regular givings of the Church for Home Missions have been more liberal than in former years, they have not measured up to the growth of the work. The receipts for the year amounted to $215,929.13. The expenditure was $254,968.61. Your Committee, therefore, in order to pay the salaries of the missionaries, was obliged to transfer $39,039.48 from the Reserve.

THE FUTURE.

It is a matter of great satisfaction that the Budget plan has met with such unanimous approval and enthusiastic support, and the Home Mission Committee desires to express its appreciation of the splendid, unselfish service rendered by ministers and laymen throughout the Church in visiting and organizing congregations, and helping the Church to a vision of her great task.

Because of the hearty acceptance by Presbyteries and congregations of their respective allocation, your Committee feel justified in planning for bigger things during the ensuing year. All applications for missionaries could not be granted, but urgent requests of Presbyteries for new work were not declined. As the future of Home Mission work must depend upon the growth and future of Canada, in which all have faith, it was decided that the hour for larger things has struck, that a more aggressive Home Mission policy is necessary, even to hold the ground claimed.

FOREIGN POPULATION.

Without doubt the coming of so many foreign speaking people is creating for us a situation that may well be regarded as serious. There is already a large alien population in Canada, and we have now but the beginning of what is to be. The Home Mission Committee already has a number of missionaries ministering to these people in their own language. This rapidly increasing population must be provided with the means of grace. These strangers must be reached for their own sake, for the sake of Canada. "You can find the Heathen nearer" is now literally true. Foreigners are crowding about our doors. We may not overlook the opportunity that has been afforded us of ministering to those who are coming to our shores. A large proportion of this alien horde is gathering into our big centres, thus making the problem of the city one of the most perplexing. The Church must squarely face the situation. The Church dare not neglect the city, since the city will eventually dominate the nation.

SHORTAGE OF MISSIONARIES.

A serious handicap to our work is the shortage of properly qualified men to minister in our mission fields. Last winter fully 180 mission charges had to be closed. For next autumn the prospects for winter supply are not brighter than a year ago. The college students will leave the fields October 1st. Who will take their places? The expedient has been tried by the Committee of sending representatives to the Old Land to secure men. Many of these catechists have rendered good service, but for the most part the men secured are untrained, inexperienced, without college standing, and enter the work seriously handicapped. After giving this policy a fair trial, your Committee do not deem it wise to continue it. At the same time we feel that summer supply and winter neglect is a wasteful policy. The ground gained during the summer is lost in the winter. Habits formed during the winter are not easily broken. A community left without the means of grace for seven or eight months readily drifts into carelessness and irreligion.

More permanency is required in our mission work. This will necessitate more Ordained Missionaries and more homes to which these missionaries might take their families. Last year your Committee spent $5,700 in assisting mission fields in the erection of manses. In no case did the amount given exceed $300. Twenty-three mission charges received assistance in building a house for the Minister. The Committee feel that money was never spent to better advantage.

THE MISSIONARIES.

Of the Missionaries as a class we cannot speak too highly. No figures can tabulate what our Church and the country owes the noble band of Home Missionaries. Many of them labour under great difficulties, in obscure places, and suffer severe privation. The mere record of the stations occupied and the miles traversed in going between but feebly tells the story of their lives, and but inadequately records the contribution they are making to the upbuilding of Canada, and the extension of the Kingdom of God.

SALARIES OF MISSIONARIES.

As will be seen from one of the recommendations, your Committee decided that the salaries of our Home Missionaries must be increased. Doubtless there are reasons for the shortage of ministers, but one cause, "A main one and a plain one," is the smallness of the salary. There are so many inviting openings in other callings where remuneration is so much better; that parents have not encouraged their sons to study for the ministry. We frequently hear that remuneration should not count with intending candidates for the ministry. Those who speak thus, forget the lengthened course of studies, the outlay for at least seven years, and the difficulty, on the present low stipend, of maintaining the manse, with all its traditions of hospitality. It will be an evil day when men are attracted to the pulpit for the hope of gain; but the Church must see to it that the ministers, and student missionaries as well, are provided with sufficient to enable them to give their whole time and energy to the care of souls.

From our missionaries we hear little complaint; for the most part they suffer in noble and heroic silence. This does not relieve the Church of duty. The burden must be shared.

OUTFITS.

To help the student missionaries, the Committee decided that, hereafter, the outfit required by student missionaries be provided by the mission field, or, in cases where the field is financially too weak, by the Home Mission Committee. Herebefore, the student was responsible for procuring the outfit necessary. He was asked to purchase a horse at the dearest time, and sell at the cheapest. If he lacked the experience needful in making a good bargain, the student returned to college with little money, after a summer's work.

UNIFICATION OF MISSION WORK.

Your Committee, at their Annual Meeting, discussed at length the question, remitted by the Assembly to the Committees interested, of the amalgamation of funds for the prosecution of religious work in Canada, and agreed to approve of such unification, provided this united work be carried on along the same general lines as now govern the work of the Home Mission Committee, and provided that the Committee that is given oversight of the various interests be fully representative.

The Committee considered the remit from the Assembly in regard to the uniting of the East and the West for mission work, and approved the proposal.

AMALGAMATION OF BUILDING FUNDS.

The Home Mission Committee decided, in the event of the unification of mission work, to recommend to the Assembly that the various Building Funds of the Church be amalgamated—brought under one management, and be governed by one and the same set of rules and conditions.

The following was the finding of the Committee:

"1. That, should the Committees interested approve, the following Funds be brought together into a Common Fund; The Church and Manse Building Fund for Manitoba, and the other Western Provinces; the Fund for the purpose of assisting in the erection of Churches in New Ontario; the $25,000 Fund for the purpose of assisting in the erection of Manses or the purchase of Church and Manse sites; the Augmentation Building Fund and the Building Fund under the management and control of the Committee on French Evangelization.

2. That this Fund, if possible, be increased to $500,000, and that one-third of the whole amount be available for the purchase of Church and Manse sites, and two-thirds for assisting in the building of Churches and Manses.

3. That, in all cases, money be loaned, but without interest, unless otherwise determined."

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

Many overtures were before the Home Mission Committee, advising as to the best manner of supervising mission fields. After long and careful consideration, your Committee decided to recommend that the Assembly provide for a close supervision of the mission fields by Superintendents of Districts; these Superintendents to oversee all the work for which our Church is responsible in their respective districts.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The report of the Women's Home Missionary Society, which appears on another page, is of a most encouraging nature. The amount raised during the year was $38,687.15. 156 new organizations were added during the year, making a total of 650. A special effort is to be made in 1912 to increase the auxiliaries to 1,000, and the Presbyterials to 50.

During the year just closed, the Women's Home Missionary Society have provided for nine mission fields, contributing for the maintenance of each $250. This year, they have assumed responsibility for eleven fields, and, in addition, are undertaking the support of the Loggers' Mission on the B. C. Coast. The services of Rev. W. H. Burgess and Mr. W. W. Kennedy, a medical man, have been secured. They will take charge of a launch, visit the logging camps, preach the gospel, carry literature, medical supplies, and give help wherever help is needed.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF MONTREAL.

Your Committee are deeply grateful for the interest shown and the support given by the Women's Missionary Society of Montreal. Last year this Society provided for eight mission fields, while for 1912, the support of nine has been promised. In addition, bales of clothing are sent to needy districts.

GRANTS FROM THE BRITISH CHURCHES.

The contributions from the Churches in Scotland and Ireland amounted to $6,097.59. These are not as liberal as the donations of some years ago. One reason is, doubtless, the growing conviction in these Churches that a great and rich country like Canada should be able to take care of herself. Another reason for the diminution doubtless is, that the Churches in Scotland and Ireland find it difficult to give us both of their money and their members. Of their sons and daughters, they are giving us of their best. We gladly welcome these from the Motherland. May they come in increasing numbers! We need their help if successfully we are to assimilate, civilize and Canadianize the crowds from foreign lands that are spilling over on our shores.

STUDENT MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

As in other years, these Societies have contributed greatly to the success of Home Missions—by raising funds; by giving information about the fields and by helping the Home Mission Committee to secure missionaries for the mission fields. After conference between the General Superintendent and the representatives of the various College Societies, a closer relationship has been entered into between the Home Mission Committee and the Societies.

This summer Knox College Society will take charge of 35 mission fields; ten will be supported by Queen's Missionary Association, and seven by Montreal College Missionary Society.

AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MONTREAL.

The Committee again records its gratitude to the minister and members of the American Presbyterian Church for the assistance given our Home Mission work. Last year twenty missions were maintained by this one congregation. The sum contributed was $5,000.

PRESBYTERY CONVENERS.

The Home Mission Committee, at its recent meeting, passed a resolution in appreciation of the splendid volunteer service being rendered the Home Mission cause and the Church at large by the Presbyteries' Home Mission Conveners.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are the recommendations:

1. That the Eastern and Western Sections of the Church be united for purposes of mission work in Canada.
2. That all mission work on Canadian soil, for which the Western Section of the Presbyterian Church is responsible, be brought under one Board.
3. That the Assembly authorize the appointment, for the supervision of all mission work on Canadian soil, of ten Superintendents, who shall have oversight of districts, and be known as "District Superintendents."
4. That the different Funds for the purchase of sites for Churches and Manses, and for assistance in the erection of Manses and Church Buildings, be amalgamated, and placed under one Board to be appointed by the General Assembly, and that this Fund be augmented to at least $500,000.

5. That the Assembly approve of the proposal to unite the different Women's Missionary Societies of the Western Section of the Church into one Women's Missionary Society.

6. That the salaries of District Superintendents shall be: For unmarried men, $1,800, and for married men, $2,250, with $50 increase each year until a maximum of $2,000 is reached for unmarried men, and $2,400 for married men.

That those who have already served three years be entitled to the maximum salary as suggested.

7. That the salaries of missionaries shall be: (a) For Catechists, as at present. (b) For students, $10.00 per week and board, and that this scale begin April the 1st, 1912. (c) For Ordained Missionaries in Old Ontario and Quebec, married men $950 and a house, and unmarried men, $900. For New Ontario and the West, $1,000 and a house for married men, and $950 for unmarried men, and that this scale take effect from January 1, 1913.

8. That the student's salary ($10.00 per week), be paid only to missionaries who have attended one session in a University or College, and secured at least one year's standing in one of the courses prescribed by the General Assembly for candidates for the ministry.

9. That hereafter the outfit required by a student missionary be provided by the field, or, in cases where the field is financially too weak, by the Home Mission Committee.

10. That the Assembly rescind the resolution, authorizing the ordination of Catechists and Students.

11. That the estimates of Young People's Societies and Sunday Schools be included in the Budget.

12. That the following be the regulation governing the payment of travelling expenses of missionaries:

(1) Ordained Missionaries.—Missionaries appointed to this class of field have their travelling expenses paid one way only, and subject to the acceptance of a two-years' appointment.

(2) Catechists.—Same as above, with the exception that in this case the term is for one year.

(3) Student Missionaries.—Travelling expenses of missionaries, to this class of field, from all points in Canada or the United States, are paid to and from their fields of labor, provided they serve for a term of at least five months.

(4) Missionaries From Overseas.—Same as above, according to the class of field. Expenses paid only on Canadian soil.

Students attending the summer session in Westminster Hall and giving one year's continuous service or two consecutive winters' service shall have their fare paid to Vancouver and return, as well as from the college to the mission field.

Incidental Expenses:—

From all points in Ontario and Quebec to points in Manitoba, $6.00.

From all points in Ontario and Quebec to points in Saskatchewan, $10.00.

From all points in Ontario and Quebec to points in Alberta, $12.00.

From all points in Ontario and Quebec to points in Eastern B. C., $14.00.

From all points in Ontario and Quebec to points on the Pacific Coast, $16.00.

Students from the Maritime Provinces will be allowed $4.00 in addition to the above sums.

In the case of married missionaries under a two years' appointment, and catechists under a one year's appointment, their wives are allowed railway transportation and two-thirds of the above amounts for incidental expenses.

Any missionary refusing appointment from Presbytery Conveners or ceasing to labor under the direction of the Committee before the expiration of his term shall be required to refund such proportion of the above expenses as may be deemed just by the Committee.

General Regulations:—

The expenses of missionaries from one field to another in the same Presbytery or from one field to another in the same Synod, shall not be paid unless when a missionary is asked to accept an appointment to another field in the interests of the work.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. H. EDMISON,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

In presenting this, the Ninth Annual Report of the Women's Home Missionary Society, we desire to gratefully acknowledge God's goodness to us and the many evidences of His guiding power during the year just closed.

Advancement, development, and expansion mark every department of the work.

Evangelistic.—This includes eleven Home Mission Fields in New Ontario and the West, Deaconess' work in Winnipeg, Edmonton, and the Kootenay—Childerhose Memorial Fund, from which emergency assistance is given to Home Mission Conveners in Northern Ontario, in the form of small loans, the sending of libraries and literature to Sabbath Schools in rural districts, and Lumber, Mining, and Construction Camps, and also supplying needy mission fields with suitable clothing.

Medical.—There are now five hospitals and two Mission Houses, where medical missionary work is carried on, located at follows: Atlin, B. C.; Teulon, Manitoba; Vegreville, Alberta; Wakaw, Sask.; Telegraph Creek, B.C.; Sifton, Manitoba; Ethelbert, Man., and Grand Prairie, Peace River District, the work at the latter place being in co-operation with the well-known pioneer missionary, Rev. Alexander Forbes.

Some time ago he made an appeal for a Hospital, and plans are now being considered for the erection of a small Pioneer Hospital at Grand Prairie. Mr. Forbes has very generously donated the site for the building. At Wakaw, the new hospital is in course of erection.

Twenty nurses comprise the hospital staff. They all serve in lonely, isolated places, where the greater part of the work is located, because they love to serve, and are willing to be spent in His service, regardless of personal consideration or convenience.

The work in the pioneer hospital and that of the pioneer nurse are synonymous with practical Christianity of the highest type. Many a sufferer while being ministered to in the Home Mission Hospitals has found his Saviour, and many another has been re-claimed after years spent in prodigality in the cities, or on the lonely prairies of our great Canadian West.

Educational.—The problem of giving the children of foreigners and others, who live in the outlying districts of the West, the advantages of a Public School education, has been at least partially solved, by the opening of two boys' homes at Vegreville, Alberta, and one at Tuelon, Manitoba.

They are meeting an urgent need by helping about sixty boys to secure an education at the Public School; by surrounding them with Christian influences; by teaching them the value of discipline, obedience, industry, and diligence and the necessity for co-operation on their part if they expect to retain the helpful interest of their benefactors in their welfare.

The parents or guardians of the boys are expected as far as possible, to contribute towards both their tuition and board, and have, up to the present time, met their obligations fairly well. We feel that this work of educating the children of the incoming peoples is of such vital importance, that it deserves our fullest sympathy and support.

Rev. Geo. Arthur, M.D., supervises the work of the two homes at Vegreville, Alberta, and Rev. A. J. Hunter, M.D., that of the one at Tuelon, Manitoba.

The same educational advantages and home training are extended to a number of girls domiciled in the hospitals and the Mission Houses.

Benevolent.—Supplies of all kinds (hospital, household, and personal), were sent out during the year to needy Home Mission Fields, Hospitals, and Mission Houses, as well as relief to those who suffered loss during the disastrous fires in Northern Ontario.

Many letters of appreciation were received from missionaries and others, telling of the comfort and benefit such gifts had been to the sufferers and the cause, thus showing that the message of loving helpfulness never fails to breathe its divine intent.

In the sending out of supplies, great caution is exercised, lest there be any tendency to pauperize the indigent.

Administrative.—One hundred and fifty-six new organizations were added during the year, making a total of six hundred and fifty, of this number nine were Presbyterian Societies.

The Home Mission Pioneer has a circulation of 17,810, an increase over last year of 2,600.

The amount raised from all sources during the year is $38,687.15, an increase over last year of $7,903.04.

Amount raised since the organization of the Women's Home Missionary Society in 1903, is $163,280.97; estimate for next year is $45,202.00.

A donation of $8,000 is available for the erection of a memorial hospital in the Middle West as soon as a desirable location is secured.

Corresponding Secretary W. H. M. S.

NEW ONTARIO.

The Land.—The time is almost here when no intelligent Presbyterian will need to be told that New Ontario is larger than any Province in the Dominion except Quebec or British Columbia. It is also a well-known fact that New Ontario has placed Canada first among the nickel, and third among the silver-producing countries of the world, while the promise of gold already amounts to a prophecy of great things, and according to Government reports nearly forty per cent. of the total timber cut in the Dominion comes from the forests of New Ontario. But to the wealth of mine and forest we must now add that of the farm, for upon its agricultural possibilities, as well as upon the wealth of its wooded hills and moneyed mountains, does the future of this country depend. Within its boundaries are many fertile valleys, one of which, the great clay belt, in a latitude almost altogether south of Winnipeg, is larger than the whole of Old Ontario, and is said to be one of the richest agricultural plains in Canada.

Railways.—This country is being traversed by the three great transcontinental lines, the C. P. R., following the Lake Shore route; the G. T. P., passing through the sixteen million acre clay belt; the C. N. R., lying between and running through mineral areas and agricultural districts. Add to these their branch lines, together with the T. & N. O., the A. C. R., the M. N. S., etc., and we are prepared for the statement that between 28,000 and 32,000 men will be employed in railway construction in New Ontario during this summer.

The People.—A few years ago this country was the home of the Indian and the moose, particularly that part lying north of the C. P. R., but the attraction of copper and nickel, silver and gold, pulp and pine, or was it the "Lure of the Wild" brought prospectors, bush rangers, and adventurers by the thousand. Valuable discoveries having been made these were followed by the mechanic and the merchant, the professional man and the homesteader, until the population has increased many hundred fold during the last decade. These newcomers are of almost every tribe and nation—Russians, Austrians, Germans, Finlanders, Norwegians, Swedes, Poles, Icelanders, Turks, Hindus, Roumanians, Chinese, Mohammedans, and many others. There is also the quiet settler, the keen business man, glowing with youthful enthusiasm, the University graduate, and the "younger son." It is no easy task to give the message of our Father's love to the lonely homesteader, the roaming prospector, who has "hit" a hundred trails, to the laborer in railroad or lumbering camp, to the man who is blinded by his intense passion for wealth, or the chap who has lost his grip and feels that no one cares. This giving His message is indeed a difficult task, but it is the problem the Church must face in this new land. What is being done to solve the problem?

The Work.—There are one hundred and three mission fields and augmented charges in New Ontario. Many of those in the Presbyteries of Barrie and North Bay are tourist centres or old established places with little prospect of growth, and yet too much stress cannot be placed upon the importance of the work in those sections of our country from which the young people are moving, for if they are looked after as boys and girls, they prove to be the men and women upon whom we can depend to establish righteousness in the newer districts. Let the minister and Sunday School worker who sometimes feel that they are fighting a losing battle be encouraged by the thought that they are sending out laborers who will faithfully do their part in lonely prairie town or godless mining camp.

In Algoma we have the old and the new. Most of the fields on the Manitoulin Island and many on the North Shore were established in Doctor Findlay's day, but the last few years have seen a renewed activity in this Presbytery, not only in building churches and manses and increased givings to stipend and schemes, but in the establishment of a number of new fields.

In Temiskaming everything is new. This baby Presbytery is not yet three years old and already twenty-three men are required to carry on the church work in its thriving towns and to plant the blue banner of truth on the outposts of Ontario's civilization. There are about seventy preaching places covering a territory of over four hundred miles, a distance greater than that between Winnipeg and Regina or Edmonton and the Peace River Country. Two of our important points, namely Cochrane and Porcupine, suffered severely in the fire of July, 1911. Not only were the churches burned, but practically all the members of the congregations lost their homes and many their possessions. Shortly after the fire I met with Mr. Sinclair and his managers on the platform of the Cochrane station, and the following day with Mr. McLennan in Porcupine. I found our men undaunted by the terrible disaster, and bravely facing the future with firmness and faith. Thanks to the assistance of the few who responded to the Moderator's appeal on our behalf, the work is again established. Churches, bigger and better, have been built and dedicated; Porcupine on November 26th, 1911, and Cochrane on January 14th, 1912. It is interesting to note that our Porcupine Church was the first of any denomination, Catholic or Protestant, dedicated in the district. Manses have also been erected at both places where, through the hospitality provided by the minister and his wife, many a lonely lad will be cheered and saved to the clean and Christlike life.

In this Presbytery we were able to co-operate so successfully with the Methodist friends as to serve the whole district without any overlapping except on two fields.

Everywhere throughout Northern Ontario the work has been well maintained. Seven new fields have been added to our list and considerable progress made in church and manse building as well as increased givings to the missionary's salary, while two of the Presbyteries surpassed the amount allocated them under the 1911 budget by about twenty per cent. By a judicious grouping of the fields fairly good winter supply was given, and, considering the severe weather, real progress has been made. The need of a closer oversight, however, is necessary if the best results are to be obtained. To meet this need, we have determined that every field shall be visited at least once a year. Despite the fact that there are only about four self-supporting congregations to every twenty-five mission fields, the various Presbyteries have enthusiastically entered into the scheme. The plan adopted is that each ordained man shall have the oversight of a certain number of fields, where he shall be responsible not only for dispensing the Sacraments, but for organizing the finances and shall also report to the Convener and Superintendent. The expenses incurred by the visiting minister, including, if necessary, pulpit supply, shall be paid by the Home Mission Committee.

The Foreigner.—Little or nothing has been done for the thousands of strangers pouring into this district, yet here as elsewhere the giving of the Message to the man of foreign tongue and strange ideal is one of the big problems of the Church. However, an experiment is being tried this year at Sellwood by the Reverend Mr. Malcolm, which gives indications of success. He is teaching them English by the "Roberts" system, beginning with a class of four, which in three weeks increased to forty. Not only does he find them interested in, but quick to learn our language affording him an opportunity to inculcate into their lives the spirit that was in Jesus.

Lumber Camp Work.—Lumber camps are occasionally visited by the representatives of the various churches and those employed by the W. C. T. U., the Shanty-men's Christian and Reading Camp Associations, but there is no sympathetic effort covering the whole field. Consequently we feel that the work is not being adequately handled by us or any one else. Experience has demonstrated that the spasmodic and occasional visit of a missionary does not solve the lumber camp problem, even though he brings with him a message of brotherly love and a goodly supply of literature, for in many cases the men can neither understand the speaker nor read the literature. We think the territory should be divided among the organizations laboring in this field, letting each look after that locality assigned to it by the co-operating Committee. The camps should be visited at least once a week in order to get in close touch with the men, gain their confidence and win their esteem not only by teaching them our language, but by providing a rendezvous for them in the lumbering towns when the camp breaks up or the drive comes in. Thus in helping them to be good citizens we are making them better men and more like Him who taught us to say "Our Father."

The Outlook.—The outlook in New Ontario is comparatively bright. Many of the older fields under a closer supervision and better organization give promise of definite progress, while in the growing districts we look for a number going up to augmentation and self-support.

The completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern Railways will open up a lot of new territory in Temiskaming, North Bay, and Algoma. The impetus given by the railroads together with the spending of $5,000,000 by the Provincial Government in exploring and developing New Ontario bespeaks an even greater inrush of people, thus intensifying the work, consequently if this problem is to be solved, the Church must enthusiastically support the Committee and see to it that adequate salaries are provided in order that we may procure good men, men who are strong and sane and Christlike. Send this type of men into the mission fields and the problem will be solved and righteousness established in the land.

J. D. BYRNES.

MANITOBA.

Any report of the condition of Home Missions within the Synod of Manitoba must begin with a reference to the great loss sustained by the death of the late Superintendent, Rev. Dr. Carmichael. With rare devotion and splendid tact Dr. Carmichael gave liberally of his energies to the broader enterprises of the Church from the very outset of his ministry in the West. His whole-hearted service to Home Missions in the far-extending Presbytery of Regina, caused Western minds at least to turn to him as the natural successor of Dr. Robertson. Under his wise superintendence the work developed until it was far beyond the power of any one man to supervise. The Church was slow to realize the tremendous drain being made upon her faithful uncomplaining servant. When illness came the power of resistance was insufficient, and Dr. Carmichael grounded his arms amid universal sorrow, too late, however, to avail for the upbuilding of our great Western mission work.

Entering upon the work in the month of November, I have to acknowledge, that though long associated with Home Mission interests, I have not fully grasped the situation in all its details. Permit me, however, to refer to general conditions, introducing such details as may seem worthy of notice.

The Synod of Manitoba is gradually ceasing to be the great Home Mission field of our Church, though the recently added territory will remove from the map of Canada the "postage stamp" appearance of Manitoba, and at the same time restore something of her former Home Mission glory. The opening too of the Transcontinental Railway through Northern Ontario, will open up additional Home Mission territory, and assist in adding the vigor of youth to our Home Mission problems. The Presbytery of Superior, though in Ontario, belongs to the Synod of Manitoba. This Presbytery extends from White River to the Manitoba boundary, a distance of five hundred and fifty miles, and includes fourteen missions. The Grand Trunk Railway running north from Fort William to meet the main line will open up new territory for Home Missions. Near the junction of this branch with the main line is the rapidly rising town of Graham. To this place a missionary should have been sent a year ago, but men were scarce. The forces of evil are already strongly entrenched at this point, much headway has already been gained, and we have here a wide-open town in the middle of a wilderness. A strong man is sorely needed.

Another post that we must care for is Nipegon. This is an old town, an old Hudson Bay post, and for many years a popular resort for summer tourists. For the past two or three years it has been the base of operations for one of the large transcontinental construction companies, who utilize the water stretches to transport supplies north to the Grand Trunk Pacific. The old post has taken on new life. A number of splendid Presbyterian families reside here, willing to support ordinances liberally, not merely for their own sake, but for the sake of others. There are two thousand five hundred men employed by this company within forty-five miles of Nipegon. Free transportation over their tram line is offered to the missionary who will visit these camps. Men are constantly in evidence from these camps in the town, and the right man placed here could wield a mighty influence for the uplift of humanity. We have a neat church at Nipegon, and the people are prepared to build a manse, should a missionary be sent who needs one. We require a man spiritually, intellectually, and physically fit, for the field will give scope for the exercise of large energy to the man who has the spirit to undertake big things. Last summer a student from Manitoba College Missionary Society occupied the field, and the only supply during this long winter has been that afforded by the members of St. Paul's Brotherhood of Port Arthur. Schreiber is an old field, and will be self-sustaining for a Home missionary. This congregation would become an augmented charge with a trifling grant. The rural districts of this Presbytery need not receive individual mention. Progress has been good, though not as rapid as in some of the prairie sections. Many flourishing fields, however, have been carved out of this wilderness territory, that bid fair to be of great importance to the Church. Unfortunately many of the fields of this Presbytery have been vacant during winter.

Winnipeg Presbytery covers more than half the territory of Manitoba Province as constituted at present. It is a great Home Mission Presbytery. In many of its fields progress has been slow. Circumstances have militated against rapid development—supply from college during winter—sparsely settled districts—proximity to Winnipeg preventing the growth of near-by towns—the presence of the foreigner, and lack of adequate supervision are among the retarding influences. There is abundance of work in this Presbytery for a pastor at large, in addition to the work that a superintendent can do. The mere clerical work of the Home Mission Convener is in itself a greater tax on the time and energy of the Convener than any one man in a settled charge should be subjected to.

Rock Lake, Glenboro, Portage la Prairie, Minnedosa, and Brandon Presbyteries have much in common from the Home Mission standpoint. These Presbyteries are becoming well settled, the mission fields steadily diminishing, giving place to augmented and self-sustaining charges. Of five fields in Minnedosa two are ready for augmentation. By re-arrangement Portage la Prairie has reduced its fields to four or five. Glenboro has only two, and Brandon and Rock Lake have their work well in hand. When we pass north into Dauphin Presbytery we find ourselves in entirely new conditions. The country here is rugged, in many places well wooded, splendid hills, dignified by the name of mountains, lend beauty to the landscape, and beautiful rivers traverse the whole land. The soil is rich and settlement is progressing. The mission work is well in hand, and while difficulties in transportation long retarded progress in this north land, the Canadian Northern Railway has extended its branches through the fertile valleys, placing markets within easy reach, and infusing new life into every community. As in Winnipeg, the foreigner is largely in evidence in Dauphin Presbytery. But if properly tilled by faithful husbandmen, this Presbytery will soon yield a magnificent harvest for the church. New mission fields must be opened up for many years to come. This Presbytery will long remain a missionary Presbytery, making large demands for men and money. From the Hudson Bay Junction, a point thirty miles over the border into Saskatchewan, a line of railway branches northeast, crossing the boundary with Manitoba at Turnberry fifty miles from the Junction, and is in operation for thirty-seven miles beyond Turnberry, as far as Le Pas on the south bank of the Saskatchewan. Here, too, a town is springing up. Vast lumber interests are found at Le Pas, and a large body of men are employed. Our Church has not placed a missionary here as yet, but conditions here must be examined into and the territory pre-empted for the Master, or the Adversary will occupy it for the promotion of his own special business.

A few years ago the great problem of the Home Mission Committee was rural. It is now rapidly becoming urban. The Synod of Manitoba has five cities—Port Arthur, Fort William, Winnipeg, Portage la Prairie, and Brandon, with an aggregate population of a quarter of a million, the largest urban population of any Synod in the West. To these centres our rural population is steadily gravitating. Hordes of foreigners are drifting in. Many are coming too from Eastern Canada, and the Old Land, and all with the desire of bettering their temporal condition. We find a strong tendency on the part of many even from Christian homes to hold aloof from the Church in these cities, or at least very slow to assume active responsibility. If this be true of those from the home land coming to us with Christian training and Anglo-Saxon traditions, what may we expect from those coming from Russia, Austria, Finland, Hungary, and other continental regions. We need only revert to these facts to realize the stupendous character of the problem now on hand in relation to our city life. Whether this problem be left for solution to the Home Mission Committee, the Committee on Social Service, or whether we speak of it under the somewhat misty title of "the problem of the city," it is certain that conditions exist that call loudly for strenuous effort, and the best wisdom our Church can bring to its solution. The greed of gain through the manipulation of real estate in all our larger centres is doing much to complicate the situation, and render solution more difficult. The common laborer can only by dint of long and arduous struggle purchase a city lot or own his own home. The best of the labouring class desire, and deserve this degree of independence, but thousands are so handicapped that they have not wherewith to support gospel ordinances, and many of our best and most independent spirits hold aloof from the Church rather than increase their financial obligations by church attendance. The problem of the city is a far-reaching one. Our people must be cared for, and large donations from those who have amassed fortunes from the "unearned increment," should be forthcoming for the building of churches, and the support of the Gospel in the sections of our cities filled with the toiling masses. If not then a new generation foreign to the Church will spring from the very sons of the Church.

We rejoice that some who have grown rich through industry or speculation, are recognizing the claims of the Church, and while we have noble examples of Christian liberality in the ranks of the comparatively poor, we are compelled to confess that many who have "done well," yes exceedingly well, are rigidly loyal to the standard of giving they set for themselves years ago. It is only fair to say that the demands of heavy pastoral charges, and the rise of city problems, are so occupying the minds and hearts of city pastors, that the rural mission is easily overlooked, hence the necessity of the pastor at large for the districts surrounding our larger centres.

It has been a great encouragement in the midst of much worldliness to meet with men on so many of our mission charges possessed of a fine spirit of devotion to the Master's service, and some anxious to have their boys led by the Spirit into the Gospel ministry. Requests for prayer that boys may be so led, from Christian parents comes as sweet incense to the soul of the discouraged superintendent, and fills him with hope for the future of the Church. These are oases in the broad desert. The great majority have other aims for their sons, and the sons themselves are not likely to rise much above the aims of their parents.

With regard to the foreign work among Ruthenians and others, in which Dr. Carmichael was so deeply interested. I have little to say. Personal knowledge does not enable me to make any contribution that would be of any value to the Church, so I leave this phase of our work to those who know it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

S. C. MURRAY,

NORTHERN SASKATCHEWAN.

The Presbytery of Yorkton has two self-supporting congregations, two augmented charges, and thirty-six missions, or 112 preaching stations. Five of these are new missions. Nineteen missions had preaching all winter 1911-12. Four new churches and three manses were built. The missions did not do well, financially, owing to the crop being frozen.

The Presbytery of Prince Albert has four self-supporting congregations and twenty-one mission fields, or 69 preaching stations. Ten missions had preaching all winter. There were four new churches built last summer. Good work was done in Prince Albert Presbytery last summer. When the Hudson Bay line is completed there will be a great many more missions opened in this Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Saskatoon has five self-supporting congregations, two augmented charges, and 23 mission fields, or 65 preaching stations, one new field. If we can get all the ordained men we want there will be only eleven student mission fields. With the exception of four missions there was preaching in the rest of them all winter. Six were worked by the students attending the University at Saskatoon. Two churches and two manses were built during the summer.

In the Presbytery of Battleford there are two self-supporting congregations, three augmented charges, and 56 missions, or 168 preaching stations. Ten of these are new fields. Radisson and Scott were given the augmentation status, and Wilkie has applied for it. This Presbytery covers a very large territory, and will shortly be divided into two.

WORK AMONG FOREIGN POPULATION.

The hospital at Wakaw is doing good work among the Ruthenians, and if we are going to reach this people it will be in this way rather than by the preaching of their own men, unless we train them to speak English so that they can understand our thoughts and ideas. As it is impossible for us to know what they are teaching and preaching.

The Hungarian Missions at Otthon, Touchwood, and Plunkett report progress. There is a good attendance and a deep interest shown.

M. F. MUNRO.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The work of our Church has been carried on during the year with characteristic energy and gratifying results. Amid persevering toil the Word of God has been preached with faith in the promise He hath given "concerning His Word" that it "shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please and prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

There were two outstanding features in the industrial world which had a decided effect upon the work of the Church. One was the strike among the miners in the Crows Nest Pass. For months the mines were closed and idleness everywhere prevailed. This affected the merchants and reduced their business enormously. The evil effects extended to a much larger area than that in which the strike was. With the mines closed the smelters were without coke, and they had to close. Without furnaces for smelting the produce of the mines was worthless, and the copper mines were forced to close. Thus stagnation of business pervaded the whole of the Kootenay. The marvel is that the organization of the various congregations did not suffer more than they did, but such conditions could not prevail without the missionary work suffering greatly. It is gratifying to know that since the first of 1912, all are again being operated, and it is hoped that soon the work of the Church will regain its former proportions.

The second feature was the development which took place on the lower mainland, in the vicinity of Vancouver and the Fraser River Valley. The influx of settlers into this district necessitated the opening of new missions and the progress made here was an offset to the depressing conditions in the Kootenay.

NUMBER OF FIELDS.

The number of fields on the list at the beginning of the year was 80. During the year nineteen were opened. Two of these were in Victoria Presbytery, eleven in Westminster Presbytery, and three each in Kamloops and Kootenay Presbyteries. One field, Powell River, in Westminster Presbytery, became self-supporting, and called Rev. J. A. Dow, of Rossland. St. Paul's, in Vancouver, became an augmented charge, and Hunker, in the Yukon, was dropped from the list, thus leaving 96 fields for the current year.

NEW CHURCHES.

New churches were erected at Aldergrove, Fort George, South Fort George, Kerrisdale, South Hill, St. David's, and Lynn Valley, all in Westminster Presbytery; also at Burton in Kootenay Presbytery, Parksville in Victoria Presbytery, and Okanagan Landing in Kamloops Presbytery.

Special mention should be made of the splendid work which has been done by Rev. C. M. Wright, our missionary at Fort George, who, with his bride, went in October of 1911 to Fort George. Since his arrival he has gathered around him two congregations, one at Fort George and the other at South Fort George. At both places churches have been erected, and the work of organization has been carried on with considerable success. This hardly reveals all the labors and discouragements with which Mr. Wright has had to contend, but the work done will reflect on Mr. Wright and the Presbyterian Church for years to come. It has been of the greatest importance to the Church that at the critical period she has had the services of one so well qualified to represent her in this important undertaking.

Work has been carried on among the men in the construction camps on the G. T. Pacific, where the line crosses the boundary line from Alberta. Here Rev. R. J. McLean has labored, going from camp to camp holding services and performing acts of ministry where opportunity offered, in order that the men might be brought into closer association with Him who was the Saviour of the World. In fact, wherever our missionaries are laboring and the work of construction is being carried on they are desirous of doing what they can for the men in the camps. This is specially true of the men who are situated along the banks of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers, where the C. N. R. is building its line.

THE OUTLOOK.

There is every reason to believe that the great missionary era of this Synod is before us. There is first the recently announced railway policy of the Government whereby over 800 miles of new road are to be built in territory where hitherto there has been none. This new policy, which was endorsed at the recent election, will mean that hundreds of square miles of territory hitherto inaccessible will be brought into accessibility, and thousands of people will find their way into regions which up to the present have remained uninhabited. It is proposed to place three additional men along the line of the G. T. P. to be stationed at Telqua, Fraser Lake, and South Fort George. Men of strong personality and intense religious conviction are needed to man these places which are of strategic importance. For the support of Fraser Lake, the Y. P. S. C. E., of Mount Pleasant Church, Vancouver, has guaranteed the sum of $1,200.00 annually, a record worthy of emulation.

The reports of the immigration bureau point to the fact that British Columbia looms largely in the minds of intending settlers. For the year 1901 the number of settlers entering Canada, destined for British Columbia, was 2,600. For the year 1911, it was 54,689, a great increase in ten years. It is easily to be seen that this ratio will increase rather than diminish. Added to these there is the new interest that is being taken in the rich fishing industry in the waters of the Pacific. To meet these requirements an added force is being secured to do the work, which until lately has been done by Mr. McAulay, among the loggers only. It is proposed to appoint two men, one a medical missionary and the other an ordained missionary to carry on this work on institutional lines, establishing libraries, reading rooms, and conducting night classes where opportunity offers.

Owing to the general physical features of the country, valleys separated by high mountains, and the great area now being opened up to the settler, the population of these newer districts must be sparsely distributed until the local industries are established. This will render missionary work not only more difficult, but also more costly.

It is a peculiar characteristic of a new country that the rougher its physical features and the more dangerous its occupations, the more indifferent the people are to religious things, and the more open and flagrant the vices. This is true of British Columbia. There is, therefore, the greater necessity of the Church, with her high moral standard and positive message of salvation, strongly entrenching herself on the frontier, that lawlessness and lust may not go unchecked in a land wherein God has placed marvellous riches, and which He has fashioned in unexcelled beauty.

GEO. A. WILSON.

ALBERTA.

Through an oversight no report from Alberta appeared in the General Assembly's Blue Book for 1910, therefore, we will embody the statistics for the two years in which the present superintendent has been in the work.

The Province of Alberta is certainly one of the finest of the Western Canadian Provinces. Its climate is magnificent, its area beyond the comprehension of most of us, unless we think of it by way of comparison. When we realize that England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, could all be laid down in Alberta twice over, and then just 11,600 square miles of Alberta would not be covered; when we consider that the whole Empire of Germany could be laid down in Alberta, and there would be 45,000 miles of Alberta not covered; when we understand that if Alberta were as densely populated as is Great Britain to-day, the whole population of the United States might be settled in this one Province of Alberta, then we begin to comprehend somewhat, the vast extent of this sunny province. The land is exceedingly fertile, and but very little of it can be called waste land, and it seems to be very largely underlaid with coal. Many other minerals are also here in abundance.

THE POPULATION.

Into this land of promise people are coming at the rate of about 60,000 per year. 100,000 are expected this year. The writer has come into personal contact with the following peoples during his two years' work in Alberta: Swedes, Norwegians, Germans, Russians, Austrians, Ruthenians, Finlanders, Poles, French, Dutch, Mormons (all nationalities), Chinese, Japanese, Americans, Welsh, English, Irish, Scotch, Canadian, and also colored people from the Southern States. Among all these peoples our church is at work, endeavoring to give them the Gospel. This is the material out of which we are endeavoring to build a nation, which shall be established in righteousness, whose God is the Lord.

THE WORK OF THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Visiting the fields is undoubtedly one of his first duties. This has been done. The present Superintendent began at the south and visited the fields, Presbytery by Presbytery, until he had reached almost all the fields in Alberta. To many of them he has had to go back the second, and even the third time. Then three trips to the East must be taken yearly, viz., twice to the meeting of the Home Mission Committee in Toronto, and once to the General Assembly, which usually meets in some Eastern city. There are seven Presbyteries in Alberta, and the Superintendent has to attend the meetings of all these Presbyteries twice a year, in September and March, when the fields are all supplied for the coming six months. The Synod's Committee meets twice a year in Calgary, when all the fields are passed under review again, and the Superintendent has to be there. The Synod of Alberta meets in April, for nearly a week, and the Superintendent has to be in attendance. In the inaugurating of the work of Federation with the Methodist Church, the Province was divided into nine districts, and the representatives of these nine different districts, according to rules laid down, have to meet at least once a year. The General Committee for the whole Province also meets annually. The Superintendent has to be in attendance at all these meetings, or else they are not legal, and can do no business. The mail from all parts of the Province, in fact from the whole Dominion, almost every letter wanting something, averages about ten per day, and these all have to be answered. With all these compulsory duties pressing upon him, it will not require the eye of a prophet to see that the time that the Superintendent has at his disposal for visitation of the fields, must necessarily be reduced to a minimum. Let him work as he will he can only touch the mere hilltops of the things that should be done.

A FEW FORWARD STEPS IN MISSION WORK IN ALBERTA.

During the two years in Alberta we have done a few things, and tried a few experiments in mission work. (1) Our Province was the first to undertake, systematically, the task of federating with the Methodist Church, in regard to the mission fields all over the Province. On the 11th of January, 1911, a meeting was called of representatives from all over the Province from both denominations. A regular constitution, and a set of rules and regulations were drawn up and agreed to by both bodies. The Province was divided into nine different districts, and nine different meetings were arranged for with the idea in mind of preventing overlapping as far as feasible. The Superintendent of the Methodist and the Presbyterian Churches were both to be in attendance at all these meetings. The instructions of the Provincial Committee were carried out to the letter, and in all these nine centres meetings were held, often lasting long after the midnight hour. During the month of January, 1912, the same round was made, again by the Superintendents. The first year the work was exceedingly difficult, but the second year the task was comparatively light. The question is often asked how has the plan succeeded. My answer to that is unhesitating. In the new territories, where the people have not had services hitherto, at least to any great extent, the plan has worked well. As a general thing all agreements have been kept, and everything has been fairly satisfactory. In one locality 100 townships were assigned to the Methodists, and 160 to the Presbyterians. These great stretches of country have pretty well filled up with settlers. Last spring I drove all over ours, a journey of nearly 600 miles, and blocked out the territory, and in that district last summer we had sixty preaching places. The Methodists did likewise with their apportionment. In the Vermillion Presbytery we also followed what was called "the block system," and allotted a great strip of territory to Presbyterians, and a similar piece to the Methodists. In the matter of railway construction, the G. T. P. from Edmonton to the Rocky Mountains, was assigned to the Methodists; the C. N. R. to the Presbyterians. The G. T. P. is to be a Methodist road and the C. N. R. a Presbyterian road. These experiments have worked splendidly. It gives a certainty to each body when inaugurating a good work, that they are not going to be interfered with in that work by the other body as has too often been the case in Alberta. It gives a confidence and steadfastness, and permanency to our work that it has never had before, and the people are usually glad to get any service, and fall in heartily with the work no matter what denomination is carrying it on.

We are glad to be able thus to report regarding this scheme of federation. But while all this is true, we are sorry to have to say that where the fields are old, where each denomination has had its own services for a number of years, and each have become wedded to their own denomination, the Federation attempts have ended in comparative failure. Where Presbyterians have to become Methodists, it is a complete failure. In Carmangay where we withdrew altogether, we have been told it has only resulted in the unchurched of the Presbyterians. In Lunbrek, the Presbyterians, who are in the majority, have practically boycotted the Methodist minister altogether, and are asking for Presbyterian services. In Bruce and Viking, where we attempted it, our people rose up in arms and sent in such a petition, that we had to go back to them again. In Edison in the north, the same thing happened, and we had to return. In Daysland we have been doing our best to make the people Methodists, with but very poor success. This has been our general experience all over Alberta. Presbyterians will not become Methodists. In many places we have tried, by a public meeting to get our people to consent to our withdrawal, and every time we have met with failure.

On the other hand the Methodists have been more pliable, and in some cases where our minister has been a strong union man, and sympathetic with all bodies, they have gone in with the Presbyterians, and seem to be quite at home and happy. Leduc, Nanton, and Granum are places that seem to have amalgamated fairly successfully.

(2) The Superintendent has felt ever since coming on to the field, that what our fields needed more than anything else, is close hand to hand supervision. Accordingly, after laying this plan before some enthusiastic laymen of Calgary they decided to make the experiment, offering to put up the money to pay a man to do this as work for the Calgary Presbytery. Rev. Wm. Shearer was engaged for the work, and the experiment has turned out most satisfactory. Spiritually the fields have been blessed and uplifted by the ministrations of the Supervisor. On many fields he has spent considerable time, and has held special services. Financially he has saved his salary to the Presbyterian Church many times over. We have no hesitancy in giving this plan our most hearty approval.

(3) We had two Sunday School men at work within our bounds during the summer of 1911. Mr. Ritchie spent the summers of 1910 and 1911 organizing and assisting in every way possible the Sunday Schools in the McLeod, Calgary, and Red Deer Presbyteries. The last summer he not only looked after Sunday School work, but also helped the students to organize and finance. His salary was paid by the Home Mission Committee and his work was much appreciated. Mr. McLean spent most of his time in Edmonton and Vermillion Presbyteries doing exactly the same work. Mr. McLean being an ordained man, and having with him his communion service, and also the necessary elements, he dispensed the communion on many fields, and in general helped forward the work in the fields magnificently. These two men were of great assistance and help to our men. Mr. McLean's salary was paid by the Assembly's Sunday School Committee.

(4) We have also had a Synodical Evangelist at work for the past six months, whose salary is being paid by the Evangelistic Committee. Mr. Craig has done splendid work for us in Alberta since his advent to us. He not only preaches a strong, true, sane Gospel, but he helps the missionary in every way possible. In Loma, one of our fields where he held special services, almost all the people in the neighborhood professed Christ before he left the field. We are deeply grateful for the services of Mr. Craig and his devoted Gospel singer Mr. McBretney.

(5) The fields too have been practically all visited by the Superintendent during the past two years, and he has endeavored to help them as much as possible during the short time he was able to stay with the missionary.

(6) As a result of all this our work in Alberta, the Presbyterian Church has gone forward by leaps and bounds, as the following figures will show. At the beginning of 1910 we had 112 mission fields all told, in Alberta, now we have 160. During the two years we have erected and dedicated to the service of God forty-one new churches. In the same period 5,006 persons have joined the Church. Seventeen mission charges have gone up to the augmented status, and eight have become self-supporting. Our Sunday Schools during the same period have advanced sixty per cent. in organization, and eighty per cent. in attendance. All this indicates magnificent progress all along the line. I feel quite confident that I am not exaggerating when I say that the Presbyterian Church is the dominant church in Alberta. We do not say this as a matter of boasting, but as encouragement for us to go forward more energetically than ever before in the extension of our Master's kingdom in this Province of Alberta. These then are a few of the things we have done in this Western Province during the past two years.

FOREIGN WORK.

Quite a large number of Welsh people are scattered up and down the land. In some cases there are colonies of considerable size. Most of these people are Calvinistic Methodists, or rather belong to the Presbyterian Church of Wales. In some cases they have very clearly expressed their desire to become a part of the Presbyterian Church of Canada. We should take over their work and make it a part of our duty to look after them and to see that they are properly supplied with Gospel ordinances. We have also several colonies of Germans, belonging to the Reformed Church. These people have, through their representatives, asked to be taken into the Presbyterian Church, as they have come of the real old Presbyterian stock of Germany. We have also a number of Norwegian colonies belonging to the reformed faith who have also, through a representative minister, asked to be taken under the Presbyterian wing. We have already taken hold and have employed the man who has been superintending their work.

We have also undertaken work in a large colony of Finlanders, although it has never yet been officially recognized by the Church. We have also some colonies of Dutch Reformed people who have come from Holland, who have services of their own supplied them from their Synod in the States. We have also our work among the Ruthenians. Dr. Arthur is doing a magnificent work for this people both in his hospital and also in an educational way. He has twenty-four Ruthenian boys, feeding them, clothing them, and instructing them in the Truth. Never have I met a brighter, more enthusiastic lot of young fellows. They know the hymns of our Hymn Book, and their Bibles better than any English-speaking boys that I have ever met. In Alberta there seems to be a very general feeling that this work should be taken over by our Church as distinctively Presbyterian work, and churches organized along Presbyterian lines. Hitherto we have been sort of helping them to develop their own type of religion, but it would seem as if the time had come to change our plans somewhat. Last summer when giving to the Government census-taker their religion, I have been told most of the Ruthenians gave their religion as Presbyterian. There is also a strong feeling that the time has come for this work to be handled by the Presbytery within whose bounds it lies. It is thought that it can no longer be all supervised advantageously from Winnipeg.

CONCLUSIONS.

During the two years under review, I have naturally kept my eyes and ears open and have come to a few very definite conclusions with regard to the work.

(1) Presbyterianism specially suits this West. There is in it a virility, a strength, a democratic spirit, a practicalness, a straightforwardness, an aggressiveness, a genuine honesty and manliness in life that appeals to the ordinary Westerner. If the Episcopalian has not his own church within reach, he goes to the Presbyterian. If there is no Baptist church in the vicinity, the good Baptist brother goes right in with the Presbyterians. The Congregational brother does likewise. Many incidents could be cited to prove these contentions. Even a good Roman Catholic confided to me one day, that "The Catholics like the Presbyterian and go to that church when their own is not within reach." He closed his words of speech by saying quite confidentially, "You know we think that a good Presbyterian is almost as good as a bad Catholic." That was decidedly cheering, to the Superintendent.

(2) One Superintendent cannot touch the work at all, at close range. The amount of work devolving upon the Superintendent as revealed in the first part of the report, will show that he can have but little time for field work.

(3) Any one can see that the fields are not beginning to measure up to either their spiritual or financial possibilities. What is needed is a man to go in to every field, spend a week or two weeks upon it, get the finances into proper shape, see that there is a chance given to join the church, see that there is a proper communion roll, hold a week's special services, and dispense the communion on every field, and in every point on each field. Our students are most of them green and inexperienced at the work, and the presence of a man of experience with him on the field for a week or two, would not only benefit the field immensely, but would be a great blessing to the student as well.

(4) The Home Mission Conveners cannot look after the work at close range. They all have congregations of their own to look after, and the amount of correspondence involved, and the worry of looking after the supply of the fields are all that any one man can look after without visiting the fields.

(5) The plan has been tried of placing certain fields, under the care of certain ordained men living and working in the same vicinity. This has almost entirely failed, as in most cases, the minister thus appointed has paid but little attention to the field thus committed to his care.

(6) In order to make the best out of our fields, we ought to have a capable man visit them every year, and spend from a week to two weeks on every field, and then secure from each missionary a monthly report on his work, as to what he is doing, and how he is succeeding with the task committed to his care. If this were done I have not the slightest doubt but that the numbers uniting with the church yearly, as well as the finances of this Western Province would easily double in a year's time. This is only business, and it appears to me the time has arrived for a forward movement in our Western work all along the line.

W. D. REID.

SOUTHERN SASKATCHEWAN.

Our territory includes the seven Presbyteries of Abernethy, Qu'Appelle, Arcola, Alameda, Weyburn, Regina, and Swift Current. It extends across the Province of Saskatchewan, 381 miles from east to west, and from the international boundary line on the south, to an irregular line on the north, which follows the Southern Saskatchewan River for 132 miles, and passes through Hawarden, Davidson, Nokomis, Melville, and Welwyn. It contains 53,064 square miles, or 1,474 townships. The Presbyteries vary very much in size. Abernethy has 159 townships, Qu'Appelle 118, Arcola 80, Alameda 138, Weyburn 229, Regina 280, and Swift Current, the largest of the lot, 470 townships. In these seven Presbyteries there are 279 villages and towns, and the two cities of Moosejaw and Regina. There are 2,226 miles of railway in actual operation, and 115 miles upon which the rails are laid, and which will be opened for regular traffic this spring. Five hundred miles more will probably be built during 1912. This means the starting of sixty additional villages in which church services should be held. Half of these are possibly now supplied as rural mission stations. For the other thirty, ten additional men will be needed in 1913.

At the end of March, 1912, there were in

	Mission Fields	Vacant for the Winter	Augmented Charges	Self Support- ing Charges

Swift Current.....	22	10	..	3

From October 23rd, 1911, until March 13th, 1912, we visited forty of the occupied mission fields, and three of those vacant. We also visited seven of the augmented charges, and fourteen of the self-supporting charges. In ten of the self-supporting charges we presented the claims of the Budget, and in one of them assisted the Board of Management to secure a subscription list large enough to warrant the congregation advancing to the status of self-support. Of the forty-eight self-supporting charges, ten advanced to self-support during the past year. During this time we traveled 6,151 miles by rail, and 515 by team. There are at work in the seventy-two occupied mission fields twenty-four regularly ordained men, twelve specially ordained, three students, and thirty-three catechists. A number of men are not continuing on their fields. Eighteen new fields at least should be opened this spring, ten of them in Swift Current Presbytery alone. In order, therefore, to supply all the vacancies and also these new fields, sixty-seven additional men will be needed for the summer.

In the forty-three mission fields visited, there are 113 preaching places, thirty churches and sixteen manses. There is much, therefore, yet to do in both church and manse building in Southern Saskatchewan. It would be a great advantage and encouragement to many congregations if the Church and Manse Board could afford to loan a larger sum than $750 on a church or manse. It requires in the West at least $2,500 to erect a church 24x40 feet with basement and furnace, and seated with chairs, and that, too, in most cases, without completing the basement. Many congregations pay their missionaries very irregularly. Every mission field should adopt the duplex envelopes and pay the missionary at the end of each month. This plan is being introduced in many of our fields, and will bring about very much better results if the treasurers attend to their duties.

Owing to the frozen crop of last fall about thirty per cent. of which was threshed in the snow, followed by a grain blockade this winter, it has been a disappointing year to the farmers, and this means it has been a disappointing one for every line of business. The churches have suffered in consequence along with the rest, so that, while there are a number of important reductions in grants, there are not nearly so many as there would have been if the crop had been safely harvested, threshed, and marketed.

Sunday schools are conducted in nearly all the towns and villages, but there are many districts in the country without them, and those that are in operation in most cases are closed during the winter. About one-half of them are union schools. Our missionaries should be given fuller and more definite instructions about establishing Sunday Schools wherever possible at all their preaching stations. They should also be instructed in their pastoral duties in relation to the children. They should encourage parents to teach their children selected portions of Scripture, and when visiting the homes they should hear the children recite the portions learned. While many do not attend church services, still wherever we have an earnest and consecrated missionary who is able to reveal God in Christ, to men as Saviour, there we usually have good congregations of attentive worshippers. There is great need of better organization.

We are pleased to report that Moose Jaw and Regina are carrying forward church extension movements this winter with success. In Moose Jaw a new congregation has been formed, a church erected free of debt, and a minister is about to be called. In Regina a $100,000 campaign is being prosecuted at the time of writing this report, with every indication of success, about three-quarters of the amount having been already secured. A new church will be erected in the southwest of the city, and another in the southeast.

In closing this report we wish to bear testimony to the high regard in which the late Rev. Dr. J. A. Carmichael is held by the people who knew him in this part of his immense territory.

REPORTS FROM IMMIGRATION CHAPLAINS

REPORT OF REV. T. HUNTER BOYD.

In presenting a report on the work for the past year, attention is directed at the very outset to the change in address of the office, and the change in the name of the department.

Office.—Our thanks are due to the Board of Directors of the Bible Training Institute for the use of their premises during many months without any charge. Last November, however, they had to make alterations in their building, and it was necessary to seek new quarters. We now have our own office in the Christian Institute, one of the best known buildings in the city. It is close to the Steamship Companies, which is very important and I have privacy for interviews. The cost is 10s. per week, but includes furniture, light, heat, and attention.

Name.—The name selected for the department has been adopted because it best describes the function. Several titles were suggested, but some were inadequate, some misleading. A distinctive notepaper has been adopted, and a registered cable address ("Can. Presby."), and after a few months' trial the advantages justify the outlay.

ENCOURAGEMENT.

Steamship Companies.—In Canada, permission to work within the barriers, before the passengers are free, rests partly with the Government, partly with the companies. Here, only the companies are concerned in affording facilities. It is with peculiar pleasure that I am now able to testify to the co-operation of all the companies, and of all branches of their service. The success of my work depends upon the assistance of many persons in the offices of the three lines, Allan, Donaldson, and Anchor, just as much as it does upon pursers, stewards, matrons, and others on the steamers. Quite apart from adjustment with many religious denominations, and a variety of agencies, ticket, emigration, and humanitarian; as well as adjustment with many agencies in seven Canadian and U. S. A. ports, all this would have been of slight value if free scope for work could not be found with the companies.

It is true that from time to time an agent of the S. P. C. K. visited one of the steamers, and distributed useful literature, but there are extremely few Episcopalians to be found on Scotch steamers. Last year, during the busy season a Y. M. C. A. Social Secretary, also went down occasionally on one vessel and gave introduction cards; cards prepared jointly by the Church of Scotland and the U. F. Church were sent to one company for distribution, but these efforts combined, probably reached only a fraction of the thousands leaving this country. The effort of your agent has been directed towards discovering some plan that would make it possible to reach every person traveling, unattended, and the heads of all families on all steamers, all the year round. The Presbyterian Church of Canada, has been accorded the privilege of attempting to remove the anomaly that has been keenly felt for a long time.

METHOD.

It is obvious that the object of this work would have an important bearing upon the method, even when a man was appointed, and facilities afforded. Apart from the faithful attention of ministers to their members in giving disjunction certificates, and the efforts of certain committees in all the churches to prevent lapsing, experience has shown that there is a very large number of persons outside the membership of all the Churches. Thousands of these folk are estimable in numerous important respects, but are composed either of those who have migrated from place to place in Scotland, and have not preserved vital contact, or the young, who have possibly refrained from profession because for some time past they have been determined not to remain in this country. This attitude constitutes a new difficulty for the home ministry. It would take much time to describe the numerous avenues by which I have endeavored to reach this numerous and valuable class of migrants to Canada. All of them, however, whilst they possess some merit, and are employed by various workers elsewhere, failed to satisfy my requirements. In December a new plan was tried which promises well. Permission was granted by all the companies not only to consult their lists, but to address envelopes to the persons, and to have these distributed on the steamers. The details are being perfected in the office, and the method introduced to the various steamers. Thousands of envelopes have now to be filled with the desired information and sealed, and addressed, and if the experiment still proves satisfactory, it will then be simply a matter of well organized clerical effort. The chief difficulty arises from the fact that all the lines usually have a sailing on the same day, in the busy season, and the particulars of names cannot be procured in some instances, till a few hours before sailing. This does not dispense with the personal interview on the steamer between Glasgow and Greenock, but it does ensure that all will have the message of welcome from our Church, all will be asked to give their names to chaplains, and to seek the Church as early as possible, and avoid the risks of approach to many persons who in the first hours on board are not accessible for a variety of reasons. The uniform envelope will in time become a feature with the staff, and the extensive circulation can hardly fail to impress all with our eagerness, and has impressed many with what they call our enterprise. The advantage of this method has had a striking illustration during the recent Dockers' strike. No boats left the Clyde for three or four weeks, but I was able to reach the passengers at Liverpool each week, by the envelope system.

INFORMATION BUREAU.

Although the work on the steamers is largely confined to three days in the week, it has been evident from the outset that, in addition to preparing for sailings, and the correspondence arising out of passenger lists, the position would create new opportunities for usefulness. The Information Bureau has been a sphere for social service to those who are proceeding to Canada, and has been cordially welcomed by all classes of persons. Without going into particulars on a great variety of topics, it may be said that I have tried to furnish the office with information on aspects of Canadian life not usually obtained from emigration agencies, but I should greatly value a display of our publications from all sections of the Church, and an exhibit that would convey a fairly adequate idea of the scope of our operations in Canada and the Foreign Mission Field.

Much correspondence and numerous interviews have been conducted respecting applicants for work in our Church. A considerable number had very vague ideas of our requirements, and have been glad to meet one who had served in the West, as well as in the East. Several have been encouraged to write to Canada, and have ultimately left for the West. As I had a commission to attend the English, Welsh, Irish, and Scottish Assemblies and Synods last year, I met many ministers in all the Churches who enquired about our ministry on their own behalf, or with a view to advising youths who might enter.

Numerous requests have also reached me concerning domestics, farm laborers, and even the sale of land. I am aware that certain religious denominations in England encourage this kind of appeal, but I think our Church will not be well advised to enter into such business relations with our people. I think meantime that our responsibility is sufficiently discharged by putting such enquirers into touch with reliable sources of information.

GIRLS' GUILDS, ETC.

From the commencement of work here I have given special attention to cases of young women travelling unaccompanied by relatives. Whenever practicable intimation has been sent by faster steamer via New York, of the names of such young women, not only to our own chaplains, but also to agents of the Travellers' Aid, Y. W. C. A., and Vigilance Association. These lists have been greatly appreciated by these agents in U. S. A. and Canada, and I have received detailed reports of the arrival of the girls. The matrons on the Allan steamers have also given special attention to groups of young women, and have reported on the lists when they returned to Glasgow.

Hundreds of young women have gone out under the direction of Servants' Emigration Agents, and could not tell the future addresses, as they were to await instructions about mistresses from the distributing centres in Montreal, Toronto, or elsewhere. I wish to urge the desirability of some method for learning the destination of these girls, in their own interest and for ours. There must be centres where the names of hundreds could be obtained, and practically all of them were formerly connected with our Church. There are also scores of girls who go to Liverpool from Scotland, to join a party of English girls at that port, and I hope to obtain information periodically of the agencies through whom they are engaged. Possibly Rev. Dr. Shearer's department could undertake to see that someone would be responsible for learning the addresses of all Presbyterian girls who have been placed through these Canadian agencies.

The Travellers' Aid Agents could also be consulted for names from their respective lists, likewise the Y. M. C. A., and Salvation Army emigration departments in Canada.

RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS.

As already stated I signified to the companies here that I was willing to render aid to their passengers regardless of denomination. Sometimes I find that I have offered a card to a member of the Methodist or Baptist or Roman Catholic Church, but have never met anyone who resented it, and no complaints have come back about undue attention to members of other Churches. Marked appreciation appears to prevail that Canada has taken the trouble to send a man who represents the religious side of life in the Dominion. It would be of much value, however, if I could be supplied with full details of chaplains, hostels, and other features employed by other churches which would enable me to give specific information when required.

AUXILIARIES.

Full advantage has been taken of the experience of such auxiliaries as the Salvation Army, the National Vigilance Association, and the Travellers' Aid. They have also rendered valuable service. This has been most helpful in cases where two steamers were expected to sail at the same hour, the Salvation Army Emigration Department have been particularly helpful both in the office and on the steamers. A short time ago I met with members of the Committee of the Vigilance Association and suggested to them that it was not enough to have agents stationed at the ports on the other side to watch for girls who appeared to be in need of a friend, but that it would be well to have a card containing the names of reliable persons and homes which they could seek in case of need. I am glad to state the committee has approved of this suggestion, and information is now being procured. As soon as the cards are printed they will be placed in our envelopes and delivered to each passenger together with the Church cards. As is well known the Y. M. C. A. have prepared cards for youths going abroad. At this port some attempt has been made to furnish them to all Scottish lads on the steamers, but the Y. M. C. A. agent has hitherto had but limited facilities. Since December, I have placed their cards in my envelope. A separate report on my relation to the Y. M. C. A. is attached to this report.

TRANSMIGRANTS.

Although the number of foreigners passing across Scotland from Europe is smaller than that to Liverpool, it is nevertheless considerable, and includes persons from all parts of the Continent. As our Church has entered into an arrangement with the Methodist and Congregational Churches to care for these people in respect of religious ordinances, I have been very anxious that we should find some way of approach to these people even before they reach us. Unfortunately, my knowledge of European languages does not extend beyond the Scandinavian group, but I have been able to make myself understood with Danes and Norwegians, and occasionally with persons from Sweden or Iceland, sufficiently to make them aware of our cordial welcome, but it would be vastly better if some statement of our desire and willingness could be presented to them all in their own language. I can get a message in European languages from the Worlds Department of the Y. M. C. A., but such material is necessarily very limited in its application. We need a message for young women in their own language. It is not enough to warn them of perils, however, we require the names of trustworthy persons and places to which they could appeal when suspicions are aroused. There is room here for concerted action, and I shall be very glad if the matter can be pursued till we have a satisfactory working plan.

INTERNATIONAL ASPECTS.

The presence of persons from European countries on the Scottish steamers has led one to reflect particularly as to the presence of Church members who really belong to our own communion, and, therefore, of the desirability of opening up direct communication with the authorities on the Continent. We are responsible for instance for the Finns, and probably 98 per cent. of Finland is Protestant, the aggravated action of Russia towards this nation will not improbably result in driving vast numbers of them across the Atlantic, and if we are to effect the conservation of the religious life of Europeans, it may be found desirable to have more direct communication with various branches of the Lutheran Church. The case is more obvious with the Hungarians, who have some three million Protestants, and two-thirds of them are Calvinist. Not very many people migrate from Holland to Canada, but they are practically all connected with the Dutch Reformed Church. The Swiss are moving into British Columbia in increasing numbers, and Belgians to the Eastern Provinces, and a considerable number of these have been connected with denominations allied to our own. The increasing numbers who come to us from Europe will appear to justify the adoption of new methods for making them acquainted with our attitude. It is not our business to promote this emigration, indeed, in several countries such action is entirely forbidden. The stream will continue in any event, and many of these races are vigorous, and as with Hungarians, devoted to agriculture, and likely to have large families in the future. I have been in correspondence for some months past with all parts of Europe endeavoring to arrange a plan whereby literature concerning our Church and our methods, could be placed in the hands of European immigrants at the beginning of their journey. I have promises of co-operation in respect of translating the material into practically all the languages employed, and there will not be very much difficulty in arranging for the proper distribution of such material, but it will not be enough to say that we wish to help them, one must be in a position to give particular information concerning missions for various groups, and names and addresses of reliable missionaries and others to whom they could write in their own language for necessary advice. Possibly such a directory of foreign work already exists, but I have not succeeded in discovering it. The American Presbyterian Church under Dr. Shriver, has organized an Emigration Department for collecting all such information in the Republic, and as the committee is doubtless aware, two colleges for training men to undertake work in European languages. I shall be very glad to be placed in communication with representatives of any of the Churches in Canada who have special missions for our European newcomers. The Jewish communities have an admirable network of agencies for safe-guarding their people, particularly young girls from remote places in Europe, even to remote places in the United States. The Roman Catholics have also a system and issue bulletins in various languages for the benefit of their people in transit, and quite recently the Roman Catholic Church in Canada had appointed a Chaplain for Emigration work. He has sent a notice to the Catholic journals here asking the girls in particular to wear a piece of green ribbon to help him in identification at the port. If we can prepare a helpful message with some detailed information, I am confident that the international organizations interested in the welfare of emigrants will assist us in its circulation.

ORGANIZING SECRETARY.

The foregoing observations will suffice to indicate that the instructions given to me when I left Canada to undertake this work, laid much stress upon investigation as an important part of my duty. Increased knowledge has made my work much more interesting, and led to several new developments. I have been specially anxious to discover some way in which the English Presbyterian Church could render us practical assistance, and I am glad to report that the Liverpool Presbytery, which is chiefly concerned in this matter, is fully alive to the importance of the situation. I submit a record of part of the correspondence which will serve to indicate that partial solution has been found. If the plan now being tried proves successful, efforts will next be made at Bristol, Southampton, London, and later at Plymouth, from which port the Allan Line propose to have direct sailings to Canada. The Irish Presbyterians are also endeavoring to co-operate at Belfast and Londonderry, and the Welsh Presbyterians are not overlooked in this matter. At our Canadian ports we have made ample provision for welcoming the English-speaking, but except for the Bible Society's Agent, I am not aware that either we or other churches take special note of the foreigners. On the other hand the American Presbyterian Church has cared for the foreigners, but has not made a feature of the English-speaking newcomer. A large number of persons enter the United States by way of Canada, and also enter Canada by way of the United States, and this emigration problem is inducing frequent intercourses between eight ports in the British Isles and an equal number in the United States and Canada.

NEW CHANNELS IN CANADA.

Not a little disappointment has been experienced because so many persons land in Canada without indicating their future address. In hundreds of cases this is due to the fact that they are not sure of their destination. It is true of a large proportion of domestic servants and I have already ventured to suggest that enquiries should be made at the hostels or registries or other distributing centres. The Y. M. C. A. Emigration Secretary or local secretaries can perhaps be more frequently consulted in the future concerning young men who report themselves on reaching their destination, and the Salvation Army Emigration Officers will necessarily have the names of many Presbyterians on their books, and are quite willing to render us every assistance in discovering Presbyterians who have not made themselves known to our congregations. Possibly the Brotherhood movement could be induced to make it a popular feature of their work to hunt out and welcome newcomers with as much eagerness as zealous political workers expend upon new voters. I am frequently asked to give the name of a minister in one of our Canadian towns and when I consult the list, for instance for Hamilton, Ontario, I find there are ten or a dozen. Our ministers in Ottawa prepare the card for the city, and I believe that one of their number acts as a correspondent for advice on this matter. I should welcome any information as to the methods employed in other cities which would enable me to tell our churches here how we endeavor to prevent the lapsing of their people and ours.

With renewed appreciation for the confidence expressed by your Committee in the continuance of this work. Respectfully submitted,

T. HUNTER BOYD.

REPORT OF DR. PATTERSON.

It affords me pleasure to present a brief report on the immigration work for the past year, which has been by far the greatest in its history. I am glad to state also, that the interest in the work, both among the ministry and the laity, is on the increase. But still not as much as the importance of the work demands.

Those of us who are dealing with the immigrants, are dealing with the no far distant future rulers of Canada. Earl Gray, in his recent speech in London, said, "That the Dominion of Canada is surely destined to become in the near future the controlling factor in the British Empire." This is a solemn thought. For what that controlling influence will be, will depend upon how we Canadians of this generation deal with the immigrants.

The two most potent forces for good are Christianization and education. The former must be applied by the Church, and the latter by the Government, with the aid of the Church. The work for both is a gigantic one, and calls for the most devoted effort. Just so far as these forces fail to do their work, just so far will it go ill with Canada and the Empire.

During the past year 21,295 members and adherents of our Church were met and welcomed to Canada at the Ports of Halifax, St. John, and Quebec. It is safe to state that there were from 5,000 to 10,000 that we were unable to meet for the lack of time and opportunity. Making a grand total of between 25,000 and 30,000.

And just here let me state that I am in sore need of assistance at Quebec. The immigration is likely to be as great, if not greater than ever this year. Two or three companies are putting on extra steamers. There will be two steamers weekly from Glasgow, frequently arriving at the same time. As the Government has sufficient officials, the second-class are examined simultaneously on the steamers, and the third-class in the Immigration Building. It is obvious that I cannot be in three places at the same time. I wish also, to emphasize the fact that Quebec is the place par excellence to meet the immigrant. No other place can be compared to it.

I do not expect that the great number, mentioned above, will be reported as an addition to the Church at our next General Assembly. For, from my own personal experience, and the testimony of many of our ministers, many of these newcomers have a very loose connection with the Church. This is not cheering news, but it is well to know the truth. The numbers to be cared for by the Church make the task great, and the indifference of many greatly increases the difficulty. It calls for the greatest devotion both of the ministry and the laity.

One of the greatest problems the Church of to-day has to consider is how to recover the lapsed and how to prevent lapsing. One of the chief causes, if not the chief, is that the Church has not cared as much as she should, and could have done for the temporal needs of her people. The proof of this is seen in the success she has in the recovery of the lapsed, which is a more difficult task than the prevention, in the Socialized Churches, as seen in the large cities. One of many instances is the case of St. George's Church in New York. The congregation had been reduced to six families, and was about to be abandoned like many others. when the right man came along and took charge of it, and looked after the needs of the whole man, physical, social, and mental, as well as his moral and spiritual. The result is that St. George's Church has now the largest membership of any Episcopal Church, if not of any denomination in the United States. This is what might aptly be called applied Christianity, and I have been convinced of the wisdom of it for years. Therefore, it is that I have been advocating the necessity of having a place in our largest cities, such as Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, and Vancouver, where those who have no definite work to go to could be housed and boarded till they secured employment. An excellent opportunity for such an arrangement is afforded in Montreal in connection with the Free Bureau of Labour, appointed by the local Government. That such an investment would be a financial success, I am absolutely convinced, not to speak of the infinitely more important spiritual one. Dr. William Partridge, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, writes: "I have seen many men converted to the love and service of Christ, because the Men's Club had secured them employment through its employment committee. A church can carry on a great and diversified institutional work without giving a dollar to the poor."

Another great problem that confronts the Church is the increasing number of foreigners that are coming into our country. The total number of immigrants that came into Canada during the past fiscal year was 311,084. Of this number there were 66,620 foreigners, 123,013 British, and 121,451 American. It will thus be seen that we had one and a fraction of foreigners for every two Britishers. These foreigners speak between forty and sixty different languages. They are from twenty per cent. to thirty per cent. more illiterate than our people. It has been the experience of the United States that illiteracy, poverty, and crime go hand in hand. It has also been its experience that the foreigner gravitates to the city, forming from 90 per cent. to 95 per cent. of the slum population. So great has been the influx of the foreigner into the United States that its form of Government is in danger. "Government by the people and for the people," to be a success, requires virtue and intelligence in those who possess the franchise. Illiterate people, generally, have very little of either. Hence the danger to the nation when they become the dominant force.

The immigration to Canada is from twenty to twenty-five times as large as it was to the United States when it had the same number of inhabitants that we now have. If the United States were to receive the same number of immigrants per capita of inhabitants as Canada, she would have an immigration of between four and five million annually. Instead of that I think she received something less than one million last year. No country in the world ever received such an inflow of immigrants as Canada. If the United States is in danger from that cause, what must Canada be? If foreign immigration comes into a country more quickly, especially of an inferior class, there is sure to be trouble ahead. Might it not, therefore, be well to have it regulated accordingly? Our Government is spending over $1,000,000 annually in bonuses to induce immigrants to come to Canada. Is it not possible that Canada is sufficiently advertised to dispense with this expenditure? Would it not be more beneficial and for the safety of our country to have it spent on education? The United States pays no bonus, but instead makes the immigrant pay by head-tax for all the expense connected with examination for entrance, and in addition compelled them to bring $100,000,000 into the country within the last four years. Why should we not profit by the experience of our neighbors to the South? In conclusion, therefore, I submit the following suggestions, which I heartily believe to be necessary for the well being of our country:

1. Foreign immigration should be limited to our power to assimilate it.

2. Should insist on the English language only, as the National language, and the abolition, as far as possible, of Separate Schools. Nothing, I believe, so effectually builds up and binds together a nation as a one-language and national schools.

3. Compulsory education and an educational standard for the voter.

4. More care should be taken in regard to the moral character of immigrants, especially of domestics.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. PATTERSON,

Presbyterian Chaplain.

PORT OF MONTREAL.

The mighty stream of humanity, finding its source in one hundred rivulets of the old world, is gaining in its volume and momentum with each passing year. It is a vast current of varied humanity. There is no age limit, for young and old all travel side by side. There is no sex limitation, for the women are as keen as the men—if not more so to escape the conditions of the old world that make existence intolerable. They come with their babies in their arms, and small children clinging to their skirts.

The mighty army comes out of the shadow of the old world's decay, and converges to the gateways of our Atlantic ports in winter, and those of the St. Lawrence in summer. During the seven months of navigation last year, they entered at the nation's gateway at Quebec and Montreal at a rate that averaged a thousand per day.

They have been sorted by the money test; on the top, here as well as elsewhere, the well-to-do; below, those of moderate circumstances; and on the lowest deck, the poorest classes.

At Quebec a service most strenuous and effective is being rendered by our Chaplain, Dr. Patterson. Whilst the greater part of his time is being devoted to the third-class who are at this place transferred from the boats to the trains, he also succeeds in meeting many of the first and second-class immigrants, who remain on the ocean liners until Montreal is reached.

Up to the summer of 1911, the Presbyterian Church left the extension of the glad hand and the kind words of welcome to the strangers entering our greatest commercial port, to the representatives of other churches. For many years they deemed it wise to get near to the stranger at a time when impressions are easily made, and acts of kindness are greatly needed and appreciated.

Early in May of last year, the executive of the Home Mission Committee of Montreal Presbytery appointed the Rev. John Chisholm, whose congregation is situated in proximity to the docks, to undertake this work. At the next regular meeting of Presbytery the appointment was ratified and remuneration stipulated.

The boats arrive nearly always between 6 and 7 a.m., or at the same hour p.m., giving four hours time between the arrival of the boats, and the departure of the trains. Three hours are usually occupied by the Custom's official in examining baggage, and the railway agents in checking and transferring belongings from the wharf to the station. During this period a supreme effort is made by the chaplain to get the names of all the Presbyterians and their destination. The getting of these names is accompanied with the imparting of very much needed and deeply appreciated information, as to where and how to exchange the steamboat for the railway ticket, the meaning and importance of baggage checks and where and how to get them, and how to get from the wharf to the depot at the least possible expense, etc. Women with young children going West to join their husbands, and aged people full of fear and apprehension, on their way to the new homes prepared for them by their children, were assisted to the transfer vans and accompanied to their respective railway stations, and placed safely in the proper cars. An effort is made at the railway stations to get all those whose names are not taken at the wharves. To get them all is absolutely impossible. Those with light baggage quickly pass the Customs and slip away before they are reached. This is easily proven by the list of Presbyterians on each boat sent by Mr. Boyd, of Glasgow, via New York, and in the hands of the chaplain before the Glasgow boat reaches Montreal. Not half of those going to large cities can give their addresses, therefore, no definite information can be sent to any of the ministers regarding their location. They are, however, given a formal introduction to some ministers of our church. They are, of course, strongly urged to get acquainted with the people of their own nationality and to join the Church of their fathers.

Those residing in Montreal are assisted in getting boarding-houses and, sometimes, work.

Altogether, 148 passenger steamers were met. (The Church of England Chaplain reported 164, but he began a month earlier.)

The boats from, other than Liverpool and Glasgow ports, have no more than an average of four per cent. Presbyterians. The chaplain believes that he would be a poor representative of the life and spirit of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, were he to withhold his assistance from the non-Presbyterian strangers. His experience in the West taught him that some of the noblest works in our Church come from non-conformist English immigrants.

The chaplain recorded the names of four thousand, two hundred and sixty-four Presbyterian immigrants among the first and second-class at Montreal. Ninety per cent. of these went West. Help was extended to hundreds whose names were not taken down. Customs officials and railway agents continually interrupted the chaplain in the middle of his work by calling the persons whose names were being taken down to look after an article to be checked, or demanding special attention of the Customs official. The only way possible to secure the names of all would be to meet the boats at Quebec, and accompany the passengers up the river. The strangers are amazed and profoundly impressed with this manifestation of the Church's love to them. Aged people and unattended mothers with small children can be seen every day taking farewell of the chaplain by holding his hands in both of theirs, and amid a profusion of tears, saying, "We never could come through this alone, you can depend upon us wherever we go, to be true to the dear old Church you represent."

During the summer of 1911 the Knox College Students' Missionary Society supplied its usual number of 40 fields with Student Missionaries. Of this number 16 were in Ontario, 3 in Manitoba, 9 in Saskatchewan, and 12 in Alberta.

During the winter months the Society carries on active Missionary work in the city of Toronto. Sunday evening and mid-week services were held at the House of Industry and Aged Women's Home, while a number of teachers were supplied from the students for Sunday School work at the Sick Children's Hospital and Central Prison.

Regular fortnightly meetings were held in the College among the students, at which live topics of Home and Foreign Mission work were considered. Two of these were addressed by Rev. Dr. McGilvary, and Rev. Mr. Thompson, of China.

A public open meeting was held in November, dealing with the problem of Home Missions, addressed by Mr. Findlay and W. Fingland.

A wider educational work was done among various congregations and church organizations throughout the province. The students gave their services gratis in some 300 addresses delivered upon the Home Mission situation. In addition to this a lantern campaign was carried on with great appreciation by the congregations visited. This work was conducted by one of the students, instead of two as formerly, during June, September and Christmas vacation. The Society intends to make a strong feature of this phase of the work in the future.

During the past summer letters were written by the students on the fields describing their own work, and the problems they were meeting among the pioneer settlers, mining, lumbering and construction camps. These letters reached some 600 organizations and supporters of the Society.

The year's work has entailed unusually heavy financial obligations. Owing to the fact that crops were a failure the preceding summer in the West where the great majority of the fields were, and the bad harvest last fall, the contributions from these stations towards their own support was somewhat below the average. This financial situation was accentuated by the fact that the new Budget scheme of the Church left some uncertainty whether money contributed to the K. C. S. M. S. would be credited as part of amount assigned to each congregation for the Budget. All cause for hesitancy has been removed, so that in the future whatever amount any congregation or organization assigns to the funds of the Society will count as part of their share toward the Budget.

As the financial year closes October 31st, the following summary is the statement for the year ending October 31st, 1911:—

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION COMMITTEE, EASTERN SECTION, 1911-12.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee charged with the task of superintending Home Mission operations in the Eastern Section of the Church would respectfully submit its report.

It is thankful to be able to intimate that generally the year has been one of moderate progress. There has been increase in the number of fields occupied. The laborers have been more numerous. The amount of contributions has been larger than it was during the preceding year. There has been an increase of expenditure as well as of revenue, and this also ought to be evidence of progress. The outlook with respect to the supply of young men who are studying with a view to the ministry is much more hopeful than it has been for a number of years. A very considerable interest has been manifested in providing needed assistance for meeting the expenses attendant upon their long course of study and training for the ministry. Numbers of members of the Church and several of its Societies, Sabbath Schools and Congregations have responded handsomely to the appeal for bursaries for this purpose. Indeed, the number of students at present in the Colleges looking forward to the ministry has so increased, that it has raised the question of more ample provision for their accommodation in connection with the College Residence at the North West Arm. The difficulty, indeed, in obtaining the requisite number of Ordained Missionaries still continues, and the failure in this direction tells adversely upon the progress of those congregations that have in consequence to accept Catechists for summer terms instead of Ordained Pastors throughout the whole year. Last year your Committee had sixty-six laborers all told. This year they have had seventy-one, nine Ordained Missionaries and sixty-two Catechists. As the reports of the Catechists were all destroyed in the recent fire in the Herald Building, it is impossible to follow the customary practice of giving extracts from them in the report to the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF HOME MISSIONS FOR THE SYNOD OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

Home Mission operations during the summer months were of a very satisfactory character, as all the fields were supplied. During the winter, for the most part, the mission stations were vacant. This has been the custom for such a lengthy period that our people with some few notable exceptions, are well satisfied with present conditions, and there has been a disposition generally among the powers that be to silently, without protest, accept the inevitable. However, several fields have been supplied with services throughout the year with gratifying results. Nevertheless, winter service is in a very unsatisfactory condition. The gain made one part of the year is largely lost in the long vacancy, and the people in our mission stations, in too many cases, are the product of feast followed by famine. Such conditions, from a spiritual standpoint, are unwholesome. There are mission stations which would be convinced in their own mind that a serious affront were offered and a weighty grievance were laid upon them—should winter service be provided. Our Synod requires quickening of conscience as to the loss sustained, annually, in the neglected fields during the winter months. Is there no answer to the question? To be truthful to the uttermost limits, what is the reply? Weakness and insufficiency are manifest throughout the mission fields. Family worship is largely neglected; the Sabbath School, as a general rule, closes with the preaching services; the children have a feeble hold of the Scriptures; there is dense ignorance of the missionary operations of the Church. The circulation in the extremities of the Synod is poor, but continuous service throughout the year will improve conditions to a wonderful degree.

There is also another great danger arising out of vacancy, as nature abhors a vacuum. If the missionary of the Cross is not in occupation—then some other missionary will be. Here and there, active agencies are at work sowing seed which to an alarming degree is noxious, even poisonous, deadly weeds. In the name of Jesus, there are men and women passing up and down the Provinces setting snares for the unwary. These teachers and preachers in the outset present themselves in the livery of heaven. Introductory services are gospel services. The weak-minded are singled out and led gradually from truth to falsehood, from virtue to vice, which means finally—eternal perdition. An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. The strongest efforts to reclaim those who have been deluded, as a rule, are fruitless. Our duty may be to follow after, but it is the going before which is the effective method. Every possible means of warning should be employed. In this our Church can join with other Christian denominations, for other communions have suffered to a greater degree than our own. Prince Edward Island Presbytery, Miramichi, and St. John have taken active measures to furnish information which will be of service in defeating the purposes of the enemy.

A noteworthy feature, in connection with Home Missions in our Synod, is the fact that, while the census shows a small increase, the native population is at a standstill, our own people have gone out from the Provinces in large numbers, and foreigners have come in. The new situation which has been created occasions serious consideration from the standpoint of citizenship, morals and religion. The newcomers are from continental Europe largely—Italians, Galicians, Belgians, Germans, Poles, Slavs, Syrian Jews, and other countries are represented. The number of Protestants among these people has not been ascertained accurately, but it is considerable. A very large proportion of the foreign element is Catholic, Roman or Greek. Of the Roman Catholics, few are strongly attached to their Church. The majority of them claim to be, or pose as, Socialists, and have broken with their church, and so far as morals and religion are concerned, are simply drifting. For the most part, these people are very ignorant, and this is the philosophy underlying their presence in our midst. Capital desires cheap labour, and not only cheap labour, but labour which asks no questions and is slow to quarrel with its bread and butter. The foreigner is at a disadvantage from the start, on account of his inability to speak English. The men, mostly, do acquire a working knowledge of our tongue, but few of the women ever learn it. The children who attend school acquire English very readily. The ignorant foreigner is dirty in his habits, low in his morals all along the line, and is a menace to the community. Such are the characteristics of the great mass of the foreign population. Upon the other hand, there are many good citizens among them, particularly the Belgians, Germans, Danes, and Swedes. The Protestants are sober, industrious and intelligent, and as much can be said for many of the Catholics. The Socialists are approachable, and will enter into discussion with our missionaries who speak their tongue, and thus a great opportunity for the gospel message presents itself.

Our missionary, Mr. Kinsele, is energetic and laborious, officiates in numerous capacities as the friend and counsellor of the foreigner in Sydney and the adjacent towns, conducts preaching services, visits patients in the hospitals and the people in their shops and in their homes. So far, little constructive work has been accomplished, as no building of any kind has been available. In order to cope with the situation and attain permanent success, equipment is an absolute necessity. Sydney Presbytery has become responsible for the rent of a house and travelling expenses for the missionary, at the same time taking a keen interest in this mission. More than this, from a financial point of view, can not with any reason be expected, and ways and means for equipment and extension should be devised by the whole Synod.

The Belgians speak the French language and are to be found in considerable numbers, at Sydney Mines, Inverness, Stellarton, and Joggins. A missionary is labouring among these people with remarkable encouragement. The developments are such that three missionaries are needed to overtake the work.

As to immigration in general, the main stream still runs westward. However, the prospect for some new settlers for the East is brighter than it has been. New Brunswick in particular, is awakening to the opportunities and advantages at our doors. Something has been done to provoke a general interest in immigration from the United Kingdom, and also to persuade as many as possible of our own people who have gone from us to return and convince our own young people in general that the Maritime Provinces are not the most barren, inhospitable and uninhabitable region in the world. Deserted farms is the text, so far, for immigration sermons, but New Brunswick is shirking the main issue so long as millions of acres of rich agricultural land are held for blueberries, wild cherries, scrub bushes and trees.

The Chaplains at Halifax and St. John are prosecuting their labours with growing confidence and enthusiasm. Mr. Boyd has made diligent investigation along every possible avenue and has secured a vast amount of useful information, so that the sphere of influence is widening in this department of Home Mission work. Our Church has secured, through Mr. Boyd, recognition in a substantial measure by the great steamship lines. Co-operation with numerous societies and agencies has been effected on both sides of the Atlantic. Connections have been made with all the large seaports in the United Kingdom, and also with Portland, Boston and New York. The publicity attached to an office, and an official constantly in evidence, has caught the eye of thousands of people coming to Canada. The logic of facts is a good preparatory lesson on the road to success in a new land. The Church presents a reliable visibility and a practical value which there is no gainsaying. Good impressions at the psychological moment will not be readily obliterated. The immigrant will cherish kindly feelings towards the source of guidance and kindly welcome as he sets foot as a stranger in a strange land. Thus the Church will wield larger influence, as well as possess larger opportunity in presenting the gospel message. Moreover, the protection afforded the innocent and unsuspecting, is a feature of the service rendered which justifies all the toil and cost involved.

Mr. Boyd has now the ear of all the Presbyterian churches in the United Kingdom. Presbyteries, Synods, Assemblies have heard his story, and a large interest is developing. Frequent acknowledgments are received that our Church, in this department of service, affords a commendable and inspiring example of missionary enterprise. Little more than the fringe of the subject has been touched. If complete success in unravelling the tangled skein is attained, it will be an achievement well worth while.

Lastly, but by no means of little consequence, is the prospect of a large annual accession to the ranks of the ministry in our Synod. It is no longer the voice of one crying in the wilderness—for three hundred have joined in the Macedonian cry. The College furnishes evidence of the heartiness of the response. Candidates for the ministry can be found, and are found, which means increased responsibility—the most immediate is financial. It is a matter of profound gratitude and thanksgiving that this last problem is in process of solution, as there is evidence that men are forthcoming—the money to meet absolute necessities will not be wanting. "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." The fields are white for the harvest, and the labourers will be not few, but many.

Respectfully submitted.

JAMES ROSS.

FINANCES.

The receipts for Home Missions, East and West, during the past year, apart from the $2,000.00 transferred from the Reserve Fund and the $737.31 which came in the way of repayments, were $18,040.46, of which $13,195.92 was from congregations; $804.33 from donations; $2,891.87 from interest; $305.25 from Y.P.S.C. Endeavour; $779.28 from W.F. & H.M.S.; and $63.81 from a bequest which has gone into the current account. Of this amount, $4,064.50 was sent to the North West, which, after deducting office expenses from both sections of the fund, left a balance for use in the East of $13,525.96. This amount was not enough to meet the expenditure required for the operations of the year, and so $2,000.00 was drawn from the Reserve Fund, thus enabling the Treasurer to pay all claims against the fund, including the Debit Balance of last year of $268.84, and leaving the Fund with a credit balance on March 1st, 1912, of $700.59. In other words, the expenditure on the work of the twelve months between March 1st, 1911, and March 1st, 1912, exceeded the receipts by $1,030.57.

The following comparative statement shows the amounts and sources of your Committee's receipts for three successive years, as well as the way in which the moneys entrusted to them have been expended.

REPORT OF AUGMENTATION COMMITTEE
(WESTERN SECTION) 1911-12

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Augmentation Committee (Western Section) respectfully reports as follows:

The income of your Committee, for the year ending February 29th last, amounted to $45,087.65, of which $40,686.40 came from the usual sources and $4,380.50 from legacies. The contributions of congregations appear to be the largest in the history of the Fund, and for the measure of liberality thus shown this Assembly should be deeply grateful to the Giver of every blessing. On the other hand, it required $45,437.25 to supplement the stipends in Augmented charges up to $850 with a house in Old Ontario and Quebec, $950 with a house in New Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and $975 with a house in British Columbia.

Thus your Committee has not yet reached the goal set by the Assembly of 1907, viz., a minimum stipend of $900 with a house for every married and settled minister in the church. At the same time, it is unquestionable that the standard adopted five years ago was even then quite moderate. Accordingly, your Committee, at its annual meeting on the 26th of March, decided to supplement stipends up to $900 in Old Ontario and Quebec, and $1,000 in New Ontario and the West, from the beginning of the second quarter of this year.

Moreover, so much was your Committee impressed with the increase in the cost of living that it deliberately resolved to advise this Assembly that the minimum stipend hereafter be $1,000 per annum with a house in Old Ontario and Quebec, together with an addition of $200 in New Ontario and the West, and that this scale go into effect at New Year's.

To ascertain the amount required to pay the stipends at this higher scale, the Executive of the Augmentation Committee corresponded with all Presbyterial Committees, and from them learned the amount that would probably be required by the respective Presbyteries. The information thus gathered assisted your Committee to determine the estimated requirement, which is $110,000. For this comparatively large income we make earnest appeal through this Assembly. Our country is prosperous, our people share fully in the general prosperity, and it is none too creditable to our Church that her ministerial stipends should be substantially less valuable to-day than they were twenty-five years ago. If we do not so support our ministers that they can devote their gifts without reserve to the duties of their office, every enterprise of our church will feel the disastrous effects, and Christ's kingdom will seriously suffer both at home and abroad.

Your Committee has given earnest consideration to the question of the uniting of all the general mission work in the Dominion under the control of one Committee, and approve of such unification, provided that in the administration of the Fund thus created the principle of Augmentation be conserved. In this connection there was also brought before the Committee a proposal, originating in the Home Mission Committee, to amalgamate the various Building Funds possessed by the church, one of which is known as the Augmentation Building Fund, and to increase the capital at least to $500,000. This proposal received a hearty assent on the understanding that the above-named unification be carried out.

During the past year the following congregations have become self-sustaining:—

Synod of Montreal and Ottawa—Scotstown, Outremont, Verdun.....	3
Synod of Toronto and Kingston—Runnymede, Dale Church, Toronto.....	2
Synod of Hamilton and London—St. James Church, Hamilton; Westminster Church, Hamilton.....	2
Synod of Manitoba—Fort Francis; Dougald; Home St., Winnipeg; Riverview, Winnipeg; Springfield, Ninga, Austin.....	7
Synod of Saskatchewan—Welwyn, Redvers, Halbrite, Rouleau, Drinkwater, Tugaskie, Wilcox.....	7
Synod of Alberta—Erskine, Edmonton; Gelichen, Bankview.....	3
Synod of British Columbia—Greenwood; St. Columba, Victoria; St. George's, Cumberland.....	2
Total.....	26

The following new congregations, by request of Presbyteries, have been added to the list of Augmented charges:—

Synod of Montreal and Ottawa—Laprairie, Gravel Hill, Eganville.....	3
Synod of Toronto and Kingston—Demorestville, Eldorado, Queensboro, Claremont, Bethesda, Porcupine, Gore Bay.....	7
Synod of Hamilton and London—Merriton.....	1
Synod of Manitoba—McConnell; St. Andrew's, Brandon; McAuley.....	3
Synod of Saskatchewan—Watson, Longlaketon, Radisson, Scott, Wilkie, Kisley.....	6
Synod of Alberta—North and West Edmonton, Castor, Trochu Valley,; Knox, Medicine Hat; Langdon, Dinton, Blairmore; St. Andrew's, Lethbridge; Noble.....	9
Synod of British Columbia—Clayburn, Burnaby; St. Paul's, Vancouver; Knox Church, Collingwood.....	4
Total.....	33

It is evident that changes are constantly being made in the list of charges under the care of your Committee. When this Fund was instituted in 1883, there were placed upon it some 170 charges, of which about 25 appear to be still with us. Meanwhile, more than 500 charges have received aid for longer or shorter periods, but have advanced to self-support, and not a few of them are among the strongest in our Church.

The following are the recommendations:

1. That the stipends of men in Augmented Charges in Old Ontario and Quebec be $1,000 a year and a house.
2. That the stipends of men in Augmented Charges in New Ontario and the West be $1,200 a year and a house.
3. That the above scale go into operation on the 1st of January, 1913.
4. That congregations in Old Ontario and Quebec be asked to contribute $650 and a house, and congregations in New Ontario and the West, $800 and a house before being placed on the Fund.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Ottawa, April 20th, 1912.

D. M. RAMSAY,
Convener.

REPORTS FROM SUPERINTENDENTS.

AUGMENTATION IN NEW ONTARIO.

In New Ontario, as elsewhere, Augmentation is playing an important part in the life of Church and nation. By providing continuity in the church work it is establishing righteousness in the land.

It not only enables a congregation to select its own minister, but gives continuous service, thus avoiding that disastrous break that necessarily follows a change of missionaries and irregular supply.

This permanency in the congregational life produces a more complete organization and saves the funds of the Church by advancing the congregation to self-support at an earlier date than would otherwise be possible. Again, in a Presbytery where there are twenty-five or thirty mission fields and only two or three self-supporting congregations, it would be absolutely impossible to efficiently carry on the work of the Church or have adequate oversight of the fields if Augmentation did not step in and relieve the situation.

Thus the Scheme, by making it possible to have a greater number of settled missionaries, not only provides for carrying on the ordinary work of the Court, but makes the Presbytery sufficiently strong to at least honestly grapple with some of the innumerable problems that must be solved, if a clean national life is to be maintained in our rapidly growing missionary districts.

In Northern Ontario we have Seventeen Augmented Charges distributed as follows:—Presbytery of Barrie, 5; North Bay, 5; Algoma, 7. These congregations have had a year of steady growth. Indeed, in almost every case there has been not only an increase in their contributions towards stipend, but also a loyal support of the Budget Scheme.

J. D. BRYNES.

SYNOD OF ALBERTA.

The following is a report of the advance made in Augmentation in Alberta during the last two years:—

During that time we have had Seventeen Mission Fields go up to the Augmented status, and then call a minister. These are now all happily settled, and making progress towards the goal of self-support. During the same period we have had Eight Augmented Charges become self-sustaining. We have, all told, Thirty-One Augmented Charges in Alberta.

In the majority of cases the Augmented status has proved a boon to the congregation. In the case of two charges they have leaped the Augmentation chasm altogether, and have become self-supporting without going on to the Fund. The two charges performing this laudable acrobatic feat are Robertson Memorial Church, Edmonton, and Bankview Presbyterian Church, Calgary. As a general thing, however, we have found the Augmentation status a very helpful and stimulating half-way house for congregations on the way to self-support. It gives the congregation the dignity and independence of a self-sustaining charge before it can reach that condition financially. The congregation can call its own minister, and administer its own funds in every way, and exercise all the rights of an independent church—even while leaning on the church as a whole for financial aid. In all cases we have found this step to be exceedingly beneficial to a congregation, increasing its interest in the church in general, and in arousing the feeling of independence among the people. It has certainly proved a great boon to the work in the Province of Alberta.

W. D. REID.

YORKTON PRESBYTERY.

There are three Augmented Charges in Yorkton Presbytery. These charges are not doing as well as they might have done, but we hope for better things this summer—Kamsack, Dunleith and Rokeby.

SASKATOON PRESBYTERY.

There are two augmented charges in Saskatoon Presbytery, Hanley and Outlook. Hanley cannot do much better at present, as there is a change of ministers and the place is not growing much; but I believe will be able to reach the $800 so as to keep on the augmented list. Outlook ought soon to be self-sustaining, as it is a growing, go-ahead town.

PRINCE ALBERT PRESBYTERY.

This Presbytery has no augmented charges.

BATTLEFORD PRESBYTERY.

Battleford Presbytery has already on the list three charges, Maymont, Scott, and Radisson, and Wilkie will be on the list just as soon as they can get a settled man. We hope that will be for this quarter. Scott and Wilkie ought to lessen the grant every year, as they are both growing towns. Radisson is not growing very fast, and it will take intensive work to raise this field to be self-supporting. Maymont has built a large church, and are doing well under the able guidance of Mr. Fisher.

M. F. MUNRO.

REPORT FOR SOUTHERN SASKATCHEWAN.

One year ago there were in Abernethy Presbytery 3 Augmented Charges, 2 in Qu'Appelle, 2 in Arcola, 4 in Alameda, 9 in Regina, and none in Weyburn and Swift Current, 20 in all. There are now 15—2 in Abernethy, 5 in Qu'Appelle, 2 in Arcola, 2 in Alameda, and 4 in Regina. The following eight congregations have advanced, during the year, to self-support from the Augmented list: Welwyn in Abernethy Presbytery, Redvers in Arcola, Halbrite in Alameda, and the following splendid list from Regina Presbytery: Davidson, Drinkwater, Rouleau, Tugaske, and Wilcox. The salaries for the ensuing year in four of these are $1,000 and in three $1,200. Four other congregations have advanced during the year directly to self-support without going on the augmented list, viz., Strassburg, Kipling, Craik, and Gull Lake. Two of them are paying salaries of $1,000 and two $1,200. Strassburg is in Abernethy Presbytery, Kipling in Qu'Appelle, Craik in Regina, and Gull Lake in Swift Current. This makes the total list of self-supporting charges in the seven Presbyteries of Southern Saskatchewan now 49.

PETER STRANG.

SYNOD OF MANITOBA.

Satisfactory progress has been made during the past year in this department of our church work. The following notes indicate advances made:

SUPERIOR PRESBYTERY.

Fort Frances became self-sustaining July 1st, 1911. The congregation became vacant by resignation of Mr. Aylward. Mr. J. Russell Harris, a Knox College graduate, 1911, after supplying for a time, was ordained and inducted March 20th, 1912. Prospects are bright.

Rainy River also became vacant by resignation of Mr. Jarvis. Steady progress had been made in this charge, and it was hoped that it, too, had passed beyond the need of aid. Mr. Hyslop Dickson accepted first an appointment and afterwards a call. Mr. Dickson is a graduate of Knox, 1911. When he was ordained and inducted at the beginning of October, the congregation urged continuation of a grant, but it is confidently expected that this congregation will soon be independent of the Fund.

WINNIPEG PRESBYTERY.

This Presbytery has witnessed fine progress in its Augmented Charges as a whole during the past year.

Dominion City. This congregation has been supplied by Mr. R. Crockett, who has done good work. The field is gaining strength, and may eventually be expected to call.

Dugald. This charge was rearranged a year ago by dropping Millbrook and taking on Oakbank—making the field more compact and financially stronger. Rev. John Carmichael is pastor. The congregation became self-sustaining January 1st, 1912.

Little Britain. Supplied by student. Call issued during year, but was declined. No grant drawn. Settlement hoped for during the year.

Oakville. This charge reported vacant a year ago, remains so. This field was too weak. It has been strengthened by amalgamation with Salem mission field, and should now be able to call with little aid from Fund.

Springfield includes the new town of Transcona, and has become self-sustaining under Mr. Iverach's care. Development in the district may call for rearrangement.

Home Street, Winnipeg, became self-sustaining April 1st, 1912. This congregation making good progress.

Riverview, Winnipeg, another steadily growing charge, became independent of the Fund at the beginning of April.

Starbuck. This field has been supplied by catechist, but should have ordained supply and advance to the calling point.

Reduction in grants to the extent of $1,150 has been made in Winnipeg Augmented Charges during the past year. A few of the stronger missions will soon be advancing to the augmented status.

ROCK LAKE PRESBYTERY.

In this Presbytery Ninga has passed off the list. Four remain—Goodlands, Mather, Swan Lake and Waskada.

GLENBORO PRESBYTERY.

Elm Creek is making good progress. By payment of $500 of church debt only $250 remain. In addition, the grant has been reduced, and prospects are bright for self-support in the near future.

Fairfax. This field rather contracted, and development slowly. It is good farming district, but many of the better-off farmers are leaving, and farms are being rented. This charge asks for appointment rather than undertake a call.

DAUPHIN PRESBYTERY.

Grandview continues an Augmented Charge. During the year Swan River mission requested the privilege of calling, and Mr. Wier was settled.

MINNEDOSA PRESBYTERY.

Rosburn is making good progress. Mr. Forbes has recently been inducted, and the grant has been reduced.

McConnell is a new field on the Rapid City section of the C.N.R. By rearrangement of stations in this vicinity, Beulah and Orrwold congregations were changed. Out of the territory covered by these two congregations, three congregations were made, viz., Beulah, Isabella, and McConnell, the latter an Augmented Charge. Settlement was effected last September, when Mr. J. F. Douglas was inducted into the new charge. Outlook is encouraging.

BRANDON PRESBYTERY.

This Presbytery has three Augmented Charges.

St. Andrew's Brandon, a student field until October 1st, when it became an Augmented Charge, calling Mr. J. K. Clark, of Glenboro.

Hargrave should pass from augmented stage next year.

McAulay became augmented last October. A manse was built. Rev. Wm. Johnson is in charge.

REPORT OF THE AUGMENTATION COMMITTEE (EASTERN DIVISION)

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Our Report this year is, in its main features, encouraging as indicating a healthy condition of the Fund.

$12,360.88 were placed at the disposal of the Committee, made up as follows:—From congregations, $9,941.01, donations $16.80, interest on capital $596.41, and a credit balance from the preceding year of $1,806.66. Our disbursements consisted of $9,279.71 in grants to 49 aid-receiving congregations, and of $495.30 to the other several items set forth in the financial statement hereto appended. There was a credit balance of $2,585.87 carried over to this year, beginning March 1st, 1912. That this balance is larger than it was one year ago is due to several augmented congregations being vacant—a fact rather to be regretted. It is worthy of notice that the amounts paid in grants last year was $1,320.00 less than was asked for and promised, and $1,316.00 less than was disbursed in grants the preceding year. In fact, we have just learned that 13 such congregations are now vacant. In October, 1911, supplementary grants were promised for the year ending February 29th, 1912, in whole or in part as follows, and at the rates per year here designated:—Leitch's Creek $275, in the Presbytery of Sydney; Earltown, $225, and Linden and Northport $300, in the Presbytery of Wallace; Bethany and Rockingham $300, in the Presbytery of Halifax; New Dublin and Conquerall $250, Clyde and Barrington $250, in the Presbytery of Lunenburg and Yarmouth; Nashwaak and Stanley $200, Norton $300, Lorneville $200, Milltown $125, Fairville $100, St. Matthews, St. John $100, in the Presbytery of St. John; Escuminac $250, in the Presbytery of Miramichi. The Assembly is asked to confirm the same.

At our Annual Meeting in April last applications were received and the Assembly is asked to sanction the grants herein specified for the current year. They are as follows:

Presbytery of Sydney—Broughton, continued to March 19th, 1912; Gabarus, $300; Leitch's Creek, $275; Little Bra Bras D'Or, $150; St. Mark's, $300; St. Peter's, $200; Cape North, $300.

Presbytery of Inverness—Baddeck Forks, $275; Lake Ainslie, $250; Mabou, $50 for half year; Margaree, $300; and Port Hood, $300.

Presbytery of Pictou—Cape John and Caribou, $100 for 6 months; McLellan's Mountain, $170; West Branch, $100 for 6 months.

Presbytery of Wallace—Earltown, $225; Linden and Northport, $250; New Annan, $300.

Presbytery of Halifax—Annapolis $300; Bedford, $175; Bethany and Rockingham, $300; Bridgetown, $300; Middleton, $250.

Presbytery of Lunenburg and Yarmouth—Clyde and Barrington, $250; Dublin and Conquerall, $250.

Presbytery of St. John—Fairville, $200; Greenfield, $250; Hampton, $87 for six months; Kincardine, $225; Lorneville, $200; Milltown, $200; Nashwaak and Stanley, $200; Norton, $250; St. George and Bocabec, $200; St. Matthews, St. John, $175.

Presbytery of Miramichi—Bass and Nicholas Rivers, $200; Escuminac, $250; Harcourt, $250.

Presbytery of Prince Edward Island—Marshfield, $150; West River, $250.

These congregations report 2,546 families under pastoral oversight, of whom 2,279 contribute to stipend, and 3,635 communicants—an average per congregation of 65 families under pastoral oversight, 58 contributing and 93 communicants, in each of which particulars there is a slight improvement over the preceding year.

29 of these congregations have a manse, 3 provide a free house, 1 gives $50 in lieu thereof, and 6 do not make any provision in this line.

They promise stipend to the total of $22,971.00, averaging $589.00 per congregation, $6.32 per communicant, $9.02 per family under oversight, and $10.08 per family contributing. Including the provision of manse, etc., they average $6.77 per communicant, $9.66 per family under oversight, and $10.80 per family contributing. The highest average per communicant to stipend is $25.00. Seven average over $10.00. Six average below $5.00, of which six two otherwise qualify, the communicants doubling the number of families, and four are made special cases.

In re subscriptions: 19 have the same amount subscribed as is promised to stipend, 14 have less, 3 have more, and 3 do not report this.

The total increase of stipend is $726.00 from 13 congregations, 30 reporting no increase.

They last year gave $899.00 to the Augmentation Fund and $4,718.00 to the other Schemes—a total to Schemes of $5,617.00—averaging $1.54 per communicant, $2.20 per family under oversight, and $2.46 per family contributing.

This $5,617.00 given by these augmented congregations to the Schemes of the Church is 59½ per cent. of the total amount they now ask from the Fund.

One congregation became self-sustaining during the past year—namely, Dundas, in the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island.

26 of these congregations have the weekly envelope system in operation, 12 have not, and 1 reports they tried it but it failed. It would be interesting to know why it failed. Of the 13 not having the weekly system, 11 contribute quarterly and 2 monthly.

24 report that their system is faithfully practised, 11 report "fairly so," and 4 say "No" to this question.

20 of them were visited by their Presbytery or its agent and 19 were not.

The following resolution was unanimously carried at the annual meeting of your Committee:—

Inasmuch as the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, at its last meeting, unanimously agreed that the minimum stipend within its bounds should be $900.00 and a manse: therefore, resolved, to ask the General Assembly to legislate to that effect, the same to be made effective from March 1st, 1912, and the Sub-Committee, appointed to propose to the Assembly regulations for the working of the same, ask for legislation as follows:

1. That, in addition to such manse, or free house, or $50.00 in lieu thereof, the aid-receiving congregation be required to give a stipend of not less than $600.00 per annum.

2. That, in such congregations the contributions to stipend shall average at least $5.50 per member or $10.00 per family, under pastoral oversight, where the number of members is greatly in excess of, or proportionately lower than, the number of families; and that, in computing the averages, $50.00 be added to the amount of stipend promised in all cases where a manse or free house, or $50.00 in lieu thereof, is given.

3. That in no case shall a grant exceed $300.00

4. That Presbyteries be requested to duly impress upon all congregations not now (1912) on the list of augmented charges the need and the duty of rising to the utmost of their ability before seeking aid from this Fund, and to render all possible assistance to the Committee in order to the securing of the $900.00 minimum.

5. That no applications for grant to vacant congregations be entertained, but that the Committee be authorized, if it deem proper, to appoint a Sub-Committee to receive and deal with applications prepared at the time of settlements effected between meetings of the Committee.

6. That with these amendments the other former regulations continue in force.

W. H. SPENCER,
Convener.

E. A. McCURDY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

In contemplation of the future of the Canadian people, there is no more perplexing or important aspect than that which is closely connected with the work under the guidance and control of this Board. Evidence is abundant of the consistent and persistent purpose of the Church of Rome to use every agency available for her own aggrandizement. From her viewpoint in so doing she is advancing the Kingdom of God. Whatever restraint may be laid on her politically, the great deliverance must come from the growth of French Protestantism; so leading the Roman Catholic laity in particular to an appreciation of the greater freedom and the higher ideals of the Reformed religion. The other provinces of the Dominion cannot afford to be indifferent to what happens in Quebec. If they are they will sooner or later realize that the health of the whole body depends on the health of every part of it. This is the justification of the work carried on by the Board of French Evangelization.

A review of the work of the year shows encouraging progress in the fields and also a gradual awakening to its nature and importance throughout the Church. It is gratifying to note that the total receipts for French Evangelization and Pointe-aux-Trembles are the largest in the history of the Board; and also that the contributions in the fields show an advance on the preceding year of $2,000.00.

A significant sign of promise is the increasing sense of responsibility on the part of French Protestants towards their fellow-countrymen and the determination of their leaders to measure up to it. This was the key-note of the addresses at a banquet given by the Old Pupils of Pointe-aux-Trembles last February when upwards of one hundred were present, representative of all sections of the community, and also of the Missionary Convention of Presbyterian Workers held about the same time. A Roman Catholic Bishop has well said that "It is a mere superstition to be proud of your faith if you do not want to bring all men to share it."

THE WORK.

The operations of the Board have been carried on during the whole or part of the year in nine Provinces of the Dominion by 28 pastors and ordained missionaries, 13 colporteurs and students, and 26 teachers in 37 mission fields and 7 colportage districts. The average Sabbath attendance was about 2,000, representing 916 families, and 1,196 church members; 130 were added to the Church and some 200 members removed. There were 1,150 scholars in the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes; 75 Roman Catholics became Protestants during the year and 650 pupils attended the mission schools, of whom 224 were Roman Catholics; 2,150 copies of the Scriptures (whole or in part) and 29,000 religious tracts and booklets were distributed. The field raised $9,050, of which $983 were for missions and the schools contributed $5,750.00, making a total of $14,800.00.

These figures are interesting and useful, but neither figures nor words can tabulate the results of the work. The enlightening and spiritual forces generated and intensified by it throughout the country are beyond human reckoning. We know, however, that young hearts have been touched by the love of Jesus, troubled spirits have found peace, anxious and sorrowing souls comfort and light, and disheartened and persecuted men and women courage and strength to go on their way through the loving and sympathetic ministrations of our missionaries. God alone knows how much is being accomplished.

PRESBYTERY OF MACLEOD.

The Rev. A. J. Langlois worked for the first quarter of the year in the Blairmore district and was able to reach many of the French-speaking miners there. Owing to readjustment of the work he returned to the East and has since laboured with success at Joliette.

Requests from the Synod of Alberta and the Presbytery of Edmonton for a French colporteur were received by the Board during the year and were refused because no suitable man was available.

PRESBYTERY OF WEYBURN.

The Rev. S. P. Rondeau continues bi-lingual work in the western part of the Presbytery. When appointed it was to do French work and look after the English in the district, but Mr. Rondeau says his work has been the reverse: He mentions seven centres of French settlement in his territory and says: "The French population is intelligent and possessed of a strong desire for progress and most of them want the Public School. They are indifferent, liberal and bigotted in religious matters. It is natural that they should be attached to their Church since most of them have come here under the guidance of the priest or his acolytes. Apart from services held more or less regularly at two places my French work has been visitation, distribution of literature and Bibles and looking after families where the Romish priests were trying to enter or those of mixed marriages. Romish influence is everywhere at work. The growth of wealth in securing some of the best land in the West and the development of clerical influence and prestige will amaze our dormant Protestant element by and by. Years ago Dr. Carmichael married a couple in Regina. I discovered them in the hills, a family of twelve, and baptized seven of them. The eldest daughter, eighteen years of age, was in the convent at W———, and so strongly was she influenced that after a few months she wanted to become a nun and her father was forced to take her out. Protestant patronage and wealth go to help these institutions. The pioneer tends to be liberal, but not irreligious, and is in a more or less plastic state. French evangelization should be strongly urged at this time and would have the effect of awakening both Protestant and Roman Catholic."

PRESBYTERY OF HURON.

Grand Bend, etc. The Rev. S. A. Carriere has ministered to both English and French for about thirty years with unflinching acceptance. He reports the French side of his work as very encouraging and that notwithstanding serious losses by removals his congregation has decided to assume all financial responsibilities for the future and thus release the grant given by the Board for use elsewhere and that the French people are taking their share in the work thus showing that race is not a barrier to unity and harmony where there is a common faith.

PRESBYTERY OF ALGOMA.

Mr. H. Fresque, student, took up work in the Chelmsford district last April and opened a school at Platinum for the ten neglected French Protestant families there. He did faithful work, which was appreciated, although handicapped by having to be carried on in a private house. Late in the Fall the Rev. E. D. Pelletier was put in charge of the field, and has given part of his time to the lumber camps, where he has been well received. Steps are being taken to put up a building to serve as church and school.

W. T. PRITTIE, Convener.

PRESBYTERY OF GLENGARRY.

The French work in Glengarry Presbytery includes regular services in Cornwall and occasional visits to Lancaster, St. Raphael, Glen Roy and Green Valley. The attendance at these outside points varies from eleven to twenty-three persons. Some of those who attend drive several miles and are very grateful for the privilege of hearing the gospel and numbers of them take part in the meetings. This is an important part of the work as it keeps together and encourages the scattered French Protestant families.

The work in Cornwall consists in Sunday services at eleven o'clock, followed by a Sabbath School exercise to which all remain. There is also a week night prayer meeting, which is well attended. This, however, reaches only some eight families regularly, with an occasional visitor. They are devoted to their work, and raised their Presbytery allotment for the Schemes of the Church. A very important part of the Cornwall work is open air meetings during the summer months. Hundreds collect in the park every Sunday afternoon, many of whom are Roman Catholic. Gospel addresses are given in French and English. Then again on Sunday evenings about 8.30 o'clock the gospel is preached on the town wharf, where scores are gathered. From these meetings a few enquirers have come and Bibles have been given them. Our devoted worker, Rev. I. P. Bruneau, is unceasing in seeking for open doors into which he can carry the gospel.

R. HARKNESS, Convener.

PRESBYTERY OF OTTAWA.

Ottawa and Hull. Rev. C. H. Vessot is the missionary in charge of St. Mark's Church, Ottawa. Activity and progress are in evidence. The Young People's Society still flourishes. The school at Hull report a full attendance and very satisfactory work is being done there under the direction of Miss Alice Cruchel. Mr. Vessot also ministers monthly to a small group, consisting of four Waldensian families at Hawthorne, Ont., about eight miles from Ottawa. Angers and Perkins: these two preaching stations are situated thirteen miles apart, nevertheless, the pastor, Rev. C. F. Cruchon bears testimony to very gratifying results from his labours in both places. Masham and Otter Lake: Rev. A. F. Rivard has here a very large territory to cover. During the winter months he holds cottage meetings in five different localities and gives Bible readings which evidently have been greatly appreciated.

Montebello, Ripon, etc. This field was under the care of the Students' Missionary Society of the Montreal College during the past summer and was unprovided for in winter save what service has been given by Mr. Cruchon from Angers.

Namur and Grand Lac. There are five preaching stations here with Rev. H. Dubois, B.D., in charge. The work has been about as usual in this place. The school at Namur is now self-supporting. The schools at Grand Lac and Lac Rond are prosperous.

The pathway, which our missionaries have to tread on these fields, is not an easy one, and we bespeak from the membership of our Church their most hearty support and their most earnest prayers on behalf of this part of our Master's work.

JAMES H. WOODSIDE, Convener.

PRESBYTERY OF MONTREAL.

Arundel is a bilingual field in which the Rev. J. B. Sincennes has done excellent work. He is a strenuous leader and builder of churches and schools, just the kind of a man we need. Belle Riviere is one of our oldest fields. A number moved away during the year. Most of the families are well-to-do, but their education on lines of systematic giving has been deficient. There has been improvements however. Mr. J. Boucher, student, did good work during the summer. Winter supply was given.

Grenville progresses under the care of Rev. A. G. Rondeau, B.D. The people doubled the sum allotted by Presbytery. Miss E. Brisbois taught the school and was much encouraged by both Protestant and Roman Catholic families. The Italian Mission has some forty families connected with it and about the same number of young men, who maintain an active Y.M.C.A. The Mission Building, 156 Elizabeth Street, is a religious, musical, social and literary centre for the young men of the colony. It is under the direction of the Rev. E. Rivoire, B.A. The Day School is taught by Sig. M. Richard and the evening classes by the missionary with volunteer assistants. There is a debt of $4,000.00 on the mission.

Joliette is one of the very few places in the province, where English Protestants are increasing and the increase is due mainly to the C.N.R. Shops. This side of the work has been so encouraging that the missionary, Rev. A. J. Langlois, has not been aggressive on the French side of his work. A good deal has been expended on the church building during the year, and the people expect to be self-supporting in the near future.

Lacroix has profited by the excellent work done by Pastor Rey, who has proven himself to be a good missionary and preacher. Constant additions are being made from Romanists. The school has been in the hands of Mme. St. Pierre and Mlle. A. Belle Isle.

Maisonneuve was worked in conjunction with the St. Charles Street mission during the summer by the Rev. C. Lapointe, a Pointe-aux-Trembles teacher, whose good work was appreciated. Many of the families are Belgian. A school was taught by Mlle. H. Laurin, a Pointe-aux-Trembles pupil.

St. Jean Baptiste has given much encouragement to the Rev. P. E. St. Germain since taking up work there last May. It is hampered by an unsuitable building. A new church is being planned for. Mlle. E. Lamert continues her good work in the school. St. Hyacinthe, self-sustaining: pastor, Rev. H. Joliat.

St. John's, pastor, Rev. T. S. St. Aubin, has been cheered with additions to the membership, many of them having been Roman Catholics. On the other hand removals have been numerous. The treasurer's receipts were the largest in the history of the congregation and point towards independence in the near future.

St. Gabriel de Brandon is a bilingual field recently organized. Mr. H. Larviere B.A., occupied it during the summer. The outlook is hopeful. The Rev. J. L. Maynard is in charge of both church and school.

St. Charles Street. After serving the Church faithfully for many years the Rev. C. A. Doudiet retired from active work in the spring and the French work of the mission was taken up by Mr. C. Lapointe. St. Paul's Church continued the English work. During the fall and winter months Professor Bieler, of the Presbyterian College, was in charge, and assisted by his students. Both the Presbytery and the Board are indebted to the Professor for his willing and efficient services. The school was taught by Mme. Charlton. Mlle. Paillaux worked in the mission as Bible Visitor.

New Glasgow is a bilingual field. It is extensive and laborious and has a vanishing English population. Growth can come from the French side only. Pastor Vernier and his valiant flock are doing heroically and in spite of great financial loss by removals have held their own and given largely for missions.

Valleyfield is under the care of the Session of the Valleyfield Presbyterian Church, and was worked by Mr. G. Peck, student, with very great satisfaction. The people doubled their contributions. Mr. J. A. E. Dubuc has done good work as colporteur in several counties.

H. JOLIAT, Convener.

PRESBYTERY OF QUEBEC.

The work among our French fellow-countrymen goes on, quietly but surely. Education is spreading all over the province, and a spirit of enquiry is abroad and increasing numbers are reading the Word of God. Ham Nord, Ste. Sophie, and St. Philippe de Chester are under the pastoral care of the Rev. G. C. Mousseau, of whose labours there are excellent results. Many pupils from these districts are at Pointe-aux-Trembles. Elementary schools are maintained at Ham Nord and St. Philippe.

Ditchfield. In this district Mr. T. Levesque has laboured as colporteur-catechist. He has given much time to the man in the lumber camps and his services have been much appreciated.

St. Valier, St. Francis and Morigeau were worked during the summer by Mr. R. Raguin, a Pointe-aux-Trembles teacher, who met with much encouragement. Occasional supply has been given since the Fall.

St. Damase, Ste. Louise and Ste. Perpetue continue to prosper under the Rev. J. E. Menancon. The debt on the mission property has been paid. There is a good Primary School in summer. Many pupils from this field go to Pointe-aux-Trembles. Mlle. A. Belle Isle taught the school last summer.

Riviere-du-Loup, Cacouna, etc. The Rev. R. E. David has ministered to this large field since last May, preaching in both English and French.

Port-au-Persil and Pointe-au-Bouleau were cared for during part of the summer by the Rev. L. Abram, who was forced to leave the field by illness. It has been without supply since.

Bromptonville is one of our new districts and has been under the care of the Rev. B. Gallo, ex-priest. Good results are looked for.

Lac St. Jean and Chicoutimi, etc., were occupied by Mr. C. Chazeaud, student, as colporteur, preacher, and teacher during the summer. The field has suffered a great loss by the death of Mme. Cote, a woman of great intelligence and missionary zeal.

Quebec City and Lorette—a difficult field—have been in charge of the Rev. Dr. Amaron since last May, who has gathered in ten families with a very good Sabbath attendance. Plans have been prepared for a mission building, where a forward movement will be undertaken along institutional and aggressive evangelistic lines.

Mr. Georges Andre has been diligent as a colporteur in the St. Francis district and has distributed many copies of the Scriptures and read them to many people by the wayside and in their homes.

A. T. LOVE, Convener.

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

The few families at Edmunston and Ste. Agathe received occasional services during the summer. There was no man for the field.

PICTOU AND INVERNESS PRESBYTERIES.

Applications were received from these Presbyteries for missionaries to work among the French speaking miners and Mr. A. Gouin and Mr. N. Fibig were appointed; the former took up work at Stellarton and Joggins; the latter did not enter upon the work and has been replaced by Mr. G. Gallou at Inverness. Superintendent Ross reports hopefully of the work among the miners, who are mostly Belgians. A number of them are Protestant, but the majority are free-thinkers and atheists and look upon all religion in the same light as Romanism, which they have discarded. They are accessible to the missionary and many of them attend his services.

THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The work of Madame Cote, our French Bible woman, shows little variation from that of former years. Many sad cases requiring assistance, sympathy and counsel are always on her list.

Our colporteur, Monsieur Andre, visited last year 1,859 Roman Catholic and 34 Protestant families in the district of Brompton, Compton, Windsor Mills, Waterloo, Sherbrooke and Stanstead.

Letters of appreciation and thanks have been received from each of the twenty-three pupils supported by our Society at the Schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles. Two of this number were obliged to return home on account of ill-health. All the others it is hoped will graduate in the spring.

Our thanks are due to the ladies of Crescent Street Church Auxiliary, who have taken a very special interest in the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools, and upon whose suggestion a committee was appointed to confer with the Board of French Evangelization in reference to the internal management of the household. It was considered advisable to have a competent matron, who would supervise the house-keeping, and, if possible, impart a knowledge of practical domestic science to the pupils. Miss B. W. Mitchell was appointed matron and her service is of great value. Our committee visits the schools regularly.

The call to our French work is earnest and strong.

ELLIOT BUSTEED,

Recording Secretary, W.M.S.

THE POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES MISSION SCHOOLS.

The Schools are situated on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River, nine miles east of Montreal. They were founded in 1846 by the French Canadian Missionary Society, and were purchased by the General Assembly of our Church in 1880, and since enlarged. There is accommodation for 190 boys and 80 girls. Upwards of 6,000 French-Canadians have been educated here. Many of these now occupy positions of trust and influence as ministers, teachers, physicians, lawyers, farmers, mechanics, etc. Pupils are admitted between the ages of thirteen and twenty-five, the average age last year being about fifteen. A preference is given to the sons and daughters of French Roman Catholic parents, and to the children of recent converts from Rome, living in parishes where there are no Protestant schools. The session begins in October each year and continues for seven months. The pupils reside in the buildings and thus enjoy the advantages of a Christian home, under the supervision of earnest, devoted Christian teachers. They all take their share of housework. The day's duties are thus laid out:—Rise at 5.30 a.m.; all are in the class room studying privately from six to seven; house and out-door work begin from 7.30 to 8.30; family worship, when all assemble together, boys and girls. School begins at nine, the first hour being given to Bible study, and continues till twelve. Then dinner, followed by recreation to 1.30. Classes resume till four; recreation from four to five; classes from five to six; tea at six; recreation at seven; family worship; studying privately in the class-room till nine, and all in bed and lights out at 9.30 p.m. Eleven teachers reside in the building.

Special prominence is given to the religious instruction of the pupils, and to the teaching of God's word on the points of difference between Protestants and Roman Catholics. It is no exaggeration to state that comparatively few, if any, of our English-speaking young men and women, are better acquainted with their Bibles, or are better able to give a reason for the hope that is in them, than are the pupils of Pointe-aux-Trembles Mission Schools.

Great care is exercised in the selection of pupils from the increasingly large number of French-Canadians applying for admission. The schools are visited and examined monthly by a Committee of the Board. In January at the end of the session, written examinations are held in all the subjects taught. The work of the past session on the part of both pupils and teachers was very satisfactory.

When the Board acquired the property in 1880, it was resolved to admit no pupils gratuitously, except Roman Catholics, whose parents were unable or unwilling to contribute; all others are required to pay something, in proportion to their ability, towards board and tuition. The amount received in this way during the past session was $5,216. A considerable portion of this amount was money earned by the pupils themselves during the preceding summer. After deducting these fees, the average cost to the Church of each pupil is upwards of $50 per session. The Board desires that the institution should be supported by means of scholarships of $50 each, guaranteed by private individuals, Sabbath Schools and Young People's Associations. A particular pupil is assigned to the donor of a scholarship, to whom reports as to the progress made are forwarded from time to time. In this way a Sabbath School contributing a scholarship is put directly in correspondence with the Mission Schools, and the letters, if read publicly to the Sabbath School, tend to keep up interest in the work. It is hoped, therefore, that many more Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies will assume the support of pupils. From those unable to do so a contribution is earnestly asked. The Board has no hesitation in warmly commending the schools as worthy of public confidence, assured that no means are likely, by the blessing of God, to be more efficacious in the work of French-Canadian evangelization, and in advancing the cause of Christ in the Province of Quebec.

The teaching staff is composed of trained and experienced teachers, whose Christian character and missionary zeal give them special fitness for the work.

THE PRINCIPAL'S REPORT.

Another session is over. For the sixty-sixth time came from every corner of the Province boys and girls to form the happy family of Pointe-aux-Trembles.

About 360 applications were registered, of whom 306 have passed through the school during the session, but only 265 have been steady at work. One hundred were girls and 165 boys. About 50 per cent. of these came from Roman Catholic homes, where the priest is the supreme ruler, and the remainder were children of converts.

Three special features have characterized this session. The first is that we have been reaching some pupils of the educated French-Canadian homes. It shows that freedom begins to find its way among people who think for themselves.

Secondly, pupils are coming to us younger, showing also that French-Canadians are more careful for the education of their children than before, and thirdly, we have been able to report this year more liberality than ever from our pupils. They have been doing much better towards their contributions and fees. Even those who have left our walls, the old pupils, are now anxious to show their gratitude to their Alma Mater. A banquet was organized in February by former pupils for the special purpose of having the old pupils take a more active part in the support of our institution.

As usual the object of the school has been kept in view. The enlightenment of the youth of Quebec, the teaching of better Christian ideals to those who have been kept under the shadow of Rome has been our aim, and the friends of this school will rejoice to know that forty-seven pupils joined the Church this session among whom twenty-six were from Roman Catholic homes.

Several of our girls took charge of mission schools during the summer months and two of our boys were employed as evangelists. The same spirit has been kept up within the building during the session. The bonne entente has been among both boys and girls. Temperance meetings, prayer meetings, every Sunday have shown that our scholars are missionaries among themselves. One Saturday three boys went in the neighbourhood from door to door offering copies of the gospel. They had a very profitable day and they came back to the school with the strong conviction that the Province of Quebec is still in great need of light and truth.

The manual training room, the band, the printing department, the cadet corps, the sewing and domestic work for the girls have brought from time to time in our daily programme a very pleasant variety.

In spite of our long and hard winter the scholars have enjoyed good health. For this we are thankful to God and to our friends who have not failed to give us what was needed. We know that the idea of so many friends helping us had many times a salutary impression on the minds of our students, for their gratitude has been seen in their obedience, their attention in the classes and the chapel, and their good work in their studies.

Here we are after sixty-six years of work. We still see a great future before us. Thousands of young boys and girls who have to be brought to light. Consequently our needs are numerous. We want more scholarships for the new comers. Where are the new Sabbath Schools, Christian Endeavour Societies or individuals who will invest their money at Pointe-aux-Trembles to educate a young French-Canadian and bring him from the confessional box to the free gospel of Christ? We need also, and this is very urgent, an infirmary for the boys and the girls, a small building separated from the main building. A gymnasium is also very much needed. Till now pupils have no place to play except the class rooms and outside. The constant confinement of pupils in the class room is not helpful to students or teachers, and it is very desirable that we have a radical change in this direction. Friends, come to our help so that we may care for the physical as well as for the intellectual and spiritual welfare of our scholars.

E. H. BRANDT,

UNIFICATION OF MISSION WORK.

The Board unanimously resolved to express approval of the proposed plan for its amalgamation with the Home Mission Committee so that all the mission work of the Church in Canada might be under the guidance of one Committee with Synodical Committees to administer the details within the bounds of each Synod as to fields, grants and appointments, provided:

1. That the Synodical Committees be authorized to make grants to missions among Roman Catholics under special regulations suited to the needs of the work, to employ colporteurs or travelling missionaries as well as catechists in special fields; and to provide them with the requisite literature; also to subsidize mission day-schools where it may be judged expedient to do so.

2. That for the present the mission work within the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa shall be under the special supervision of a Superintendent able to speak both French and English, who shall work in conjunction with the several Presbyteries and shall occupy the same relation to the general Home Mission Committee, and to the Synodical Committees as the other Superintendents of the Church.

3. That the residential Mission School at Pointe-aux-Trembles be recognized as one of the educational institutions of the Church, to be administered by a Board of Management, appointed annually by the General Assembly, whose estimates shall be included in the general Church budget, and to which, congregations and Sunday Schools shall be free to allocate moneys for the carrying on of its work. This Board shall also be free to appeal for and to receive legacies and contributions towards its endowment subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

4. That the special grant of $1,625 per annum now paid by the Board of French Evangelization towards the French Chair in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, be continued for two years, out of the funds of the amalgamated committee, after which period the Board of the College shall be responsible for the whole amount of this salary.

ESTIMATES FOR 1913.

The estimated amount for carrying on the work for next year is $59,000, being $35,500 for French evangelization ordinary fund, and $23,500 for the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools.

In closing this report the Board desires to make thankful acknowledgement of its indebtedness to the Woman's Missionary Society, the Student's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, the Montreal Auxiliary Bible Society, the National Bible Society of Scotland, Sunday Schools, and other Young People's Societies, congregations and individual contributors for their co-operation in its work and to earnestly solicit the continuance of the same.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE FOREIGN MISSION COMMITTEE, EASTERN SECTION, 1911-12

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

After sixty-one years of continuous work in the Foreign Mission Field by the Presbyterian Church in the Maritime Provinces, your Committee in charge of the fields, some of them the earliest planted by the Presbyterian Churches of the Colonies, and others added since the union of 1875, has abundant reason still to say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." For the help which has thus been so long extended and still continues, your Committee thinks that grateful praise is due to Him who has crowned it with so much success. Nineteen hundred and eleven has in many respects been a prosperous year. There has been no breach by death in the ranks of our missionaries, though quite a number of them have been toiling in trying climates for forty years or upwards. One, Mr. R. B. Layton, has been compelled to return to Canada in somewhat weakened strength. Another, Mr. W. R. Foote, has been ill for months, but is recovering. Our finances are in a fairly good condition, the year having closed with a credit balance of $689.59, though it ought to be added that our expenditure was nearly $2,000.00 greater than our income, since we commenced the year with a credit balance of $2,648.66. It will be seen that the showing would not have been at all cheering, if the Committee had succeeded in getting the three additional missionaries for which it has diligently been seeking, and which the missions greatly need. Indeed the most discouraging feature of the year has been the difficulty experienced by the Committee in obtaining the needed missionaries. Trinidad, British Guiana and Korea have all been calling, and calling insistently, for additional men, and your Committee with the warm approval of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, resolved to seek for one for each field. Instead of three, it has succeeded in securing only one, Mr. W. G. Firth for Trinidad, and for the very field to which his brother went only a short time ago and fell a victim of yellow fever. The Committee sympathize very keenly with its missionaries in British Guiana and Korea in view of its failure to obtain the missionaries for whom they so eagerly sought.

The work done in all the fields has been excellent in spite of the difficulties and discouragements peculiar to each, as will be seen in the reports from individual missionaries or from the Secretaries of the various mission councils contained in the Appendix.

A feature of special interest in connection with the work of the year, was the visit of the Convener of the Committee to the Missions in the West Indies. The occasion of his visit was the proposed celebration of the jubilee of the ordination of Dr. Morton, who has been honored to spend forty-four years in mission work among the East Indians in Trinidad, being the longest period of service in such work given by any of our missionaries.

But the Convener not only bore to him the congratulations of the Church and Committee, but visited thoroughly the various fields and stations in both Trinidad and British Guiana, conferred with the Mission Councils together and separately, obtained all the information possible as to the nature, progress and needs of the work, carried cheer to the hearts of the converts as well as of the missionaries, and came back more impressed than ever with the magnitude and worth of the mission work which has been and is being carried on in those interesting and important fields.

The following comparative statement shows the sources of our revenue and the relative amounts from these sources:—

Erromanga

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. H. A. ROBERTSON, D.D.

Since we took up the work here, thirty-nine years ago, I have, in round numbers, travelled in one way and another about 80,000 miles, baptized 800 adults, 1,000 children, married 400 couples, given over 12,000 addresses, taught on 4,000 separate days, spent about three months yearly, extending over thirty-nine years, in the work of translating the New Testament and other books; planned and erected, with rough native help, all the mission and other buildings at both head stations, except the two churches which were framed in Sydney and only erected by me, with some help; and I have dispensed medicine to over 1,000 people annually, and, of course, to some of them many times. Besides all this, there comes upon me daily the care of all the churches.

I have not asked or received anything from my church towards support of teachers since 1899.

All the outside help I get, apart from salary, amounts to about £8 annually. Half of this is the interest of the Talbot Fund. A young lady became greatly interested in the Erromanga Mission, by the life and tragic death of godly James Gordon; and, knowing this, her parents, after the daughter's death, placed £100 sterling at interest for the support of a teacher on Erromanga, and since that time, now thirty-five years ago, I receive the interest.

Then, my old companion and friend, "Miner Stearns," of Pictou, N.S., now Pastor Stearns, of a live church in Germantown, Pa., U.S.A., sends me, from two lady members of one of his many Bible Classes, about £4 yearly for the work at Dillon's Bay.

I have no boat now, but a gentleman engaged in sheep grazing near us, kindly lets me have the use of his large whale boat when I require a boat, as I gave him the free use of our boat and horse, before he had either.

My Church gave me two boats since our coming here, and I had before these, the splendid life-boat, the property of the Erromanga Mission, which I found here, when we were settled in June, 1872. I am just now trying to gather together about £25 sterling with which to procure a small boat of about 18 feet keel.

Nearly all my visiting is done on foot, which is hard work over such wild, rocky bush tracks, and especially so for a man no longer young. Still the visiting is more thoroughly done, which is the important matter. I am still able to walk twenty-five miles in one day, walking for ten solid hours, but about twelve hours are spent in all, for I rest and have dinner at midday by some beautiful mountain or shore, sparkling spring or stream.

We have horses, but they are of no use for want of roads, except for twenty-five miles, the distance separating Dillon's Bay from Portinia Bay. But even those twenty-five miles are only possible, even for a horse, so long as the bridle track is kept cleared, which with the rapid tropical growth is no easy task.

We have been cheered during the past year, by about forty people, including four high chiefs, who have renounced heathenism and joined us. These were all from the north and south ends of the island, where a few still cling to their heathen sacrificial annual feasts; but are just as civil to us as any of the Christians are, and give us a hearty welcome whenever we visit them.

The strongest supporter of heathenism, and the most powerful chief of all the south end of the island, having recently joined us, we are hopefully looking forward to the day, not far off, when there will not be one heathen left in all that district. We never see any native in a nude state—all are clothed.

But while cheered by straggling heathen at last coming in, we cannot hide the sad fact that the high death-rate continues. The only cheerful view of this is that without our care and treatment, many more who are living would have died.

We have at the present time sixteen teachers employed, and three young men assisting. One of our daughters teaches regularly a class at the head station (Dillon's Bay) for children and young people, and since we got the complete New Testament, I take a class of adults each morning, except Wednesdays and Saturdays, that we may carefully read through in regular order the new books—i.e., Romans to Revelation.

Several of our better women and men, and who are good leaders, have been committing to memory Books of Scripture, and, I am sure, it will delight the Church at home, to learn that they have in this way committed to memory, naming each verse in order, the Gospels of John and Mark.

But our Erromangan women are the best men on the island in every way, as women usually are pretty much the world over. Our Christian Erromangan women train their children, care for them, are our best and most willing helpers at all times. They never begin a strike, are content with their food and wages, when in our keeping (which is very often not true of the men), and often come to our help when the men are too lazy and selfish to do anything. But we are not working in an ideal world, and so must just do the best we can with the material committed to us.

Owing to almost constant rain in the summer of 1909-1910, it was impossible to get the scrub burned, so that the arrowroot might spring up, hence, we only made about 600 pounds, which friends in Sydney sold for us. The arrowroot made in 1909, kind ministers and other kind friends in Melbourne, are doing their utmost to sell for us.

If I could only get the natives to help heartily in gathering and preparing arrowroot, and then, if we could get ready sale for it, as we used to do, I would very soon be able to pay the balance, about £160, we still owe the British and Foreign Bible Society on the Erromangan New Testament. It cost, in all, £360, but we have refunded already about £200.

But our Erromangans have done admirably in paying for the printing and binding of all the books we have ever issued, except £30, which the Bible Society willingly granted. As the ground has been prepared for the arrowroot to spring up, I am in hopes of a larger quantity of prepared arrowroot this year, 1911; the proceeds of most of which (less expense) will go to the Bible Society to help reduce the balance against us.

During 1910, we contributed £4 in cash to the Tanna Hospital, making about £15 in all from Erromanga to that excellent and most useful Institution. Many of our sick Erromangans have been cured, or received much benefit from Dr. Nicholson's skill, and the kind care bestowed upon them by the good doctor and his kind wife.

I am thankful to be able to state that everything is perfectly quiet all over this island, and that, as my own health has been good, I have been enabled to visit the outlying districts regularly and frequently during the year, as well as attended to all my other multifarious duties.

I should have said, "we," not "I," for in almost all my missionary and other duties that must be constantly and regularly attended to, I have the generous and hearty help of my wife and daughters, year in and year out. Indeed, I could not possibly overtake one-half of the work unaided.

As for native teachers and helpers, with constant watching and encouragement, and backed by our influence, they are a great help in the work.

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. T. W. McKENZIE, D.D.

My health during the past year has been such that I am beginning to feel that I ought not to remain much longer in the Mission. With your sanction I would like to resign about the end of next year. Should I be spared till then I shall have been here over forty years.

Drs. Bowie and Crombie, however, have strongly advised me not to spend another hot season in this climate. We have, therefore, decided to take a short furlough to Sydney at the end of this year, returning in April. I am all the more anxious to do this, as I wish to get a hymn book printed, with some additional hymns, the edition we have being exhausted.

In looking back over these years, I feel thankful that I was permitted to come here and remain so long. Goodness and mercy have followed me. Christ's promise, "Lo; I am with you always," has not failed. Although I was not able to visit the out stations as frequently as in former years, the work has gone on much as usual, the teachers, with one exception, being faithful.

The different villages have paid the salaries of their teachers, and have prepared a considerable quantity of arrowroot. Mr. H. Barnett, Glasgow, has again kindly undertaken to dispose of it for them. With the proceeds of what they contributed in past years, they paid for five churches of Colonial wood, covered with corrugated iron, and three of them weather boarded.

They have also defrayed the expense of all the books printed in their language, which are: a primer, catechism, hymnal, translation of the Peep of Day, made by a class of young men trained for teachers, a Scripture History, and their share of the Bible.

Besides all these things, the house we live in was paid for with arrowroot money. It is not a house to be proud of, however.

The young men do not, as a rule, attend the adults' class at all regularly. They think they know so much more than the older generation that it is not necessary for them to attend. Many of them are becoming very worldly minded. Perhaps this is not to be wondered at, seeing how the white people set them an example in being so zealous for the things of this life.

They are shrewd in striking a bargain, in wanting the highest price for their copra and other produce, and refusing to work for a small wage as they did in years gone by. Hence, many of the traders think that these young fellows are not improved under Mission influence.

Some of them are getting small cutters, and beginning to trade on their own account. Others, on account of the light work and high wages, go as boats' crews on recruiting vessels. We regret this, as it demoralizes them, and they run a risk of being murdered when going ashore in search of recruits at heathen islands. We cannot stop them, however, as the French would soon report us to the Government.

As I write there is a wailing in the village. A boy who went away some months ago in a French recruiting vessel, was shot at Malekula. He was brought to the French Hospital, but to-day died of his wounds. His parents, among the best of our people, are almost heartbroken. Two others from other islands were shot at the same time, one of them fatally.

Kalsakan, the chief of this village, is a fine intelligent native and commands the respect of all the British here. He took an extra year at the Teachers' Training Institution, and has ever since been of great assistance to me in the work. His influence is gradually extending over other villages, the chiefs of which often come to consult him in their difficulties. At present he is in great trouble, as the French are, what seems most unjust, taking a large slice of his people's land, which they declare was never sold.

The law is that all disputed land cases are to be decided by the Joint Land Court. A Frenchman who is determined to have this land had sufficient influence with the Acting French Resident Commissioner so that he induced him to summon Kalsakan before him to try by bluff and persuasion to give up the land, the Frenchman in the meantime taking possession of it.

The chief remained firm, claiming his right to have the case brought before the Joint Land Court. It was hurriedly brought before the Joint Land Court last week, and decided in favour of the Frenchman, which to all appearances is a miscarriage of justice.

The British judge thought that the land properly belonged to the natives, so it is reported, but the French judge and the President of the Court decided otherwise.

The natives are very much cast down at losing their land, as they have gardens on it.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed twice in two districts. An old woman in this village, Tang, her name, deserves to be held in remembrance. She was the first to be friendly when all the rest in her village were very hostile, and ever since she has been a humble follower of the Saviour. On each occasion, she contributed one pound sterling. She gets a little for acting the part of a midwife, but this must be nearly all she receives.

The total contributions during the past year amounted to £157, 15s.

Eleven new members were admitted to church membership during the year; thirteen infants were baptized, and thirteen marriages celebrated.

SANTO.

REPORT OF REV. J. ANNAND, D.D.

The work here continues encouraging. The number of students increases. For the last month we have had ninety-four men and twenty-four women attending. Four men and one woman have completed their term and now leave us, but six men and two women came in, so we shall, (D. V.) reopen classes on January 2nd with ninety-six men and twenty-five women. Then we have about twenty-five children to care for as well.

During the year now closing only nine men have gone out from us to engage as teachers; however, this incoming year more will graduate than for some years past.

Our assistants are now leaving us on account of health, not so much that it has failed, as that it may fail in this climate. We are thus thrown entirely upon our fellow missionaries for help in the teaching. I am glad to be able to say that our health continues fairly good. The Bowies will not be back until June. They are working in Scotland, visiting congregations and getting some printing done for the S. Santo natives.

TRINIDAD.

GENERAL REPORT FOR 1911.

A review of the year's work reveals little to distinguish it from that of the immediately preceding years. In general, the same lines of work have been followed and the same methods employed. Although no striking illustrations of rapid progress or unusual interest can be recorded, yet there have not been lacking evidences that indicate solid growth and stable progress.

During the year the health conditions within the Colony have been much better than for some years previously, and no serious epidemic has occurred to disturb the work. The past season, however, has been unusually dry, with the result that the cocoa crop especially has been greatly affected. The result of this has been that financial depression has prevailed during the later months of the year to almost an alarming extent, and this has affected very considerably the contributions of the native Christians.

At the beginning of the year Rev. W. I. Green, B.A., who had arrived from Canada with his family near the close of 1910, assumed the full charge of the Couva district. Early in January, Rev. A. W. Thomson, M.A., who for twenty years had laboured with conspicuous energy and ability in this field, left for Canada. The Council deeply regretted that Mr. and Mrs. Thomson felt it imperative to withdraw from the work which they loved so well. Hosts of friends follow them with the earnest prayer that their future work in the home land may be abundantly blessed. In April, Rev. Dr. Jamieson and Rev. H. H. Morton, M.A., with their families, went on furlough. Mr. Morton returned in October and Dr. Jamieson in November with renewed vigour to take up again their arduous duties in their respective fields. In July Rev. R. B. Layton, B.A., and family also left for Canada. For some time Mr. Layton's health had not been satisfactory, and the feeling gradually matured in his mind that he should seek a more bracing climate. The Council regretted that this step seemed necessary and that his ministry in Susamachar Church should thus terminate so prematurely. In November, Rev. K. J. Grant, D.D., Pastor Emeritus of Susamachar Church, visited Trinidad and for six weeks assumed all the pastoral duties of his former charge. His old congregation received him with abounding joy, and his brethren and numerous friends in the Colony welcomed him most heartily. Miss A. J. Archibald returned to Trinidad in February after an extended furlough in Canada, and again resumed her position of great usefulness as head of the Ière Girls' Home. Miss Jamieson, who had assumed charge of the "Home" during Miss Archibald's absence, returned to Canada in April, in company with her brother and his family. Her services were highly appreciated by the Council, which also desires to express gratitude to the ladies in Canada who made it possible for Miss Jamieson to render this timely service. In August Mr. G. W. Irvine, B.A., who for two years faithfully filled the position of Master of the Training School, returned to Canada to complete his studies in Theology. Mr. R. B. Clarke, B.A., of St. Stephen, N.B., arrived in September to fill the vacancy and has already heartily entered upon his work.

At the close of the year Rev. Dr. Morton completed his fifty years in the ministry, —forty-four of which have been given to the originating and developing of the work of this Mission. A suitable celebration of this event is to take place at Tunapuna early in 1912.

The field of the Mission's operations is continually expanding. Year by year new settlements are being formed in the still uncultivated sections of the Colony. In these new districts large numbers of the Indian people still continue to take up lands and become permanent settlers, among whom is always a considerable number of our Christian people. This in itself calls for continuous expansion. During the year some new districts to the east and south have been opened up, thus bringing the work almost to the coast line in these directions. Other districts are calling loudly for help, and further extension is only stayed from lack of funds and suitable workers. There are many inviting and needy districts still waiting to be occupied before our work shall have touched in any large measure the whole field of opportunity for service that lies open to us.

In the centres long occupied—on estates and in the older country settlements—the demands increase rather than diminish as the work develops. More complete and effective organization is necessary. This requires more workers of a higher grade and greater experience, and this, of necessity, demands also a greater financial outlay than in the early days of the Mission. The liberality of our native Christians is generally acknowledged, but notwithstanding this our Mission has a problem still to solve which is clearly manifest. The number of experienced workers is still far below the needs of the work, but the outlook is promising for increase in this direction. The financial outlook is not at present so hopeful, and it is a pressing question as to how we shall develop the work already established and at the same time more aggressively prosecute the work of evangelization among the multitudes yet unreached.

Educational Work.

Our educational work may be considered under the following divisions:—

(a) Primary Education.—During the year progress has been made both as regards numbers and efficiency in the work of the Primary schools. The total enrolment in the sixty-one schools of the Mission exceeded 11,000 pupils. Owing to movement of population, some schools, on estates especially, have become smaller, but a rapid growth generally has characterized the schools in the country districts. The Inspector's report for 1910 was most encouraging. The Canadian Mission Schools, as to relative standing among the different groups of schools in the Colony, stood as to efficiency in the foremost place. This does not mean that a standard of perfection has been reached or that all that is desired has been accomplished, but it bears witness to careful supervision on the part of managers and increasing efficiency and interest on the part of our Indian teachers. Compared with the relative standing of our schools twenty years ago, the progress is very marked and gives much satisfaction.

(b) Ière Girls' Home.—The "Home" was opened in 1905, and its progress year by year has been most encouraging. During the year thirty-five pupils have been in residence, a number which completely taxes the accommodation that is at present available. The question of extension is now under consideration, and it is hoped that a way may be devised by which the institution may be enabled to do the most effective work possible along the lines for which it was established.

(c) Secondary Education.—The work of both the Training School and the Naparima College has been conducted along the same lines as former years.

The growing demand for teachers and assistants for the Primary schools has led to a special effort to increase the attendance of suitable pupils at the Training School. The class during the year has numbered thirteen students, with two others doing preliminary work in the College classes. The students without exception have shown gratifying interest and hopeful progress. The Training School continues to occupy a high place of importance among the agencies of the Mission.

The attendance at Naparima College has been the highest in its history, and the work done still maintains the character of former years. Other departments of a special and practical character should be added just as soon as funds for extension are available.

(d) Religious Education.—Religious instruction continues to form a part of the work in all our schools from the lowest department in the Primary schools to our highest classes in the Naparima College and Training School. This tends to increase the interest in Sunday School work and render it more effective. Much attention is bestowed upon this department and every effort put forward to make it as productive of good as possible. By means of the Teacher Training Classes all our teachers and assistants are carefully trained in the Bible and Methods of Religious Instruction. Increasing interest is manifested in this work, and the influence of the teaching of the Word of God is not without visible results. From our schools are being gathered in year by year many of our most intelligent and promising young Christians. If the staff of native workers was greater and time thus available to them to keep in touch more closely with the young people after they leave school and go out from its influences, the results of the educational work would probably be even more manifest. Where home influences for good are so largely lacking the school becomes the one great agency for bringing the young under the power of the truth and training them in true character.

The classes in the Presbyterian College were carried on throughout the year without any interruption. Fifteen men attended the regular classes, six of whom are now well advanced in their studies and are gradually approaching the standard required for ordained native pastors. The results of the year's work have been satisfactory. The men without exception studied faithfully and a gradual maturing of character and a deeper sense of responsibility have been perceptible.

The Teacher Training classes have been continued at the four centres. This work has now become generally an acknowledged necessity and its value beyond question. In all about 120 teachers and pupil teachers were enrolled. About twenty Junior Diplomas will be granted to younger teachers who have not yet received them, while about twenty of the senior teachers have completed the greater part of the work demanded for Senior Diplomas.

These Saturday classes, although a heavy tax on the strength of the instructors, have justified the time and energy expended. The inspiration derived from study and fellowship has done much for many of the teachers themselves and given them, we believe, a higher regard for their profession and a deeper sense of the importance of their work in its bearing on the working out of the aims of a Christian mission.

In addition to the different phases of the educational work above indicated, there are regular classes held one day a week for the Christian workers at the central stations, under the missionary in charge. These classes are of a practical character and afford, in addition to instruction, an opportunity to the missionaries to come into close personal touch with their own workers and thus help them by encouragement and counsel to better meet the difficulties of their daily work.

Evangelistic Work.

The printing press, under the management of Dr. and Mr. H. H. Morton, has continued to issue the lesson helps in Hindi which are regularly circulated among the Hindi-speaking people in the country districts. An enlarged edition of four thousand copies of the Hindi Hymn Book has also been prepared and is now ready for circulation. This will aid greatly in the worship of the Hindi congregations.

One of the greatest social evils of the Colony is intemperance. The Mission has always taken a strong stand on the question of temperance. Efforts have been made to secure improved legislation in order to regulate, in some fuller measure, the liquor traffic. It is possible that something may be done in the near future. In the meantime the efforts of the missionaries are directed to doing what they can by teaching, pledges, and exhortation to inculcate principles of sobriety and self-control.

As in the past, the general evangelistic work has received prominent attention. As already indicated, the greater part of the time and energy of the native workers is devoted to the oversight of, and ministrations to, the native Christians. The result of this has been that for some years past aggressive evangelistic work among the non-Christians has not been so vigorously prosecuted as we might desire. This, doubtless, accounts in large measure for the comparatively small number of adult baptisms during the year. The educational work, in many districts, is doing much to prepare the way for the evangelist, but with our limited resources we have not been able to fully take advantage of the opportunities. More thought than usual has been given to the problems connected with the more complete organization of the native Christian communities. Everything possible will be done, within the bounds of expediency, to hasten the development of native congregations under properly trained native pastors. Serious consideration is also being given to the necessity of more aggressive evangelistic work among the large East Indian population yet unreached. Efforts are also being made to bring more forcibly to the minds of the Christian people the duty of and call to personal effort on behalf of the highest interests of their fellow-countrymen.

It is a hopeful sign, worthy of commendation, that the native Christian communities are undertaking, with so much energy, the erection, by their own unaided efforts, of suitable places of worship.

We have endeavoured to give a general summary of the work of the year. A review of this nature must, of necessity, be somewhat external in character, but it reveals problems to be solved and conditions to be met that call to prayer and deeper consecration.

We wish to express our thanks to all who have aided in our work and who, by their sympathy and prayers have made our burdens lighter and easier to be borne.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. COFFIN, Secretary Mission Council.

BRITISH GUIANA, 1911.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF R. GIBSON FISHER.

Essequibo.

Probably the most important event of the past year in this Colony was the taking, after an interval of twenty years, and on a more complete and exhaustive scale than any attempted hitherto, of an official census of the population. The Report of that census, just issued, is a very valuable document, and one that is likely to be much studied and quoted by all interested in British Guiana for some years to come. For, in addition to the usual items of interest concerning population, numbers, sexes, ages, and distribution and density of population, opportunity was taken to obtain and make available exact information concerning the condition of the people, their birthplaces and races, occupations, religions, and education, together with an exhaustive return, specially prepared at the request of the Government of India, and particularly valuable to us, concerning the East Indian population. In the General Report of our Mission Council this year attention will, doubtless, be called to some features of this census as they affect our work in the Colony as a whole. Here we are concerned only with its revelations in so far as they relate to our mission work in Essequibo.

Not counting the Forest Indians of the interior, estimated at 13,000, the recent census gives Essequibo a population of 54,583, distributed as under:—

Essequibo River and Tributaries, including the Islands of Wakenaam and Leguan	22,976
Essequibo Coast, and Tiger Island	22,625
Pomeroon, and Moruca Rivers, and North West District	8,982
The nationality of these is stated to be as follows:—
Whites (other than Portuguese)	381
Portuguese	724
Chinese	370
East Indians	22,190

Africans	21,771
Mixed races	4,649
Aboriginal Indians, etc.	4,498

Since the last census, all other races have diminished; but East Indians have increased by 20 per cent. 12,203 of these East Indians were registered as born in the Colony; 9,987 as born in India.

Concerning religion, the following statistics are given: Anglicans, 17,029; Roman Catholics, 4,295; Presbyterians, 2,968; Wesleyans, 2,302; Congregationalists and other Christian sects, 4,449; Total Christians, 31,043; Non-Christians, 20,404; not stated, 3,136.

The religions of the Essequibo East Indians is stated officially to be: Hindus, 17,011; Mohammedans, 3,236; Parsis, 157; Others (these being Christians with very few exceptions), 1,786; i.e., roughly 10 Hindus, and 2 Mohammedans to each nominal Christian.

Official records also show that there are working among the 31,043 Christians in Essequibo to-day 23 ordained ministers or missionaries, viz., Anglicans, 9; Roman Catholics, 5; Wesleyans, 2; Church of Scotland, 2; Other Denominations, 5; but among the East Indians no other Church, save ours, has a single missionary, or ever has had! In the Providence of God, the task of evangelizing these thousands of heathen has been left to us. What are we doing for them?

For the East Indian settlers on the banks of the Essequibo Rivers, Upper and Lower; on the Pomeroon; the Potaro; the Cufuni; the Massaruni; the Puruni Rivers, and in the N.W. District, we are doing nothing. Our work is limited to Leguan, Wakenaam, and Tiger Islands, in the estuary of the Rio, Essequibo, and to the strip of the Essequibo coast, stretching from Aurora to Hampton Court, a distance of about 27 miles.

Leguan.—On April 2nd, 1911, the Island of Leguan had a population of 3,354, of whom no less than 2,231 were East Indians. Here we have one native catechist, in charge of two stations (Maryville and Blenheim), assisted by five native teachers. The past year has been a very difficult one in Leguan, on account of the failure of the usual rains. Nothing but rice is now grown on the Island; and the failure of their crops has disheartened and scattered many of the people. The average attendance at our Sabbath services has declined, both at Maryville and Blenheim; but both Sabbath and day schools have increased in numbers and efficiency; and "out of the abundance of their poverty" the native Church has doubled its contributions. The census shows that out of 679 inhabitants at Pen. Success, 638 were East Indians; which fact renders our regret all the more poignant that we are still unable to enter the door, so wonderfully opened for us there, as mentioned in our last Report.

We have only 10 communicants and 21 catechumens on the island, as against 1,751 Hindus, 336 Mohammedans, and 31 Parsis. But "A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." Our great hope, here and elsewhere, is in the children, of whom 137 received daily instruction in our schools last year.

Wakenaam.—The population of Wakenaam is stated to be 4,400, of whom 2,741 are East Indians—Hindus, 2,253; Mohammedans, 299, and Parsis, 21. Our work at Mackay Memorial Mission has been well maintained by Catechist Nohar and his little band of faithful followers; but we have had no baptisms or conversions to record this year, and it has been a hard struggle to hold our own against Mohammedan and Hindu aggression. The visit of the Hindu pandit mentioned in our last Report—Parmanand Saraswat, M.A., of the Brahma Samaj—roused the spirit of the local Hindus, and every branch of our work has suffered in consequence. We have experienced sad losses also by death and removals here; so that the gain of six new communicants during the year has left us just about where we were at the start. Things began to brighten toward the close of the year, and 10 catechumens were enrolled; but a serious racial riot between Blacks and East Indians on Christmas Day, when many heads were cracked, has not helped to commend the "Christianity" of the Black man to the children of the East!

The Mackay Memorial Day School, Sunday School, and Night School have, however, in spite of every hindrance, more than held their own; and a few of the young people here have developed wonderfully, and give promise of great things by and by.

At Zeelandia, and Friendship also, we have made some good progress, particularly among the young. But we sadly need better accommodation at Friendship, for our temporary "Tabernacle" is neither water-tight nor safe.

Tiger Island.—One step forward we rejoice to be able to record this year, or, rather, the re-occupation of territory once held, but temporarily abandoned a few years ago. Towards the close of the year we were requested by the people of Tiger Island, who, according to the Census Commissioner, number 393—all East Indians save 30—to undertake a day school for their benefit at Hamburg, no other school existing on the island. The proprietors, endorsing the request of the people, placed buildings, suitable for school and general purposes, at our disposal free of charge; as also the use of a good motor launch, to cross the river thither, whenever we wished to visit the place.

The Rev. J. D. Mackay had organised a school here shortly before his death; but lack of funds and of a suitable teacher led to its temporary abandonment. The Estate subsequently changed hands, and the new owners, being Roman Catholics, for some years refused us facilities. Providence has, however, again opened the door for us; and a pleasing incident occurred at the recommencement of our work there last month. In taking down names of the children for the day school registers, there came forward two East Indian boys, in garments ragged and torn, who gave their names as "Mackay" and "Cruikshank," respectively. Thinking these could not possibly be their proper names, we made further enquiry, and were told that these were the only names they were ever known by; and that, if they ever had any other, they had been forgotten even by their parents. It was stated that these boys had been baptised by the late missionary on one of his visits to the island—probably the last; for I can find no record of any baptism at Tiger Island in the Official Registers. Even if baptised as stated, I doubt very much that they were given these names. Probably they have forgotten their Christian names, and, after the manner of this country, have appropriated those of their "god-fathers." However, there they are!—two living memorials—verily, "bread, cast upon the waters: seen after many days."

Essequibo Coast.—Space forbids any detailed reference to the work of the past year on our several coast stations. Here the area of our operations embraces four sugar estates and thirty-seven villages, containing in all 22,232 inhabitants, of whom East Indians comprise the greater half—12,808. The returns show that 9,816 of these are Hindus, 1,878 Mohammedans, 1,026 Christians, and 88 Parsis. In this field we have to-day 4 catechists, 2 catechist teachers, 1 colporteur, 52 communicants, 65 catechumens, 7 Sabbath schools, with 572 scholars; 3 Hindi day schools, and 4 night schools.

Through the catechists and colporteur we have again disposed of about $300.00 worth of Bibles and cheap evangelistic literature, in half a dozen languages, mainly obtained from the C. L. S. of India. This branch of the work is all but self-supporting; but the "good seed" might be even more widely scattered if more funds were available for travelling expenses.

The work generally is advancing, but in no case very rapidly, as every inch of ground is now keenly disputed by Hindu or Mohammedan antagonists. The visit of Pandit Parmanand Saraswat to this coast in February had disastrous effects on our work in the Huist Dieren District, and practically annihilated the Sabbath school and night school at Airy Hall. Every Hindoo child was removed, and adults were warned, and watched, against attending our services; and an opposition night school was opened, to prevent the young men from coming further under our influence. Matters improved somewhat towards the end of the year. The Hindu night school has recently collapsed, and gradually the scholars are returning to us; but the enemy is vigilant and desperate still.

The Whole Field.—The statistics for the whole field show 37 additions to the roll of communicants; but only a net gain of 7 on the year, for 30 have been lost by removals and death. Only 37 baptisms are reported, being the smallest number since 1906. Other figures are:—

Sunday schools	13	Increase	1
Sunday school scholars	921	Increase	137
Sunday school teachers	29	Increase	2
Day schools, Hindi only, 3; Hindi and English, 6....	9	Increase	4
Day school scholars	388	Increase	79
Night schools	8	Increase	1
Night school scholars	86	Increase	27
Day and night school teachers	20	Increase	5
Total contributions of native Church	$346.23
Increase	151.77

A word or two may be allowed concerning this latter item. This gratifying increase in giving among the native Christians is largely the result of a series of Home Mission-are Meetings which were held in the seven chief stations last July. A first attempt at the task of bringing these people to take an intelligent and self-sacrificing interest in the great work of bringing their benighted fellow-countrymen into the Light, these meetings were entered upon with much trepidation, but the catechists in particular threw themselves heartily into the business, and in nearly every case the meeting proved not only a financial success, but a spiritual tonic of no mean order. All who took part therein expect such meetings now to become an annual institution. They did not, of course, usurp the place of the Thanksgiving Services near the close of the year, which are increasingly popular, and were a greater success financially this year than ever before. These favourable results have raised the average contribution per communicant from $2.86 to $4.62.

This is not the place to complain of the failure of the Home Church to send us the long-expected successor to Mr. Mackenzie; but, in glancing over the Record of the past year for the purpose of compiling this Report, one is forcibly reminded of the need of the now long-overdue furlough for all the workers in this field by the frequent blank days accounted for by ill-health, mainly, if not entirely, the result of overwork and want of rest and change. No less than 26 days, including 5 Sundays, are thus accounted for this year, spread over 9 months of the year—a serious handicap upon the work, and Nature's danger signal, that cannot long be disregarded with impunity. In the interests of the work, no less than of the workers, we hope and trust that some one will soon be found able and willing to step into the breach.

Moral damages, as well as physical, must surely follow, if there be much more delay in filling the vacant place. Pandit Permanand, aforesaid, evidently formed a high opinion of the Church at home, and its sincerity, though he had never visited Canada, on account of its mission work here; for, in a published speech of his, urging the Hindus at a "mass meeting" in Georgetown to subscribe funds for the erection of a Hindoo school (since erected, and now in operation), he held us up as examples of faith and sacrifice to his own people:—"It was an acknowledged fact," he said, "that whatever a child was taught in his early life was most deeply impressed on his mind; and he, therefore, saw with alarm and regret that the schools to which the East Indian children were being sent here, were managed by the Christian missionaries. What he wished to point out to the Hindus was that if Canadians, feeling the truth of their religion, sent out men to this Colony, and spent money to spread their faith among the Hindoo people's children, it was, he thought, their bounden duty, if they had any faith in their own religion—if they had a religion which, if not superior was as good as, and compared favourably with, the Christian religion—to do something to protect their children from Christianity. For this purpose it was necessary for them to imitate the Canadians, and make some sacrifice for the good of others."

But what will he, and others, say when he learns the position to-day?

We were much encouraged by the short visit of the Rev. Dr. Coffin, of Trinidad, early last year, and are now looking forward with pleasure to the proposed visit of the Convener of the F. M. Committee. We feel that the work here is not sufficiently well known to the friends at home, and such a distinguished and influential visitor is sure of a hearty welcome.

We have also been much cheered again this year by the kind remembrance of us and of our work on the part of many Mission Bands, and by the goodly number of Mission Boxes, full of good things, they have sent us. If these kind friends would only remember that we have in all our schools about two boys to each girl, we should be even more delighted. Personal enquiries from friends at home, who may be interested in our work, are always welcome.

To the Fathers and Brethren of the F. M. Committee, and to the whole Church at Home, for the generous provision made for our needs, our sincere thanks are again tendered. And for the new year we venture, humbly and hopefully, to solicit "greater things than these"—even more generous support in the shape of "fervent, effectual prayer"; of thoughtful sympathy: of the sadly-needed re-inforcement of our staff: and of well-filled coffers.

Demerara and Berbice Districts

REV. J. B. CROPPER.

The work during the past year has been conducted along accustomed lines; and has been attended with much the same classes of result as in former years.

Throughout the year sickness was prevalent amongst the native agents and their families, and much difficulty was, at times, experienced in keeping up supply in the several stations. For this purpose more use has been made of the teachers of the Day Schools—particularly the unaided Mission Schools—and the volunteer workers. The first named class is the agency on which we rely for the carrying on of Sabbath School work; but they are also available in case of need for conducting a meeting or a stated service. The staff was permanently weakened by the departure for India of our leading catechist and by the removal by death of another whose zeal and length of service had made him a valued worker.

This lack of service and oversight has told in more ways than one. The life of the Christian community has been wanting in vigour, and the zeal and interest of its members has flagged. The contributions, too, of the native church are considerably below expectation. These are resultant conditions known everywhere.

In April a census of the population of the colony was taken—the only one in 20 years—and the importance of the East Indian as an element in the population has been demonstrated. The county of Berbice—like San Fernando and the Naparimas in Trinidad—is the centre which has, for this class, its attraction and charm. In this county are the East Indians, not only in largest numbers, but also most advanced in material prosperity. It is a matter of regret that we cannot go in with the settlers, grow with them as they grow in their steadily developing communities, and leaven them with Christianity.

But while this element of the population is daily stepping into greater prominence, it is sad to note the religious condition of its members. Mohammedanism is daily becoming more aggressive. There is hardly a sugar estate in the Colony in which there is not a masjid (mosque); many villages boast the presence of one; and in the city of Georgetown stands a large and imposing one. There are also many business men and property owners who are followers of "the Prophet." Hinduism, too, has recently experienced a revival. A Pandit of the Arya Somaj sect was recently introduced into the Colony. He was followed by a qualified medical man of the same sect, who started practice in Georgetown. These men have been busy disseminating the tenets of their sect and quickening interest in their creed. A Hindu school has been started under prominent auspices with the avowed object of training children in the faith. Like the Mohammedans, the Hindus have a place of worship on almost every sugar plantation and in many of the large villages. But of more concern is the godlessness of the religionless Indo-Guianese.

Work has hitherto lain almost exclusively among the poorer sections of the people. But of late years, as the younger members of the families have grown up, and as others of the like class have been directly reached, the sphere of the missionaries' activities has widened, and it has reached to other "orders of society." The past year has witnessed this to an even greater extent than previously and opportunities have multiplied of usefulness in this new direction. There is great difficulty in doing effective work among these differing classes, simultaneously and with the same native agency. The one, Eastern in thought, feeling, language and dress and often, too, less possessed of worldly goods, looks with regret on the degenerate progeny which has fallen away from the customs and life of an ancient ancestry, while the youth of half-developed Western sentiment and style affects to despise his "uncivilized" forbear. Berbice, and particularly the Corentyne Coast, present this difficulty in a marked degree. It is a difficulty which must, however, be met; for it is not contemplated that our efforts should be confined to the "hewers of wood and drawers of water" of the community, nor that we should release our hold of our own people when they or their children rise above this level in the social scale. And it is a source of regret that the section of the Field which offers the best promise among this somewhat advanced section of the community should fail to receive the attention it needs and by which alone it can be developed.

Another difficulty which is even now presenting itself is that of languages, due to a continued influx of people from the homeland. And yet the natural aspiration Englishwards of this generation must be satisfied. In this connection the question of cost is also a consideration; for ministration in English is considerably more costly than in Hindi.

Definite progress may be noted in the erection of the new building at Bohemia and the opening of work at Phi Coivoden. At Bohemia the Day School has secured a place on the list of government-aided schools and began to receive its grant on the 1st of April, the opening of the financial year. At both stations, the people gave much help, both in money and in personal service, and the outlook for the future is good in both.

Despite many drawbacks the future is hopeful. The Colony itself has, for some years past, been in a state of transition. Its social and industrial economy has been undergoing a change. Industries, in addition to that of sugar, are coming into prominence. Business and property, both landed and money, are becoming more widely spread among an ever-increasing number of individuals. Large investments of capital from the United Kingdom, Canada, and the United States are being made, and the Local Government, in order to meet the situation which has grown up, has voted an increase to the salary of the Governor to raise the status of the office and to secure the services of an able Administrator. In all this the East Indian is a factor of whom much count has to be taken. Each year sees between 2,000 and 3,000 brought to the Colony, and a movement is on foot to introduce double the number; while those already in residence are settling into the life of the community and fast becoming the men of status in the country. It is recognized by the impartial observer that the work of the Canadian Church is the only work in the Colony which can be described as anything like a serious attempt at evangelizing the East Indian. Fifteen years of effort have not been without fruit. We hold property; we have government-aided schools. Our Agents fill a growing place in the public life of the community; and we have a corporate existence. Is this the day for stagnation or retirement? Is it the spirit and history of our Church that she should shrink back because of temporary difficulties and obstructions? It is the day of a great opportunity; and we shall not, through fear or indifference, allow that opportunity to go by.

SUMMARY OF STATIONS REPORTS OF CANADIAN PRESBYTERIAN
MISSION IN KOREA FOR 1911.

A year of increased opportunity, progress and blessing has passed over the Canadian Korean Mission which even detailed reports cannot reveal. At the Annual Meeting, held from October 8-17th, 1911, Song Chin, Ham Heung, and Hoi Ryung Stations brought in their records of work, but Wonsan was unable to report as Mr. Foote had been seriously ill for some weeks, and Mr. Robb had only just returned from furlough. On account of Mr. Foote's slow recovery a summary of the year's work has been long delayed, and even now must be forwarded without Wonsan's items.

Statistics all over the field show marks of advance that denote rapid development. Song Chin field, so long the hopeless problem of our Mission, because of its enormous proportions and its tiny staff, has at last been divided by the coming of the Western Committee men, and a heavy burden taken from weary shoulders. Of the fifteen counties reaching far north into Manchuria, eight have been given to the Western Committee's missionaries, and two brave men are already assuming the responsibilities. Rev. J. M. McLeod, the first Western appointee, returned to Scotland before he had done much more than make a survey of the vast field to which he had come as pioneer, much to the regret of all his Canadian co-workers. The co-operation of the Western Committee in the great work of the North, which is so great a relief to our staff, and so strong an addition to its ranks, is a first cause of praise in the year's work.

The completed translation of the Bible now being issued in the native script, is another source of joy both to Koreans and missionaries. The enlarged scope thus given to Bible teaching can be best appreciated by those who know the Korean's ability to study and his love for God's word, along with the limitations of past years when only the New Testament was available. Portions of the Old Testament have been issued at intervals, giving but glimpses to this nation of students of the treasures now in their hands.

Progress is evident all through the Mission. Several native pastors have been added to our evangelistic forces, where their energy and ability was sorely needed; new groups have continued to spring up, especially in the northern districts, even where no missionary has visited; and in the south there has been a demand for enlarged quarters, as well as for new enterprises. Ham Heung rejoices in two new school buildings—one for girls, completed in June, and a boys' academy under way. A union work for all the stations has also come into existence in a Women's Bible Institute in Ham Heung city, to which students come for three months from all over the field.

Evangelistic.—The new station of Hoi Ryung records startling growth in more than 100 per cent. increase in its church membership, 200 per cent. of catechumens, and 600 per cent. of new believers. Beside the new missionaries—Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield arriving at Christmas, and Mr. and Mrs. Barker in February—there is a staff of native helpers, including a Korean pastor, two evangelists, four colporteurs, and two Bible women. Native evangelistic societies in the Korean territory and in Kando supply funds for the native pastor's salary, and the British and Foreign Bible Society employ the colporteurs. Home funds are also on hand for the employment of another evangelist for this field. Besides the band of Korean workers, the new missionaries have had assistance from the Eastern Committee in the person of Mr. Ross, who made a rapid trip of three and a half weeks with Mr. Barker, the native pastor, an evangelist and a language teacher, visiting 14 of the 46 groups of Christians in towns and villages. The Korean pastor and teacher have also made other and much longer trips, visiting most of the groups and always returning with good accounts of the progress of the Gospel.

Song Chin field, with its 300,000 of population, has been consolidated as never before, since the transfer of the north to the Western Committee's missionaries. There still remain 148 groups—30 added this year—to be cared for by the small missionary staff of four persons, from among whom Dr. Grierson was sent for three months to teach in the Theological College in Pyeng Yang. The securing of two native pastors to assist in the administration of the field has been a great cause for thankfulness, and these men by their intimate knowledge of their own people and their single aim to extend Christ's Kingdom, have done much in the work of baptising, receiving catechumens, disciplining and guiding Christians in the many scattered groups. Could all the groups have been visited with equal thoroughness, the new catechumens would have run into the thousands. As it was, only 369 were received, and only 85 baptised, as examinations could be held in but 44 of the groups. The total number of adherents shows an increase of nearly 500 over that of last year's larger territory. In 46 of these places there are Korean church buildings, 21 of which were erected during the year. In addition to the two native pastors already supported, the Song Chin field at the last Leaders' Summer Class decided to employ again the lay evangelists discontinued for a time, when the Korean pastors were first called and the funds thereby greatly taxed. Another important force is the staff granted by the Bible Society, of nine colporteurs and one Bible woman, through whose constant journeys the printed Word has penetrated into many obscure villages.

Evangelistic campaigns were held in the Song Chin field last Autumn, in line with efforts throughout the entire country, when hundreds were at least impressed by the Gospel.

Regular Bible Class work was also carried on with enthusiasm by missionaries and natives in Song Chin local church and in all the seven counties of the outlying field. The winter class was attended by 150 men, who both studied and preached earnestly during its session. Mr. Stokes, of the Methodist Mission in Wonsan, gave valuable assistance at this time. At the summer class 106 men were present, of whom 37 took written examinations at the close. On this occasion Mr. Young gave effective help.

Ham Heung District has also decided to employ two native pastors for the coming year, one to care for the city church, the other to be employed in four churches in towns of the northern district. In the Ham Heung field ten new groups were added this year, and 443 persons received as catechumens, besides 208 baptised. In Mr. McRae's southern district all the 26 churches were visited at least twice in the year, and 22 classes held either by himself or his helper Elder Kim. The people here are zealous in the memorizing of Shorter Catechism and Scriptures, and 49 diplomas were given for recitations, some to persons from forty-nine to sixty-three years of age.

Mr. Young spent two months and a half among the 28 out-stations of his district in Northern Ham Heung, and found much to encourage in the fine attendance at classes, deep interest in Bible study, and revived strength in many groups. Classes of a week's duration were held at four of the larger towns, where the faithful Korean leaders have done praiseworthy work.

The Ham Heung city church has been blessed in the addition of 45 new baptized members, 83 catechumens, and 286 probationers, making a present total of 539 members and adherents. The routine of church work includes two weekly classes for the training of helpers and Sunday School teachers among the men, a weekly C. E. Society, and monthly Women's Missionary Society among the women, adult and children's Sunday Schools, and, of course, mid-week prayer meetings. The city church has also led in the organization of an Evangelistic Society which now has funds for the support of the native pastor about to be called for the north.

The quickening of the Evangelistic Campaign has in various ways advanced the work in the city. The Christians entered zealously into the campaign, visiting every house in the city, and inviting the people to evening services which were held for ten days in every available meeting place where the crowds could scarcely be accommodated. Of the many hundreds giving in their names as ready to believe the Gospel, many must have received light enough to find the way of salvation. Some have continued to attend church, but others have been hard to trace, even by the efforts of our most diligent visitors, perhaps because of discovering that the church offered no prospect of national restoration. At the close of the Campaign, it was decided that a new church be opened in a promising section of the city, as yet almost untouched by the Gospel, where there is much room for expansion.

Women's Work.—Song Chin reports growth in every branch of its women's work. Sunday service and Sunday School study hour crowd their wing of the local church, and the Tuesday and Thursday classes are regularly attended. The women give liberally to evangelistic work, and while Hannah Oh was appointed to assist in the Vladivostock Korean Church, they contributed well to her support. Since her return they support a Bible woman in Song Chin field beside giving twenty yen ($10) toward the Korean pastor's salary.

The annual class for women was held in April, with assistance from Miss L. H. McCully and her woman, Hannah Oh, when there was enrollment of 175, about half of whom were from the country churches. A June class was conducted by Pastor Han for the women of the local church.

Itinerating is a strong feature in the women's work of Song Chin field, and Miss Rogers and Mrs. Grierson have done their full share—in all a total of 126 days, when classes have been held in numbers of the country groups, and all eagerly attended. Bible women Esther Pak, Miriam Kim and others are a strong dependence for country visitation. Without them work among country women would be all but impossible. Esther Pak has now been removed as a trusted worker to more responsible work in Kando, without the direct supervision of a foreigner.

Ham Heung has had its annual women's class, held in the city in March, with an enrolment of 144 for a week of constant Bible study and prayer, and its outside country classes in the larger towns. Those held in the north by Miss L. H. McCully during the Evangelistic Campaign were blessed specially in reaching the heathen women.

At last Annual Meeting, Ham Heung was made a centre for women's work by the decision to open a Bible Institute for women from the whole field in order to prepare qualified Korean teachers to supply at least one for every outstation under the care of the Mission. The Institute plan is being urged by the General Council of Missions in Korea as one of the most aggressive evangelistic agencies. The first session of the Ham Heung Institute opened in January, with 28 students from Wonsan, Song Chin, and other smaller country towns, besides city women. The course will cover five years, and aims at a fair general knowledge of the Bible, with closer study of doctrine and Shorter Catechism and enough secular work to develop mental powers to some degree. During the term the students did constant district visiting all over the city, and at its close went out to hold women's classes in country churches, thus greatly multiplying the work of the missionaries who had taught them. The regularly employed Bible women attended the Institute, taking half time for their usual work, and for the remaining months have done good service, some in connection with the medical work, others in city and country, and Hannah Oh for a few months in the Song Chin field. This good beginning augurs well for the future of our women's work in the Mission.

Educational.—Educational work in Song Chin district, as in all others, has its strength at the central station, although there are a number of struggling schools in country groups financed with great difficulty by the Koreans. The Song Chin Academy offers a more satisfactory course than ever before, and has a most excellent staff of teachers, one of whom is truly a God-sent helper. He is a man of aristocratic family, a graduate of the Waseda University in Tokio, but of an unworldly nature, refusing flattering offers that he might be free to teach without salary in our Christian school, and giving of his own funds to help a number of indigent pupils. He seems to have been sent by the Master to take the place of Major Lee, who has been exiled for a year on an isle in the Yellow Sea, by the authorities, but for no ascertainable wrongdoing on his part.

Some simple apparatus for a laboratory has been added to the Academy equipment, to be financed we scarcely know how. Morning chapel exercises for the three combined schools and the hour of Bible study is giving a happy religious foundation to all the curriculum.

This year, as the Christians are assuming the whole support of the native pastor, they are unable to continue the funds for the common school. The economic condition of the country is such that the Koreans' opportunities for earning are becoming more and more narrowed, so that they are unable to finance both pastor and school, and the Song Chin staff is, therefore, assuming the support of the school with part of the Kapsan mining agency funds. The Girls' School has 28 scholars, two of whom received certificates in May from the common school. The teacher has been changed from time to time, and some help received from the teachers of the boys schools, but we have now engaged a young woman graduate from the Seoul Academy. We have also bought and renovated a Korean house for a school building, with teacher's house attached, in the immediate vicinity of the other schools and the church, and are now prepared for better work.

A country church at Tanchun has a girls' school, from which four pupils received certificates for a completed primary course in July—the first to be given outside of Song Chin. The ladies from Song Chin station attended these interesting exercises. Had we funds to aid some of the struggling church schools in the country to the stage of self-support, they might be saved from death in infancy.

Hoi Ryung has received $200 from the Home Board for the purpose of starting schools in needy places, and three schools are to-day in existence because of this fund. On account of the great immigration into Kando of educated young men from the districts of Seoul and Pyeng Yang, many schools doing good work have been organized, where these men are teaching for no salary beyond their food and fuel.

Ham Heung has a few schools in the country where church leaders are able to conduct them, but the work is very feeble and cannot well be strengthened until we can man it with graduates from our city schools; yet beyond that is the money problem. The Boys' Academy has been able to put its course of study on a much better basis than formerly, and to procure teachers by means of timely help from the Foreign Mission Committee. In March it graduated its first class of five boys, some of whom will at once become teachers. In the past we have suffered for lack of suitable class-rooms, but are glad to acknowledge funds sent us by the Committee with which we have begun a new building, where we hope to move in December. The missionaries take the daily Bible teaching among the students, laying thus a foundation of Christian truth.

The native Church continues the attempt to support the primary boys' school, where the numbers have increased to 85. The old church building has been converted into a school with three good class-rooms, and a fair staff of teachers is at work.

The Girls' School is growing rapidly, having now 62 pupils, 32 of whom have been enrolled in the past twelve months. An advanced class has been formed of nine out of eleven girls who finished the primary course during the year, and a pupil just added from Song Chin. We have succeeded beyond our hopes for the teaching staff, in being able to secure from Seoul a young woman teacher recommended to us as the finest in Korea. She was one of Rev. W. J. McKenzie's first scholars in Sorai, who graduated in Seoul, and was sent to Japan for further study. She speaks both English and Japanese well, is a good musician, and is capable of taking charge of a large Academy, but, above all, is a strong Christian character.

The school has just moved into its beautiful new quarters, completed in June, and the old school is now in use as a dormitory for girls from country places. The scholars are all given special Bible studies, where the work of the missionaries is, of course, a necessity.

Korea now craves for her boys and girls the Western education so long denied them, and in this it is most urgent that the Church takes the lead, or we, too, shall have to face educated heathenism.

Medical.—Medical work in Song Chin can never be conducted satisfactorily while the doctor in charge is so immersed in Church, school, administrative, class, theological and other work. People at a distance scarcely risk travelling to us at large expense, perhaps only to find the hospital doors closed and the doctor away. Such unsatisfactory medical work will but limit the activities of the senior missionary in his other important spheres.

Nevertheless, there has been much work done. Kim Yong Pai spent the three months of his vacation after a first year in medical college, in charge of the work, but unfortunately at the hot and rainy season when patients are fewest. There have been 979 entries of patients on our books, representing perhaps 2,000 persons influenced by our work. Dr. Mansfield, of the Western Committee's staff, has done some fine work for us, especially in plastic and cataract operations. Our greatest need is eye-testing apparatus and a good supply of spectacles for sufferers to whom we cannot now render aid. Our renewed thanks are offered Miss Isabella Macaulay, of Lynn, Mass., who undertook and is carrying on the medical education of Kim Yong Pai, our assistant.

The year in Ham Heung, although no provision beyond a small dispensary has yet been made for its medical needs, has yet shown a steady increase in the numbers, especially of severe cases, and the doctor has had the joy of knowing that many have come within reach of the Gospel.

There have been epidemics of smallpox and whooping cough, a few cases of leprosy, and an increasing number of accident cases. Recorded treatments for the year number 6,100, and the outcalls have more than doubled. The staff consists of Yu In Kyung, the first assistant, who has now left to begin his medical college course in Seoul; two school boy assistants, Chong Yi Sop and Peter Pak; an evangelist, a dispensary matron, and a Biblewoman. The staff has been increased by one during the year—a young woman who is in training as a nurse, through funds supplied by a Mission Band in Simcoe, Ontario. She is the first woman on the east coast of Korea to take nurse's training. Next spring we expect our first medical graduate, Mo Hak Pok, to assist us. He is now leading his class at college and gave us good assistance during the summer vacation.

Our urgent needs are: First, another plant; second, a foreign trained nurse; third, a second Korean nurse for training. We earnestly ask prayer for these.

Opened in 1871, Formosa is to the Western Section of our Church what the New Hebrides is to the Eastern Section, viz., the scene of our first foreign missionary undertaking. It is not without interest that Canadian Presbyterians, whose ancestors were island people, should choose islands as their first foreign fields.

We may be pardoned for our pride in these island missions. For two reasons, at least, we have good cause for gratitude that God led our Church to these Pacific Islands. In the first place, the pioneer to each field ranks among the greatest of missionaries. The names of John Geddie and George Leslie MacKay stand beside the apostle Paul, Francis Xavier, Raymond Lull, Carey, Morrison, Neesima, Moffatt, Brainerd, Paton, Livingstone and a great galaxy of others, "who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness . . . waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens."

In the second place, God has richly blessed the work of these founders and the brave bands, who followed them. Inspiring and thrilling are the chronicles of the early days and present developments in these islands. "When he landed here in 1848 there were no Christians, when he left in 1872 there were no heathen." What a story of brave deeds and hard, joyful labour for the Master and His "other sheep" is crowded into that epigrammatic inscription engraved on the simple monument to Geddie's memory on the island of Aneityum! The New Hebrides islanders, once cannibals, are Christians now and foreign mission work there is done!

And it is the same story about Formosa—with this difference that the work of the foreign missionary is not yet complete. "For there are many thousands who have never heard His name." From Far Formosa gives the names of sixty native preachers "in charge of chapels, trained and equipped for their work," by "MacKay of Formosa." Since his day—so triumphant in its winning men—the mission has been engaged in foundation building. No report in a half-dozen years records greater progress than that which reviews the work of 1911. Statistics do not tell the story of the strongly-entrenched position of the Church of Christ in North Formosa.

The outstanding feature of the year is the division of the field for purposes of supervision. Mr. MacLeod has spent much time in supervising the work on the East Coast. "Probably never before," states the Mission Council, "has the whole field been so thoroughly visited and the sacraments so generally dispensed." The whole field is now in such satisfactory condition that a great ingathering may be expected during succeeding years. The one great handicap is the small staff, which the Canadian Church has sent to overtake such a large task. Five men and four women to train a native ministry, superintend scores of congregations, manage a hospital, college, women's and girls' schools, middle school and evangelize a million souls! "What are they among so many." May many more young men and women of our Church respond to the call of Christ and of a wonderful opportunity in North Formosa! And may the Church rally with her interest, expressed in prayerful sympathy and gifts, to the work of the Lord in that isle called Beautiful!

Formosa will be brought more vividly than ever before our Church, and the entire Church in North America through Marian Keith's book, "The Black-Bearded Barbarian," the name by which Dr. MacKay was known among the Formosans. It is the life-story of that great missionary and his romantic adventures. It is most entertainingly written for boys and girls by the gifted writer of "Duncan Polite," and several other wholesome, readable books. It will hold the interest of the average child as does a Henty or an Elsie book—and will go much further in building character. Not a Presbyterian home or a Sabbath School should miss the privilege of becoming better acquainted with the boy who broke rocks in Zorra and afterwards broke harder rocks in Formosa and became one of the Heroes of Modern Missions. The Foreign Mission Secretaries will gladly send anyone a leaflet describing this volume. It will be read by more people in our Church than any other missionary story.

There was great rejoicing among the Formosan Christians and missionaries in the autumn of 1911 when George William MacKay was welcomed back to his mother's people and his father's adopted country. After nine years' absence in America securing an education he returned to the land of his birth, excellently equipped for the work to which his father gave such distinguished service. Miss Adair writes, "It was quite an event—their arrival, and was celebrated in true Chinese style. Of course the schools and everyone who was interested who could get there, was at the station, and we walked home through an almost constant firing off of crackers. The following morning there was a reception in the College. Addresses were read and presented from different bodies and churches. It certainly was great to hear a newly arrived missionary able to respond in the native language. Then, after the reception, we had a Chinese feast."

The whole Church, both in Canada and in Formosa expects great things from the son of George Leslie MacKay. Let us resolve that we shall give ourselves to prayer and consecrated effort in order that in our own day and generation, Formosa, like the New Hebrides, may become beautiful in righteousness as it is now beautiful for situation and in scenery.

At the beginning of our report we might remark that the happy experience in our North Formosa Mission, this year, is not likely to be often repeated in its future history. All our missionaries and their wives, as well as the unmarried lady-missionaries, are present on the field. The increased amount of work accomplished, is due to the fact that every member of our mission has been actively engaged in some branch of work. For this, and for the health of all our missionaries during the year, we feel a sense of deep gratitude to God.

In gathering up the facts and figures concerning our work for 1911, we feel much encouraged. Progress is evident along every line.

EVANGELISTIC.

1. PASTORAL SUPERVISION. The whole field, as in former years, has been divided into sections, under the supervision of the native pastors and the foreign missionaries.

Probably never before has the whole field been so thoroughly visited and the sacraments so generally dispensed. This meant revision and purging of the rolls, and a consequent decrease in the total membership. This, however, will prove a real blessing to our infant church. As a result of more thorough supervision, more Sunday Schools have been organized. Reports from over thirty have been received; though some of these are not as yet fully organized. There are about 900 Sunday School scholars, and an increase over last year of 161 readers, making the total number of readers 700. Forty members of the Sunday Schools have been received into full communion during 1911. Thus we feel much encouraged because of the general interest awakened.

2. EVANGELISTIC WORK PROPER. Pastoral and evangelistic work necessarily go hand in hand. The one is the complement of the other. The foreign missionary, co-operating with the native preachers and Christians, must still take the lead in bringing the gospel to the heathen. The mission station forms the centre, and from this centre, the missionary, with his staff of native workers, carries on this most important work of the church,—preaching the gospel to those who are still in heathen darkness. This is a work which cannot be successfully accomplished all at once. If the foreign missionary has helped to enthuse the native preacher with a love for preaching the gospel to the heathen, his efforts have been well worth while. The fact that of their own accord the native preachers this year have established small evangelistic societies, is an indication that they are awakening to their responsibility to their fellow-men. In some districts they go out every Monday in small groups, in other districts, twice a month. They defray their own expenses, distribute their own literature, including tracts and Christian calendars, and in some cases send monthly reports of this work. In each of the three districts a course of three weeks' Bible Study was held with the preachers, which proved of great value to them all.

It is, moreover, evident, that the native brethren are getting a clearer conception of their spiritual calling. The Bible teaching on the Holy Spirit has been emphasized, and a deeper longing for the blessings realized in other missions is manifest. It may be of interest to report—and it is entirely independent of the foreign missionary—that at two centres all the preachers pledged to abstain from tobacco. In one district the moral aspect was emphasized, and in another, it was the economic side of the question, which was discussed. When these measures were passed, no foreign missionary was present.

Preaching to the heathen has been carried on in the street chapels, in the homes of Christians, and also of some of the sympathetic heathen. At Toa-tiu-tia, our largest centre, about the second richest Chinese there, a few months ago, opened the front hall of his house for preaching, and has invited the foreign missionary to preach. He and his household are thus hearing the gospel every week. That God may lead him and his family into a true knowledge of His grace and love, is our earnest prayer. When open-air preaching is carried on at night, an acetylene lamp has been used and has proved quite a successful means of attracting the crowds. A very important feature of this kind of preaching, is the selling and free distribution of cheap Christian literature. It is literally, "Sowing beside all waters." A large tent has been purchased for use during the coming year. It will be specially useful at distant heathen centres, where we have no churches or street chapels.

In the beginning of the year, Mr. MacLeod and family spent three months in the south end of the field. During the latter part of the year, he spent six weeks in the capital city of the Gilan Plain. The evenings were almost entirely given to street preaching in the open air and in street chapels, while much of the day time was spent in Bible study with the preachers. The interest deepened daily, so much so that the Japanese newspaper had a favourable comment on the large attendance. We are thankful to report that a change in the attitude of the Chinese toward Christianity is being manifested. These proud and superstitious Chinese have always despised the "Jesus doctrine," because of the fact that it has been peculiarly associated with the Pepohoans, which people they look down upon as "savages of the plain." One man, on hearing the gospel for the first time, opened his heart, forsook his heathen practices, and within a week smashed his old family idol, and with his household cast in his lot with the despised Pepohoans. During the last week in this city, four Chinese who had been hearers for over two years, were admitted for baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Thus a new door has been opened in this plain; a door that has been practically closed since the very inception of Christianity. Land has been bought for the erection of a Hunter Memorial Chapel; and we hope the Foreign Mission Committee in answer to last year's request, will soon grant the opening of a new station for the location of foreign missionaries in that section. We would again emphasize this most urgent request. We must bear in mind that in this great plain there are about 100,000 Chinese proper; and when are we to reach these multitudes? Furthermore the next East Coast plain to the south, with its yearly increasing population, is about one hundred English miles long by ten wide. To this plain Chinese are pouring in from other parts of the island. A few of our own Christians have gone to settle there. Off this East Coast there are two or three islands with a population of nearly two thousand. Thus it is evident, that the opening of a new station for missionaries, both evangelistic and medical, is very imperative. The East Coast is separated from the West by lofty ranges of mountains, making access difficult. Six hours' travel by boat brings us to the nearest harbour, another six hours', to the plain farther south.

NATIVE SELF-SUPPORT.

A few remarks may be made in reference to the self-support of the native church. Considering the facts that the year has been one of hardship, owing to floods and a steady rise in the price of rice, the native Church has indeed done remarkably well in comparison with other years. The total contributions exceeded last year by Yen 847.50, bringing up the total to Yen 7,154.40 ($3,577). This increase has been largely due to the special effort put forth to contribute to the preachers' salaries. A new fund is about to be launched by the Presbytery this spring, which is somewhat similar to the Sustentation Fund in Scotland. It has been entirely at the suggestion of the Chinese brethren, and is practically the same method as is followed by our sister mission in South Formosa, the English Presbyterian. When this fund is established, a definite increase in the preachers' salaries will be fully discussed. Owing to the rise in the price of rice, and to the fact that the preachers are adopting foreign dress, as used by the Japanese, the cost of living has been going up steadily. This necessitates an increase in their salaries to meet changing conditions.

The native church has self-support in view, though it may take time to reach that goal. There are seven self-supporting churches at present. The total contribution for pastors' and preachers' support amounted to Yen 2,660.30 ($1,330.00), a net increase of Yen 286.35 over last year. This new year will commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the mission by Dr. G. L. MacKay, and the native brethren have expressed a desire to make a special effort toward self-support in memory of this important event.

EDUCATIONAL.

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE. Every department of our work is important, but the institution which is instrumental in equipping men for the work of the ministry ought to be most carefully considered. During the last year and a half, Mr. Jack has been practically alone in the charge of the College. Mr. Gauld was appointed by the Foreign Mission Committee to superintend the erection of the MacKay Hospital and Mission houses, and was thus unable to render any help during the year. Twenty-four students were enrolled. That the training of these young men, and the moulding of their lives for spiritual service in the Kingdom of God, is an important part of our work, needs more emphasis as the demands for a better trained ministry are imperative, because of the fact that we are under the rule of a nation whose special emphasis at present is on education, and that China, the fatherland of the people, has at last awakened to a new world consciousness. It is, indeed, the case of "a nation born in a day." The movements in China will continue to shape the life of the Chinese in Formosa for many years to come.

The raising of the standard of entrance to our College has already shut the door on several young men, who on educational grounds could not enter. These men we must yet use for the spread of the gospel far and wide amongst the uncivilized tribes in Formosa. We must prepare a curriculum for these men.

The subjects added to the regular course of studies this year are Algebra, Geometry, Chemistry and European History. English was taught to two promising students who are to be sent by the Council for a period of about three years to Japan. They are to enter an approved Middle School, for the purpose of preparing themselves to teach in our own new Middle School. One is the son of a late native pastor, who was eminent for his piety, and brother of Dr. MacKay's son-in-law, Rev. Tan Chheng-gi, pastor at Bangkah. A very bright young man he is, and gives promise of future usefulness in our work. The other is the son of the pastor employed by our Council, Rev. Keh Hi-sin. He also is an unusually bright and promising young man. This is a new departure, but there is no question about the wisdom of the Council's decision. When the Church in Formosa is ready for self-support, she must also be ready for self-control, else the whole superstructure will be in danger of collapse. The training of men for the responsibilities of the future is both an important task and a present duty.

During the year the students have been engaged in practical work as well as in their studies. They established four small Sunday Schools in the hamlets around, helped to keep the street chapel in Tamsui supplied during the year, and conducted open-air services at two points on Sunday afternoons. Thus they get practical training.

Next year we hope the new Theological College will open its first term in Taipei, our new mission centre. A Union College in Taipei between the two missions seems still to be the ideal for Formosa. It is to be hoped that the proposed union of the two Chinese Churches will help to solve this problem. In a small island like Formosa, it is not reasonable that two Presbyterian missions, working side by side, could be satisfied with anything less than a union of forces and a co-operation that may finally result in organic union.

GIRLS' SCHOOL. There is no other branch of our work of which we can more favourably report than the Girls' School. The Women's School has not been so long in operation. Miss Kinney and Miss Connell opened the school in 1907, and 1912 finds the first class of graduates leaving to impart to others what they have learned. Its success was assured from its beginning, and the new graduates who leave this year are an earnest of what we ought to expect from such a school in the years to come. About half the girls, of whom there are forty-six, have already become members in full communion of the Church. Thus they are leaving with a good education and also Christian training. That they may have openings as teachers is our hope, and this may be possible owing to the present proposal of the Japanese Government to allow no Chinese children to enter school below ten years of age. Native schools may thus become more general than at present. The Presbyterian Church in South Formosa has opened a school in Tainan, with Chinese Christian teachers, and have about two hundred day pupils. Should we adopt this plan, we feel sure that in our Girls' School we might be able to train teachers for this work and reach the masses by the leaven of the gospel.

WOMEN'S SCHOOL. As in the previous year, Miss Connell has had charge of the Women's School. The attendance at the beginning of the year was fifteen, and of this number a few had attended the previous year, the majority being new students. Of the thirty-five, who have been in the school, twenty-two are church members. The majority were from twenty to thirty years of age. A few of the Bible women, who from the earlier years of the mission were engaged in Christian work, have been called in and given a deeper knowledge of Christian doctrine and more facility in reading the Word. The time has not yet come for any to graduate as Bible women. One important phase of this work is the training of the preachers' wives that they may be more efficient workers, and a few have already availed themselves of this opportunity.

Just here we wish again to emphasize the need of more lady missionaries, who will as soon as possible begin evangelistic work. This branch of our work has not yet been provided for. The women of Formosa, as those of China, will not soon be reached, unless we have lady-evangelists. The visits already made both by married and unmarried ladies among the stations sufficiently testify to the importance of attending to this need. The native women immediately change their attitude of stiffness and aloofness when the lady missionary is present. We do feel most seriously this lack in our mission, and so we have asked for three ladies for evangelistic work. We pray that they may be soon sent.

MIDDLE SCHOOL. During the last three years we have been asking for a Middle School teacher, and our request has been granted in the person of Mr. G. W. MacKay, son of the late Dr. G. L. MacKay. Mr. MacKay is at present studying the Chinese character, or written language. We trust that in another year the Middle School will be opened, for the first time in the history of our mission. That it may prove a most vital factor in the growth and establishment of the native church, is our great hope. Mr. MacKay comes to us with one very important qualification, that is, a thorough knowledge of the language of the people. We pray that God may use both Mr. and Mrs. MacKay in helping to further the cause of Christ in the land of his birth.

MEDICAL WORK—MACKAY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

This institution has always been, and continues to be, a most valuable evangelistic agency. Thousands every year hear the gospel for the first time, and many after returning to their homes associate themselves with the Christians in their community. There is no man who can get nearer the human heart than the medical missionary, and he needs to be ever conscious of the higher mission, the healing of the entire man. What constant demands on human sympathy in the daily round of examining patients, and treating their various ills! It was in such ministrations as these that the Master Himself so manifested His spirit of love and compassion that multitudes of afflicted ones daily pressed around Him. With such an ideal constantly before it, the "MacKay Hospital" is destined to play an important part in the evangelization of North Formosa.

The near completion of the new MacKay Memorial Hospital is a cause of great satisfaction to Dr. Ferguson. Nevertheless the failure in securing a new medical missionary during these three years is a source of keen disappointment to us all, and will prove a serious handicap in the opening of the medical work on improved lines at the new centre. As Dr. Ferguson's furlough is already due, we do trust that one may be soon sent to take up his work. Miss Isabella Elliott, a nurse-deaconess, sails this year.

STATISTICS.

MacKay Hospital was kept open throughout the year, the foreign missionary and native assistants taking holidays in turn throughout the hot season. The following is the statistical report:—

HOSPITAL STAFF.

1 medical missionary, 2 native assistants (graduates of Government Medical School), 3 dispensers (trained in our hospital), 1 hospital evangelist, 1 hospital Bible woman, 3 servants.

PATIENTS FOR 1911.

OPERATIONS FOR 1911.

Under general anaesthesia, 108; under local anaesthesia, 140; without anaesthesia (recorded), 92; teeth extracted (recorded), 168.

Visits to homes, about 340; patients seen while itinerating, about 100. Over 1,000 microscopical examinations were made and in the majority of cases results were recorded.

Our employees from assistants to servants gave good satisfaction. All took a genuine interest in their work. The assistants and dispensers attended not only to their professional duties, but took turns in preaching to the out-patients and conducting evening services for the inpatients. This left the evangelist and Bible woman free to devote the greater part of their time to personal work and teaching in the wards. The former corresponds with the evangelists in the field, informing them when a patient returns to their district. During the year not a few have had the gospel explained to them for the first time. Many go away very favourably disposed to the Christian religion and Mr. Macleod, who spends most of his time itinerating, reports that a goodly number attend chapel services when they return to their homes.

BOOK ROOM.

The sales for the year, including Bibles sold for the British and Foreign Bible Society, amounted to a total of Yen 1,033.64 ($516.00), having more than doubled in the last three years. The books sold included Bibles, commentaries, Sunday School leaflets, magazines, tracts and general literature. One colporteur was employed by the British and Foreign Bible Society, under the direction of the Book Room, selling about 4,000 Bible portions during the year. Hitherto the students from the College have been employed to assist in the Book Room. We would recommend that a Chinese manager be appointed to devote his whole time to the work. We would further recommend that in the near future plans be laid to establish a Book Room in Taipei with a view to influencing a much wider constituency and especially the large number of students in the government schools, of whom there are about 2,000. We believe that the class reached in this way might never be reached otherwise. These students are constantly in the bookstores, in search of new literature. A Book Room so fitted as to attract the more literary class of the people, might be of immense value in the spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is more than likely that in the course of time it would be self-supporting.

UNION CONFERENCE.

A Union Conference between the foreign missionaries of both missions, North and South, met at Tainan, South Formosa, on the 27th of December, and discussed mission problems for three full days. The time was altogether too short, to deal fully with the matters under discussion. Problems of great importance, both for ourselves and our work in the years to come, were dealt with. This was the first meeting of the missionaries of both missions together in conference, and was a time most profitably spent. We came to know one another better, and to realize how much we need the spirit of co-operation in our work for the future. It was a time of real spiritual quickening as well. Addresses on the Holy Spirit were given in the evenings accompanied with seasons of prayer. There was a general feeling that more reliance on Him as the source of our wisdom and strength was much needed in the midst of our pressing duties. We have but little space for a full report. We shall give space to such resolutions as more directly affect our own Mission Board.

During the discussion on Evangelistic Work, we were inevitably led to face the ever-present problem, "The needs of the Savages." After a lengthy discussion, with much earnestness and unanimity the following resolution was passed: "Agreed that the time has fully come when Christian work among the hill tribes of Formosa should be commenced. While the denser population on the western side of the island has many opportunities of hearing the gospel at our widely scattered 150 chapels, and from itinerating missionaries, preachers and evangelists, untold generations have passed without anyone caring for the souls of those brethren of mankind on the eastern part of the island. They number about 120,000, an immensely greater mass of people than on some of the islands of the South Seas where notable triumphs for Christ have been gained in modern times. During the past three years, strongly armed punitive expeditions have been slain, and thousands have given up their head-hunting customs before submitting to the government. For these and other weighty reasons, we are agreed that there should be no further delay in making a worthy attempt to bring that promising part of the population under the gracious subjection of Christ.

At least two missionaries would be required to make a commencement, and the opinion of the Conference is, that these should consist of a clerical missionary and of a fully-qualified medical evangelist, with the probable addition of a missionary for industrial work.

We might add that the door to the savage country is opening up. Some Japanese missionary evangelists have already come to begin work and some of these have asked us for support. With much anxiety we look forward to our Home Church for a solution of this problem. If our Canadian Church should appoint one, and the English Presbyterian Church appoint another missionary, work might begin at an early date in the future.

The need of a Young Men's Christian Association General Secretary for Formosa was very fully discussed, and it was resolved "to request the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association to appoint a man for this important work."

Another matter, considered of great importance for the evangelization of this Island was the "Bible Training School for Evangelists." We have already referred to the serious result of raising the entrance to our College. The number of men engaged in evangelistic work amongst our stations is altogether inadequate. The work is growing, but the number of students is not increasing. We must have men who will go forth with the message of life to the people. In view of this need the Conference resolved, "that this Conference appoint a Committee to consider the whole question of establishing a 'Union Bible Training School' for Evangelists, and to bring the matter before the respective Presbyteries of the two Churches."

CONFERENCE ON CHURCH UNION.

Although this matter belongs to our report for 1912, we feel we ought to make mention of what may be considered one of the most vital problems in connection with the life and growth of the Christian Church in Formosa that has ever been discussed, namely, the Union of the two Chinese Churches. A committee was appointed in 1911 by the North and South Presbyteries and consisted of six native brethren from each side, with three foreign missionaries from each Council. Several important measures were agreed upon. These were to be placed before the respective Presbyteries and Sessions. In case of a general agreement on the part of the native Church, this Committee suggested that after the meetings of the Presbyteries next fall, the members eligible for the United Synod would meet for the first time in Shoka, Central Formosa.

The Union of the two sister Churches will doubtless change many features of the two missions, but these changes will be gradual, and will not affect the present status of the two Mission Councils. A United Presbyterian Church is the only ideal that ought to satisfy us in a small island like Formosa. We hope to report its consummation in 1912. That God, by His Holy Spirit, may lead us in every step of the way is our hope and prayer.

We desire to express our sense of gratitude to God for His unfailing mercies during the year that has just closed. We feel grateful to the Foreign Mission Committee and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society not only for their generous consideration and financial support, but also for the new additions to the staff.

Miss Clazie has passed a successful examination. Miss Adair will soon be over her work for the first year, and Mr. MacKay is busy with the study of Chinese characters.

NEEDS FOR 1912.

We wish to close our report by repeating the pressing needs for more workers. We need three missionaries for the evangelistic work, one for relieving men on furlough, one for opening up new work among the Chinese on the East Coast, and one for Hakka work. We have between two and three thousand Hakka-speaking Chinese in North Formosa. Not one of our missionaries can understand this dialect. We have eleven stations among these. The need for this work is very urgent. We need two medical missionaries, one to take up Dr. Ferguson's work, and another to open up medical work in Gilan. Two lady missionaries for evangelistic work, one among the Hakkas and one among the Amoy Chinese are also needed. We would not forget to press the urgent request of the Union Conference. We can no longer be held guiltless as far as those savages are concerned. They have cried long and alas in vain, but no answer have we ever given to their cry. We do hope that God may find some souls willing to begin Christian work among these people. May the Lord of the harvest send out labourers into the vast ripening fields. May He send men and women who shall help in the great "Harvest Home" of the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

INTRODUCTION.

India has special attractions as a mission field. It is a part of the British Empire. Under the same flag and enjoying the liberties and blessings of the same constitution, our fellow-subjects in India have a national as well as a Christian claim upon Canadians. It has cost more British blood to win and hold India than has any other part of the Empire. Six out of every seven subjects of King George know nothing of the faith which has given us our priceless privileges and nearly all of this number live in India.

A LONG STEP FORWARD

Our Central India mission is taking an important part in the evangelizing and educating of India's 315,000,000. We have now reached the stage where our missionaries have to a very large extent, overcome native suspicion and won the respect of rulers and people. Too great emphasis cannot be placed upon this very significant fact for it means access to the hearts and minds of the people. The native rulers are showing their appreciation of our efforts in behalf of their people by grants of land. The Raja of Rutlam has given six acres of land for the erection of a mission hospital, which is now being built. The Nawab of Jaora has given a lease of five acres of land for mission buildings, and in the adjoining state the Raja of Sitamau is making a similar donation. At Barwaha negotiations are being carried on to secure land with good hope of success very shortly.

Dr. Margaret MacKellar was honoured by royalty in being decorated with the Kaiser-i-Hind medal early in 1912. This was in recognition of self-sacrificing services during plague epidemic in Neemuch. After twenty years' service she spends a year on furlough.

There is now a greater desire than ever to hear the gospel message. "Many things indicate that the crisis is coming," writes one missionary. "What will it mean?" says another, "if 10,000 people want to become Christians in the next five years? It would mean that entire castes will swing towards Christianity. We need many more missionaries to instruct these people." At Kharua Mr. Harcourt reports Christians in twenty villages and enquirers in twenty-five more. Forty men and one hundred women and children are asking for instruction with a view to baptism and those who have been out in itinerant work during the winter are much encouraged with the attitude of the people.

Principal and Mrs. R. A. King, of our Indore College, find it necessary to resign. This is a great blow to the whole mission. Both gave unstinted and magnificent service to the work at Indore. But Dr. King's health compels complete retirement though we hope they may return in a couple of years. The fact is we have been seriously overworking our Indore staff. Principal King and Mr. Sharrard have each been doing two to three times as much as is required of a College teacher in Canada, and in addition they have had enough administrative and other work to keep one man busy. Mrs. King has also been doing in an able manner the work of one professor —and with no remuneration. The Church must appoint a larger staff to this the only Canadian College in India, and always ranking high among the colleges federated with the University of Allahabad.

A fine new Women's Hospital—T-shaped, one storey, grey stone—has been erected at Neemuch. It has accommodation for thirty-six beds, but with 450 feet of a ten-foot wide verandah our accommodation can be very elastic. This has been a long-standing need. With very poor equipment 7,512 new patients were attended to in 1911, and of these there were 30,186 return visits. What a record for one year! Other medical missionaries are likewise undergoing great physical strain.

The most important work in India, as in any foreign field, is the evangelistic. Touring among the villages, speaking about Christ and Christianity to the people—this is the supreme work of the missionary. Several men and women are urgently required for this attractive and highly fruitful service. There is no joy comparable to that of enlightening darkened minds and pointing the way to Christ.

"There is no Institution in Canada doing finer work than the Theological Seminary at Indore" is the testimony of one who knows. India must be evangelized by her own people. We can do no more than win some and train the best of them to lead the great masses into the Kingdom. That is what the Theological Seminary and the Mission College at Indore are doing. A course of instruction in theology lasting four years is required. The 1911 class consisted of fifteen students, eight of whom graduated. Thus has commenced with splendid promise, an Indian ministry which we trust will grow until the three million people for whom our Church is responsible shall have a sufficient number of their own pastors.

EVANGELISTIC.

What does the evangelistic missionary do? He preaches in the bazaars, he talks to Bunias on their shop-steps, he tours the neighbouring villages, he trains his assistants, he oversees a Christian community or two until they are able to call pastors of their own, he practices a little medicine and surgery, without a license, and he builds bungalows. This last is not strictly evangelistic, but affords fine scope for the cultivation of certain Christian graces. He ought to be a good singer, to be able to play some instrument other than the gramophone, which is too common, to be able to manage a magic lantern, to know the maximum of mud allowed in good concrete and the minimum of paregoric in an effective cough mixture. No course has yet been devised in any of the Church's theological halls to properly train an evangelistic missionary. He must often just fall back on good Canadian common sense.

Evangelistic work is carried on at every station. This is the aim of all mission work and of every missionary—medical, educational or industrial—as well as of the evangelist.

Neemuch is the most northerly. From there our men reach out until they join hands with the Scots of the Rajputana Mission. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacKay were stationed at Neemuch until they went on furlough. Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cock succeeded them, and recently have been joined by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook.

Rutlam has long been associated with the name of Dr. J. Fraser Campbell. Its field, a very large one, has been divided. To the east the new station, Kharua, has been opened with Mr. J. R. Harcourt in charge. To the north between Rutlam and Neemuch two new fields will be carved out with headquarters at Sitamau and Jaora. The rulers of both these states have offered sites for buildings. This latter district is in charge of Mr. F. J. Anderson and Mr. J. S. MacKay.

Ujjain is to the east of Rutlam. Here Dr. Nugent, when he can get free from dispensary work, tours the neighbouring districts. Here, too, Mr. W. G. Russell does more village work than can be gathered from his reports.

Indore field is not worked as it ought to be. A very large district to the east is unvisited. All the Indore men are either in the College or the Seminary, but Dr. Wilson and his workers try to reach the nearer villages during the vacations.

Mhow, a very extensive field, is partly on the Plateau and partly in the Narbudda valley (Nimar). Mr. Taylor has tried to cover it as well as he can, but stretches of forty miles in a well-settled country tend too much to dissipate the best of efforts. However, the south-east section is to be cut off and put under the charge of Dr. McPhedran with Barwaha as his centre. Another section in the south-west together with a part of the Dhar field will be made a new district with Mr. D. F. Smith at, or near, Khalghat as headquarters.

Dhar field to the west is, like Mhow, both above and below the "ghaut." Long associated with the name of Mr. F. H. Russell, it is now in charge of Mr. D. J. Davidson. Here, too, there is likely to be a division when men are available. The southern section will be made a new field with Barwani as its station, while Sirdarpur will be opened in the west.

Beyond Sirdarpur is Amkhut in the Bhil country. The Bhils are a simple untutored people, and among them Dr. Buchanan is evangelist, teacher, physician, agriculturalist, master-mason, philosopher and friend. Mr. D. E. McDonald has gone to his assistance for the burden is great.

The missionary on tour sees Hinduism as the average tourist never can. That blend peculiar to the cities, done up in western colours, is not the real article. Two months among the villages, and the critic of missions would not be so sure about India not needing the gospel. Here he would see the fruits of caste in all their degradation, idolatry in its unrelieved repulsiveness.

Reports tell of ingatherings in many parts of our field. One writes: "You will be glad to hear of another break. Dr. Buchanan came over and baptized eighteen here Tuesday, making twenty-nine since November 2nd, for which we praise God and pray for more. There is a sound of abundance of rain in the Bhil country."

Another in the midst of a hopeful village work on the plains writes: "This district is being marvellously opened up. There are baptized Christians in twenty villages, and twenty-five more villages in which there are inquirers. The Word spreads from family to family, and even caste, the stubborn foe of Christianity is made to aid its advance when once the break comes."

One old man, a leader in the Balai caste, has been for two years an enquirer. He taught his nephews to read, and now he, with them, has come into the fold. Another man, not yet baptized, has brought no less than twelve others who have enrolled their names as seekers. What better test can there be of the genuineness of a profession than this?

In a recent communication we have had this: "In this village, for five straight hours, I never ceased preaching. My wife and I could not get away from the people. A wedding was in progress, but bride and bride-groom were brought out to us. The family 'Martha' would have them back to the wedding feast, but they replied, 'We can go hungry to-night, for we do not often hear such words.' And again, 'From 8.30 p.m. to 2 a.m. the eager crowd sat and drank in the new and wonderful story, and at last an old man rose and said, 'This is true wisdom, we never heard the like before. Sahib, will you send some one to our village at once to teach us more?'"

Thy Word is a Light. We lay much emphasis on the selling of Scripture. One writes: "A few days ago we took our stand on the open square in the city of Mahesar, on the spot from which dear Norman Russell and his workers were driven by an angry mob. We felt that we too might be so treated for a noisy priest had followed us all the way from the river-side, shouting and evidently trying to stir up the crowd against us. We sang a couple of hymns and one spoke about the true Incarnation. Then we offered books for sale. While one acted as salesman, the others sang another hymn. Then another address and more sales. Sixty scriptures were disposed of, besides other books. Then we dispersed to enter into personal conversations, to clinch the Word where we could in their hearts."

Through the generosity of Mrs. Nicholas Hewson, we are able to place the scriptures in the hands of many who might not be able to buy the whole Bible. "We are constantly meeting those who are asking fuller knowledge as a result of reading some literature got from us on previous tours." Another writes: "Evangelistic work is made easier for us in Central India because of the influence of our educational and other institutions. Those who have heard of, or seen, our industrial work invariably give us a cordial welcome. And often the temper of a crowd will be completely changed by some word of friendly greeting from a local official, who has been in days gone by in our High School or College."

Movements—In one station an interesting movement has begun among the Mohammedans. It arose among themselves as the result of their study of the gospels. Opposition has, of course, been stirred up, and it is difficult to predict the outcome.

But they recognize that Jesus must be the true Prophet, and the Saviour of men. The Balais, a low caste community, in all parts of our field, are eager to learn the truth, and many have been baptized. Many more confess Christ, but shrink from baptism. Some of the most intelligent enquirers we meet in the villages are from this despised class. When these low caste men come to Christ, as they are coming in thousands in other parts of India, the social order of Hinduism will receive a shock. No wonder the high castes are beginning to question the wisdom of their age long oppression of these people by treating them as "untouchables." They are indispensable to the social order as it stands. What is to become of Hinduism when they no longer accept the supremacy of their oppression?

WOMEN'S EVANGELISTIC WORK.

In the hot weather the nearer villages can be visited by making short trips in the morning before the sun begins to blister. But for the main part, during the hot and rainy seasons, evangelistic work is confined to the zenanas of the central stations. With the cooler days of October and November comes the call to those other cities."

Tents are overhauled, medicine and book-boxes refilled, cooking-pots, camp-beds and other accessories of the "simple life" are brought to light. Carts have been arranged for over night so as to ensure an early start, boxes and bundles are packed in. Some of the bundles are children rolled in blankets and fast asleep, for the servants are going, and their families. All is ready, when the cook asks for two weeks' leave as his aunt is dangerously ill in "his own country." An hour later the Miss Sahib prepares to set out in her tonga. The cook having been promised an extra rupee to keep the second tula warm, has taken a more hopeful view of his aunt's condition. He has gone with the carts, which should be at the first camping ground early in the day. She will make a circuit touching at various villages and reaching camp in the evening.

With her Bible woman she enters the first village, and seeks an opportunity of talking with the women. There, at the well, is a group gossiping. Will they listen? Some are curious to know what has brought the white lady among them, some become suddenly busy, a few are anxious to hear this new and wonderful story. A little conversation results in a request to come to one of the houses. More of the story, and perhaps still more in song. After promises to come again and invitations to visit the camp, the next village is sought. And so on until at last the camping ground is reached.

But no tents and no carts! The cattle are returning from the fields stirring up a languid dust. It mingles with the smoke from a hundred hearths. The air becomes stifling. Darkness settles down, but still no carts. It is midnight before they appear.

A wheel has come off, and then they took the wrong road. Dinner that night is al fresco.

When the district missionary is touring with his wife and family there is a more excellent way for the Miss Sahib. Two encampments become one; there is protection and companionship. Thus Miss Weir has toured the Nimar Valley with the Taylors, Miss Grier with the Nugents about Ujjain and Dr. O'Hara with the Russells at Dhar. The district surrounding Neemuch is being visited this year by Miss Campbell and Dr. Chone Oliver. Miss Goodfellow laid aside, for a time only let us hope, will long be remembered by the villagers about Ujjain.

OUR CONGREGATIONS.

It is always a matter of regret when, through lack of funds or men, retrenchment must take place. If a choice has to be made, the work among our own people should be the last to suffer. Our aim is an indigenous, self-supporting Indian Church. No school, or other institution, however large, can compare in importance with the congregations. These contain the real Christian community, the real Church of Christ; in the world yet not of it. Its influence should be more potent than that of any foreign missionary. The foreigner has no greater work than to ensure that it has this leavening potency.

As yet but one of the congregations has an Indian pastor of its own election. The exception is Rutlam, where the Rev. Jairam Makasare has been Moderator for many years. At Neemuch, Balaram, well-known to readers of "Harvests of Many Lands," has long been doing the work of a pastor, but has never been called by the congregation. He is still a "Mission Agent," which is far from the ideal situation. But then, Neemuch congregation, aside from the institutions there, is not numerically strong.

Some months ago, Indore declared itself to be in the position to call and at the close of 1911 did extend an invitation to one of the licentiate workers in another station. Indore has many members in good situations and well able to support a pastor. Actively engaged in Christian work, independent and well educated, they do not for themselves feel any particular need of more than the "pulpit supply," which the College and Seminary Professors can readily give. But scattered through the city are many wandering sheep who sorely need, though all unconscious of it, a pastor's care. Some are working at their various trades, others are coolies, not a few are in offices. In this last respect, we see a great change. Ten years ago there was not a Christian in state employ.

Mhow has the largest independent Christian community. The many forms of employment about a cantonment created the demand, the orphanage nearby at Rasulpura provided the supply. The missionaries at Mhow are alive to the needs of such a congregation, but it is poor. The salaries of its male members will not average a dollar a week. There must be created soon some Augmentation scheme such as has done so great service in the West,—a scheme whereby the privilege and responsibility of calling a pastor may be granted while the mission guarantee a certain portion of the stipend. A congregation like Mhow reveals another need. The Canadian Church knows the value of that unpaid servant, the minister's wife. The wives of our Indian pastors, with rare exceptions, lack the training necessary for the responsible and tact-demanding service rendered by her sisters in the West. It falls often to the wife of the missionary to visit and advise the women of the congregation. There is no work among the women to compare with this in importance or difficulty. But what if the wife of the missionary be tied by family cares, or what if the missionary be that rara avis a bachelor. There might well be an order of Deaconesses instituted to serve under Sessions. It would require a change in the constitution of the W.F.M.S., but it would be worth it. The need is an increasing one. Miss Clearihue is giving considerable of her time to the young wives of Mhow.

The congregations of Rutlam, Nee-nuch, A'ukhut, Mhow, and Dhar have church homes. In Indore, services are held, as yet, in the Main Hall of the college.

EDUCATIONAL.

EDUCATIONAL POLICY

The ruling idea throughout is to lead the young into God's Kingdom and to train them for worthy citizenship and service therein. We aim at giving:—

1. A good ordinary education in the Vernacular. English will be included where the student intends going forward to the High School at Indore.
2. A thorough training in some useful trade.
3. To such as are worthy and who desire it, the preparatory two years' course of study for entrance to the Theological Seminary.
4. A home to the children, Christian and others, who come to us.

MALWA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

After the union of the various Presbyterian bodies to form the Presbyterian Church in India, the Presbytery of Indore ceased to exist as a subordinate court under the Canadian Assembly and re-appeared as the Presbytery of Malwa under the new church. The Canadian missionaries retained their connection with the Mother Church by being enrolled as members of the various Presbyteries to which they belonged before coming to India. At the same time, they with their Indian brethren, are under the jurisdiction of the Indian courts.

It is almost a commonplace that India must be evangelized by her own sons. An Indian Assembly again reminded us of this. There must be a training school in every language area. There was none in the Hindi districts. Out of this need arose, in 1908, the Malwa Theological Seminary, with Dr. Wilson as its accredited Principal.

The Seminary is governed by a Board of Directors composed of the Principal, two members chosen by the Mission Council, and two by the Presbytery. Its present staff consists of one European and two Indian teachers.

At the last session (1911) eight young men finished their four years' course. One was licensed, the others will be when they have completed certain exercises prescribed by the Presbytery. Meanwhile they are labouring in the various stations of the mission, and the time is not far distant when calls will be extended to some from the growing congregations within our bounds.

THE CANADIAN MISSION COLLEGE is one of the institutions affiliated with the University of Allahabad, and prepares students for the B.A. and M.A. degree.

Its staff consists of four European and five Indian professors. Its students number over one hundred, and are drawn from the neighbouring native States and British Provinces. As most of them are without homes in Indore, as far as possible they are accommodated in "Hostels" on the compound. The numbers in attendance are determined very largely by the available boarding accommodation, and with more rooms could easily be doubled.

The courses leading to the B.A. degree are of four years' duration; for the M.A.

two more are required. The subjects are such as might be expected in any college at home, and the standard is by no means low. As in all mission colleges, the Bible is a regular subject of instruction. Thus we hope to reach and influence the future leaders of India.

Practice is better than precept. Under Mr. Schofield, a new department was opened last session. The students enrolled in a "League of Social Service," and pledged themselves to undertake during their holidays some helpful task. Some visited the hospitals writing letters for the illiterate, others gave talks on temperance in their villages, taught school during the sickness of a master, or distributed literature. A large number of leaflets on "Plague and Its Prevention" had been published for free distribution. The idea caught on, for Indian gentlemen came forward with offers to print at their own expense translations in the Vernaculars. This "Social Service," just in its infancy, promises to be of great importance in Central India. Anyone interested in seeing the students' own report may have a copy sent them by applying to Mr. Schofield.

At one time, you might have found here anything from a kindergarten to a B.A. class. Expansion and University regulations combined to make this impossible. The School has now a building of its own. Two of the rooms vacated are used by Dr. Wilson for theological classes, while others have been arranged as a suite for the Principal and Mrs. King, who now live in "Residence." At last, it is really and only, a College Building.

"Alma Mater" day has become a feature of the College year. On that occasion, college students, professors, "Old Boys" and visitors return to renew friendships; the day is spent in sports and speeches, with a dinner in the evening.

TWO HIGH SCHOOLS.

These have grown out of the lower Schools. One is for boys, the other for girls both are at Indore, and are duly recognized by the University of Allahabad.

The Boys' School was opened in 1884 under Mr. Wilkie, and grew rapidly; last year, there was a matriculation class of forty-five. For many years the school occupied rooms in the main building of the College, but now it has a building all to itself. The school is under the supervision of Dr. King. The headmaster, Mr. U. R. Clement B.A., is an Indian Christian. Under him are sixteen masters.

The Girls' High School had a similar development. Miss J. V. Sinclair (now Mrs. J. S. MacKay) gave many years of devoted effort to the establishment of the school. At present the two missionaries in charge are Misses Duncan and Robertson. In 1908, the school was "recognized" by the University of Allahabad, and some of those who have matriculated have gone on to the College. The efficiency of the school is testified to by the results of what would correspond in Canada to the High School Entrance Examination. Every year in competition with girls from all over the United Provinces our candidates have won scholarships, and one year headed the list.

In both these schools religious and moral training have an important place on the curricula. The aim is to bring light and life to those in darkness, and to make those Christian in name, Christ's indeed.

Then there is the CHRISTIAN BOYS' SCHOOL at Rasulpura. This school is fed by the Christian households throughout the Mission, and, in turn, is a feeder to the High School and College, to the Theological Seminary, and to the Mission Industries workshops at Rasulpura.

India needs trained men, leaders in every department of service. Our Mission proposes with the approval of the Foreign Mission Committee in Canada to open, thirteen new stations in the next five years. This will be absolutely impossible unless we can get hold of and train workers of our own.

This boys' school in Rasalpura is intended to take an important share in securing and training these men. At present there are sixty on the school roll. Of these, thirty-one are orphans, the remainder being children of Christian parents. Recently six were transferred to full day's work in the shops, making fifty-six in all under training in the Industrial department. A party of nine were sent on to the High School, having been given a two years' chance to show themselves fit for higher education.

Many of the boys and girls in the three above institutions are supported by scholarships from home and our heartiest thanks are due to all whose generosity has made such things possible.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

The two important Primary Schools in Indore are those attached to the High Schools, or rather those out of which the High Schools have grown. Long established, there is little to say about them that has not been said in another place.

There have been many and varied attempts at Primary Schools for boys in the Native City of Indore. As many as six have been going at one time when workers and funds were available and opportunities presented. At present there are two: one under the congregation, the other managed by Mrs. Wilson. The schools for girls have had a more continuous existence. The one known as the Camp School has been in existence for fifteen years. It owes its inception to Zenana visiting. On the day it was opened only five came; to-day there are from fifty to sixty good caste girls in attendance. The school is held in rented premises in the Residency Bazaar. Another long established school for girls is in the Native City. It is called the Marathi school, although both Hindi and Marathi children attend. Miss Glendinning, who is in charge of both of these, has been sorely tried by the prevalence of plague, which every year breaks up the work and carries off its tale of scholars.

In Mhow, too, there has been Primary work for girls for over thirty years. Here a large number of Hindu and Mohammedan girls have begun their education, and here they have likewise finished it, having had thrust upon them at the early age of ten and twelve the cares of matrimony. Miss Sinclair has recently opened a Kindergarten class, which is extremely popular among the little tots.

In other stations, Neemuch, Dhar, and Ujjain, there are similar schools for heathen children. One recently opened at Manpur, a sub-station of Mhow, is worthy of special reference. Opened late in 1910, it has an attendance of about twenty-five girls—the only work done for them in that district. The first teacher was one of the Orphan girls, her husband a Rasalpura boy. The first kindergarten for Christian children only was opened last year by Miss Grier in Ujjain.

A growing Christian community brings new obligations. It is now the declared policy of the Mission to have a Primary school for boys and girls wherever there is a congregation, and to make the session responsible for its maintenance. We cannot forget what some of the Western lands owe to the Parish school.

MEDICAL.

WOMEN'S WORK.

We have hospitals for women at Indore, Neemuch, and Dhar. But the women of the other stations are not forsaken. At Amkhut, Mrs. Buchanan, like her husband, is a physician; and, judging from reports, Drs. Nugent and Waters of Rutlam, are sometimes allowed behind the purdah.

Medical work for women was begun in Indore over twenty-five years ago by Dr. Elizabeth Beattie and Dr. Marion Oliver, in a dispensary attached to their bungalow. The pressing need of a hospital led to its erection in 1891. It has proved a blessing to many, sick in body and soul. Recently, such were the demands on its capacity, it has been greatly enlarged. The rooms used for waiting, consulting and dispensing have been taken into general use as wards. Two large rooms have also been added to the upper storey. One of these is the "Jessie L. Forrester Memorial Ward" for Europeans. The money to build it was the gift of her relatives, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Rutlam, and their nephew and niece in Canada. The new Dispensary, which takes the place of the room mentioned, was opened in January, 1910. This building stands just within the gateway of the Hospital compound. Would that the sisters in the Homeland who made possible its erection could see the comfort and satisfaction it brings to doctors and patients alike! It is open for out-patients every day for four or five hours. Sabbath is understood by those who know the Hospital to be a day of rest. On that day, only those who are very ill and a few who come for the first time are treated.

The scene in a Mission Dispensary is much the same, India over. The patients first come into the waiting room, and, before being called into the consulting room, hear the Gospel in song and story. Sometimes tracts are given, and usually on the ticket which each receives in the Dispensary a verse of Scripture is printed. Though few of the women can read, some one in the home may be able to. Many of the women, after getting their medicine, go back to the waiting-room to hear more. Usually one or two friends come with the patient, and "they, too, have the Word preached unto them."

Medical work in Neemuch began as in Indore, with a dispensary. But patients could not always be sent to Indore, one hundred and forty miles distant. Dr. MacKellar opened first a small hospital of twelve beds, in a building on the compound which had once been an office. A few in-patients had been accommodated about the City Dispensary, but the famine necessitated a change. Among fifteen hundred starving boys and girls, there were not a few that needed prolonged treatment. This little hospital has been a step to bigger things, for it has been torn down and a large hospital is now in the course of erection on the old site. The City Dispensary at Neemuch is carried on in rented premises, and many out-patients are being treated whilst the new buildings are being erected. As many as two hundred out-patients have been treated in one day.

The third hospital for women is at Dhar, and owes its inception to Dr. Margaret O'Hara's untiring efforts. Like the other two Zenana hospitals, it has proved a great boon to the neighbouring districts. In addition to the hospital, work is carried on in two dispensaries, one in Dhar City and the other outside. They are accessible to the people of over two hundred villages. The Dispensary is the porch to the Hospital. When the confidence of the people is gained in the former they are ready to submit to longer treatment in the latter. Even in the civilized West, some people have a prejudice against going into a hospital. Many are the cases who have come simply to have their bodies healed and have left with their souls saved also. "The great Physician still is near, the sympathizing Jesus."

The medical staff for women's work is down to its minimum. There are Drs. MacKellar and Chone Oliver at Neemuch, Dr. O'Hara at Dhar, Dr. MacMaster at Indore, and Dr. Marion Oliver on furlough as this goes to press. The nurses must not be forgotten: Misses McHarrie and Coltart at Indore, Miss Cameron at Neemuch, and Miss Thomson on furlough.

The Native States are beginning to do something for their own. Let us not call this opposition. Is it not the fruit of Christian example? Let us hope that they will also seek the Root. The Administrative Medical Officer in Central India, in his official report, says:—"It is to be noted that the first three" (our institutions) "are for women only, and show in the time under review, 839 in-patients. This compares favourably with the 346 in-patients of the separate women's hospitals maintained by the States. Again, the out-patients of these Mission Dispensaries number 18,804, against 11,748 of the women's (State) hospitals."

MEN'S WORK.

MEN'S HOSPITALS.

There are really no men's hospitals in the Mission. At Ujjain there is in the bazaar a fine stone and brick building, but it is rather a dispensary. The "Rutlam Hospital" is part of a native house. The operating room is "round the corner under the big tree." At Amkhut, Dr. Buchanan carries on a big practice on the veranda of his bungalow. Cases needing aseptic treatment are invited down to the spring. But the Bhils are a backward people, and microbes have not yet come under their notice.

This lack of buildings is very discouraging from a professional standpoint. Many interesting cases have to be passed on to outside institutions. And other missionaries feel it, too. Our native Christian men have nowhere to go but to these same States institutions. This is not said by way of criticism on the latter, for the Head of the Hospital at Indore has in more than one way laid us all under deep obligation. Nevertheless, a marvellous amount of work is being done in these dispensaries. Dr. Nugent's building at Ujjain is a two storeyed edifice, the ground floor of which is used as a preaching hall. Upstairs is the dispensary proper. The Doctor writes:—"The year 1911 has seen some 58,000 patients pass up and down these stairs. Of their friends who accompanied them, no record has been kept. If numbers indicate anything, we may take it for granted that our small investment is paying."

A notable change is passing over India. Dr. Nugent reports that of the 17,387 new patients treated during the past year, 7,248 were of females. The same is true in Rutlam. Two days taken at random from Dr. Waters' records show 41 per cent. of female patients. All, men and women, patients and friends, have the Gospel preached unto them. In Ujjain the work among the women is followed up in their homes by Miss Grier.

We are planning for two new hospitals. The excavations for one are begun on a site granted at Rutlam by the Maharaja. The location of the second is not decided. Recently, two out-dispensaries were opened. The first is at Kharua, with a native medical assistant in charge. The other is at Maksi, where there is an encouraging work going on among the villagers.

TOURING.

Like the purely Evangelistic missionaries, the doctors go on tour when they can. Up to this year the most of Dr. McPhedran's time has been spent in this way.

The news soon spreads that the doctor has arrived, and in the early morning little groups of expectant patients may be seen sitting in the sun, for the air is chilly. "Our stock of medicines and instruments is arranged on a table and all the scattered clumps of people are gathered together in a semi-circle facing the doctor, who briefly explains to them his object in coming to the district. He has come to endeavour to help those who are sick; he has come from the hospital in such and such a place. Perhaps some one speaks up and says that he has been there and was kindly treated and got well. Resuming, the doctor goes on to say that he has also come to tell them all of the Good News of the Gospel of Christ. He then reads a short passage and in simple phrases in their own language tells them the old story of the sinfulness of man and the love of God manifested in our Saviour Christ. The work he is to do is the work of Christ, because it is at His command, in His name, by His servants, and for His honour.

After a short prayer for the blessing of God, the medical part of the work is begun and continued until all are seen."

"The work has touches of both humour and pathos. Here is a batch of children waiting for their dose of santonin and castor oil, which is administered in a way that reminds one of Dotheboys Hall. Here are some innocents bearing the sins of their fathers 'to the third and fourth generation.' Public interest reaches a high pitch when an operation is to be done, and it is impossible to exclude unprofessional spectators. Perhaps some small tumour is removed, teeth are extracted, or small abscesses lanced. If chloroform has to be administered the interest reaches its high-water mark, and a hush falls on the onlookers. Next day the crowd is larger than ever."

Much of Dr. Buchanan's work is of this nature. Dr. Nugent also endeavours to get into the districts for a few months each year. The villages about Neemuch are visited by Drs. MacKellar and Chone Oliver, and those near Dhar by Dr. O'Hara.

PLAGUE.

We have almost come to accept it as part of the regular routine, disconcerting as it is to all kinds of work. One writes with a mild suspicion of reproof, "We have suffered so long from this scourge that we now neither look for nor receive sympathy. But the Lord has preserved our lives and those of the Christian community."

INDUSTRIAL.

The presence of so many orphan boys and girls made industrial work imperative. Besides, it is well to have some arrangement whereby a man can work for his living when, after his conversion his caste people make it impossible for him to stay in his village. Better far than to pauperize him by charity. And, moreover, there is the rising generation of Christians to train for useful service in the various trades. No Hindu will train them.

In 1902, Rasalpura, named after the late Norman Russell, was opened and the orphan boys from the different stations congregated. The ideal would have been to have treated the lads individually, or in small groups, but the limits of the possible must often determine policy. Carpet and cloth weaving, carpentry and sometimes tailoring, were the industries engaged in. Agriculture was attempted, but the land was not suitable, and no good farm site could be secured in the neighbourhood.

Mr. K. G. MacKay, after co-operating for some time with Dr. Buchanan amongst the Bhils, took charge of the industrial work in Rasalpura. During Mr. MacKay's administration, the work was both educationally and financially satisfactory. Mr. MacKay is, however, a graduate of the Agricultural College, Guelph, and hopes in some way to give India the benefit of his scientific training where such training is so much needed.

In 1910, the Mission entered on a policy of expansion. The increasing number of Christian children demanded it. New shops were erected, machinery installed, and the Rev. F. H. Russell put in charge. Iron work was added to the list of industries. Already the institution has made a name for itself. Its carpets have won prizes at the exhibitions, its silks find a ready and increasing sale, and its cabinet-making is much appreciated by officers, military and political.

The Printing Press at Rutlam is our oldest industrial work. At first the workmen were mostly non-Christian, but for over twenty years young Christians almost exclusively have been trained and employed. They have done, moreover, as a labour of love, unpaid evangelistic work. For about ten years, the Indian Standard, which in time became the organ of the Presbyterian Church in India, was printed here; and for a longer period, various vernacular papers. This Press has cost the Mission little beyond a share of the time of those superintending it.

At Amkhut, Dr. Buchanan has always combined a due proportion of industrial training with all his classes, not excepting the Theologs. Building, carpentering, farming; they are worthy disciples of John Ruskin.

The Girls' Orphanages under Mrs. Campbell at Rutlam, Miss Campbell at Neemuch and Dr. O'Hara at Dhar, and the Women's Home at Indore under Miss White, are all hives of industry, with their knitting, and sewing, and fancy stitching. Most important of all—truth demands us to say it—they are excellent training schools for wives. How extremes meet! The fashionable announcement, "A marriage has been arranged and will shortly take place between," etc., exactly describes the process. A great variety of trades are taught in the industrial activities of the Mission. For example, Mrs. Menzies writes concerning the Orphanage at Neemuch, that they have forty-seven girls learning the following industries: drawn thread, embroidery, Roman embroidery, shadow work, netting, plain sewing and mending, knitting and crotcheting.

OUR NEEDS.

Westerners are a practical people. Show us, they say, what we are getting for our money. This is what we have been trying to do. We now present our needs as opportunities for further investment. But there is another way of looking at this matter. Can any Christian get away from the command of the Master, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations"? Early in 1911, the Foreign Mission Committee asked us the question, "What would be necessary to completely overtake the work in that part of India allotted to our Church?" The answer was, "Thirty-five new central stations."

The question may be modified. "Suppose the money and the men to be forthcoming, what could you arrange for in the next five years?" The answer was, "Thirteen stations." They can be readily named. Considerable work has already been done in most of them. Recently one of them, Barwaha, has been taken off the "waiting list," having been opened. Others will follow shortly, first Jaora, then Sitamau. The others, as yet, have no resident missionary. To "open" one of the remaining ten would require, for plant, about $4,900. But the present stations have some pressing needs. The Seminary is looking for a home, and accommodation for its staff and students. Indore needs a church. Indore College reports that with increased accommodation in its hostels it could easily double its attendance. It needs furnishings for its new High School, and apparatus for its laboratory. Rasulpura looks forward to becoming the centre of Secondary Education for the Christian boys of the Mission. But its schools and dormitories are yet to build. Mhow would like the modest sum of $600 for each of four out-stations, enough to erect a small preaching hall and a house for an Indian worker. So would the others, Amkhut, Ujjain, Rullam, Neemuch, Dhar, Indore, and Kharua; each would open from two to five out-stations if the money were forthcoming. Ujjain, Dhar and Rutlam need Elementary Boys' Schools. Rullam has begun to build its long looked for hospital. When will the one at Ujjain be undertaken?

DOES ANYONE WISH TO HELP US?

For $600, the buildings in an out-station can be erected; $700 will build an Elementary School; $250 will build a small hospital ward. The larger projects are the Seminary, the College Hostels, and the Ujjain hospital, estimated at $10,000 each the Rasulpura School at $5,000.

The events of the past year in China are such as to attract the attention and sympathy of the civilized world. The terrible triad of evils—pestilence, famine and war—stalked through the land, claiming many thousands of victims. The overthrow of despotic government, after a struggle lasting only a few months, by a people accustomed for three thousand years to an absolute monarchy, and the emergence of the largest and most conservative nation of the world into the full tide of modern progress and reform, is unparalleled in the history of the world. The situation calls for the most earnest consideration of all interested in the evangelization of the world, and it constitutes a direct challenge to the resources of the Christian Church and its power of conquest.

PLAGUE AND FAMINE.

Early in the year there appeared in Manchuria a most virulent type of plague, of so contagious and fatal a nature that it might easily have spread through the whole of China had not the enlightened Viceroy of Manchuria called in the assistance of modern medical science to stamp it out. Among those who responded to the appeal for help were many missionary doctors. The self-sacrificing labours of these men, and the efficient service rendered by them brought the church of Jesus Christ into the lime-light, and commended Christianity to persons high in authority in the Empire. At the funeral service of the late Dr. Arthur Jackson, who died of disease contracted in the isolation quarters in Mukden, the highest officials attended in person, and Hsi Liang, then the Viceroy of Manchuria, delivered an address. The Honan Mission was prepared to send one doctor for plague work, but his assistance was not required.

In the spring large areas in Anhwei Province and adjoining districts were inundated, and in the fall the Yangtze overflowed its banks, rendering millions of people homeless and destitute. In the famine relief work undertaken, our Mission was represented by two members, Mr. Clark and Dr. MacKenzie.

REVOLUTION.

In the closing months of the year the discontent arising from the abuses of the Manchu dynasty, and the aspirations of the more enlightened classes for reform, broke out into armed rebellion. The movement was so wide-spread that after a few months the Manchus abdicated, and a republic was formed. The overthrow of the government, and the presence of a large number of people deprived of any means of subsistence on account of the floods, resulted in an outbreak of lawlessness and brigandage on an extended scale. The unsettled condition of the country made it advisable that most of the missionaries resident inland retire from their work and take refuge in the treaty ports. The Canadian Presbyterian Mission has great reason for gratitude to God in that at no time was there serious danger to life or property, and the work proceeded without interruption. The following resolution regarding the relation of the political upheaval to the work of the Mission, drawn up at its last annual meeting at the end of the year, was forwarded to the Foreign Mission Committee:

"This Presbytery desires to place on record its deep sense of gratitude to Almighty God for the protection vouchsafed, and the freedom with which mission work in almost all departments has been carried on. China is now in the throes of a revolution which will have an abiding influence on the nation's history and destiny. While some time will probably elapse before a stable government is established and tranquility secured, Presbytery is assured that the conditions are not such as to cause undue anxiety as to the lives of missionaries, or security of mission property. Furthermore, Presbytery believes that with the passing of the present unrest, a period of unprecedented opportunity will be afforded the Christian Church to contribute its full share, by its work of evangelization, to the ultimate transformation of the coming China. We would earnestly ask the Church in Canada to aid in hastening the coming of the Kingdom, which is righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost, in China by uniting in offering such a volume of prayer to God as His promises warrant, and will give joy to Christ's heart to hear and answer."

SCHOOL FOR MISSIONARIES' CHILDREN.

On the 15th of March, the Canadian Presbyterian School for Missionaries' Children was opened at Wei Hwei. This school was not erected out of Foreign Mission funds, but by special contributions from friends interested in the project. Two Canadian ladies are in charge. The school secures for the children of our missionaries the advantages of a Canadian education, without the necessity of their separation from one or both parents.

NATIVE MINISTRY.

The most important event in the year is the completion by ten of our native preachers, of the six years' course of the theological class. These men are now eligible for a call. Something has already been accomplished in the way of self-support, by the Chinese Christians, through their providing the salary of some native evangelists, and the erection, at their own expense, of schools and churches. The Mission believes that the time has now arrived for making a decided advance towards the ideal of a self-supporting, self-propagating native church, by undertaking this year the ordination for the ministry of some of these ten men, and settling them in pastoral charges responsible for their entire support. The matter is to be discussed with the Presbytery and the native church, and the hope is that the year 1912 will see the ordination and settlement of the first Chinese pastors of the church in North Honan.

There were 29 members enrolled in the senior class of the theological school last year, and 13 in the junior. 28 of the former, and 9 of the latter, were successful in their examinations.

EQUIPMENT.

Additions to the equipment of the Mission have been made by the erection of a missionary residence at Hwaiking, and another at Changte. At Weihwei and Changte the accommodation for primary school pupils has been added to. The buildings for Wu An, provided for in a legacy of the late David Yuile, of Montreal, were erected, consisting of three missionary residences, quarters for the Chinese workers, and a compound wall. Good progress has been made in the erection of the Memorial Hospital provided by Mrs. Yuile and her two daughters.

The number of students in the High and Normal school is 37. The Boys' Primary School at Changte has 54 pupils and at Weihwei 60. The number of pupils enrolled in the Girls' School at Changte was 66, and at Weihwei 44. The average cost to the Mission of each boy pupil for the year is $6.60, and of each girl $3.46.

Only three of the five stations of the Mission have reported the number of converts added to the Church roll in 1911. In these three stations, the number of baptized is 130, and of additions to the roll of catechumens 177.

THE FIRST STATION.

The sale of the old Mission premises at Chu Wang, though without any importance from the standpoint of the year's work, is not without a sentimental and historical interest. It was the place where the first foothold in Honan was secured. In the troublous and stormy times of pioneer days, it witnessed many interesting and thrilling scenes. The fame of its history spread far and wide, and from it, as soon as possible, tours were made in the then harsh and forbidding villages and cities of what has since become the open and accessible field of North Honan. It was, however, only a temporary location until the more suitable centre could be secured, and since 1900 has not been occupied by the Mission.

In 1911 one addition was made to the Honan staff, in the person of a deaconess, Miss Ethel Cameron, of Lucknow, Ontario.

In closing the year's report, the Mission draws the attention of the Church to the urgent need of re-enforcements at once. Twelve more ministers, three male doctors, one educationist, five ladies for evangelization and educational work, and two doctors, are asked for.

ENCOURAGING SIGNS.

The attention directed towards China during the last year, and the increasing volume of prayer awakened by the story of her struggles and sufferings, may be the cause of the encouraging condition of affairs in Honan at the present time. Letters from missionaries on the field are most optimistic regarding the interest of the masses shown in the preaching of the Gospel. The following extracts are from personal letters, written by two different members of the Mission, and were not intended for publication, but are of value as showing the attitude of the public towards the proclamation of the truth.

"It is really remarkable the way our work here has gone on all through the troublous times when practically every other mission we know of, except those at Kaifeng (the mission of the Anglican Church of Canada) had to leave for the Coast. Those who are acquainted with conditions here say that things never looked more encouraging than just now, all over the field. I have just come in from a week's tour to the North East, with Mr. Eadie, and it was fine. Always an appreciative crowd wherever you went, and large crowds, too. Books were bought eagerly, and many are studying. Dr. MacKenzie comes in from his tour to say that at Changtsun he has had a class of 70 and 80 every day for ten days, studying, and the interest never lagged; rather grew as the time went on."

"Mr. Griffith is these days carrying on a special street campaign inside the city. Never before in his experience, so he reports, has he had so ready a hearing in the city. Not merely the simpler folk listened. Many of the well-to-do gentlemen of the city are seen to be on the edge of the crowds, and books are being bought by the Hsinchungs (the educated). Encouraging features are numerous in all parts of the field."

SHANGHAI

STAFF—Rev. Donald MacGillivray, M.A., D.D., and Mrs. MacGillivray, B.A.; Miss M. Verne McNeely, B.A.

(Our Church has assigned Dr. and Mrs. MacGillivray and Miss McNeely to Shanghai for literary and translation work in connection with the Christian Literature Society for China.)

The Christian Literature Society continues to take Phil. 4 : 8 as its motto, and hence derives a threefold aim: (1) To promote the welfare of China in every phase of its life; (2) to permeate society with Christian ideals; and (3) to develop and educate a Christian community which shall prove the real salt of the new China.

A year before the revolution broke out, the Society presciently inaugurated the preparation of a series of biographies of eminent Christian statesmen. As its own staff was small, the assistance of other missionaries was sought, and some progress has been made during 1911. In addition, we began a new series of Tracts for the Times, which in view of the revolution of 1912, are extremely timely. The following is a list of titles, all of them discussing burning questions, never so keenly required as now, when the country is launching into the unknown fields of political experiment.

1. True Patriotism. 2. Relation of ethics to religion. 3. Education and morals. 4. Evolution and religion. 5. Evolution since Darwin. 6. Representative government. 7. Duties of the citizen. 8. Famines and plagues and how to prevent them. 9. The British Constitution. 10. Christianity and the progress of a nation. 11. Christianity and the uplift of woman. 12. The sacrificial life and vicarious suffering. 13. Greatest need of every land—men. 14. Religious liberty. 15. What a nation needs. 16. Peace or militarism. 17. Afforestation. 18. What can be done to develop China agriculturally? 19. Christianity and the social question. 20. Anti-materialism. 21. The value of the individual. 22. The value of the child. 23. Reform of medical practice in China. 24. Why should we pray? 25. The true religion.

Dr. MacGillivray's literary output for the year is as follows:—Methods of Bible Study, Evolution and Religion, Answers to Prayer, Korea for Christ, Aids to Understanding the Bible, Tracts for the Religious Tract Society of London, Mission Study Book on China, Ethics of Jesus, Sermon on the Mount.

The China Mission Year Book made the second of its annual appearances under

Dr. MacGillivray's editorship. During his absence on furlough, Rev. G. H. Bondfield edits the book for 1912. "I am glad," writes Dr. MacGillivray, "that so many in Canada have given me their names for this work. Of the 1910 edition, one hundred copies were disposed of in Canada, as of the 1911 edition two hundred copies were quickly purchased. May I hope that for 1912, a still larger number will be needed?"

In this and all other work, the assistance of Miss McNeely has been indispensable. During Dr. MacGillivray's furlough she went to Honan for study of the language until the revolution made it desirable to return to Shanghai, when, however, language study was continued. The first part of their furlough was spent in England, where meetings in the interest of their work were held in England and Scotland. Since October, many openings have presented themselves in Canada. A pleasing difference between this and previous furloughs is that there were so many calls outside the churches.

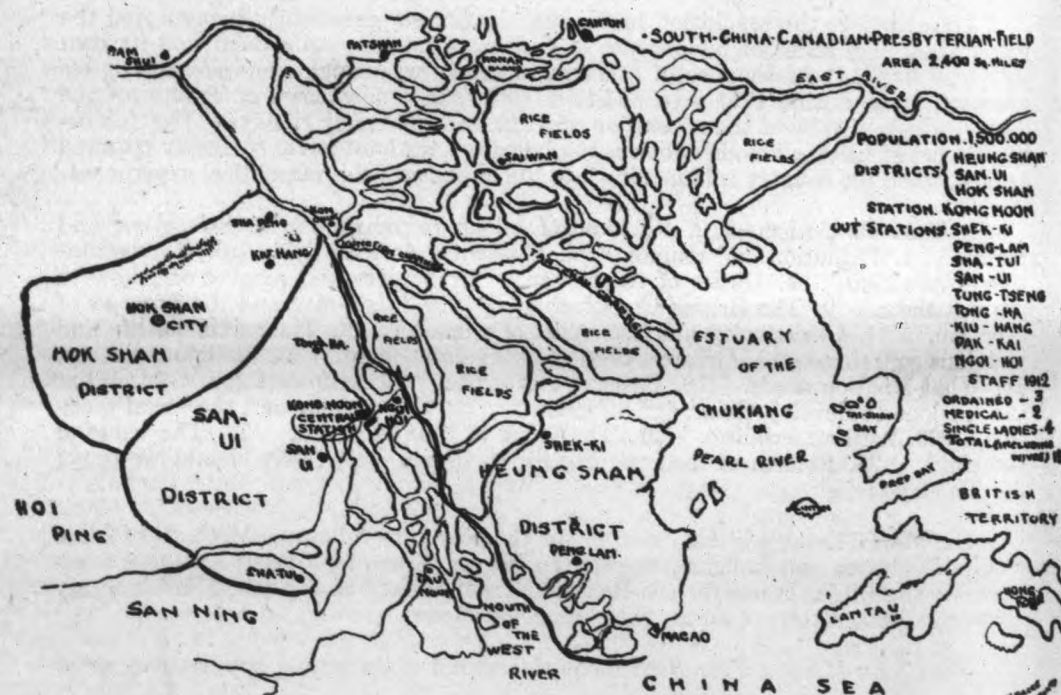

The smallness of the band of literary workers in Shanghai still continues to distress us, and surely with the greatest revolution in the world's history now in full swing, this particular branch should be pressed forward with redoubled energy.

In presenting the General Report of the South China Mission for the year 1911 we have just cause for gratitude to God for His mercy, His protecting care, and for the opportunities and accompanying blessing which have been afforded us throughout the year. It has been a year of progress in all departments of the work. The completion of four dwelling houses and the building of the hospital has given greater visibility to the work, as well as making possible greater efficiency in carrying it on. The medical, educational, and evangelistic work have all increased and been placed on a better working basis.

Many events such as the visits of the Rev. J. S. and Mrs. MacKay and Dr. Marion Oliver from India, and the departures of Miss Latter and Miss Dickson, might be noted. We were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. MacKay and Dr. Oliver with us for a few days in April. From them we learned much about the work in India, and they also learned much about our work and about conditions and customs in China.

The departure of Miss Latter was a great loss to the Mission. Miss Dickson's going home on furlough left a large place to be filled. She has been a good and faithful worker during the past six years.

Some things have caused considerable anxiety. During the months of July, August and September there was a succession of typhoons not so serious as in previous years, yet sufficient to cause concern in connection with the building of the houses. In July the water of the West River was very high, and for a few days overflowed, very little damage, however, resulting. The workmen were delayed somewhat by the flood.

CHANGING CONDITIONS.

The event of greatest note during the year was the revolution. Those who best know China and her problems would have been slow to predict, four months ago, that the present state of affairs would have been such as we find it to-day. We who are living in the midst of it can hardly realize the meaning of what has occurred during the past four months. What the future has in store would be hard to conjecture; but one thing is certain, China has taken a long and rapid stride forwards and she will not go back. Her face is toward the future and not toward the past. A new China is being born. The old is passing rapidly. The new is everywhere apparent. A new motive and a new spirit are seen. New forms and new customs are being adopted, and China is entering on a new era and a new life.

EVANGELISTIC.

During the year there were 82 baptisms—37 men, 23 women, and 22 children. The interest in the evangelistic work has been evident in all of the fourteen chapels. Men, women and children come and are anxious to hear the Gospel. Many hear the word preached. Some accept and believe. Many apparently pass on and show no outward sign of the influence of the Gospel message. Many are indifferent and never come to hear the Word preached. Many say they have no time, they are too busy, they have no leisure. Still the Good Seed is being sown and beside many waters. Almost with appalling swiftness the Chinese are turning from their idols.

Many attempts have been made during the year to rent chapels in important centres, but without success. It is to be hoped when Mr. McKay and Mr. Duncanson begin to take over the care of some of the chapels in the near future that more time will be found to open up new work. In one or two instances we find it will be necessary to buy land and build, as it is almost impossible to rent buildings for chapels.

SHEK KI STATION.

Another year has passed and still no land has been bought in Shek Ki. We have spent much time in looking at possible sites in and around the city. We have finally decided on one of two places. The first is a piece of property containing about sixteen mau, prepared for the erection of a large school. The project was abandoned, and the land is now for sale. The price asked is about $7,000. The site is a good one, but the price so far has been prohibitory. The Mission first offered $5,000, and later $5,500, but the offer so far has not been accepted. The other site is a piece of rice land containing about sixteen mau. For a time we thought this was available, but later the widow who owned part of it was unwilling to sell. This land would need filling in to a height of three feet, which would cost much. The school property is the more desirable, but the amount set apart by the Foreign Mission Committee is not sufficient. The difficulty now, however, in buying land, is the unsettled state of the country. It would be very difficult, if not impossible, to have deeds stamped. In the meantime we may have to wait until some settled form of government is established.

The people in Shek Ki are most anxious for a hospital in the city, and will give liberal help toward such when land is secured. Some are even now willing to help in buying land. Mr. Duncanson is particularly anxious to see land secured in Shek Ki at as early a date as possible, and is feeling impatient at the delay. Mr. and Mrs. Duncanson have been appointed to Shek Ki and the work in Heung Shan District.

SCHOOLS.

The girls' and boys' schools are proving a great help in developing the Mission work, and opportunities for inculcating scriptural truths and the building up of Christian character in the work among the pupils are great. Arrangements have already been made for the opening of a boys' boarding school at Kongmoon Port during 1912. A teacher has been secured and preparations are being made for the accommodation of 25 boys.

During the month of July a Teachers' Training School was held in Canton for two weeks. The teachers of the different mission schools throughout the Province were invited to be present. A number of our teachers went to Canton and were much benefitted by the course. The difficulty is to secure properly qualified teachers. A uniform curriculum is now prepared for primary and middle school work throughout the Province. This is a great help in keeping up a uniform standard.

As stated the Revolution has brought a new spirit and outlook to China. Many changes have taken place. The queue is seldom seen. Those who venture out with a queue are liable to punishment. In the streets we have seen men being held while their hair was forcibly cut, a jeering crowd watching the performance. As many as can afford it are discarding Chinese dress and adopting foreign clothing. All rejoice in the new flag of what they call the Republic of China and the dragon flag is seen no more.

CHINA'S CHRISTIAN LEADERS.

Instead of beheading men for speaking on reform in the streets, the provisional Government pay men salaries to preach reform doctrine. In the new Government are men who have either been abroad or have had Western training in Hong Kong. Some of the leaders in the reforms are Christians such as Sun Yat Sen, the President, and Wong Hing, the Minister of War. This fact is apparently opening up the doors for preaching the Gospel more than anything else. Christianity is evidently associated in the minds of the people with the new China and the new life.

Our preachers are now constantly telling of men of some standing who are presenting their cards stating that they wish to join the church. Most of these formerly took no interest in Christianity. The fact is, of course, accompanied with its serious side, as numbers of these men know nothing about Christianity. They do not know that the Gospel calls for a complete change of heart and life. They wish to unite with the Church and become Christians because the leaders of the new Government are Christians. However, should the reform movement be finally successful and China have a form of representative government, many of the leaders will undoubtedly be either genuine or nominal Christians, and a new era will be established in China for the evangelization of this great Empire. The gentry and scholars will be more easily reached. From the very beginning of the Revolution notices were circulated that chapels and schools would be protected and that Christian teaching and preaching would be allowed to go on as usual.

Members of other missions living in the interior have been forced to leave their folds, owing to the bands of robbers who have come into power since the rebellion began. Even in and around Kongmoon piracies and robberies are frequent. So far we have been able to carry on the work much as usual. The opportunities on every side are now greater than before, but the pirates and plunderers by day and night make it unsafe to travel much in the country. Were it not for the fact that for the past two months we have had a fleet of British torpedo boats on the West River with headquarters at Kongmoon it is doubtful if we should have been allowed to remain at our station. Our proximity to Hong Kong is a source of safety.

NATIVE WORKERS.

The native workers have for the most part been doing good, faithful work. Some, of course, have had little or no training, but each according to his light has been telling the Gospel story. A few of the teachers have not proved themselves worthy of their calling, and will not be employed this coming year.

As the work increases there is an ever-increasing need of consecrated native helpers. The demand is greater than the supply, and the new Republic will tend to make the difference even greater, for many will take up the more remunerative government positions. There are men applying to enter for training, and the utmost care has to be taken in their selection, so many being anxious merely to receive the additional education.

MEDICAL.

The medical work has been carried on uninterruptedly, and, though the number of treatments has not been as large as in previous years, there has been a better opportunity for personal work. The patients while waiting for treatment have been more attentive to the Gospel message. An opening has been made into many new villages, and we hope that soon a native helper can be set apart for the purpose of following up these cases. This will almost be imperative when the hospital is completed, for in a hospital men and women are reached as nowhere else, and unless followed to their homes, nothing definite may result. These patients are grateful for healing. We must let them know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sin. While at first we were feared and distrusted, now in most places we are received, and in some places gladly welcomed.

The hospital is being erected on a strip of land lying between the compound and the river. It has an excellent situation, with the river in front and the main compound behind, no one can encroach on its light and air. Attempts were made to purchase this land after the main compound was secured, but not until June, 1911, were we able to do so. A case which Dr. MacBean had in the proprietor's home helped to bring about the final negotiations ending in the purchase.

It is a two-storey building, and is now about ready for the roof. When completed it will accommodate 35 patients, but 12 more can be taken in if necessary. About $2,500 has been collected from Customs and other fees towards its erection. When opened, an attempt will be made to secure funds from the gentry and others to help in its maintenance. That foreign medicine is appreciated can be judged by two fees received during the year, one of $50, the other of $100.

Although the present compound was purchased in the fall of 1909, it was not until November, 1911, that four Mission dwelling houses were completed. The work of building was begun in September, 1910, but the failure of the firm which took the first contract and the subsequent difficulty in finding another caused considerable delay. To facilitate matters it was deemed advisable to divide the contract between two firms. One firm contracted for labour only, the Mission buying the materials for the two houses nearest completion. A second firm took the contract for the remaining houses and hospital. The houses are almost completed, and are very comfortable, having a southern exposure, whence the prevailing summer breezes. After four years in semi-Chinese houses we appreciate our present homes, and are thankful to the Foreign Mission Committee for supplying them.

In a few months the railway, which has been opened as far as Kongmoon City, will be completed to Kongmoon Port. This will prove a great factor in opening up the country, and will place us in easier reach of several of our chapels, as well as some of those we propose to open. The station is to be about 150 yards from the compound.

For two years, though the work has increased, there have been no additions to our foreign staff. In fact we have lost one member, Miss Latter. Furthermore, two new demands have been made on us, namely, to supply one man each to the Presbyterian Seminary in Canton and the Union Medical School. To meet these and keep up with the work we need at least two ordained men and two doctors. One of the latter should be sent immediately in order to get some knowledge of the language before Dr. McDonald leaves on furlough. Dr. MacBean leaves this spring on furlough, with no one to take her place. We need, therefore, at least one lady physician and one evangelistic worker.

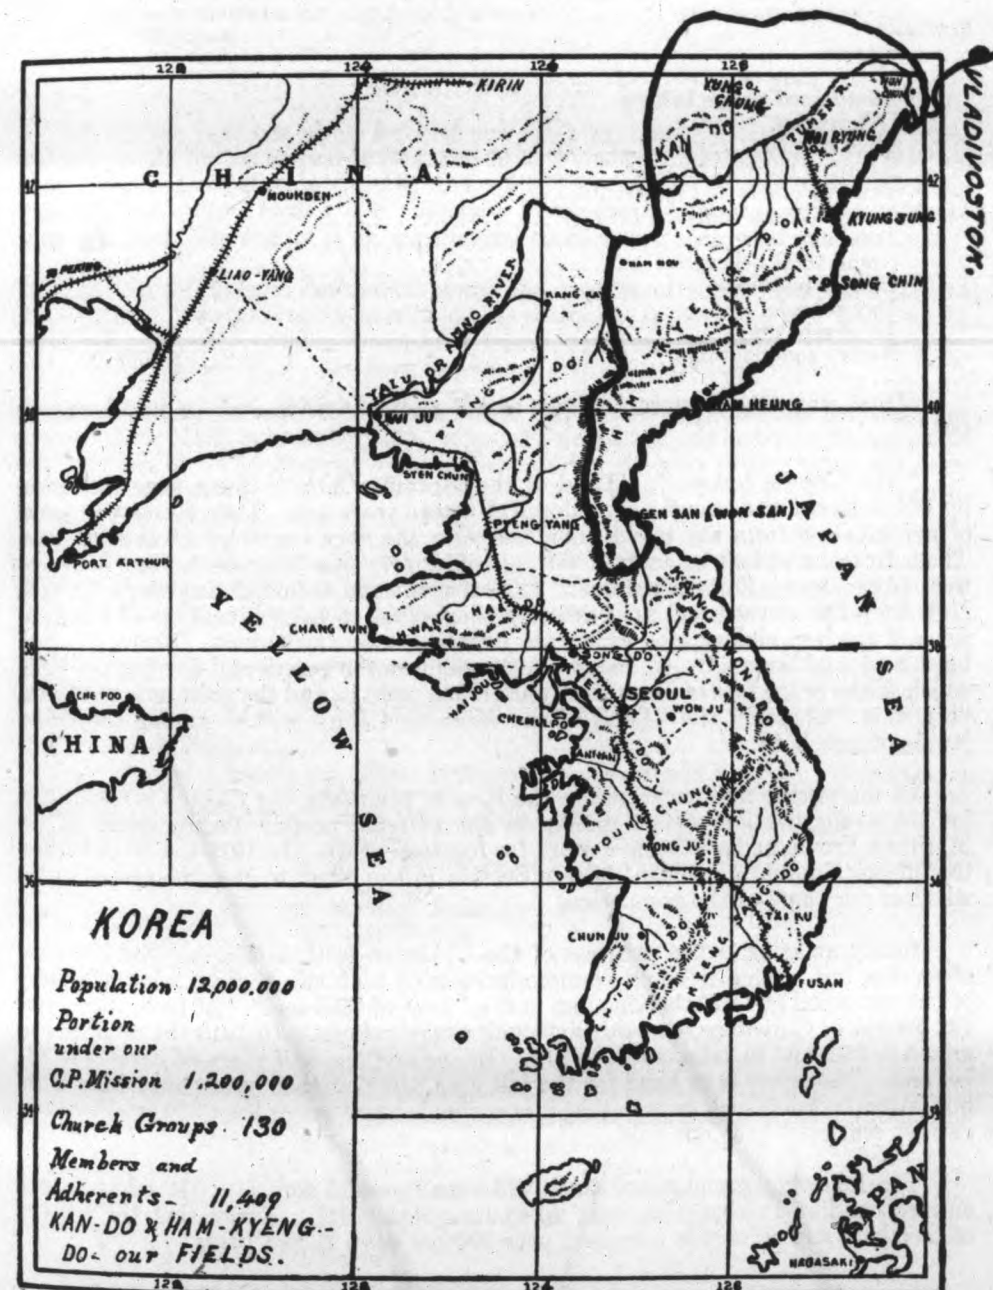

We start a new year with new resolves, and pray we may be more faithful in the work to which we have been called.

"The Hermit Nation"; "Land of the Morning Calm"; these were the names by which Korea was known only a dozen or fifteen years ago. Then Korea was proud of her isolation from the world; now she is in the very centre of Awakening Asia. Then, Koreans wished no contact with other people; now they are coming to realize their place among Eastern nations. Self-sufficient and secluded they slept for ages. Now they are aroused and are bestirring themselves to take advantage of the great tides of modern civilization, which are sweeping over the Orient. Korea, blurred, blackened, and broken by sin, hangs as a pendant on the bosom of Asia; but the light, which shines in the face of Jesus Christ has fallen upon it, and the promise is that soon, very soon "Chosen," the "Land of the Morning Calm" will be among the crown jewels of our Lord.

Of the twelve million people in the Korean peninsula, our Church is responsible for the evangelization of one million in the extreme north. Presbyterians of the Maritime Provinces have been at work for fourteen years. In 1910 the Western Section of our Church joined the Eastern Section in the effort to give the gospel to the whole of our share of the population.

Really amazing is the progress of the Christian faith in Korea. Statistics are often dry, but no figures could be more interesting than those which relate the story of the extension of Christ's Kingdom in the "land of Cho sen." In 1909, there were 132 groups of Christians, constituting small congregations. In 1910 the number had grown to 282, and in June, 1911, to 319. In one and one-half years an advance of 141 per cent. No report is to hand for the full year, 1911, as their year closes June 30th, but letters indicate such growth that it is probable there are at least 350 small congregations scattered over our field.

The following comparative table will repay careful scrutiny. It refers to the entire Canadian Presbyterian work up to June 30th, 1911. Notice that the number of members and adherents increased over 100 per cent. in two years.

MISSION FORCE.

During the year our small force of one minister, one physician and their wives was augmented by the arrival of Rev. and Mrs. Donald A. Macdonald. Not only are these three men superior in training and ability, but the ladies are all exceptionally well-equipped. Mrs. Barker is a university graduate, Mrs. Mansfield is a graduate nurse and Mrs. Macdonald is an experienced teacher.

The W.F.M.S. have decided to grant the request of the Council and appoint single ladies. Two university graduates have already applied and will probably be appointed. Another ordained man of splendid qualifications—Rev. W. A. Hunter, M.A., B.D., Reston, Man., has been appointed and will sail in the autumn.

About five or six more men and seven or eight more single women are needed to man our share of the field adequately. These should be sent out at the earliest possible date for what we do for Korea should be done during the next fifteen to twenty years and the missionaries should be there within the next two or three years. Korea will probably be a Christian country by 1930.

Equipment in the shape of land, buildings and furnishings are necessary to enable the missionaries to carry on the work. It is poor policy to thwart the work and hamper the staff by meagre, insufficient plant. A workman must have tools. Three houses and a dispensary have been authorized, but the entire equipment necessary for the whole field involves as an approximate estimate the following, which should be provided by 1916:—

Totals...		19 Missionaries.	21 Buildings.	$81,000 00

On Field—3 Married Men.

Being provided—1 Ordained Man, 2 Single Women; 3 Residences,

1 Dispensary (as beginning of Hospital); rest houses—total cost... $11,300 00

To be provided—thirteen missionaries and buildings to cost $71,700. It may be necessary also to provide two industrial missionaries and an industrial school at a cost of $20,000.

In a letter received May 11th, 1912, Mr. Barker gives a very clear account of the process leading up to Church membership. He writes:—"As soon as a man begins to come regularly to Church, and says he is trusting in Christ he is enrolled as a Wan-Eep or New-believer. Heathen do not come to Church as a rule regularly. They hear the Gospel elsewhere than in the Church and when ready to believe, or after having decided to believe, they begin coming to Church. Thus the congregations to which one preaches are usually mostly Christian by profession at least. After a man has been a Wan-Eep for six months he is examined as to his knowledge of the truth and of the Bible, his habits of life, his marriage relationships, etc. If he passes a successful examination he becomes a Hak-Soup or Catechumen. For six months more he remains in this class studying the Bible, etc. At the end of this period he is examined for baptism. So you see it is at least a year before a new believer can become a baptized Christian and often it is longer than that, for the missionary cannot always be on hand to examine. Further you will see that the Wan-Eeps feed the Catechumens and the latter the baptismal roll. Our work, once we are fairly launched, will be largely administrative and instructive. We will not be engaged so much in actual evangelization as in instructing those who are being reached by the native workers, and in examining the baptizing and organizing."

In the same letter, Mr. Barker appeals urgently for more workers to enter the Yung Jung district in Manchuria:—

"It is wonderful the opportunity which is presenting itself in Kando. People, a great many of them Christians, are simply flocking into Manchuria. In a letter from Mr. Foote, he says that on one boat going north from Wonsan a few weeks ago, there were forty Christians from that part of the Wonsan territory, which was formerly under the Presbyterian care. And every boat carries numbers to the north—men, women and children from all parts of Korea are flocking into Kando. This is part of China and demands attention. The time could not be more ripe than it is now. This is the psychological moment in the Christian history of Kando and we must have workers. Even though China desires more and we all know she does and hope and pray she may get more, yet is not the Presbyterian Church able to do great things for both China and Korea? And this, as I said, is part of China. We do not think that as many workers as possible can be sent any too quickly to aid us here. It takes practically two years for the new workers to get ready for full work."

The advantage to our Church of having work in Korea cannot be over-estimated. This is evident from Mr. Barker's letter. It is also evident from the fact that great benefit must come to a Church that has a part in bringing out of heathenism into Church membership thousands of people, who far excel in Christian character the membership of the Church, which has the privilege of preaching the gospel in Korea. For without question these Korean Christians are practising the Christian life in a way that puts to shame the manner of life of the very great majority of Canadian Christians. As was stated in last year's report "Korean Christians love their Bible." "They love to converse about their Lord." . . . "They love to give." . . . "They love to pray." . . . "Out in Korea we are experiencing unparalleled and almost incredible success. The Acts of the Apostles does not contain such a remarkable record of the growth of the Christian Church as is being told to-day concerning Korea."

In many respects the improvement among the Indians in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, among whom our missionaries are labouring, is very marked. That the Indian should become a farmer was once thought to be almost impossible. By slow steps the seemingly impossible is being achieved.

AGRICULTURAL PROGRESS.

The Indian women soon found that there was real value left on the spot when the threshing outfit of the white farmer had been moved; and they exploited it much to their own profit. Similarly the Indian was attracted by the rapidity with which a few dollars could be earned on the harvest field, and tried his hand at the work. Meanwhile the schools of the various Churches had been training the Indian boys to all kinds of farm work and teaching them that careful farming provides the means of making a comfortable home, and opens the way to wealth. Some learned the lesson much more quickly than others; and, by showing what an Indian could do, stirred up the slower members of the tribe to make an effort to in this way, secure comforts and luxuries, which were beyond the reach of the hunter when his occupation was at its best. The story of progress in farming as told by Mr. Beverley, of the Round Plain Reserve near Prince Albert, is remarkable. Mr. Beverley began his work on the Reserve in October, 1905. That year the entire crop of grain on the Reserve was 85 bushels. In 1906 the yield rose to 896 bushels. In 1910 it had increased to 3,000. A very much larger yield was expected in 1911, but the unfavourable fall and the breaking down of the threshing machine compelled the leaving of much grain unthreshed till spring. Mr. McWhinney reports that the industrious Indians on the Crowstand Reserve are continually increasing, induced to this by seeing that good farming leads to money and home to comforts. It used to be a common saying that time had no part in an Indian's contract, that the work might as well be done to-morrow as to-day. Evidently the running of the plowshare through the soil, and the yellow wheat springing up in its train, is impressing on the Indian a lesson as to the value of time as is shown by an Indian's remark overheard by Mr. McWhinney during the strain of the last threshing season, which was, that the engineer was too slow in moving. Winter threatening before half the crop is threshed may well impress on the most stolid of mankind the necessity of filling every moment full of useful work. At Bird Tail better methods of farming are securing better crops. Driven to action by the difficulty in threshing last fall the Indians have purchased a threshing outfit for themselves, and so will, in future, be independent of their white neighbours at threshing time. Mr. Beverley's whole band in 1910 raised 3,000 bushels of grain and that meant rapid progress. It would not be difficult to find single Indian farmers, whose annual yield of grain is from 3,000 to 5,000 bushels. It looks as if in a comparatively short time all our Indians would be fairly prosperous farmers.

Further, the comforts of the home are all but keeping pace with the increased yield of the farm. The larger crops result in better food, better health and a new ambition for improvements along all lines. Mr. McWhinney says that women who, eight years ago, were unkempt and careless of appearance, now come out well dressed and neat.

MORAL PROGRESS.

All this is as it should be. Is moral progress keeping up with this outward improvement? Our missionaries would with some reservation, answer "Yes." All the old evils are with us still. The curse of the intoxicating cup shows itself on every Reserve. The social evil, which has laid its blighting touch on every race of men, is all too common in these Indian homes, but it is gradually passing away before the advance of Christian sentiments. Is it merely that the Indians are gaining strength in the struggle to resist the allurements of drink and sins even more debasing? This may in part explain the higher moral tones; but only in part. Alongside all the outward progress there is a progress marked by the growth of the Communion Roll at so many of our missions. It is only three or four years since the first Indian was gathered into the Christian fold in the Lake of the Woods Mission. Since then every year has seen additions to it till there is now the nucleus of a congregation of Indians. So far all on these reserves professing faith in Christ are drawn from those who have attended school. The teaching of the missionary and of the missionary workers of all kinds (are they not all missionaries), and their lives even more than what is generally spoken of as "teaching," have influenced those young lives and drawn them to a new source of healing and strength.

CHURCH LIFE.

The Indians at the various points at which our missionaries are labouring differ greatly in their attainments in the Christian life. At Swan Lake, the Moose Mountain Reservation, and Rolling River, there is strictly speaking no Church, no men, no women openly professing faith in Christ. Doubtless in the darkest of these posts there are not a few pressing toward the light, some perhaps waiting for a word, a touch, something that will give the necessary strength to break all connection with heathenism and to openly proclaim themselves to be on the side of Christ. That touch, that power can only come from the Lord; but the men and the women sent forth by the call of the Lord and the Church to this service may be the mouth through which He will deliver to them His message; theirs the hand by means of which He will lay on them the life giving touch. On Bird Tail Reserve, notwithstanding that the little congregation has been greatly tempted by visitors, mostly from the South of the International boundary, to look lightly on the sanctity of the marriage, thus making way, on the one side, for bigamy, and, on the other, for divorce; tempted also to indulge in gambling and drunkenness, takes its stand at the front rank of Christian Indian congregations. All the young people over fifteen years of age connected with the congregation are already in the membership of the Church, so that an increase of members is not looked for unless indeed the hearts of the seven pagans still on the Reserve, almost all old people, should yield to the power of the truth. The liberality of the congregation is manifested by the contributions made by its various societies and by itself for Christian and benevolent purposes.

These contributions are as follows:—Y.M.C.A., $130.00; W.F.M.S., $105.00; the S.S., $50.00; and the congregation itself, $125.00, a total of $410.00, that is about $26.00 per family. Mistawasis also has its annual contribution for mission work.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS.

The schools have had a prosperous year. Most of the buildings are filled to their utmost capacity; and several of them are too small to accommodate the pupils, who are eager to enjoy the advantage they offer. It is expected when the improvements in the buildings are completed (and it is confidently expected this will be accomplished during the present year) that the forty-one pupils at the C. Jeffrey School will soon be increased to 70; the 54 at Birtle to 75, and the 40 at Round Lake to 50. The want of breathing space in the school building at Portage la Prairie is at present barring its doors against ten or more new pupils, who are all but asking admission.

CHANGES IN STAFF.

Since the last report was submitted the staff at many of the schools has been greatly changed. At the Jeffrey School half the members of the staff are in their first year at the work. The Principal and Matron, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Millar, were compelled to leave the Portage la Prairie School, because of a break in the health of the former. Your Committee learn with pleasure that there is a prospect that they will return to Indian work. Miss McGregor, who did such splendid work in the Birtle School, left to enter upon the duties of Western Field Secretary of the W.F.M.S., and in the opening days of this year Miss McLeod, whose name is so well and so favourably known in connection with this school retired; but not without leaving the hope that she will return to Indian work before long. Miss Cunningham, Principal and Matron of the File Hills School, whose labours were so abundant and self-sacrificing, retired in the beginning of October. Of all the missionaries among the Indians the Church has ever had, none was more honoured and loved than the first to take up the work, the Rev. Hugh McKay, D.D. He was the leader in the Boarding School Movement, in that he opened one in his own house and kept the children at his own expense till the success of the scheme was so marked that the Church gladly took up the work. His own loving heart drew the children around him and made the school one large family. He was equally successful in winning the confidence and love of the older Indians on the Reserves. Mrs. McKay was a worthy helper in all his work. It was with deep regret that we at last yielded to his desire, frequently expressed, to be relieved of the charge of the school; and he and Mrs. McKay have retired to their own home near the school, whence he still goes out Sabbath by Sabbath to preach the gospel to his beloved Indians.

Miss Armstrong, too, left Moose Mountain, where for some six years she did splendid work. Not confining herself to the duties of the school room she went out through the reserves to teach the Indian women how to keep house and to nurse the sick. After the removal of Mr. Dodds to become Principal of the C. Jeffrey School, Miss Armstrong added to her other duties those of missionary to the Indians. Although the joy of seeing any of the Indians under her care enter the Christian Church was not granted her the good seed was sown, and watered by showers of Divine grace, will produce a rich harvest in due season.

Appointments to fill the vacancies have in most cases been made. We are glad to report that Mr. and Mrs. Hendry, who had already proved their devotion to the work and their ability to carry it on successfully are again in charge of the Portage la Prairie School. Miss McCurdy, of Halifax, is teacher in the Birtle School; and has already given proof of her ability for the work entrusted to her. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Sweet are Principal and Matron, respectively, of the File Hills School, and have had a winter of hard work there. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ledingham are similarly beginning work at Round Lake, and Mr. MacKay at Moose Mountain. We are hopeful that the work carried on so successfully in the past will enter upon an era of still greater prosperity under those now in charge.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Not a little time has been taken up in discussing plans of, in some cases, new buildings and in others of improvements in the old buildings, rendered necessary by the new regulations of the Department of Indian Affairs. Work along this line is beginning at C. Jeffrey, Birtle, and Round Lake Schools. The lumber for the Jeffrey School is already on the ground and that for Birtle and Round Lake will be shipped in a few days. It is expected that contracts will soon be let and that building operations will be begun in a few weeks and prosecuted vigorously till they are completed. The generosity and the courage manifested by the W.F.M.S. Board in undertaking to finance these operations is very highly appreciated.

Foreign mission work among the Indians and Chinese on Vancouver Island at no time of its history was in a better condition than now, nor the prospects more encouraging than they are at present.

Dr. John Campbell, of First Church, Victoria, who for many years acted as Convener of the Synodical Committee, has resigned his congregation and has accordingly laid down his Convenership. He has long and faithfully served as Treasurer and Superintendent of both Indian and Chinese work on Vancouver Island. He has been a friend of the missionaries and a ready helper in every possible way. His kindness made his occasional visits of inspection, a welcome episode in the loneliness of the missionary's lot. The Foreign Mission Committee and the General Assembly owe Dr. Campbell a debt of gratitude.

A. INDIAN MISSIONS.

The province of British Columbia, and especially that part of it along the coast, is one of the most interesting fields for Indian Educational and Religious Work in Canada; and yet the difficulties to be encountered are greater than those of the provinces east of the Rocky Mountains.

HOW THE INDIANS LIVE.

The Indians in British Columbia from time immemorial secured their food supply by fishing in the ocean, rivers and inland lakes, which are very numerous, and abound in a great variety of the finest species of the finny tribe. Their clothing they made from the bark of certain trees, and from the wool of the mountain sheep and the hair of the mountain goat.

These being the circumstances under which the Indian lived before the coming of the white man to the Pacific Coast, his advent has not seriously interfered with his comfort and food supply, as it did the clothing and food supply of the aborigines in the middle west and eastern provinces. The result is that in British Columbia the Indian is more independent than he is in other parts of the Dominion, and therefore he cannot be so easily brought under the influence of education and Christianity as he can be where he is more dependent on the white man.

THE COAST INDIAN VS. THE PRAIRIE INDIAN.

The Indian in British Columbia is a different type of a man from the Indian east of the Rockies, being no doubt of the same generic stock as the Japanese. He differs from the prairie Indian in the fact that, all things being equal, he is more easily civilized, more industrious and more readily adopts the white man's methods of work in the field, logging camp, saw-mill and fish canneries. The numbers employed at whaling stations, canneries, logging camps and sawmills are increasing yearly, and they give good satisfaction.

The Indian tribes, under the supervision of the Presbyterian Church are, with one exception, on Vancouver Island. They are the Oppitchahats, the Sheshahts, the Ohahts, the Uclureahts, and the Shousahts. They live in considerable comfort, as comfort goes among the Indians, having plenty of work, food and clothing, living in comfortable houses, fairly well furnished with beds, chairs, tables, mats and all that is necessary to live "the simple life."

The potlach, a great hindrance to the well-being of the Indian, is fast disappearing, together with gambling and the use of strong drink. These commendable reforms are due partly to the strict enforcement of the civil law, but mainly the credit belongs to the civilizing and Christianizing influence of the work of our schools.

AHOUSAHT.

The work at Ahousaht Boarding School is in good condition under the principalship of Mr. J. T. Ross, assisted by Mrs. Ross, Miss McIver and Miss Hall. The number of pupils in attendance is thirty-two (32), nearly all the children in the tribe of school age.

The school gets a government grant for only twenty-five pupils, the amount granted when the school was raised from the status of a day school to that of a boarding school some twelve years ago, although application for increase has been made time and again through the General Assembly's Foreign Mission Committee to the Indian Department at Ottawa.

The church in the village has been renovated, and services are regularly held in it on Sabbath, which are well attended. The Rev. Dr. Fraser, of Annan, Ont., kindly presented the congregation with an organ, which greatly assists in leading the service of praise. Nine of the pupils were baptized on profession of faith, and were admitted into Church membership.

The health of the pupils on the whole is very good, and while tuberculosis still lingers in the tribe, it is not by any means as prevalent as it was a few years ago.

ALBERNI.

The condition of Alberni Boarding School was never better. The improvements made in the school and surroundings during the year have been many, and the equipment for the work is now in advance of that of any previous year. All the Dominion Government Indian Agents, who inspected the school speak well of it.

Mr. Currie, who is the Principal of the School, is assisted by a faithful staff—Mrs. Currie, Miss Grant and Mrs. Stevens.

The health of the pupils, of whom there are fifty, is very good. The panic, caused by the ravages of tuberculosis a few years ago has ceased, the much dreaded disease having been reduced to a minimum, through the steps taken to fumigate and put the premises in a good sanitary condition.

The progress the children have made in education, and in the principles of Christianity and in the knowledge of the Bible is very gratifying. Sabbath School has been conducted every Sabbath afternoon, and frequently service is held for the parents in the school room and also in the church on the Reserve.

UCLUELET.

The day school at Ucluelet is under the excellent supervision of Mr. H. W. Vanderveen. All the pupils of school age in the tribe attend the school, and make good progress in reading, arithmetic, writing, spelling, geography and hygiene. A portion of every day is devoted to the study of the Bible, and to teaching the principles of Christianity. Sabbath services are also conducted in which both old and young seem to take an interest. The sick are visited and helped. The mortality in this tribe is very great, although the morality is much better than at any previous time.

GOVERNMENT REPORT.

It will be interesting to note the following statement made by the Government Agent, which appears in the report for 1911 of the Dominion Government, prepared by Duncan Ross, Superintendent of Indian Education:—

"(1) ALBERNI.

"I visited Alberni Boarding School. The Principal is H. B. Currie, who has had charge of the institution about one year. There are 48 pupils on the roll—22 boys and 26 girls. The department grant is for 50 pupils. The Principal reported that all the pupils were making good progress in their studies, and that the health of the children during the past year has been very good.

"The building is ventilated with a number of ventilators in the baseboards in the dormitories and class-rooms for the purpose of taking the foul air off the floors, and the windows are kept open to allow of a plentiful supply of fresh air. The main building is heated by means of hot air, and the class-room, which is away from the main building, is heated by a stove. This class-room is in very poor condition at the present time, but a new one is to be built during the coming summer, a grant for $1,100 having been allowed by the Church for this purpose. The walls of the new building are in need of considerable repairs.

"At the time of my visit the boys' dormitory was somewhat crowded, but by placing four of the pupils in another room, which was vacant, this objection will be overcome. There are two rooms kept for the purpose of hospital accommodation, and in the summer months a tent is used. Besides their regular studies the boys are instructed in farming and gardening, and the girls are taught cooking, sewing and general housework.

"Although there are approximately 150 acres of land in connection with the institution, there are only 11 acres cleared, and this produces a quantity of small fruits and vegetables for the use of the school. There is a plentiful supply of good water on the premises; and there is also good drainage, the school itself standing on high ground on the banks of the Somas River. Fire-fighting appliances are kept in place and regular fire drills are held.

"(2) AHOUSAHT.

"The date of my visit to Ahousaht Boarding School was January 23rd, 1911. The Principal is John T. Ross. The number of pupils on the roll at the above date was 36—22 boys and 14 girls. The department's grant is for only 25. This extra number of pupils does not crowd the dormitories, as there is ample accommodation in the building for the present enrollment.

"The building is in a first-class state of repair, being practically a new structure. The system of ventilation is by means of the windows, which are kept open as much as possible.

"The water supply is obtained from the rainfall, which is stored in tanks. There is also a well on the premises, but the Principal informed me that the quality of water obtained from this source is not very good. The desirability of obtaining a plentiful supply of pure water seems to have been lost sight of when selecting the site for this school.

"About seventeen acres of land have been reclaimed a short distance back of the school, and the Principal expects to put at least two acres of this under cultivation during the coming summer.

"The pupils in this school are all making first-class progress in their studies, and the Principal reports that their health during the past year has been good. Besides their regular studies the boys are instructed in the rudimentary principles of house-building, painting, and this year will be given instructions in gardening. The girls learn general housework, cooking, sewing, dressmaking, and fancy-work. Fire-fighting appliances are kept in place, at all times ready for any emergency."

B. CHINESE MISSIONS.

VICTORIA.

Mr. L. W. Hall speaks of the work in 1911 as the best year in the mission since he was transferred to Victoria five years ago.

The Chinese congregation in Chinatown is one of the regularly-organized congregations of the Presbytery of Victoria, and has thirty-four members in good standing, whose life indicates that they live the Christianity which they profess.

The work is now carried on in a hall much more suitable than the old one. The attendance at the evening classes was not as large in any year since the mission was organized as it was last year. The largest number present during the year was 125, and the smallest 80, with an average of 95. The average attendance at the Sunday services was 40. Both the week evening classes and Sunday meetings are made up almost altogether of young men, there being only four families connected with the mission.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is observed once every three months. The spirit of Christianity was not in any previous year so manifest among the Chinese here as during the past year.

Early in the year, Mr. Feong, who worked with Mr. McKay in Kong-Moon, China, was engaged as assistant to Mr. Hall. Mr. Feong is an earnest Christian, and an eloquent preacher, and is held in high esteem by his fellow countrymen.

It was feared at one time that the poll-tax of $500.00 would so interfere with Chinese immigration that our school would be closed, but it has not checked immigration to any perceptible degree.

The Christian people of our congregations are becoming more and more sympathetic with mission work in Chinatown, and volunteer teachers for the coming classes are more numerous.

CUMBERLAND.

Mr. Ma Seung is still in charge of the mission work among his countrymen in Cumberland. He is much respected by them, and is diligent and faithful. About 53 names are on the roll of the evening classes, with an average attendance of 24.

Baptism was administered to four young men, who were received into Church membership, making thirteen members in full communion.

The condition of the work here, as at Victoria, is better than that of any previous year. It will be necessary to build this year a cottage for the missionary (Mr. Ma Seung) and his family. He cannot possibly continue any longer in the rear of the mission hall, as the building is dangerous and unsanitary.

MAINLAND

CHINESE WORK.

STAFF:—Vancouver—Mr. Ng Mon Hing, Miss Elizabeth Stewart.

Principal MacKay writes:—"The work here is very hopeful, especially the Chinese work. Miss Stewart and Mr. Mon Hing are doing admirable work and making many friends among the Chinese. Miss Stewart is reaching the Chinese women with remarkable ability. She has a boys' club, and a fine lot of young fellows over whom she exercises an excellent influence."

The old meeting hall had to be given up and there was great difficulty in getting a new place to meet. At last a large house was rented. Besides a meeting place, it provides homes for thirty young men, besides an older man and his wife. In the same building Miss Stewart has a large room for consultation with the women in the neighborhood. It is interesting to note that the Chinese have themselves become responsible for the rent.

HINDUS.

This work is slow and is bound to be slow in any case. It is specially so when so little money has been put into it. It is reported that the Hindu population in British Columbia is a vanishing quantity—many have already returned and others propose returning to India. Whether in such conditions and with so many other pressing claims it is wise to undertake new work is doubtful. It has been proposed, but the Committee hesitated. Mr. Munnings gives a portion of his time, but his report has not come to hand and results are not known.

JEWISH WORK

STAFF.

TORONTO:—Rev. S. B. Rohold, Superintendent; Henry Bregman; Miss Florence Tasker; Mrs. Kandel; Miss D. McDonald, Voluntary Worker; Miss E. Mitchell, Voluntary Worker; Miss Archer, Voluntary Worker; Mr. T. C. Wilmott, with a number of others who give much valuable assistance. No additions have been made to the staff throughout the year.

WINNIPEG:—Mr. Hugo Spitzer, Missionary; Miss Martha Smith, Associate Missionary. Mrs. Spitzer has also done splendid work amongst women and children.

The increase of Hebrews in Canada, and their growing wealth and influence, emphasize the wisdom of our Church in carrying on work amongst them. As they increase in numbers, they grow in wealth and in local influence, and are not slow to ask for recognition in civic and state matters.

Under the care of our Committee, successful work is being carried on in the city of Toronto, and also in the city of Winnipeg. The Jewish population in the whole of Canada is said to be quite 96,000. Of this number, 45,000 find their home in Montreal; 22,500 in Toronto; and over 12,000 in the city of Winnipeg. In Montreal and in Toronto, features of their social life, business life, and religious life that are characteristic of Jewish communities in European countries, are appearing.

A review of the work of the past year shows decided gain both in Toronto and in Winnipeg. Few missions anywhere amongst this people exceed in character and in quality the work of our Toronto mission. It has not been without serious opposition, which in itself is not a bad sign. The success attending the open-air meetings amongst the Jews in Toronto was the occasion of serious riots that involved danger to the persons of our missionaries, and which occasioned some public notoriety. It is a matter of satisfaction that through such periods of anxiety and opposition, Jewish Christians stood firm. Because of this opposition the work was disturbed, but in the end it issued to the gain of the work generally.

DEPARTMENTS OF WORK.

1. READING ROOM. This has been kept open continuously throughout the whole year. Literature attractive to Jews, including newspapers and periodicals in Yiddish, Hebrew, and English, has been supplied. The reading room is always in charge of a Christian Jew. The average attendance for the year has been about fifteen.

2. NIGHT SCHOOL. Here men come to study the English language. Jews from every country in South Europe are represented in these study groups. The average attendance was eighteen.

3. EVENING BIBLE CLASS. Each evening after the night school, men and women come together for Bible study. The interest has been well maintained here.

4. SEEKERS AFTER TRUTH. Considerable interest attaches to this department of work. The aim of the class, which meets every Sunday afternoon for an hour and a half, is to afford opportunity for thinking and enquiring Jews to ask questions. The themes of discussion relate to questions of Christian faith. This class has met weekly with an average attendance of thirty-eight.

5. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY GOSPEL SERVICES. These were held to be among the important gatherings of the week. The preaching is always in Yiddish. Here the gospel is faithfully declared. Frequently the message is illustrated by the use of the lantern. The average attendance for the year has been fifty-four.

6. WORK AMONGST THE CHILDREN. Our missionaries seek to reach the children through the Sunday School, Sewing Classes for Girls, a Club for Boys, and meetings for the Mothers. Our success amongst the children created no little opposition on the part of the Jews. The Rabbis and certain Jewish men actively interfered with the coming of children to the mission. The interruption, however, was only temporary; and whilst the attendance at school was reduced for a time, no permanent harm apparently came to our work.

7. VISITATION. We hold the work of visitation to the homes of the Jews as of first importance. By patient and unhurried dealing with individuals in the homes, the best results follow.

8. FREE DISPENSARY. This is one of our finest agencies for good, and it has had the generous aid of six different city physicians throughout the year, as also the aid of a trained nurse, and the occasional help of nurses from the Nurses' Home. Nearly 3,300 patients were treated through the year by the doctors. As growing out of the dispensary work, our doctors through the year made 365 visits in homes. Tuesdays and Thursdays and Saturdays are given to general diseases; Fridays to diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat.

9. TRACT DISTRIBUTION. This work has been patiently carried on with good results throughout the year. The interest and liberality of the Jews is noted from the sale of Scriptures in the Hebrew and Yiddish languages. The number of Bibles and Testaments sold last year was less than the year preceding.

10. OPEN-AIR SERVICES. In the open air, our missionaries reach their largest congregations. The spirit of opposition manifested by certain Jews at these meetings issued in gain to the work. The opposition of the many brought sympathy and closer attachment to our work from many others.

11. PERSONAL INTERVIEWS. Our missionaries stand out as the friends of poor Jews. The work of interviewing those who need counsel falls largely upon our Superintendent. Over 1,700 interviews are recorded for the year.

12. POOR RELIEF. Very much of this work requires to be done throughout the year. None are helped except the most deserving. Unhappily, through want of sufficient funds, our mission was not in a position to give aid in many cases where aid ought to have been given. The number of persons helped were 756; employment was secured for 75; admission to hospitals of the city was secured for 46. Fifty-six little children were given a holiday in the country.

RESULTS. Seventeen persons have openly confessed Christ during the year, and not a few others are secret believers for fear of the Jews. There is no doubt but that distinct advance has been made in the work during the year. As success in Jewish missions goes, our Church is entitled to the comfort that few missions in the Old Land, and certainly none on this continent, show more satisfactory results than our own.

WINNIPEG.

Gratifying advance is being made in our work in the city of Winnipeg. In the report last year, the announcement of the commencement of this work was made. Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Spitzer have been assisted through the year by Miss Martha Smith, who had been transferred from the work in Toronto. The opposition experienced by our missionaries there at the beginning has gradually given way to a feeling of respect and of confidence on the part of many of the Jews. Mr. Spitzer's earnest Christian character and love for his own people will in time win him a well-deserved place in the confidence of his brethren. In general, the outlined plan of the Winnipeg work is like to that followed in Toronto, though meanwhile not so extensive.

NEW PREMISES.

Another year has gone by and the new building hoped for has not yet come. This, we believe, however, is immediately in prospect; and before the Assembly meets, we are hoping to break ground and see our new building under way.

GENERAL

1. The event of the year has been the Chinese revolution. The Changeless Empire has become the Changing Republic. The Honan report points out the great advance, which can now be made because of the opportunities created through the great awakening. President Yuan Shi Kai, in an address to the missionaries declared—that religious freedom for all would be guaranteed and that, “Thenceforth all obstacles to the liberty of conscience will have been removed from the Republic of China; the five peoples of China will enjoy the blessings of republican institutions, and the distinction between Christians and non-Christians will disappear forever. Members of one great family, with one heart and one soul, we shall all exert ourselves to promote the strength and prosperity and the happiness of the Republic of China.”

2. In India we have reached the stage, where our missionaries have now the respect and good will of the Indian Rajahs, and officials. Requests to establish stations in native states are being made to our Mission Council. Grants of land have been offered and accepted at Kharua, Sitamau and Jaora, where three new stations will be manned. A great gain has been made, when suspicion has been converted into respect.

3. In South China we have hitherto been handicapped by lack of buildings and the difficulty of securing sites. Now, however, land has been bought and houses and hospital erected. The missionaries will prosecute the work with greater thoroughness and comfort because of the equipment thus provided.

4. In Formosa advance into the wild mountainous regions of the interior is being planned; 122,000 aborigines are unreached and it is proposed to open a mission to them through the joint action of the English Presbyterian mission in the South and our mission in the North.

5. Korea continues its wonderful progress towards early evangelization. The phenomenal growth of the Christian Church is unchecked. The report will be found full of interest as conveying even a meagre impression of the rapid expansion of the Kingdom.

6. Work among the Indians in Canada is steadily advancing. Many of the Indians have developed into splendid Christian farmers and the provision made by Government for promoting sanitation and health is showing excellent results.

7. A splendid impetus was given to our mission to the Chinese in Canada by the radical changes in China. Attendance at Sunday School increased greatly and it became much easier to get teachers.

8. The Mission to the Jews is in a flourishing condition. In Toronto the long-needed new building is to be erected this year. In Winnipeg the first year's work was signally blessed in spite of the opposition of the Jews at the outset. Work will probably be begun in Montreal and possibly in Calgary also.

9. The Church at home is becoming slowly, but steadily more interested in the work. The problem is still not in the foreign field, but in the Home Church. If the people could realize the need, the opportunity, the triumphs and, above all, the imperative call of the Master, there would be no lack of interest.

10. The Budget plan has now passed from the experimental stage. It is a decided improvement on the old plan of each department undertaking to find its own funds independently of all others. Presbyteries and congregations are all praising it. Its success is partly due to the efforts of the Foreign Mission Committee. The Secretary gave all last autumn and a part of the winter to this co-operative effort. The Acting-Convener, and several members gave time and energy to helping it on to success. The Assistant Secretary's time was spent, to a large extent, in promoting systematic giving and the every person canvass.

11. In a great many other directions, the Foreign Mission Committee has given distinct aid to the other Assembly Committees: (a) The Missionary Summer Conferences have been promoted and delegates secured, by it alone; (b) Practically all the work in preparing for the Geneva Park Summer School is done by the Sunday School and Foreign Mission Committees. (c) Interdenominational Missionary Institutes in several towns have been held with this department alone co-operating. (d) Mission Study Classes, Missions in the Sunday School and Young People's Societies, keeping in stock and circulating missionary literature, books, maps, etc.; articles to the Church papers on Systematic Giving and other subjects not distinctly foreign missionary—in these and other very necessary ways the office of the Committee has been serving the whole Church, involving additional expenditure not shared by other departments.

12. Mission Study text books and libraries, missionary books for the Sunday School, maps, charts, pictures, and photographs—all in great variety are kept in stock. Sales totalled $2,323.28 during the past year.

13. Plans for 1912-13 include the celebration of the Livingstone Centenary and the wide circulation of Marian Keith's new book, “The Black Bearded Barbarian or the Rock Splitter,” being the life story of MacKay of Formosa, attractively written and illustrated for boys and girls to sell at fifty cents in cloth or thirty-five cents in paper.

14. The circulation of Sir Andrew Fraser's book, “Among Indian Rajahs and Ryots” at the special missionary price of $3.00—a reduction of one-third on the regular price—is being appreciated. His fine address on the office and opportunity of the eldership, entitled, “How we Organized the Kirk Session at Nagpur,” is in illustrated pamphlet form at five cents and will unquestionably be of real service to all elders.

15. Funds have increased over the preceding year, but not sufficiently to avoid a deficit.

From legacies and individuals the receipts were $18,245.50. As the expenditures were $253,725.47, there is a debtor balance of $36,761.47. The Committee has reduced this by transferring $10,000.00 from its Building Fund. It is with regret that the Committee is obliged to report to the Assembly that the deficit at February 29th, 1912, stands at $26,761.47.

16. The only recommendations, which the Committee makes to the Assembly are the following:—

(1) "That the Budget for 1913 should be the same amount ($310,000.00) as that for 1912."

(2) "That the Assembly determine the status in Home Presbyteries of foreign missionaries, some of whom are at present on the rolls, others on the appendix and still others on neither."

(3) "That the Assembly approve the issuing of a Prayer Cycle by the various Standing Committees jointly, commend its use to the whole Church and urge upon ministers and people the supreme importance of Prayer as the fundamental need in all our work."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, HALIFAX, 1911-12

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, respectfully presents to the General Assembly the report of the ninety-second session. The past year was in every respect a most encouraging one, and in many respects the best and most prosperous in the history of the College. With gratitude to the great Head of the Church, and with supreme satisfaction, the Board reports that during the Session there were no changes in the staff or in the management of the institution; that the health of the professors and students was excellent; that the services of the principal, professors and lecturers were greatly appreciated; that the assiduous attention of the matron to the comfort of the students, as well as her care of the residence generally, and her watchfulness against all unnecessary expenditures, won the approbation and commendation of all; and that the House and Property Committee cheerfully continued to render most valuable service in supervising and keeping in order the buildings and land owned by the Church, and in supplying everything needed for the students' residence at the lowest possible cost.

From the Report of the Senate, herewith transmitted to the Assembly, it will be seen that there were during the year 43 students in attendance, 26 in the two divisions of the first year, 9 in the second year, and 8 in the third year. The prospects for a still larger number in coming years are bright, for the students in Arts looking forward to the ministry are unusually numerous. Many more labourers, however, than are now in sight are needed for the Home and Foreign fields, and therefore our constant appeal to the membership of our Church is that of General Grant at a critical moment during the siege of Petersburg—"Pour in the men."

The professors' houses, the students' residence, and the library—six buildings in all, are now in good condition. But the Board has decided that further accommodation for students in Arts preparing for the ministry should be provided at once.

The new fireproof safe in the College has been completed at a cost of $294.40. This amount, by the direction of Synod, has been paid out of the different Funds, the share of the College Fund being $100. The securing of all old Church records and valuable documents against fire has been long considered by the Board, and the importance thereof has been strongly emphasized by the destruction by fire last winter of the Church Offices in the Herald building. All the securities held by the Board in trust are kept in the vault of the Bank of Nova Scotia. All other essential books and documents were in the vault of the Herald building at the time of the fire, and were uninjured. Only the furniture of the offices and some recent correspondence and the Minute Book of the Bursary Committee were destroyed. The insurance fairly covered the financial loss of the furnishings. New offices, commodious and comfortable, have been rented—but the Board looks forward hopefully to the time when our Church will own a building of its own.

Financially, the past year has been a most gratifying one. Particulars of the receipts and expenditures of the Ordinary Fund will be submitted by the Finance Committee of the Eastern Section, and need not be repeated here. A few facts only may be noted. The receipts amounted to $19,510.12 from all sources, and the expenditures to $18,097.28. The balance of $1,412.84 reduced the debt of $4,816.63 at the beginning of the year to $3,403.79 at its close. It is hoped that next year, owing to the increasing liberality of our people, this debt will be wholly removed. The amount contributed by our congregations was $9,083.69, which fell a good deal short of the $11,000 allotted by the Committee on Systematic Giving. It was, however, a great advance over the contributions of former years, as the following figures clearly show:

" 1906-7.....	5,997 38
" 1909-10.....	7,569 76
" 1910-11.....	7,747 21

The Board heartily thanks our people for their lively interest in the College and their generous support of it. It should not be overlooked, however, that the contributions of last year were only 31 cents per family and 19 cents per communicant.

The Sub-Committee of the Board on the Bursary Fund reports that the receipts from congregations were $1,736.71, and from all sources $4,065.71—by far the largest amount ever received. The expenditures were $3,427.54, leaving a balance of $638.17, which removed the debt of $275.32 at the beginning of the year, and gives $322.85 to the credit of the Fund at its close. The contributions of 1901-2 were $353.97; 1906-7, $291.55; 1909-10, $875.97; 1910-11, $1,271.00; 1911-12, $1,736.71. This Fund has been of great assistance to all our students. Those in the Arts department received the sum of $50.00 each, which was a great encouragement and stimulus to them at the most trying period of their preparation for the ministry. The Board trusts that the Fund will be as generously supported by our people in the years to come as it was last year.

The receipts for the Library Fund were $327.28 and the expenditures $190.50. The present balance at credit of the Fund is $453.73. "The Governor Fraser Memorial Fund" will be of great assistance in the way of providing the latest books for the library. The proposed Fund of $5,000 has been raised, and is now included in the Consolidated Fund. Lord Strathcona gave the generous contribution of $2,000, and other friends of the late Governor Fraser and of the College, through the efforts especially of the Principal, Judge Forbes and Governor McGregor gave $3,000.

Whilst thanking God for the work done by the College during the ninety-two years of its history, and especially for the prosperity of the past year, and trusting in Him for success in the time to come, the Board earnestly appeals to our people in the Maritime Provinces to maintain it in ever-increasing efficiency by their earnest prayers and their contributions of men and money.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN McMILLAN,
Chairman.

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL, FOR 1911-1912

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, are thankful to be able to report another successful year. There were seventy-five students in attendance during the session or some part thereof. Eight, including one extra-mural student, finished the prescribed course, and one who has concluded his second year is making application to this Assembly for licensure on special grounds. The teaching has been conducted with a complete staff and all the members of the Faculty have been able to carry on their classes without any serious interruption from sickness or other causes.

The financial statement herewith submitted shows a net amount of $9,578 added to the Endowment Fund during the year, besides which a legacy of $5,000 has been put to the credit of the Building Fund, reducing the longstanding indebtedness by that amount. On the other hand, there is a deficit of nearly $9,000 in the Ordinary Fund, largely due to refurnishing found to be necessary. As there was a previous deficit of over $3,000 the total debit in the Ordinary Fund is now about $12,000. It is to be hoped the increased liberality of the Church during the coming year will enable the Board to reduce this liability or wipe it out altogether.

Negotiations are now proceeding with a view to the federation of the various theological institutions in Montreal affiliated with McGill University so as to avoid needless duplication and to secure the more effective utilization of the staffs of the various colleges. The plan is not yet sufficiently mature to submit to the Assembly, but the Board would recommend that it be authorized to continue the negotiations, and, if completed in time for next session, that the College be permitted to co-operate tentatively in the plan with a view to submitting the whole for ratification to the next Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. YUILE,
Secretary.

DAVID MORRICE,
Chairman.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Trustees of Queen's University respectfully submit the following statement regarding the Session of 1911-12, the seventy-first session of the University.

The total registration has been 1,507, a decrease of 105 from the preceding year. This decrease is due to the reduction of the number of extra-mural students, and was anticipated as a result of the regulation requiring the attendance of extra-murals for at least one year.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

The enrollment in Theology for the past session has been twenty-seven, eight of whom have now completed their course, viz., W. H. Burgess, B.A., T. N. Caldwell, Andrew Laing, B.A., A. Percy Menzies, M.A., B.D., S. G. McCormack, M.A., C. B. Pitcher, B.A., B.D., R. H. Somerville, M.A., and E. B. Wylie, B.A., B.D. These were licensed by the Presbytery of Kingston on the 25th April, and at the same meeting Mr. Burgess was ordained and designated to the Loggers' Mission, British Columbia.

The work of the classes in Theology has been conducted during the session according to the Calendar. In addition, a course of deeply interesting lectures on Missions was given by the Rev. Dr. Donald MacGillivray, of Shanghai, China.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.

The work of the class in Systematic Theology conducted by Principal Gordon dealt mainly with the Idea of God. The course consisted of an inquiry into the Philosophical Basis of Theism, an examination of the Old Testament Idea of God, and of the teaching of our Lord, especially regarding the Fatherhood of God. Each of the students was required to write an essay on "Man Made in the Image of God." This class was attended by the students of the three years.

The course of lectures given by the Principal was supplemented by a course of weekly lectures given by Professor Dall, dealing with Religion, Revelation, and the Church. The session's work might be considered in the light of an introduction to Systematic Theology, dealing, as it did, with the general subjects from which the material for Systematic Theology is taken. The text-book used was Adams Brown's "Christian Theology in Outline." The sections on Revelation and the Church fitted in very usefully with the work which has been done in the Church History Class.

APOLOGETICS.

The class in Apologetics conducted by Professor Ross was attended by fourteen students. The lectures included: An inquiry into the causes of the Unbelief of our time; A critical examination of recent speculations concerning The Person and Work of Christ; A consideration of the question, Is a special Revelation necessary? A brief discussion of Socialism and the Teaching of Jesus. Several chapters of Book III in Bruce's Apologetics were made a subject of study. Daily viva voce examinations were held. Two essays on prescribed subjects were written and examined. The diligence of the class was most commendable.

CHURCH HISTORY.

Professor Dall reports:—The session was occupied with a course of sixty or seventy lectures on the early period up to 461 A.D. A short introduction was given on the preparation for Christianity in the ancient world, and the main body of the lectures dealt with the doctrinal and ecclesiastical development during the first four centuries and a half, and with the relations of Church and Empire during that period. The course was closed by a brief account of the progress of the Roman Church to primacy up to Leo I. In connection with the work of the class contemporary documents were studied in Gwatkin's "Selections from Early Christian Writers" (text and translation). The lectures on the Roman Primacy to 461 A.D., followed up an essay written on the subject by all the members of the class. The attendance at lectures was praiseworthy regular; the class was, on the whole, very good in quality, and a great deal of useful work was done.

HEBREW AND OLD TESTAMENT LITERATURE

JUNIOR HEBREW.

The registration in this class is below the average this year, there being six members, of whom two are registered in Theology. Under the tuition of Prof. Wallace the class has read the prescribed text: Genesis I, Psalm I and I Samuel, ix-xi, and has done the exercises in the first twenty chapters of Davidson's Grammar. The attendance has been exceptionally good, and the work of the students of first-rate quality.

SENIOR HEBREW.

Fourteen students were registered in this class, with one extra-mural student; of these ten are regular students in Theology, and five are students in Arts. One hour per week has been devoted to the Grammar, with special reference to Hebrew Syntax, and two hours per week to the prescribed texts; these included I Samuel iii-vi, Psalm lxxii and Isaiah xlii. The latter three chapters were read with the class by Professor Jordan, who devoted one hour per week to this for the greater part of the session. The members of both these classes are required to hand in weekly exercises on Grammar and Composition, which are an indispensable part of their work.

OLD TESTAMENT CRITICISM.

Three hours per week are devoted to the study of the Old Testament Scriptures, divided as follows: Criticism, Exegesis, and Theology. This class is taken by all the regular students in Theology, this year numbering twenty-seven. In the Exegesis division several chapters in Hebrew have been read under the general heading of selections from Post-Exilic prophecy. In the Criticism class special attention was given to Deutero-Isaiah and Ezekiel, along with a general summary of Post Exilic literature. The Theological subject studied this year was Old Testament Apocalypse with special reference to the book of Daniel. Each member of the class was required to write an essay on "Ezekiel, the Book and the Man"; these were read by Professor Wallace, who reports that as a rule they showed careful study of, and sympathetic interest in, this important subject.

HONOUR OLD TESTAMENT CRITICISM.

This is a voluntary class open to those who are studying for the B.D. degree, or who, for any reason, wish to take additional work. Five students regularly attend this class. The whole time of the class was spent on the study of Zechariah ix-xiv. Two hours per week were devoted to a careful reading of the text and of the study of the critical and exegetical questions arising out of it. Before Christmas, Professor Wallace gave assistance one hour a week in the reading of the text.

ENGLISH BIBLE.

A short course of lectures is given each year by Dr. Jordan and Dr. Scott, which is open to all University students. This year the Old Testament course was given before Christmas, and was a general review of Post-Exilic Judaism as a preparation for Christianity, dealing with such subjects as the significance of the Exile, the work of Ezekiel, the Book of Daniel, etc.

NEW TESTAMENT CRITICISM.

Professor Scott reports as follows: In the ordinary class the session was devoted to a study of the earlier Apostolic Age, including the life of St. Paul. The First Epistle to the Corinthians, in which the ideas, worship, and customs of the Primitive Church are most fully illustrated, was read exegetically at two of the four weekly meetings of the class. The other two hours were occupied with lectures on the History of the Apostolic Age and the various problems to which it has given rise. A number of lectures dealt more particularly with the criticism of the Acts of the Apostles and the Pauline writings. An Honours class was held once a week, at which the Epistle to the Romans was carefully studied. The students in both classes seemed to follow the work with intelligence and interest, and the results as shown by the examinations and exercises have been highly satisfactory.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY.

Professor Robert Laird reports as follows:

The work of this department consisted of a study of: (1) The function, organization, and ministry of the Church, with special reference to modern conditions. (2) Public worship. (3) Preaching, including the structure of sermons.

The class was most attentive. Considerable time was given to the analysis and criticism of sermons. These were for the most part carefully prepared, and the Expository lectures, particularly, showed a distinct advance over previous years.

The practice of conducting services and preaching in the city pulpits was extended and participated in by nearly all the members of the class. Mr. Greaves and myself were in attendance, and we hope by noting the progress of the students from year to year to be of greater help to them in the thought, structure and delivery of their sermons. This end will be facilitated by the fact that the students are now required to take this class through the three years of their course.

Our thanks are again due to the clergymen of Kingston for so kindly opening their pulpits.

THE ALUMNI CONFERENCE.

The twentieth Annual Conference of the Theological Alumni Association was held in October, 1911. The best traditions of these familiar gatherings were maintained in the quality of the papers and the fresh and stimulating character of the discussions. Dr. Knight, for the second time lecturer on the Chancellor's Foundation, discoursed with scientific impressiveness, on "Heredity" and kindred problems. The studies in the Old and New Testaments again occupied a central place on the programme, and showed much careful work, while the afternoon spent on the problems of the rural Church was most fruitful. Our visitors of distinction at the Conference were Dr. J. W. Robertson, Chairman of the Dominion Commission on Industrial Training, and Honourable W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary of Ontario, who delighted two of the evening audiences with their able addresses. Valuable contributions were also made by Dr. James Third and Professors Grant and Dall, of the University staff.

The twenty-first Conference is announced for October 14-18, 1912. Biblical Studies will have their usual place of prominence, and a theme, which promises to evoke much serious discussion is, "Religious Education and its Bearing on the Supply of Men for the Ministry." Professor Duckworth, of Trinity University, who is to give a paper on "Authority in Religion," will be a welcome guest, and Professor John Macnaughton, of McGill, a staunch friend of many former conferences, has promised an evening lecture. Vice-Principal Watson will discourse on the "Philosophy of Bergson," and Professor A. S. Ferguson on "Nietzsche and Christianity." Each year the Conference has demonstrated more clearly its educative value for ministers and for those interested in religious, social and intellectual problems and many more might well avail themselves of its attractive bill-of-fare.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES.

In regard to the constitutional changes proposed by the Board of Trustees, the General Assembly, in June, 1911, resolved as follows:

"That the Assembly approve of the proposed changes in the Constitution of Queen's University, and appoint a Committee to co-operate with the Board of Trustees in procuring the necessary legislation to give effect to those changes:

"That the Assembly direct attention to the benefit conferred upon the nation by the Presbyterian Church in the founding of Queen's seventy years ago, record its gratification at the prosperity and growing usefulness of the University and its deep and sympathetic interest in its continued welfare, and express the hope that, in becoming more national in constitution as in character, the University may not only retain the sympathy and support of the members of the Presbyterian Church, but may receive generous benefactions also from other sources, so that it may be enabled with ever increasing efficiency to promote the higher education of the nation." (Minutes, p. 36.)

Accordingly the Board of Trustees, with the co-operation of the Committee of Assembly appointed for this purpose, procured from the Parliament of Canada the legislation necessary to give effect to these constitutional changes. This legislation is embodied in two Acts of Parliament, which are herewith submitted for the information of the General Assembly; the one dealing with the changes in the constitution of the University, the other incorporating Queen's Theological College, which now takes the place of the Theological Faculty of the University.

It will be seen that the provisions of these Acts are in harmony with the proposals submitted last year in the Report of the Board of Trustees and approved by the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted.

17. The College may invest its funds in any securities in which life assurance companies are authorized by Parliament to invest.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO CO-OPERATE WITH THE TRUSTEES OF QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1911 to co-operate with the Board of Trustees of Queen's University in procuring legislation to give effect to the proposed changes in the constitution of the University respectfully reports as follows:

Your Committee understood from the outset that it should give the co-operation referred to, provided that the legislation proposed by the Board was in agreement with the principles embodied in the report presented to the Assembly of 1910 by the "Commission to confer and co-operate with the Trustees." It is very gratifying to be able to report that your Committee, while ever mindful of the condition, had no occasion to hesitate about co-operation with the Board in its labours.

Three conferences were held by your Committee with the Board separately, while the members of your Committee also took part in the conferences held by the Board with the Assembly's Committee "to watch legislation in the interests of the Theological Faculty of Queen's University."

The Trustees decided to have two Bills introduced into the Parliament of Canada, the one entitled, "An Act respecting Queen's College at Kingston, and to change its name to Queen's University at Kingston," and the other, "An Act to incorporate Queen's Theological College." It will be seen that there is here a departure from the terms of the report of the Commission above referred to, inasmuch as that report provided that the Theological Faculty should continue a faculty of the University, though with a distinct name and under distinct management. It should, however, be pointed out that provision is made in the legislation: (1) for the Theological College to be affiliated with the University; (2) for affiliated colleges to be represented on the University Board of Trustees, and (3) for all the Professors of the Theological College to be members of the University Senate. Moreover, if the constitution of the Senate be so changed as to reduce the number of representatives upon it of the theological staff, the representation is never to be less than three. Your Committee is of opinion that, so far as practicable, the report of the Commission has been adhered to.

In conference with your Committee the Board made a number of amendments in the text of the Bills as first drafted. One of these is of an importance which entitles it to be mentioned here. According to the report of the Commission the Board were to set apart the sum of $200,000 "for the maintenance of the Theological College with accommodation, light, heat and attendance satisfactory" to its Board of Management. But the legislation passed by Parliament also provides for the use and occupation by the Theological College of such portions of the "Old Arts Building" as its Board of Management may from time to time consider necessary, and also requires that this "Old Arts Building" shall hereafter be known as Queen's Theological Hall. Your Committee is pleased that the Theological College is to have for its permanent habitation a building endeared to so many of the ministers and members of our church by the associations of college days.

As the report of the Commission reminds us, Queen's College was founded partly "for the education of youth in the principles of the Christian religion." Accordingly, your Committee was anxious that amid whatever changes the University should continue to be wholly friendly to our common Christianity. Hence, there is commended to the notice of the Assembly the clause of the legislation which enacts that "the University shall continue distinctively Christian." It is well-known that this clause was vigorously attacked at various stages of its course through Parliament, and it is a pleasure to testify that the representatives of the Board never wavered in their loyalty to it. The second part of this clause now requires the Trustees to "satisfy themselves of the Christian character of those appointed to the teaching staff." The clause was amended to this effect, while the Bills were before Parliament and, inasmuch as in the judgment of your Committee the amendment does not weaken the guarantee given by the original form of the clause that the University will remain distinctively Christian, our assent was given to it.

The text of the Acts of Parliament in question, which are to constitute Chaps. 138 and 139 of the Statutes of 1912, are given in the report of the Trustees of Queen's University.

The hearty thanks of this Assembly are due to Mr. W. F. Nickle, M.P., a member of this Committee, for the skill with which he piloted through Parliament these Bills, and in particular that regarding the Theological College.

In conclusion, your Committee would reiterate the hope expressed by the Assembly of 1911, that Queen's University "may not only retain the sympathy and support of the members of the Presbyterian Church, but may receive generous benefactions also from other sources, so that it may be enabled with ever increasing efficiency to promote the higher education of the nation."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. M. RAMSAY.

OTTAWA, April 16th, 1912.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF KNOX COLLEGE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of Knox College has the honour to present to the General Assembly its sixty-eighth annual report.

From the report of the Senate herewith transmitted, it will be seen that during last session the number of students in attendance in the Third Year was five, and of these only three received their diplomas. Of the other two, one took a special course prescribed by the Assembly, and the other a special course with a view to being received by the Assembly. It is to be regretted that so few go forth into the ministry of the Church this year, but the Board is glad to learn that this condition is abnormal, and will be shortly rectified, as one hundred and forty young men are now enrolled with a view to the ministry of our Church.

The Board is pleased to report that thirty young women from the Deaconess Home are receiving a large part of their training in Knox College from its professors. Such instruction cannot fail to be of much benefit to those who are looking forward to Home and Foreign Mission work.

The income of the College for the past year derived from congregational contributions, donations, bequests, etc., amounted to $13,634.19, and from investments $15,043.56, making a total of $28,677.75.

The Board is glad to be able to report that while the accumulated arrears of revenue last year were $11,220.00, this deficit has been reduced this year to $8,470.55, largely by the bequest of $2,000 from the late Mr. Donald Mackay, Toronto, and accrued interest. This accumulation of past arrears, although being gradually reduced, is still a subject of concern to the Board.

The total expenditure for the past year has been $25,927.69, the details of which are fully set forth in the Treasurer's statement.

The Endowment Fund now amounts to $318,641.27, which produces an income of $15,043.56.

The amount received for the Building Fund of the new College is (including a special donation from Mrs. Wm. Clark of $10,000 for a Principal's Residence) $185,905.95. The expenditure for the purchase of the new site, excavation, drains, foundations, etc., has been $131,901.88, leaving unexpended $54,004.07.

The Board has pleasure in reporting that Lord Strathcona has promised a contribution of $25,000 when $375,000 has been subscribed, and the Board trusts that the Church will speedily place itself in a position to receive the generous donation of his lordship.

The matter of the purchase of the lands for the new building and the various tenders received for the proposed work have received the careful attention of the Board. Notwithstanding the curtailment of much in the details of the building which the Board would have desired to see completed, it finds that from the increased cost of labour and material, the amount of the tenders has very considerably exceeded the amount anticipated by the Board in accepting the proposed plans. The Board hopes that the Church will increase its liberality and not cease in its efforts to provide the Board with funds sufficient to enable it to complete the building in a manner worthy of the Church and the College.

The Board has pleasure in being able to report that a sale has been made of the old College premises for the sum of $225,000. It has been arranged that the College will retain possession of the premises for two years in order that the work of the classes may not be interrupted during the period when the new buildings are in process of erection.

In accordance with a request from the Senate, the Board of Management ask the Assembly to limit the number of members appointed to the Senate, outside of the Faculty, to twenty-four, in order that it may be possible to pay expenses to the two most important meetings of the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. MORTIMER CLARK.

Toronto, April, 1912.

REPORT OF SENATE OF KNOX COLLEGE.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

During the past session we have had fewer students than usual in our theological classes, but the work done has not been less than usual. In accordance with the revised curriculum referred to in last year's report, the men of each year have been taught separately. This gives an orderly and consecutive three years' course in all the great departments of a theological education. In addition to the regular class work of the three years' course, each Professor has conducted an Honor Class in his own department. As a College, we are now definitely offering guidance and instruction in the course of study leading to the degree of B.D. A goodly number of our students have this session taken up one or more of these honour courses and we expect an increasing number to receive not only the College diploma, but the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

Another new feature of the curriculum this past season was a course of study in the English Bible specially designed for undergraduate students. Some thirty men attended the class this first year and showed the deepest interest in the study of the gospels. Twenty-eight passed the examination and twenty-five have taken advantage of the system of Religious Knowledge Options to have this class count as a part of their course for the B.A. degree in Toronto University. It is hoped to develop and extend this department of study.

There has been no change in the professorial staff during the year. Professor Ballantyne conducted the classes in Church History and gave lectures on Sunday School Methods. Professor Robertson lectured on Apologetics and Christian Ethics and conducted the class in Practical Homiletics. Professor Kilpatrick lectured on Systematic Theology and gave a special course of lectures on Evangelism. Professor Law conducted the class in New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and gave lectures on "The Teachings of Jesus," and "The Johannine Theology." Professor Davidson has conducted the classes in Old Testament Literature, History and Exegesis. The Principal guided the men in their practical Christian work, and lectured on Pastoral Theology and Christian Missions. He also conducted the classes for undergraduate students in the English Bible. Elocution (including Voice Culture, the public reading of the Scriptures and the delivery of sermons) was continued under the supervision of Professor Frank H. Kirkpatrick, of the Toronto Conservatory. It is proposed during the coming session to have the men of the First Year give special attention to this subject and receive individual lessons fortnightly.

Again, this year, the Rev. H. Roswell Bates, of the Spring Street Presbyterian Church, New York, spent a week with us and never were his practical talks more enjoyed. His personal power and intensity of spirit have made each of his visits a positive spiritual force in our College life. The Senate are pleased to announce that Mr. Bates is to be the Penman Lecturer for another term of years.

The manifest decrease in the number of young men willing to give up their lives to the work of the Christian ministry has at last made itself felt in Knox College. For a long time past the average number of men to go from Knox into the ministry of the Church each year has been twenty, not including the men who have taken part of their course in Knox and graduated elsewhere. In April, 1909, the number was 21, in 1910 the number was 20, and last year 18, but this year the number has suddenly dropped to five, and only three of these received diplomas, the other two having completed a special course in order to their being received by the Assembly.

Such a report is disappointing and depressing at a time when the need for a larger number of thoroughly qualified men is so great. However, things are not as bad as they seem. While the other classes in Theology are below the average, they are three times the size of this one, and the number of men in the Arts classes is above the average. Never had we so many undergraduates looking forward to the ministry of our Church. All told there are 140 men enrolled and the freshmen classes for the past two years have been the best in the history of the College.

No report of the work of Knox College would be complete without reference to the splendid class of thirty young women from the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home, who are receiving a large part of their training in Knox College and from its Professors.

The students in attendance this past year were:—

MANITOBA COLLEGE

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:
The Board of Management of Manitoba College respectfully submits to the General Assembly its annual report, together with the report of the Senate and the financial statement.

The work of the session has been carried on under a sense of the heavy loss incurred in the death of the Rev. Principal Patrick, who died last September just as the session was beginning. He was a strong man in so many directions that his loss is felt in all the departments of the college work. Great as a student, as a teacher, as a friend and leader of men, we mourn his untimely removal. There have been several other changes in the teaching staff. Mr. C. K. Guild, B.A.; Miss Lorraine E. DuVal, B.A., and Mr. George Young, B.A., have resigned during the year. All were greatly interested in their work and successful in teaching it, and their withdrawal is regretted. Mr. E. J. Bunnett, M.A., has replaced Mr. Guild; Miss Helen E. Ross, B.A., has taken Miss DuVal's place, and Mr. Young's place, which was vacated only a few weeks ago, has not yet been filled.

It is now more than forty years since the legislature passed the act incorporating the College and under which the College does its work. The environment of the institution and its outlook have changed greatly during these years and some of the clauses of the act are not applicable to present conditions, while others hamper the College in the work it admittedly ought to do. The Board, therefore, proposes that the charter be amended to bring it into harmony with the work which is actually being done. A draft act will be submitted which, if approved by the General Assembly, will be laid before the Provincial Legislature at its next session.

The Board is obliged to report a deficit of $6,896.48 in its current revenue. This is due partly to an accumulation from last year, partly to a recent rearrangement of the salary budget and partly to extensive improvements and repairs on the building. It is satisfactory to be able to report that the greater part of this sum will at an early date be provided for by the liberality of friends of the College in Winnipeg, and there are prospective additions to the annual revenue which it is hoped will prevent similar shortages in the near future.

The Board has given careful consideration to the business of finding a new Principal to take the place left vacant by the death of Dr. Patrick, but it is not yet ready to make a recommendation to the Assembly. It therefore asks that the matter be left in its hands and that it be authorized to make the appointment when it is in a position to name a suitable man.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. WHYTE,
Chairman.

WINNIPEG, April 15th, 1912.

REPORT OF THE SENATE.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Senate submits a report of the work done in the College during the past year.

The teaching work, which was formerly done by the late Principal Patrick, was provided for in part by laying an additional burden on the three remaining professors of Theology, in part by an extension of the scheme of intercollegiate lectures with Wesley College, and as regards the classes in Practical Training by the help of several neighbouring ministers. ROBERTSON COLLEGE

Mr. Moderator, fathers and brethren:—

We beg to present to the General Assembly the second report of Robertson College, the Presbyterian Theological College of the Province of Alberta.

THE NAME.

By means of a ballot distributed to every member of the Board and Senate, the College was christened "Robertson College" on the 10th day of October, 1911, thus perpetuating the name of our great pioneer missionary superintendent and nation builder.

This name along with those of Dr. Herdman, Dr. Carmichael and Dr. McQueen, ought to be a pledge that the needs of the Church in the West will be our very near concern.

THE FIRST SESSION.

The first session was begun on October 18th, 1911, and closed on April 20th, 1912, with 10 students in attendance, all but one of whom had been serving in mission fields in Alberta. The names of the students are:—

Victor Leese.....	Newcastle-on-Tyne.
Arthur E. Hayes.....	Windsor, Ont.
M. S. Kerr.....	Lamlash, Arran, Scotland.
Thos. Sneddon.....	Rutherglen, Scotland.
Thos. A. Batty.....	Eating, England.
R. F. Parker.....	Edmonton.
E. J. L. Bisson.....	St. Helen's Jersey.
G. S. Drummond.....	Moycroft, Scotland.
Jas. Fulton.....	Donaghadee, Ireland.
W. A. Greer.....	Antrim, Ireland.]

As none of these Students had taken a full Arts course, and most of them were unable to take advantage of the university, preparatory classes were conducted in English Language and Literature, British and Canadian History, Philosophy and Greek.

Theological classes proper were established in the English Bible, Practical Training (including Elocution) Theology (including Comparative Religion and Psychology of Religion) and N. T. Greek (Class lists are appended Appendix A).

The three Students assigned by the Assembly last year to Robertson College, for extra-mural correspondence training, viz:—W. G. Patterson, Lavoy, Alta.; Wm. T. Cromb, Mundare, Alta.; Harry Cox, Edam, Sask.; were in correspondence with the College during the entire winter, writing essays regularly on a mixed course of Arts and Theology, and doing excellent work.

Seventeen other Students, not recommended to the College by the Assembly, divided as to residence almost equally between Saskatchewan and Alberta, unable to leave their fields, but hearing of these correspondence classes requested that they also might be permitted to take advantage of them, and although they understood that they had received no standing from the Church, worked, did the same class of work as the others, one of them at least writing essays of the very best standard.

In the class of work rendered necessary or at least advisable by the straitened circumstances of our missionaries, it would not be difficult to employ the whole time of a considerable staff.

LIBRARY, SCHOLARSHIPS, ETC.

In other directions also, Robertson College has made a beginning. The Library contains 750 volumes, nearly all donated by upwards of 50 generous friends, from all parts of Canada, as well as from Ireland, Turkey and the U.S. We are glad to be able to announce the gift of portions of the libraries of Dr. Robertson, Dr. Herdman and Rev. C. H. McKillop, books which will always evoke a special interest.

Eleven (11) scholarships have been volunteered from friends in Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, as well as New York State. Two came from Baptist friends in Strathcona, two have been specially donated for extra-murals, one bears the name of the late Dr. Carmichael. These scholarships along with the moderate rate of board, constitute a donation of $700.00 next winter from Robertson College to our Home Mission work.

THE COLLEGE BUILDING.

As our first College residence, a dwelling was purchased at a cost of $4,800.00 containing class room and library, and capable of accommodating 10 students in residence. Ground has already been broken for a second to be built at a cost of $3,900.00, doubling our capacity and providing for next session. The chairman, Mr. J. A. McDougall, LL.D., Edmonton, has offered the Board $10,000.00 as his contribution towards a permanent building, a site for which is awaiting us on the grounds of the University of Alberta.

The moment the building is erected it will receive as its first ornament an oil-portrait of Dr. Robertson, to be presented by his immediate relatives.

WOMAN'S GUILD.

An active organization of Alberta women known as the Robertson College Woman's Guild, furnished the first house completely and provided a scholarship, and is now planning to furnish the second house, all this as a preparation for furnishing the permanent building when it comes. The generous activity of this body of Alberta women has been a striking feature of our first year of life.

ENDOWMENT.

The endowment has made steady progress. The obligations of Knox Church, Calgary, (The Herdman Chair), First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton (The D. G. McQueen Chair), and Knox Church, Strathcona (one half chair) have been met and exceeded, while Robertson Church and Westminster Church, Edmonton, have given generously.

No canvass has yet been carried on outside the cities of Edmonton and Calgary. The Board has requested the Principal and Prof. Millar to continue the canvass this summer, wherever openings can be secured, and while it is not prepared to recommend any appointment to the Assembly, it fully expects to strengthen the teaching staff by means of a temporary appointment or appointments before the opening of next session, and asks the Assembly's permission to do this, on the understanding that no permanent appointment be made before the next Assembly.

The Board desires in this connection to thank Presbyteries throughout the Church and many friends for their deep interest in its welfare and progress.

Appended to this report (Appendix B.), is an outline of an emergency course drawn up by the Senate of the College. It differs in some particulars from the Emergency Course, suggested by the Assembly's Committee on the supply of ministers, and it is recommended by the Board that this Course be referred to that committee in the hope that some course will be established to meet the conditions prevailing in our western provinces.

All which is respectfully submitted,

J. A. McDOUGALL, Chairman.
GEO. J. BRYAN, Vice-Chairman.
A. F. Ewing, Secretary.
S. W. DYDE, Principal.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF WESTMINSTER HALL

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Management of Westminster Hall has the honour to present its fourth annual statement together with that of the Senate.

The past year has been one of gratifying growth in all departments especially in the preparatory department, where the number of students is now so great as to necessitate looking forward to a larger building in the near future. This rapid growth has necessitated a large increase in our expenditure and this together with a slight money stringency made the year a somewhat anxious one for the Board of Managers, but the splendid work of the Financial Agent, Rev. A. L. Burch, B.A., and the hearty co-operation of the Church in British Columbia has enabled us to present a statement with the balance on the right side.

Through the generosity of the first chairman of the Board another scholarship has been established, to be known as the Mrs. G. F. Gibson General Proficiency Scholarship of $50 per year.

The Ladies' Auxiliary has been unceasing in its work for the Institution and has expended over $600 during the year in new furnishings and upkeep.

Owing to the opening of the University of British Columbia at Point Grey, in the autumn of 1913, the Board has decided to begin at once to prepare to have the new Westminster Hall ready for occupancy at the same time so as to keep pace with the other developments in education in the province. The Principal has, therefore, been released from his duties in the class room for three months to give his whole time to this work. His course in Apologetics is being taken by Rev. Prof. R. E. Welsh, D.D., of the Presbyterian College, Montreal; and that in Systematic Theology, by Rev. Prof. J. Dick Fleming, of Manitoba College. To these gentlemen and to Rev. Prof. A. R. MacEwen, of New College, Edinburgh, and Rev. Prof. Shailer Matthews, of Chicago University, the Board desires to express its deep sense of gratitude, as well as to all those who in any way contributed to the success of the College during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. BEVERIDGE,

Chairman.

REPORT OF OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Trustees of Ottawa Ladies' College has pleasure in reporting that the year's work in the College has been successful in every respect.

The attendance has been almost up to the limit of the capacity of the College and financially we expect to close the year with a balance on the right side of the ledger. The total enrolment for the year has been 176, of which 60 were in residence.

The health of the pupils has been excellent. This is due to the sanitary condition of the building and to the watchfulness and care of the lady Principal, and her assistants.

The College keeps ever in view its educational aim, viz., "The development of a strong cultured and intelligent Christian womanhood."

The staff of every department has proved its efficiency.

All the teachers have discharged their duties in a thorough, yet kindly manner, and the pupils have in a large measure responded to the interest taken in them.

The Board has had under serious consideration the advisability of seeking, at no distant date, a new site for the College. Whilst nothing could surpass the beauty and suitability of the present site, when it was chosen, conditions are changing and the encroachment of manufacturing and other enterprises threaten to affect seriously that part of the city as a residential locality. Your Board deems it wise therefore to be on the look out for a new and more eligible site.

In the opinion of the Board the property can be sold for a sum sufficient to enable them to purchase a new site and to erect thereon buildings that will give much more ample accommodation than the one at present occupied.

The Board asks the approval of the General Assembly to their carrying out of this project at any time should they deem it in the interest of the College to do so.

The Board is gratified with the place the College holds among the educational institutions of this country and bespeaks for it a wider patronage from the members of the Church to which it belongs.

G. L. OWEN,
Secretary.

W. D. ARMSTRONG,
President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE CHURCH AND MANSE BUILDING FUND OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA FOR MANITOBA AND THE NORTH-WEST, FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 29TH, 1912.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Church and Manse Building Board helped since its organization in the erection of 845 church buildings as per last year's report. The operations of the year just closed added 39 to the number, 17 churches and 22 manses, making a total of 884.

During the year 67 applications were made to the Board, 53 for loans, and 14 for grants; 28 for manses, 37 for churches, and 2 for combined churches and manses. One of the applications for grants was declined, eleven were granted and two have not yet been disposed of. Only applications for loans, which failed to meet the conditions on which such loans are made, were declined, and of these there were very few.

In forty-three cases the Board granted the full amount of loan asked; in ten the loan promised was less than that asked.

The sum required to meet the loans required by the Board is $29,600.00, and to meet the grants $1,650.00, a total of $31,250.00. It will be seen from the accompanying financial statement that the actual expenditure was on:—

Loans.....	$23,932 98
Grants.....	1,592 00	$25,461 98

The collections from congregations indebted to the Board were disappointing, amounting only to $18,548.26, whereas the collections reported a year ago were $23,229.35, and those reported two years ago, a few hundred dollars more. The early frosts, which damaged the wheat crop through the northern part of our country, the almost continuous rains during the stacking and threshing season, which compelled many farmers to leave their crops in the stack, and more frequently in the stook, all winter, and the inability of the railway companies to take out the grain that was awaiting shipment, are largely, perhaps wholly, the explanation of the difference between the collections of these two years; they certainly form a sufficient reason why not a few of the congregations failed to make payments as instalments of their indebtedness fell due.

If applications for loans were to come to the Board in such numbers as under more favourable circumstances they might have been expected to come, the Board might before the end of the current year find itself hampered for want of funds. Quite likely one of the effects of the disappointing results of last year's crops will be to limit very considerably the number of applications coming to the Board. The Board is, therefore, hopeful that lack of funds will not hinder it from giving reasonable help to deserving congregations in their efforts to build churches and manses.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. HILL MYERS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 29TH, 1912

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee begs to submit their Report for the past financial year, together with the Financial and other Statements. Annuities have been paid in full, which no doubt brought a measure of comfort to the Annuityants. The Committee is pleased to be able to report an improved response on the part of the Eastern Section, in congregational contributions, which reached the sum of $2,669.98, or $522.38 more than for the previous year. It is to be regretted, however, that the congregations did not come up to the measure of the amount proposed by the Maritime Synod, namely, $3,500. The result is, that, notwithstanding the very fair increase in interest of $417.46, the total income, including Ministers' Rates, which should go to Capital, and a share of the Hymnal Committee's contribution, was $1,009.99 less than the Annuities paid, and a proportion of charges against the Fund in the office of the Treasurer. It will be remembered that special attention was called last year to the accumulating adverse balance. Adding to that the shortage now reported, it makes a total sum of $5,744.05. This simply means that the Capital Fund of the Western Section is that amount less than it would have been if in the Eastern Section income and expenditure had squared. It surely was not too much to expect a special effort to bring up the givings from congregations to the sum of $3,500, asked by the Synod. In the Western Section there was a small increase of $255.15 from congregations and $1,109.17 in interest, with a decrease of $258.84 in Ministers' Rates, making a total of $34,181.27. This sum includes the balance of $532.65 carried forward from the previous year, and the proportion of the amount donated by the Hymnal Committee. The outgo for Annuities and charges amounted to $28,192.62, which left a surplus of $5,988.65. From this has to be deducted the shortage in the East, $1,009.99, leaving $4,978.65, which still admits of Ministers' Rates, Western Section, $4,478.11, being carried to Capital.

The following Financial Statements will furnish complete information in regard to the different accounts:

The Committee again, as so often before, calls attention to the want of loyalty to the Fund on the part of many ministers of the Church, in not becoming connected by the payment of Rates.

In the Eastern Section there is an improvement compared with the previous year of $82.26; but in the Western Section there is a falling behind of $258.84. It is to be feared that a good many ministers are failing in a duty to themselves—for they cannot in any other way make an equally good provision—as well as to their brethren in the ministry, in having failed to connect with the Fund. It is doubtful if the obligation to connect at ordination, passed by the Assembly two years ago, is being generally carried out.

In regard to the Endowment Fund, while there has been added during the year $11,224.80, it will be noted that the increase has come from bequests and Ministers' Rates. It had been intended to make a general effort to bring it up to the sum of $300,000, but the number of special appeals for money and the launching of the Budget Scheme led to the appeal being restricted to a few with little result so far. It is pleasing to note that friends of the Fund are remembering it in their Wills.

The thanks of the Committee are offered to the representatives of the several Estates from which the bequests have come, and also to the Hymnal Committee for the generous contribution of $2,560.

ANNUITANTS AND ANNUITIES PAID.

144 Annuityants drew benefit from the Fund last year, 109 in the West Section, and 35 in the East Section. The amounts authorized were—in the West $27,319.94, and in the East $8,846.33.

RE-CAPITULATION.

Total Annuities, Western Section.....	$27,319 94
Total Annuities, Eastern Section.....	8,846 33
	*$36,166 27

* This total shows a difference of $123.55 more than stated in "Ordinary Account," as it includes $100 which had been advanced to an Annuitant in previous year, and $23.55 not paid until after the close of the account for last year.

The following brethren, whose names appear in the List of Annuitants, have heard the Master's call, and have passed to their rest and reward:

A. McLean, D.D., James Pullar, David Wardrope, Archibald Currie, Daniel Gordon, William Bennett, Donald Strachan, Robert Laird, W. P. Walker, F. M. Dewey, Archibald MacKenzie, J. M. McLeod, and Thomas Paton, in the Western Section; J. McG. McKay, Alexander Grant, D. McMillan, John Sutherland, and A. Falconer, D.D., in the Eastern Section. They have seen "The King in his beauty," and are at rest.

SPECIAL CASES.

The following cases included in the Report, and Supplemental Report, of last year as incomplete, and left in the hands of the Convener, have been dealt with as follows:

Rev. Alex. McFarlane, whose papers did not, in the judgment of the Committee, constitute a measure of illness that necessitated retirement from active duty. Further papers have been submitted, and it is recommended that he be granted retirement and benefit as from last Assembly.

Rev. James R. Coffin. His papers were duly completed, and he was placed on the List and paid annuity for one year. The Committee recommends that he be placed permanently on the Fund.

Rev. A. B. McLeod, of Souris, P.E.I. Correspondence and medical report were had in this case, which fully established a condition of health that necessitated a period of rest. He was granted the full annuity to which his ministerial services entitled him for one year. Further reports from his Presbytery speak of some improvement in his health, and asks that the grant be continued for another year. The Committee recommends a continuance for another year.

With regard to the following applications for leave to retire and benefit from the Fund, included in the Supplemental Report submitted to last Assembly, they were favourably considered and benefit granted, and placed on the List of Annuitants, namely:

A. McKenzie, Thomas Paton, A. P. Duclos, and D. McGillivray. In the case of the two first named, their relief from active service was very brief, as they were, shortly after being placed on the Fund, "called home."

SPECIAL GRANTS.

The case of the Rev. W. M. Reid, of New Westminster Presbytery, has again been brought before the Committee by the Presbytery, and in view of the same, it is recommended that he be given the grant of $200 for another year.

Rev. D. Henderson, Chatham, N.B. Mr. Henderson was retired in 1907 at the comparatively early age of 41, on the ground of ill health and loss of sight. The Presbytery of Miramichi has more than once made recommendation to deal liberally with this as a special case. Acting on these representations, the Committee recommended a special grant of $100 in 1910, which the Assembly approved. This was paid, but as there was no representations the following year, only the regular annuity was paid. The case has again been brought to the attention of the Committee by the Presbytery, and in view of the features of the case, the Committee recommends that a permanent special grant of $100 be allowed, and that it date back to include the past year.

APPLICATIONS FOR LEAVE TO RETIRE.

Applications for leave to retire and be placed on the Fund have been received from the following ministers:

NAME.	PRESBYTERY	AGE.	YEARS OF SERVICE IN CANADIAN CHURCH.	REASONS FOR RETIRING.
Reid, Walter.....	Sarnia.....	70	25 years	Age.
Macdonald, J. R.....	Halifax.....	59	16 "	Ill-health.
Doudiet, Chas. A.....	Montreal.....	79	40 "	Age.
Stewart, Alex., D.D.....	Huron.....	66	36 "	Ill-health.
Gunn, S. C.....	Truro.....	70	16 " 18½ mos.	Age.
Garroch, John.....	Algoma.....	76	22 "	Age.
Dickie, A. B.....	Halifax.....	70	42 "	Age.
Edmondson, J. B.....	Newton, N.J.....	71	23 "	Age.
Chase, J. H.....	Truro.....	70	30 " 2 mos.	Age.
McKellar, Hugh.....	Calgary.....	70	36 " 10 mos.	Age.
Hay, John, D.D.....	Lanark and Renfrew.....	58	27 "	Ill-health.
Cochrane, J. J.....	North Bay.....	76	36 "	Age.
Cameron, D. J.....	Toronto.....	56	27 "	Ill-health.
Fowle, Robert.....	Orangeville.....	70	35 "	Age.
Smith, F.....	Toronto.....	75	26 " 4 mos.	Age.
*McGillivray, D., B.A.....	Victoria.....	71	42 "	Age.

* Mr. McGillivray's name was included in the Supplemental Report of 1911, but as the record was incomplete, is placed in this list.

The Committee recommends that all be allowed to retire from the active duties of the ministry and go upon the Fund for benefit, Messrs. Reid, Doudiet and Garroch for one-third benefit, not having paid rates; all the others for full benefit as rate-paying ministers.

The case of the Rev. Allan Simpson, Halifax, who was retired and placed on the Fund some years ago, but entered upon regular work again, comes up from the Halifax Presbytery, and is now replaced on the Fund and credited with four years additional ministerial service, giving a total of 40 years.

The Committee has had before it a petition of the Presbytery of Edmonton, regarding an annuity to Rev. James H. Beatt. It reached the hands of the Convener through Dr. Somerville, Joint Clerk of Assembly. The petition was not accompanied by reasons for granting an annuity. There was before the Committee, in addition to the petition, copies of two letters written by the Convener to the Clerk of Presbytery, asking for information, to which no reply has been had. The petition is, therefore, referred back to the Assembly with the above statement of facts.

The Committee has carefully considered the limitation to $100 in Rule 14, in cases calling for special consideration, and has come to the conclusion, in view of the needy cases that may arise, where a minister may, through illness, be laid aside and depend mainly on what he receives from the Fund, that the Rule should be more elastic, and permit of the payment of a larger sum than $100. The Committee recommends that Rule 14 be amended by striking out the word "one" in the last line, and insert the word "two" in place thereof.

The Committee has also had under serious consideration the wisdom, and necessity, of placing the Endowment Fund on a yet more satisfactory basis; realizing that the responsibility to provide for the aged ministers of the Church, and for those who, for various causes, fall out by the way and are compelled to cease active work, calls for the most ample provision being made.

The Committee is also strongly of the opinion that the placing of this Fund on a basis that will insure a fair living retiring allowance, will not only be a source of comfort and encouragement to those already in the ministry of our Church, but will go a long way to remove the hindrance that at present prevents young men from entering upon the work of the ministry.

Therefore, after most careful consideration, the Committee makes the following recommendation to the Assembly:

"That the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund be authorized and directed to take the necessary steps to raise the Endowment for both branches of the Fund to the sum of $500,000, and that the Committee be authorized to make use of an Agent, or Agencies, as in its judgment may be deemed wise to secure the said endowment."

Respectfully submitted.

J. K. MACDONALD,
Convener.

ADDENDUM TO THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND.

The two following matters have come into the hands of the Convener since the meeting of the Committee, and as both seem to call for early consideration, the Convener asks permission to bring them before the Assembly in connection with the Committee's report now submitted.

1. The case of the Rev. W. A. Duncan, B.D.

He was retired last Assembly and annuity allowed from January 1st, 1911. Mr. Duncan, after twenty-five years' faithful service, was suddenly stricken with paralysis, at the comparatively early age of fifty-nine, which completely laid him aside. This took place July 31st, 1910. The Convener recommends to the Assembly that he be authorized to issue an order for payment of annuity for the five months to 31st December, 1910.

2. The case of the Rev. Logie Macdonnell:—

Mr. Macdonnell, after seven years of ministerial service, has been compelled by illness to give up work with apparently little hope of being able to take it up again.

Under No. 10 of the Rules, the ministerial services rendered having been less than ten years, comes before the Assembly to be considered as a special case. The letter of Dr. Groves, his physician, of May 30th, last, is submitted herewith.

Edmonton, June 10th, 1912.

Convener.

REPORT OF THE MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND (WESTERN SECTION)

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee on the Ministers' Widows' and Orphans' Fund respectfully submits the following report for the past year:

The revenue from contributions by congregations was $13,006.22; from royalty from the Hymnal Committee, $960.00; from interest on the endowment funds, $9,888.37; ministers' rates, $4,292.62. The total revenue for the year amounted to $28,147.21, from which was paid the usual annuity of $150 to the widows on the Fund and to their children under eighteen years of age. Your Committee obtained from the Committee on Systematic Giving an allocation of $24,000 from the Million Dollar Budget for 1912. In the event of this amount being contributed by the congregations an annuity of $200 could be paid to the widows, and a proportionate increase be made for the children entitled to receive it. This would be a boon indeed to many of those now on the Fund.

The report of the actuary, who made careful enquiry into the condition of the Fund, recommended that an addition should be made to the Capital Account, so that it might be placed on an absolutely secure financial basis. Your Committee, therefore, has added to Capital Account $6,000, so that it is being slowly strengthened.

The number of ministers who connected with the Fund during the year was 16, so that the total number now connected with it is 413. The General Assembly ordered that all ministers at their ordination should join the fund, but no provision was made for this order being carried out effectively. The number of widows on the Fund at this date is 138.

During the year the following were removed by death: Mrs. Breckenridge, Mrs. Burson, Mrs. Chestnut, Mrs. Flett and Mrs. Wallace. One widow generously withdrew from the Fund on the ground that she had been favoured by God during the year and no longer required the annuity for her suitable maintenance; she, therefore, wished that her portion might be given to help others who really needed it. The following were added during the year: Mrs. Cornelia Carmichael, Mrs. E. J. Dewey, Mrs. Isabella Paton, Mrs. Margaret McKenzie, Mrs. Elizabeth McLean.

Your Committee would call attention to a misprint in the last paragraph of last year's report, and recommend that the date the 31st March be changed to read 31st October, which is the date when the financial year closes.

There is appended a list of the annuitants and the financial statement.

RECOMMENDATION.

The Committee would recommend the General Assembly to take steps to see that the rule making it obligatory on all ministers at their ordination to connect with the Fund is carried out.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH HENDERSON,
Convener.

MONTREAL, May 7th, 1912.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

A FORWARD MOVEMENT.

The best forward movement is a steady lift all along the line.

But reconstruction is inevitable in a new land and a new era.

The Church must match the big changes and doings of the time with a big Christianity.

We must put in more powerful engines, create bigger enthusiasms, and bring our forces to their tasks with greater efficiency, and a more intelligent attack.

This surely is imperative in the all-important matter of the Religious Education of the young.

The devising of liberal things here will most of all prove our devotion and wisdom in the Church. The turning of the Roman Catholics, by the Jesuits, from creeds and councils to the children and the catechism at the time of the Reformation secured the future for that great Church.

I. A UNITED COMMITTEE.

It is the age of co-operation. The religious education and training of the young from cradle to manhood is one work.

Religious impression on the Sabbath and religious expression in week day activities should go hand in hand.

One Committee looking steadily at the whole task would prevent leakage, overlapping, cross purposes, enfeebled initiative.

II. SUFFICIENT SUPERVISING FORCE.

We must not weaken congregational or Presbyterial initiative.

We must keep church officials down to "fit men" and "fewest possible." But in our day only personal push counts. Men, already over-driven in their own work cannot supply the needed energy. Many ministers and most church workers are technically unequipped for the work of religious education. We have got to supply direction and enthusiasm and creative management in this work, especially in the Missionary Synods or be "penny-wise pound foolish" on a large scale.

III. A RELIGIOUS EDUCATION COMMISSION.

It is the day of the "Commission." Efficiency and intelligent enthusiasm demands a scientific survey. We have had a useful commission on the Retraining of the Ministry. Do we not need a similar investigation of the subject of Religious Education as concerns the home, the school, and the church, that a generous policy may be framed and the best methods discovered and published whereby through the co-operation of all available agencies the religious element in the education of the young may be guaranteed.

The present Commission on College Education might be continued and given this further field of enquiry. A new commission might be created, consisting of leading Christian educationalists, both clerical and lay. Or at least the Amalgamated Committee on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, might be enlarged by the addition of men, specially qualified for this kind of work and instructed to make a survey and report.

THE YEAR'S WORK.

I. STATISTICS.

A complete statistical table is appended to this report. Figures in connection with this work are apt to be inadequate and misleading, owing to the variety and independence and changing character of many of our organizations.

The work among young people is always bigger and better than what is tabulated in returns. The figures show but little change from year to year, Presbyteries falling away or improving according to local conditions and leadership.

This report is based on returns from sixty Presbyteries and four Synods, with their respective recommendations.

A judicious summing up would probably be:—There are about 800 Societies in all, with probably a hundred more not reporting with a tendency to shrinkage in the number reporting and an increase in the number too careless or independent to report. There are in the neighbourhood of 30,000 young people enrolled in societies other than regular Bible Classes, with a tendency towards a looser and larger membership. The sexes are as two to three in point of numbers. The contributions continue to increase, missions receiving its proportion of the increase, being about one-third of whole. The types of societies recommended by the Assembly, viz., Christian Endeavour and Guild, continue to hold the field with a healthy Presbyterian independence manifested in both form of organization and programme followed. Separate organizations for the sexes continue to increase especially in cities. The number observing Young People's Day gradually increases, but is even yet but a small proportion of the whole.

We are deeply and gratefully convinced that most earnest efforts are being exerted throughout the Church to interest and lay hold of the young people, and a lasting work of untold importance is being done for personal character and the future Church.

II. PUBLICATIONS.

Though many societies make up their own programmes there is an increasing demand for the publications of the Committee. The demand for our text-books has risen fifty per cent.

The sale of the Manual has almost doubled. The demand for Pledge Cards has noticeably fallen off, which is probably not a good sign.

For the sake of Societies organizing in the fall our publications for each year are issued by October 1st.

There will be no new text-book for 1913. It was thought best to confer with the Sabbath School Committee with the view in the future of getting out a series of study text-books for the use of young people.

The following sales have been reported by our publishers, "The Presbyterian Publications" of Toronto:

Canadian Problems (Text Book, 1911)—cloth.....	133
Canadian Problems (Text Book, 1911)—paper.....	278
Social Service (Text Book, 1912)—cloth.....	274
Social Service (Text Book, 1912)—paper.....	372
Young People's Society Manual.....	2,849
Christian Endeavour Topic Card.....	6,054
Christian Endeavour Booklets.....	8,341
Young People's Society Buttons.....	689
Christian Endeavour Constitutions.....	596
Christian Endeavour Pledge Cards.....	645
Guild Topic Cards.....	2,680
Guild Constitution.....	185
Guild Pledge Cards.....	1,120
Guild Wall Pledges.....	7

On these the Committee receives a ten per cent. royalty, this year amounting to $55.00.

The matter of "helps" on the topics is provided for as follows:

The Record publishes articles on the Missionary and Social Service Topics.

The Presbyterian on the Christian Endeavour and Missionary Topics.

East and West on the Christian Endeavour and Missionary Topics.

The Witness on the Christian Endeavor Topics.

Besides a text-book is recommended by the Committee on each of the Guild Courses, including its own text-book.

III. EDUCATIONAL.

The policy of the Committee is as follows:

1. INSTITUTES. To hold at least once a year, in co-operation with one or more of the other departments of the Church, an Institute or a series of Institutes in each Presbytery, at which a muster of all our young people may be made for purposes of fellowship, inspiration and instruction. Such Institutes were successfully held in the Presbyteries of Guelph, Kingston, Toronto, etc.

2. SUMMER SCHOOLS. At least one summer school in each Synod, arranged for by the educational committees of the Synod itself for the training of leaders in the work of the Church. Successful schools were held last year at Geneva Park (Synod of Toronto and Kingston); Shoal Lake (Synod of Manitoba). The Synod of Alberta is arranging this year for schools at Edmonton, Red Deer, and Banff. The Synod of Hamilton and London has appointed a Committee to arrange a school for next year. Besides our young people are encouraged to attend the missionary schools held yearly at Knowlton, Que., and Whitby, Ont., under the auspices of the Missionary Education Movement.

3. YOUNG PEOPLE'S DAY. Once a year, the first Sunday of February, the whole Church is asked to hold a special service in the interests of young people, for which the Committee prepares a special programme, and where possible to hold on Monday evening a banquet or other rally at which the mission work of the Church may be laid before the young people of our congregations and plans made by them to assist the congregation in its budget apportionment.

About three hundred congregations observed Young People's Day last year, of which a little over two hundred sent a contribution to assist the Assembly's Committee in their work.

IV. FINANCIAL.

The total cost of this department for the year is $1,024.38, being an increase over last year of $123.75.

The expenditure was met by Young People's Day contributions, $877.20; revenue from publications, $75.56; balance from Dr. Somerville, $70.62.

Two hundred and twelve congregations and societies sent in contributions in response to appeal on Young People's Day, amounting to $877.20, being an increase over the previous year of about one hundred dollars.

A much larger revenue must be found somewhere if the Church expects an expansion of effort in this department.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the attention of Sessions be directed to the duty of seeing that in the constitution and programmes of young people's societies under their oversight clear provision is made for the distinctively religious elements of prayer, testimony and Bible study, that the young people of our churches may learn to relate their lives definitely and personally to Christ.

2. That the missionary policy for the young people of our Church be, that they give through the regular channels of the Church and as part of the Budget Scheme and that missionary education be promoted specially by means of the Mission Study Class.

3. That the amalgamation of the Committee on Young People's Societies with that on Sabbath Schools be effected by this Assembly and on the following terms:

(1) That the work of these two Committees of the General Assembly be administered under a single Committee to be known as the General Assembly's Committee on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, with joint Conveners in the meantime continuing the work of the two Conveners, and with corresponding Committees in Synods and Presbyteries with joint or single Conveners as each Synod and Presbytery may determine, and that the statistical reports be simplified.

(2) That the same relations shall exist between the new Committee and the Committee on Sabbath School Publications as now exist between the Committees on Sabbath Schools and Sabbath School Publications.

(3) That the attention of the Committee on Sabbath School Publications be drawn to the proposed consolidation of these Committees with change of name, and they be requested to consider adapting their name to the new conditions.

(4) That this new Committee shall consist of eighteen members, together with the Editor of the Sabbath School Publications, the Home Missionary Secretary, the Assistant Foreign Mission Secretary, and the Assistant Secretary of Evangelism, and that all the Home Mission Superintendents shall be corresponding members of the Committee.

(5) The work of this new Committee shall be a Scheme of the Church as the work of the Committee on Sabbath Schools now is.

6. The work of this new Committee shall be administered in the meantime with the aid of the present General Secretary for Sabbath Schools, and the new Committee be empowered to appoint an additional Secretary when in its judgment the requirements of the work demand such additional help.

*4. That the General Assembly take steps either by means of a special commission or by special arrangement with its committee on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies to make a thorough scientific survey of the whole question of Religious Education as it affects the school, the home and the Church with a view to framing a generous and effective policy for the future religious training of the young, and providing in convenient form, for the guidance of the Church the latest and best information touching all phases of the all important subject of Religious Education.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. R. McINTOSH,
Convener.

* At a joint meeting, held since (Toronto, May 10), of the Executives of the Brotherhood committee, the Sabbath School committee and the Young People's committee, this recommendation was unanimously approved.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee on Sabbath Schools would respectfully present the following report for the year 1911:

I.—EDUCATIONAL.

1. A Standard of Excellence for all our schools was approved by the General Assembly of 1911 as follows:

1. The Sabbath School open all the year.
2. A Cradle Roll.
3. A Home Department.
4. An Organized Bible Class.
5. A Teacher Training Class.
6. A Communicants' Class at Stated Periods.
7. Graded Instruction (the Uniform Lessons with Supplemental Work, or Graded Lessons).
8. Use of our own Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers.
9. Missionary Instruction and Offering.
10. Offering for Children's Day Fund.

This has been favorably received, and has proved to be a strong incentive in increasing the general efficiency of many schools, by more thorough organization. The gains are shown in the statistical report.

2. Special attention was given during the year to the department of Teacher Training. A general campaign was conducted throughout the Church in October and November in which the Synod and Presbytery Committees, and the Publications Committee heartily co-operated. As a result a very substantial increase is shown in the number of schools which have made this a part of their work by organizing classes either in the First or the Advanced Standard Courses of Teacher Training. The number of examination papers received for this work during the year totalled 832, (First Course 572, Advanced Course 260), which is more than double that of any previous year. In addition to the regular classes in Teacher Training, this work was also carried on in two of the Provincial Normal Schools of Ontario, in the Presbyterian Deaconess' Training Home, Toronto, and in one of the Extension Courses of the University of Toronto, in all of which our Teacher Training Certificates were awarded to the Presbyterian students taking the prescribed examinations. Arrangements are being made with other Normal Schools and Colleges, and it is hoped that this work may be greatly extended among those who are to be the future leaders in the educational work of our country. Just here your Committee would like to express its hearty appreciation of the valuable help which is being given in individual Sabbath Schools throughout our Church by the Public and High school teachers of the various Provinces of Canada.

3. A number of Summer Schools were held during the year under the joint auspices of several departments of our Church. The most outstanding of these was that held at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching, Ontario, with an attendance of more than one hundred. The ideal aimed at was to get those present interested in the work of our Church in all its departments. At the same time they would take special courses in one or two departments which they in turn would become responsible for promoting on their return to their individual churches. This proved so successful that arrangements have been made for conducting a similar School, August 20-29, 1912, at the same place, and a number of similar schools as may be arranged at other centres. Your Committee looks forward to the time in the near future when there may be at least one such school in each Synod, under the direct supervision of a Synod Committee.

4. Special courses in Sabbath School Pedagogy are being given in several of our Theological Colleges. Arrangements were also made during the year by which the General Secretary was able to give a short course of addresses on Sabbath School work to our students preparing for the ministry in the Colleges at Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton, and Vancouver. In view, however, of the great need to-day for leaders in Religious Education from the smallest mission field to the largest city church, your Committee would express the conviction that much more adequate provision than at present should be made in our Theological Colleges for courses in Religious Education, and especially for the study of the principles and most approved methods of the modern Sabbath School, and the winning of the scholars for the membership of the Church. In this connection it may be noted that the leading Theological Seminaries of the United States have now very complete departments in Religious Education, that these are proving very popular, and are being attended by a considerable number of our Canadian students preparing for the ministry of the Church.

II.—EXTENSION AND MISSIONARY.

For the past few years, three or four graduates and students in Theology have been employed each year as Field Workers during the summer months, more especially in the distinctively Home Mission Presbyteries. Their work consists in helping to organize schools, in explaining approved methods of work, and in encouraging and helping the Sabbath School workers in every way possible. The results have been most encouraging, not only in the increased number of schools reported, but also in the increased interest in Sabbath School work in the Presbyteries visited.

The following appointments have been made for 1912. Rev. E. R. McLean, B.A., January to June in British Columbia and Saskatchewan; Rev. A. J. W. Myers, Ph.D. June to December in Alberta and Manitoba; Mr. Percy N. Murray, B.A., of Manitoba College, May to September in Saskatchewan; Mr. J. M. Mutch, B.A., of Knox College, May to September in Northern Ontario. In addition to these your Convener and General Secretary are planning to spend several months in all, during the year, in somewhat similar work in Presbyteries not visited by Field Workers.

A matter of grave concern to your Committee is the discrepancy which still exists between the number of preaching places and the number of Sabbath Schools as reported in most of the Western Presbyteries. For example, the report for 1911 for the entire Synod of Saskatchewan gives 800 preaching places, and 387 Sabbath Schools, including Presbyterian and Union Schools, while Alberta reports 444 preaching places and 271 Sabbath Schools. While recognizing that there may be a number of preaching places where Sabbath Schools are not practicable, and that a few schools continuing for a little while during the summer only, may fail to be reported, the discrepancy is still far greater than should continue to exist. Perhaps the following is not an unfair summary of the chief reasons for the present situation; the relative unimportance of a Sabbath School as compared with a preaching service in the mind of the minister or missionary on the field or the difficulty in organizing and conducting a Sabbath School under exceptional conditions, and developing a group of Sabbath School workers from among those attending his preaching service. The recommendations at the end of this report have been prepared with a view to helping to change this situation, in the best interests of the entire work of our Church.

The usual help was continued during the year for schools in new and needy districts as follows: Grants amounting to about $600.00 were made in providing Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers for 225 schools. A considerable number of these schools have become self-supporting. The grant of $350.00 was continued to Le Rayon de Soleil in order that this paper might be provided at a nominal cost to the French-speaking Protestant children, especially in Quebec. It has now a bona fide circulation of about 1,200 copies each week. The Colored Lesson Picture Cards in Ruthenian have been much appreciated, and are proving very helpful in connection with the organizing of Sabbath Schools among these people. About 1,400 copies are now being supplied each week.

The special services for Children's Day and Patriotic Day have been prepared as in preceding years. The programme for "Patriotic Service" June 30, 1912, was prepared by Rev. R. S. Laidlaw, of Brandon, the subject being "Canada's Most Urgent Problem—Citizenship." The Programme for "Children's Day Service" September 29 was prepared by Rev. Wm. Wallis, Ph.D., Niagara Falls, Ont., the subject being "A Song of the Harvest."

III.—GENERAL.

1. The question of Graded Lessons is one demanding serious and urgent attention on the part of all leaders in Sabbath School work. Your Committee very heartily endorses the principle of Graded Lessons and would be glad to be able officially to endorse some particular course, but this is not yet possible as our Church has not yet provided Graded Lessons, nor are they being published anywhere in Canada. The financial outlay necessary to provide an adequate course even for the Beginners and Primary Departments would be very large. Your Committee has conferred with the Publications Committee on this question, and they hope to find a satisfactory solution at an early date. In the meantime the most satisfactory Graded Lessons published in the United States may be obtained from the Publications Office, 60 Bond St., Toronto.

2. Your Committee is pleased to be able to report that action is being taken by the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations by which the S. S. Committees of the various denominations throughout America may work more closely together than heretofore, and also by which the relation of the International and Provincial Sunday School Associations to the various denominations will be more clearly defined.

A request was received from the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Sunday School Association, asking that this General Assembly should nominate a successor to the late Rev. Dr. Patrick on the International Lesson Committee. After careful consideration it was agreed that this matter should be referred to the General Assembly with the suggestion that inasmuch as the proposal involves a change of policy of very considerable importance action be deferred in the meantime, until the whole question of the relationship of the churches to the International Association shall have received further consideration.

3. The question of the amalgamation of the Committees on Young People's Societies and Sabbath Schools referred to these Committees by the last General Assembly was carefully considered by your Committee, which unanimously concurred in the detailed plan for amalgamation agreed upon by the two Executive Committees and to be presented to this General Assembly.

IV.—STATISTICAL.

1,930 Schools, a gain of 11, contributed to Children's Day Fund; 1,198 Schools, a gain of 42, contributed to other schemes of the Church.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That there should be a Sabbath School if at all possible in connection with every preaching appointment.
2. That all students preparing for the ministry should have an adequate course in the principles and methods of Sabbath School work.

ALEX. MACGILLIVRAY,
Convener.

J. C. ROBERTSON,
General Secretary

REPORT OF THE "RECORD" COMMITTEE

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

This report completes twenty years of the Record under the present management. During the past year the regular issue was 66,000 copies monthly, an advance of a thousand on the previous year, while for 1912 it is 67,000. Perhaps a better idea may be gained from the fact that each month's issue weighs about six tons; or from this other fact, that the total amount of reading matter thus sent out over the Church, during the year, is equal to one thousand libraries of three hundred ordinary volumes each.

Of the 66,000 copies more than 60,000 are paid for at the regular rate. The balance consists of the necessary free copies; the unnecessary free copies, for which payment cannot be collected by moral suasion; and the samples that are being sent out for distribution wherever a new opening can be found.

While the circulation might well be larger, it compares favourably with that of the "Records" of other churches. The Assembly Herald of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., well printed and illustrated, with an excellent table of contents, supplied chiefly by leaders in their church work, managed by a Committee of their General Assembly, sold at the same price as the Record, its yearly deficit of four to five thousand dollars paid by the different Boards of the Church, has a circulation of 50,000, about three-fourths that of the Record, in a church about five times as large as The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

As regards the use that is made of this large circulation, whether it is left lying in the churches or taken home and read, one Synod may serve as an illustration. The Maritime Synod takes nearly 11,000, or one-sixth of the whole, a very fair proportion. Of these, not one-sixth are ordered by congregations for their families; while more than 9,000, more than five-sixths of the whole, are taken by individual subscription in the congregation.

During these twenty years the Record has been enlarged three times, at increased cost, and with these enlargements, and a different type, and less advertising, and one or two other changes, it contains, on an average, about three times the amount of reading matter per issue that it did in its earlier years, while the price remains the same. When the Record was smaller, it was possible, with economy, to save a balance, which is now being used, year by year, in the present enlargement. When this balance is expended, self-support may be continued by omitting the extra sixteen page form for a few months in the summer, or by lessening the number sent out for distribution, or by giving a little more space to advertising. The receipts for the year have been $15,688 47; the expenditure, $17,793 47; leaving a balance, 31st December of $7,875 00, as compared with $9,980 the previous year.

Its contents make up forty-eight pages, printed in three forms or sections of sixteen pages each, a sixteen page form being due to press on the first, tenth and twentieth of each month, practically nearly a sixteen page form a week, together with the business, the accounts, the management, the correspondence of so large an issue.

In filling these pages the aim is, not to make the Record something additional for ministers, or for those who can learn of church work through other channels, but to fulfil the end for which it was established, by making it a Bulletin through which those in charge of the Schemes can keep their work, month by month, before all the people; and also to provide, as far as possible, some good Sunday reading for the tens of thousands of families throughout the Church, whose homes are bare of good books. So far as can be judged by letters from all parts of the Church, it is this filling of about one-third of the Record, with a careful selection of the best reading matter available, that helps to give it such a large circulation.

ROBERT CAMPBELL,
Convener.
MONTREAL, April 16th, 1912.

Editor and Manager.

REPORT OF THE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE, 1912

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Committee are pleased to be able to report an excellent year.

PERIODICALS.

There is a steady increase in the circulation of the various periodicals. These are eleven in number, namely: TEACHERS MONTHLY, BIBLE CLASS MAGAZINE, HOME STUDY QUARTERLY, INTERMEDIATE QUARTERLY, PRIMARY QUARTERLY, HOME STUDY LEAFLET, INTERMEDIATE LEAFLET, PRIMARY LEAFLET, EAST AND WEST, KING'S OWN, JEWELS. The increases in the circulation of the BIBLE CLASS MAGAZINE, EAST AND WEST, KING'S OWN, and JEWELS are especially gratifying.

SABBATH SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

The list of general Sabbath School Supplies has been greatly enlarged and now includes Patriotic Day, Children's Day and Christmas Supplies, and indeed everything that is needed by Superintendent, Secretary, Teacher and Class.

CHURCH SUPPLIES.

Church Supplies have now become an important branch of the business. There has been a heavy increase in the already large number of specially printed, numbered and dated Contribution Envelopes sold. About two-thirds of these have been Duplex Envelopes. The supplying of Envelopes, Treasurer's Records, etc., has been of immense service to the cause of Systematic Giving and the raising of the Budget.

The volume of business in the various other Supplies required by Ministers, Sessions, Managers and Missionary Organizations has made substantial growth. It is the aim to meet every known need.

A new department has been added during the year, namely of Communion and Baptismal Ware, Collection Plates, Hymn and Attendance Boards, etc. It is already a pronounced success.

Y.P.S. LITERATURE AND SUPPLIES.

A volume of 150 pages, entitled Social Service: A Book for Young Canadians, was issued for the Committee on Young People's Societies, and Y.P.S.C.E., Guild and other literature and Supplies have been published for that Committee, as previously.

PRESBYTERIAN YEAR BOOK.

The Presbyterian Year Book was continued. It has now been issued three successive years. The sales, though fair, have not been entirely satisfactory. The Year Book was issued at the request of the General Assembly, as a handy and useful presentation of the work of the Church for circulation in congregations and families. Many congregations provide a copy for each family. The Committee would ask that the General Assembly commend the Year Book for this purpose. The Year Book is capable of doing good service, and at the nominal price of 5 cents each, or $4.00 per 100, it is easily within the reach of any congregation.

GRADED LESSONS.

Arrangements are in hand for stocking the new Graded Sunday School Lessons, instead of supplying them, as previously, from the United States. This will prove a great convenience to the increasing number of Schools that are using the Graded Series.

PREMISES.

The lease of the Committee's present premises lapsing April 1st, 1914, it was considered prudent, especially in view of the present and prospective rise in property values, to make provision for accommodation well in advance. The Committee, therefore, after very careful consideration, purchased a most desirable central property, facing on Church, Gerrard and Dalhousie Streets, and opposite the Normal School Square and on a leading street car line, the building upon which would, with some alterations, provide for the needs of the business. The Committee, however, being strongly convinced of the advantage of having the various Boards and Committees of the Church housed in one building, have offered the property, on equitable terms, to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, for the purpose of the erection of such a building. The offer is at present under consideration by the Trustees. If accepted, the Publications will be housed in the new building; if not accepted, the Publications will proceed, with as little delay as possible, to occupy the premises.

FINANCE.

There has been an increase of $10,436.99 in earnings, and of $4,788.75 in excess of assets over liabilities, the total excess or working balance being now $33,029.63, as compared with $28,240.88 last year. To this working balance, which has been gradually accumulated from the profits of the business, a considerable addition must still be made, if the business is to be carried on to the best advantage. The prospect is that this will be accomplished in due time.

The total income for the year was $140,162.93, which includes a balance from previous year of $17,660.80 and $20,100, the proceeds of loan on new premises, and rental from the same. The total expenditure, including payment in full on new premises was $131,790.75, leaving cash balance on hand of $8,372.18, with property of value of $30,000, carrying mortgage of $20,000.

DR. DUNCAN.

The Committee regret that Dr. Duncan, the Associate Editor, was compelled, last November, on account of impaired health, to relinquish his work for a time. Six months leave of absence was granted him, which was subsequently further extended to nine months. It is the hope of the Committee that Dr. Duncan may return at the first of August, when his leave expires, entirely restored to health.

NEW PERIODICALS.

The question of at least one additional periodical has been under the attention of the Committee since last year, but on account of Dr. Duncan's absence, and the necessary initial outlay in connection with the purchase of the Church Street property, and also in view of the possible amalgamation of the Sabbath School and Young People's Societies Committees, nothing has, as yet, been finally decided upon. This will be matter of consideration and planning during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted.

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE HYMNAL COMMITTEE.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Hymnal Committee, in presenting their thirty-fourth annual statement are glad to report that the business of the past year has been highly satisfactory.

1. The copies sold of the Book of Praise were as follows:—

Medium Type (Long Primer) edition.....	14,410
Large Type (Pica) edition.....	1,095
Large size music edition.....	1,650
Small size music edition.....	8,754
Emerald edition.....	1,619
Diamond edition.....	41

2. The royalty received during 1911 was $3,771.92, being $431.24 more than in any other year since the first year the Book of Praise was published.

From the monies on hand your Committee allocated $3,840 as follows, dividing it as per regulation of the General Assembly:—

Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund.....	$2,560
Widows' and Orphans' Fund (West).....	960
Widows' and Orphans' Fund (East).....	320

3. As instructed by the Assembly a year ago, your Committee, through the Executive, have been collecting material for revising both the Psalter and the Hymnal; and some work has been done both by Presbyteries and by your Committee in selecting from this material. So far, only 17 Presbyteries have reported on this matter. Of these, most are at work on the Psalter, and four (Halifax Montreal, Orangeville, and London) report in detail. As to the Hymnal, while nearly all these Presbyteries desire additional hymns for the young, few such hymns have been named. Your Committee are now in a position to have this work entered upon more actively during the coming year, and they hope to enlist the Presbyteries in fuller co-operation.

The question of a separate Book for Sabbath Schools is practically where it was a year ago. Of the 17 Presbyteries heard from, 5 recommend it. 9 oppose, and 3 overlook it altogether.

THE REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE ON THE FINANCES OF THE CHURCH.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Special Committee begs to report that careful attention has been given to the matters referred to it. These matters may be classed under two heads.

First, Returns from Presbyteries to remit, sent down by last Assembly, in regard to "What sum should constitute the minimum salary within their bounds to—(a) Students; (b) Ordained Missionaries; (c) Ministers in Augmented Charges; (d) Catechists."

Second, the Finances of the Church.

Kootenay, Red Deer, Vermilion, Owen Sound, Edmonton, Kamloops, Halifax, Dauphin, Barrie, Yorkton, Pictou, Regina and Qu'Appelle.

The views of the Presbyteries of Peterboro, Lindsay and Guelph, in respect of certain points only, were furnished to the Convener by Dr. Somerville, dug out, as he said, from other returns.

The various recommendations have been tabulated, and are presented in schedule form, and, together with the following brief statement in respect to each class of workers, are herewith submitted:

*Non-matriculants, $8; Under Grads., $9 and $10. Theological students, 2 years, $11 and $12.

(a) Student Missionaries.

Four Presbyteries, namely, Red Deer, Yorkton, Qu'Appelle and Vermilion, recommend an allowance of $15 per week, and find board themselves. Five Presbyteries, namely, Kootenay, Owen Sound, Kamloops, Barrie and Pictou, practically recommend $10 a week with board and expenses.

Halifax recommends $8 with board. Dauphin, $11 with board. Regina, an increase of $2 per week.

Edmonton introduces a new, and what seems to be a reasonable feature, making a distinct corresponding to the presumed fitness of the student, and recommends as follows:

Non-matriculants $8 all the year round. Under-grads. in Arts, $9 in summer, and $10 in winter. Theological students of two years standing, $11 in summer, and $12 in winter; board to be furnished in each case, and when a horse or team is required, a monthly allowance of $8 for single horse and $12 for team.

The other Presbyteries make no reference to Student Missionaries.

(b) Ordained Missionaries.

Twelve Presbyteries have made recommendations. Six recommend $1,000, if single, namely, Kootenay, Red Deer, Owen Sound, Barrie, Yorkton and Qu'Appelle; if married, they recommend $1,250, $1,100, $1,000, $1,000; Yorkton, $1,200 and house, and $1,000, respectively.

Vermilion recommends $1,200 and house. Edmonton recommends $18.25 per week with house. The others vary.

(c) Augmented Charges.

Sixteen Presbyteries have been heard from. Five agree in recommending $1,200, whether married or single. The other recommendations differ, as will be seen on reference to the Schedule.

The Committee, in considering these returns, took knowledge of the decision that had already been reached by the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees, and inasmuch as the guarantee decided upon by those Committees was a reasonable advance on previous remuneration, agreed to recommend as follows:

(a) Student missionaries, $10 per week with board and outfit in Western Section.

(b) Ordained missionaries. In Ontario and Quebec, $950; in New Ontario and the West, $1,000.

(c) Augmented Charges. In Ontario and Quebec, $1,000; in New Ontario and the West, $1,200.

The Committee recommends accordingly.

(d) Catechists. Ten Presbyteries made recommendations regarding this class of workers. Three agree in recommending $700 for single men and $800 if married. One of these recommends house in addition. The others vary, as will be observed on reference to the Schedule.

It appears to the Committee that while under existing circumstances this class of workers is both necessary and helpful in keeping alive spiritual life in the Districts visited by them, the Church will naturally aim to have the entire field occupied by men possessed of a larger measure of literary and theological training, but in the meantime, and for a considerable, if not a long, time to come, the need for these workers will continue, and therefore should have adequate support. In the judgment of the Committee the remuneration should not be less than $700 for single men and $800 for married men, with board or house, especially in the fields of New Ontario and the West.

Second. The Finances of the Church.

It was not quite clear to the members of the Committee the extent to which it was intended the inquiry should go. The language of the Overture from the Presbytery of London, which led to the appointment of the Committee, implied a wide and thorough investigation, but it does not seem to have been contemplated by the Assembly that that was intended, inasmuch as the Overture was referred to the members of the Home Mission Committee present at the Assembly, together with certain other Commissioners named by the Moderator, as a Special Committee, and on the recommendation of that Committee, the Committee on the "Finances of the Church," was appointed. (Page 53, 1910.)

Paragraph 3 of the Report of the Committee on "Home Mission Problems," may fairly be taken to limit the scope of investigation to the administration connected with Home Mission and Augmentation finances. (Page 57, 1910.)

Your Committee did not undertake the large work of investigating the whole financial administration of the Church. If that is desired, and in the judgment of the Committee much good might accrue from it, it is desirable that the Assembly should give clear instruction to that end. The question of administration has, however, had serious consideration, and the conclusion reached is, that what appears to the Committee as being unwise and desultory in the present divided administration by separate Committees, could, with great advantage to the Church, be placed in the hands of a Finance Board, largely composed of business men. The Board to have the general oversight of administration, both in regard to income and expenditure,—the duties of this Board to be real and not nominal. Such an appointment would not necessarily mean interference with the Standing Committees of the Board, charged with the expenditure of the Church's money, but would probably safeguard the Church's interests and render good service in dealing with budget estimates, and would, from the broader outlook on the whole schemes of the Church, and not as at present, where each Committee is pressing for its particular interests, be in a position to deal justly with all. It should also be empowered to unify the salaries of officers of Committees of equal service and responsibility, and judge generally as to the expense to be incurred in administration.

The Committee strongly recommends to the Assembly the appointment of a Finance Board, or some such body, with full powers of oversight and control as are indicated in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

J. K. MACDONALD,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC GIVING

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

As a result of the pre-Assembly Missionary Conference convened in St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa, by the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Giving, the following resolutions were presented to last Assembly and adopted by that Assembly as outlining the financial policy of the Church:

1. That the estimates of all the separate Committees be presented to the Committee on Systematic Giving for revision and co-ordination, and that the estimates of any one Committee shall not be given out to the Church until they have been passed upon by this joint Committee.

2. That instead of each separate Committee allocating an amount to Synods, Presbyteries and congregations, the Assembly's Committee on Estimates and Systematic Giving, allocate the whole amount required for all the Schemes of the Church to Synods, that each Synod allocate the amount required from that Synod among the Presbyteries of the Synod, that each Presbytery allocate the amount required from that Presbytery among the congregations of the Presbytery, and that each congregation be urged to accept and provide its allocated share as a matter of congregational honour and to apportion its givings among the different Schemes according to the percentages set forth in the estimates of the Assembly's Committee.

3. That the Secretaries of the different Committees, and other representatives of the different Schemes be required to give constant attention to the informing and interesting of congregations and the missionary education of the young, while avoiding competitive appeals for the separate departments of the Church's work.

4. That Presbyteries' Committees on Systematic Giving be instructed to secure, as far as possible, a Missionary Committee in every congregation.

5. That Presbyteries' Committees on Systematic Giving be urged not to cease their efforts until each congregation has undertaken to provide at least its allocated share of the whole budget, and to that end a thorough personal canvass of the congregation has been made by the Missionary Committee.

6. That the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Giving be empowered to prepare estimates in advance for the succeeding year and send them down to Presbyteries and congregations in time to be placed in the congregational estimates at their annual meetings in January.

After careful consideration, the Committee for the Western Section of the Church decided that the following amounts would be needed in 1912 to carry on effectively the different departments of the Church's work and make any pretence of meeting the Home Mission situation in Canada and the unparalleled opportunities abroad:—

* These include accumulated deficits.

† This includes $2,500 from Knox Church, Calgary, and $3,500 from First Church, Edmonton, for support of two professors.

THE MILLION DOLLAR BUDGET.

This total amount of $1,000,000 constitutes the Budget for 1912. "A Million Dollars for 1912" has become the watchword of the Committee, and "The Million Dollar Budget" is now talked of familiarly and intelligently by Presbyterians everywhere. This total Budget was divided among the Synods of the Western Section of the Church as follows:—

Montreal and Ottawa.....	$200,000
Toronto and Kingston.....	300,000
Hamilton and London.....	200,000
Manitoba.....	100,000
Saskatchewan.....	60,000
Alberta.....	60,000
British Columbia.....	80,000

The Synods' Committees were asked to meet at once and divide up these amounts among the Presbyteries. The Presbyteries were all communicated with and asked to make the Budget the special subject of consideration at their autumn meetings, to accept their allocation from the Synods' Committee, divide up the amount wisely and equitably among the congregations within the bounds, and ask each congregation to accept and provide its allocated share as a matter of congregational honour.

TOUR OF DR. MACKAY AND DR. GRANT.

In the good providence of God, the Committee were able to have the Rev. Dr. R. P. MacKay, Moderator of Assembly and Senior Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee, and the Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant, the newly appointed Home Mission Superintendent, give up their whole time for three months to the exposition and advocacy of the Budget plan of finance. These devoted servants of the Church visited together all the Presbyteries of the three central Synods which by special arrangement held meetings on consecutive days. They did not go to represent Home Missions or Foreign Missions, but to present the Budget Scheme—give a vision of the complete work for which our Church stands, and call upon the whole Church and every part of the Church to support the whole work of the Church.

RESULTS.

The visit of these honoured brethren was of great inspirational value, but it was more—it was of great educational value, showing the unity, inter-relation and inter-dependence of the various departments of the Church's educational and missionary effort, and calling upon ministers and people to take up a great task in a great way.

The general appreciation of these visits may be expressed in the words of Huron Presbytery: "Simply invaluable! There was a clear, forceful presentation of the plan and claims of the Budget, and the inspiration of their appeal prepared the Presbytery and its Committee to do their work in a way they could not otherwise have done." Lanark and Renfrew suggest that every autumn consecutive meetings be held by all Presbyteries, when such experts should be present to outline the needs of the Church and the plan of campaign for the year. In addition to this, Dr. MacKay and Dr. Grant were present at the whole series of Laymen's Missionary Conventions in the Western Provinces last autumn, and not only took part in the Denominational Sessions, but in each case met with the Synods' Committee on Systematic Giving.

UNIVERSAL ACCEPTANCE OF THE BUDGET SCHEME.

The visit of these leaders to Synods and Presbyteries prepared the way for the universal and hearty acceptance of the Budget scheme, as a practical, businesslike way of facing the financial problem and supporting the entire work to which our Church is committed. Of 50 Presbyteries reporting, 46 definitely accepted the share of the Budget apportioned to them by the Synod's Committee. Of the four which did not definitely and by resolution accept their allocation, two fell into line with the 46, and as a matter of fact, 48 out of 50 Presbyteries allocated the full amount to congregations and urged each to do its part in securing the total asked of the Presbytery.

We commend to all the resolution of Brockville Presbytery: "That this Presbytery having assumed responsibility for its share of the 1912 Budget, and having agreed to accept its Committee's allotment, count it a matter of honour for each congregation to provide the same, and a matter of privilege to do a little more."

Only two Presbyteries refused their allocation and felt it unwise to ask so large an advance from their congregations. In each of these Presbyteries one half the amount asked was allocated among the congregations.

METHODS OF WORK.

The absolute unanimity of consent to the Budget plan and the general readiness of each Presbytery to assume its share of the obligation has been quite remarkable. In every one of the 50 Presbyteries reporting, an allocation was made to all congregations within the bounds. The method of procedure was usually something like this: The Convener of the Presbytery's Committee on Systematic Giving prepared a circular letter or leaflet outlining the work for which the Church was responsible, giving the amount asked from each congregation in the Presbytery, and urging all congregations to place that amount in the congregational Budget for the year at the annual meeting. The request was made that the Budget be fully explained from the pulpit and fully discussed at the annual meeting or a man's Banquet, and that this be followed up by an every member canvass. In many Presbyteries the Committee offered to give what help might be needed in awakening the interest and organizing the canvass in any particular congregation. In cities like Montreal, the Presbytery's Committee co-operated with the Presbyterian Council of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and thereby reached the men of every congregation in a direct and effective way. One Presbytery arranged a Presbyterial visitation of every congregation quite along old lines, some hours being spent in conference with Session and Managers, but with the Budget as the central thought. In other Presbyteries there was an exchange of pulpits and sometimes a laymen went with the minister to present the Budget. In still another, the Presbytery was divided into districts and an elder and a minister made responsible for the congregations within the district.

REPORTS FROM CONGREGATIONS.

In one form or other the Budget scheme was presented and explained in almost all the congregations of the Church. Repeatedly the Presbytery Conveners answer, "in all," or "will be in all," while others give such answers as, "in all but one," "in 44 out of 45," "in 21 out of 24."

Seldom has any matter been brought before the Church so fully within so short a period or with such unity of action. 368 congregations report that they have definitely accepted their allocated share of the Budget and pledged themselves to do their best to raise it, while multitudes of others, too cautious to make a rash promise, and fearful lest they could not come up to the standard set for them, answer, "will do our best," or "will try."

In 357 of the congregations reporting, the acceptance of the allocation has been followed by an every member canvass—in many cases the canvass of every person with an income. In others there has been a canvass, but not so thorough as to reach every member. A large number more were making arrangements for such a canvass at the time of reporting, and others intend to do so.

CANVASS DELAYED BY LOCAL DEMANDS.

Many, however, have put off the appeal and canvass for the Budget because of local demands, and have done it on the false principle that they must get all the equipment they need for themselves and pay all their local debts before giving to what they are pleased to call "outside objects." In many country districts the severe storms blocked roads and made this a peculiarly bad winter for getting the Budget before country congregations and making a canvass.

One report plainly declares what many ministers have experienced: "We find it difficult to interest many of our people in systematic giving." Another report says: "The great lack is the lack of vision that would turn men from looking backward. So many congregations are apparently self-satisfied with doing a very little."

CONGREGATIONAL METHODS.

The usual procedure within the congregation has been: (1) Informing and interesting people from the pulpit and through laymen's missionary banquets. (2) Definite acceptance of congregation's allocated share of Budget at annual or other meeting of the congregation. (3) An every member canvass by Missionary Committee, the aim being to have each person earning an income promise to give a certain amount, however small, weekly through the envelopes provided. One congregation gives this report as to methods adopted and success achieved: "Sermon on giving; then missionary sermon and presentation of Budget; annual meeting and acceptance of congregation's share; personal canvass of districts immediately following; giving doubled." Another report reads: "Frequent pulpit references to missions; every kind of missionary literature distributed; annual missionary banquet with addresses, and then an every member canvass; result, best missionary congregation in the Synod." In almost every congregation where adequate information was given, genuine interest aroused, and the canvass thoroughly carried out by men who themselves gave liberally, the result exceeded expectations. "Splendid success"; "not a single failure"; "most encouraging"; "more pledged than was allocated to the congregation," are sample answers. About 200 congregations report that the canvass was made on the basis of the duplex envelopes, and this frequently resulted not only in the pledging of the congregation's share of the Budget, but in a gratifying increase of revenue for the local work. Congregations have been surprised at the ease with which the allocated amount was raised and local revenue increased when the work was gone about in a systematic way. The every member canvass and the duplex envelope have at one and the same time lifted small congregations from the Augmentation Fund and made them generous contributors to the general work of the Church.

SOME FAILURES.

The success has not been universal. Owing to bad harvest conditions in the West and uncertainty of getting the crop to market, the people in many Western congregations were unwilling to pledge themselves to anything, and the effort to introduce weekly or monthly offerings failed. The same has been true in many typical Presbyterian congregations of Ontario, where the canny Scot prevails. No one can entice him into such rashness as to promise a certain amount of money weekly. But it can be said generally that where the minister led, the people followed.

MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

372 congregations report Missionary Committees. In many other congregations the Session acts as Missionary Committee, and in a few congregations the Session and Managers have united to form the Missionary Committee. Where it is found workable, there is no better policy than to have Session and Managers united to further the missionary interest and effort of the congregation. It prevents any feeling of jealousy or rivalry between those who are seeking to secure congregational revenue and those who seek to increase the missionary revenue. The Session and Managers and a few of the more interested and capable among the younger men, who may not be members of Session or Managing Board, constitute a most representative Missionary Committee. That number interested, the whole congregation can be carried with them. In noting the fact that a majority of congregations have not yet accepted their share of the Budget or made an every member canvass, we must remember the disheartening effect of a decreasing population in many rural districts. Even in the new Prairie Provinces there is complaint that the best off people leave the small towns and go to the big cities. Many a small congregation in Alberta and Saskatchewan has had a hard time to make ends meet the last two years, but as the report from Regina Presbytery says: "Notwithstanding poor crops and grain unmarketed, there is lots of money for 'bonspiels' and all kindred luxuries. When our people do a fraction of their duty, no Home Mission money will come in here. On the contrary it will flow out to fields where there is no wealth and no religious privileges."

LITERATURE.

In this campaign, literature has been used more freely than ever before. Most Presbyteries report the use of "At Home and Abroad," "The Million Dollar Budget," in all congregations. Over 200,000 of these were sent out from the Church officers. In some congregations the canvass was preceded by a "snowstorm of literature."

It has been decided that hereafter the Budget literature will be printed in French for the use of French-speaking congregations.

PROGRESS.

Chatham, Brockville, Peterborough, etc., are instances of the progress that can be made in Presbyteries that heretofore have been doing very little, if only there is active, determined and organized work on the part of the Committee on Systematic Giving. In Peterborough Presbytery every congregation has had the Budget scheme presented; every congregation has accepted its share and every congregation has reported. In Chatham Presbytery, the giving to the schemes has increased from $4,000 in 1907, to $10,000 in 1910, and will be $15,000 in 1912. Nothing to boast of even now, but wonderful progress, and all due to systematic effort throughout the Presbytery. Moreover, since 1908, the number of $1,000 stipends in that Presbytery has increased from five to fourteen, and will be eighteen by the end of this year.

Much of the success in some of the Western Presbyteries is reported as due to the supervising pastors.

INFERENCES.

The reports warrant the following statements:

(1) The giving to schemes during this year, 1912, will be greatly in excess of any previous year.

(2) Unless many congregations greatly exceed their allocation the Million Dollars will not be received, as a majority of congregations have not yet accepted their allocation, have made no canvass of the members and no serious attempt to increase their giving.

(3) As there always are individuals and congregations who never will do their share, if the total amount of the Budget for any one year is to be realized, Presbyteries must allocate on some such principle as was adopted by Peterborough this last year. "In our assessment of congregations, we struck off 20 per cent. of the families as non-givers, and then assessed the rest of the families for 15 per cent. more than enough to make up our $15,600. This leaves a margin for the inevitable shrinkage and neglect upon the part of some."

MARITIME SYNOD.

The Committee on Systematic Giving for the Synod of the Maritime Provinces prepared its separate Budget as already indicated. This Budget was divided among Presbyteries and congregations as in the other Synods. The amount asked was but a slight advance on that for 1911, and it is believed the whole amount will be provided. The Convener reports that the Budget system has resulted in (a) A more intelligent grasp of finance on the part of the pastors, officers and people, and more efficient machinery in presbyteries and congregations to deal with the financial side of our work. (b) The unity of the Church and the Church's work has been emphasized and felt. Congregations have realized that they are essential parts of a larger unity, and that failure on their part means loss to the whole work of the Church. (c) A steady increase in giving, showing 33 per cent. in three years.

MEETING OF ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE.

At the meeting of the Assembly's Committee in Toronto, April 24th and 25th, it was felt that while a good start had been made, there must be persistent, effective follow-up work until each congregation in every Presbytery had accepted and honestly undertaken its share. One by one congregations must be reached, interested, pledged to their part and canvassed on the basis of the weekly offering. The Budget plan presupposes, in order to complete success, that every congregation of the Church will take its share (whether that share be great or small) in the whole work of the Church.

THE BUDGET FOR 1913.

The chief business of the meeting was the preparing of estimates for 1913. The Committee were anxious, if possible, to keep the Budget at the Million Dollar mark for another year, and as a matter of fact most of the estimates were kept within the amount asked for 1912. Notwithstanding the cry of our missionaries abroad for more workers and better equipment at this crisis hour when the Orient is awakening and ready; notwithstanding the fact that 14,000,000 heathen depend upon us and upon us alone for the Gospel of Christ, Foreign Missions were cut down slightly from the amount asked of the Church in 1912, so anxious were the Committee not to run beyond the willingness of the Church to give.

But some place in the Budget had to be given to the City work committed by last Assembly to the Board of Social Service and Evangelism. The City problem could not be ignored in a country like Canada, where the cities are filling up so quickly, and slum conditions developing with such alarming rapidity. In Home Missions and Augmentation there was the problem of increased salaries to be faced. It is intolerable that prosperous times, rapidly growing wealth and increased prices should condemn our Home Missionaries and the ministers of augmented charges to continued and ever-increasing poverty. Believing that this Assembly will assuredly carry out the purpose of previous Assemblies to fix a new and higher standard of salaries, it was felt that an additional $100,000 must be placed in the 1913 Budget to make it possible to do justice to those who serve in the weak places of the Church and the hard places of the land. The 1913 Budget was therefore fixed at $1,100,000, and that after a paring down of the estimates presented to the Committee by $50,000. The 1913 Budget suggested for approval of Assembly is:

Foreign Missions.....	300,000
Augmentation.....	113,000
French Evangelization.....	35,500
Pointe-aux-Trembles.....	23,500
Montreal College.....	*11,000
Queen's University.....	*8,000
Knox College.....	*22,000
Manitoba.....	12,500
Robertson College.....	†10,000
Westminster Hall.....	9,000
Missionary and Deaconess Training Home.....	4,500
Social Service and Evangelism.....	43,430
Special City Work.....	26,570
Jewish Work.....	12,000
Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund.....	24,000
Widows' and Orphans' Fund.....	24,000
Assembly Fund.....	11,000
Total.....	$1,100,000

* These amounts include accumulated deficits.

† This amount includes $2,500 from Knox Church, Calgary, and $3,500 from First Church, Edmonton, for support of two professors.

UNALLOCATED FUNDS.

The Committee decided that all unallocated money in the Treasurer's hands at the end of the Church year shall be divided in strict accordance with the percentages set forth in the Budget, and further that the percentage for Colleges be divided as follows: (1) From Western Synods, the whole percentage for Colleges to be given to the College of the Synod. (2) From Ontario and Quebec, the whole percentage for Colleges to be divided pro rata between Montreal, Queen's, Knox, and the Deaconess Training Home.

AMALGAMATION OF FUNDS EAST AND WEST.

Last Assembly sent down the following Remit:—

"That the question of the possible amalgamation of the Mission Funds, East and West, be remitted for consideration to the Committees concerned, and to the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and that the decisions arrived at be reported to the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Giving before April 1st, 1912."

As no returns have come from the Synod of the Maritime Provinces or from the Committees of the Eastern Section of the Church, your Committee have no recommendation to make.

UNIFICATION OF THE WORK IN CANADA.

Another Remit was sent down by last Assembly in the following terms:

"That the question of the amalgamation of all funds for the prosecution of religious work in Canada be remitted to the Committees concerned and to the Presbyteries of the Church, with instruction to have this question considered and an answer sent to the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Giving before the 1st of April, 1912."

So far as the Western Section is concerned, 18 Presbyteries reported in favour of unification, 8 opposed, and 2 were indifferent.

The Home Mission Committee reported in favour of the unification, provided the future work would be carried on along the same general lines that now govern the work of the Home Mission Committee.

The Augmentation Committee expressed approval, provided the principle of augmentation be retained.

The Board of French Evangelization was unanimous for such amalgamation, provided:

1. That the Synodical Committees be authorized to make grants to missions among Roman Catholics under special regulations suited to the needs of the work; to employ colporteurs or travelling missionaries as well as catechists in special fields, and to provide them with the requisite literature; also to subsidize mission day-schools where it may be judged expedient to do so.

2. That for the present the mission work within the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa shall be under the special supervision of a Superintendent able to speak both French and English, who shall work in conjunction with the several Presbyteries and shall occupy the same relation to the general Home Mission Committee and to the Synodical Committees as the other Superintendents of the Church.

3. That the residential Mission School at Pointe-aux-Trembles be recognized as one of the educational institutions of the Church, to be administered by a Board of Management, appointed annually by the General Assembly, whose estimates shall be included in the general Church Budget, and to which congregations and Sunday Schools shall be free to allocate moneys for the carrying on of its work. This Board shall also be free to appeal for and to receive legacies and contributions towards its endowment subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

4. That the special grant of $1,625 per annum now paid by the Board of French Evangelization towards the French Chair in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, be continued for two years, out of the funds of the amalgamated committee, after which period the Board of the College shall be responsible for the whole amount of this salary."

The Foreign Mission Committee reported in favour of the unification, but thought it better that in the meantime the Chinese work in Canada be left under the care of the Foreign Mission Committee owing to the close connection with the work in Kong Mun, South China.

In accordance with these returns, the Committee on Systematic Giving expressed its approval of the proposed unification of all mission work in Canada under one Board (this to include the Eastern Section as soon as they are willing to be included) with the exception of work among the Chinese in Canada, which, in the meantime, should continue under the care of the Foreign Mission Committee. The Committee herewith recommend the General Assembly to take such action as may be necessary to carry out this unification of work and amalgamation of funds.

STANDARDIZING OF SALARIES.

In view of the fact that there is inequality in the salaries paid to the officials in the different departments of the Church, and that there seems to be no recognized principle in the fixing of salaries, some being determined by the Assembly and others by the Committees or Boards of Assembly, this Committee, representing all the Committees with which paid officials are associated, respectfully requests the Assembly to appoint a Committee to consider this whole matter and recommend to this Assembly such action as may be necessary.

RE-CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMITTEE.

In view of the fact that this Committee is now largely responsible for the financing of the whole work of the Church, is charged with the preparation of the Annual Budget, and has power to revise and co-ordinate estimates sent up from the other Committees, the following changes are recommended to Assembly:

I. That this Committee be replaced by a Committee to be called "The Finance Board of the Presbyterian Church in Canada."

II. That this Board be constituted as follows:

(1) A Chairman and twelve members, including one from each Synod, who shall not be members of any Committee presenting estimates.

(2) The Convener and one Secretary from each of the Assembly's Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions, one representative from each of the Committees on French Evangelization, Augmentation, Social Service and Evangelism, Sunday Schools, Young People's Societies, Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, Widows' and Orphans' Fund, Deaconess' Board, the Principals of the Colleges, the Treasurers of the Church, East and West, the Editor of the Sunday School Publications, and the Editor of the "Record."

III. That this Board choose its own Executive.

IV. That ex-officio members do not vote upon the revision of estimates.

V. That the Assembly appoint a man to give his whole time to the executive work of this Board, to which is entrusted in so large measure the financing of all the Schemes of the Church.

It is suggested that hereafter there should be this one Finance Board for the whole Church, and one Budget for the Church East and West, with an allocation to the Maritime Synod, even though the funds be separately administered.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ALFRED GANDIER,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE WITH OTHER CHURCHES

There was no occasion of calling the Committee together during the past year. When the Convener was in Great Britain he was invited by the Secretary of the Presbyterian Alliance in London to accompany a delegation from the Eastern Section of the Alliance to Conferences with the Churches of Bohemia and Hungary to be held in September, 1911. He communicated on the subject with the Moderator, who kindly furnished him with a commission to represent the Presbyterian Church in Canada at Conferences in Prague and Buda-Pest. He was also furnished with a Commission from Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts, Secretary of the Western Section of the Alliance, to represent that Section at these Conferences. He was cordially invited by the brethren of the Eastern Section to take part in their deliberations, and the greetings which he was authorized to convey to the Churches of Bohemia and Hungary, were heartily received. On all hands the deepest interest in Canada was manifested, and gratitude was expressed for the special attention paid by our Church in its College and Home Mission work, to the Hungarians, Galicians and other Eastern European immigrants coming to the Dominion. The authorities of the Churches met at these Conferences, declared their readiness to do all in their power to co-operate with our Church in caring for their people who take up their abode in Canada.

The Church of Scotland invites the Presbyterian Church in Canada to send a delegation to the General Assembly of 1913; and it will be for our Assembly to make an appointment at the approaching meeting.

ROBERT CAMPBELL,

Convener.

MONTREAL, April 1st, 1912.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee regret that owing to the serious illness of one of its members and other unavoidable causes, the final revision of the Book of Family Prayers has not yet been completed. It is hoped that your Committee may be in a position to report further progress to the Assembly when it meets. In the meantime your Committee would request that the authorization to publish already given be continued.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. FARQUHARSON,

Convener.

DURHAM, April 1st, 1912.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee has great pleasure in being able to report the most successful year in the history of this work. We have had twenty-nine students in attendance during the year, as compared with eighteen the previous year, and it is very gratifying to find that this work is appealing to so many of the young women of our Church, and that, of those offering themselves as students, so large a proportion are well qualified to do excellent service.

We present herewith a number of extracts from deaconesses in the field, and from all places where our graduates are at work. We have most favourable reports of the valuable work they are doing.

THE NEEDS OF THE TRAINING HOME.

While there are graduates of the Training Home in every mission under our Foreign Mission Committee, and we have deaconesses at work in very many places in the Home Field, and in Social Service, we believe our Church is only beginning to realize the place that trained women can fill in the Church's work, and that we should make provision for the training of increased numbers of deaconess workers. At the present time we have reached the full limit of our building, and your Board does not feel warranted in taking up the question of extension, until the mortgage indebtedness on our property, which now stands at $16,000, has been materially reduced. This property is exceptionally well situated and has increased very considerably in value since it has been purchased by the Board.

The Home is training workers for Home Mission field, Foreign work, and for the special work of the Social Service Board, and as the work has developed, it has been found desirable to make some changes in the course of studies, in order that each student may be, as far as possible, fitted for the special work she is taking up.

THE COURSE AND STAFF.

Your Committee desires again to express its appreciation of the excellent services so generously given, by the professors of Knox College, and others who form the teaching staff of the Training Home.

Staff.	Subject.
Rev. Prof. Richard Davidson.....	Old Testament.
Rev. Prof. Law.....	New Testament.
Rev. Prof. Kilpatrick.....	Christian Doctrine.
Rev. Prof. Ballantyne.....	Church History.
Rev. Prof. Robertson.....	Preparation of Addresses.
Rev. D. McTavish, D.Sc.....	Practical Use of the Bible.
Rev. J. C. Robertson, B.D., S.S. Secretary.....	Sabbath School Methods.
Rev. D. McLaren.....	Missions.
Miss Ethel Dods.....	Voice Culture.
Dr. Stenhouse and Dr. Goodchild.....	Medical Work.
Rev. Dr. Shearer, Dr. M. Patterson and Dr. Helen MacMurchy.....	Social Service.

The course of study covers two years, and students during the session are given training in practical work in connection with some of the city missions and dispensaries. They are, therefore, when graduated, well equipped for some of the many forms of Christian service that offer for women to-day.

The course as revised, and the names of the lecturers for the session of 1912-13, will be found later in this report.

MAINTENANCE.

The maintenance fund of the Home, until the past year, was contributed almost entirely by the Women's Missionary Committees of our Church. Last year, however, the sum of $4,000.00 was placed in the estimates by the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Giving. This being a new item in the budget, it has not, we feel, as yet, received the notice or attention to which it is entitled. Your Committee consider that this is a small amount to ask for the maintenance of so important a work, and would express the hope that the Church will recognize this as one of the very important Schemes of the Church, and accord it the support it needs.

Maclean, and Grace A. Sykes.

The above mentioned were, on the same evening, designated as deaconesses by the Presbytery of Toronto, with the exception of Miss Cowan, who has gone to Winnipeg to take a course in nursing, preparatory to Foreign Mission work.

On account of experience and fitness for the work, the following were also designated at the same time:—Misses Mary Carmichael and Agnes R. Coutie, Mrs. Lucy Rose Keene and Bertha Putnam, and Miss Clementina Walter. Earlier in the year Miss Agnes Cowan was, on the same ground, designated by the Presbytery of Edmonton, where she is at work.

DEACONESES AT WORK.

For complete list of the deaconesses now at work, and the place and nature of their employment, see later in the report.

EXTRACTS FROM REPORTS OF DEACONESSSES.

One deaconess writes:—"It is sometimes difficult to get the right kind of visitor for a family. I have in mind one young man, who was well nigh breaking his mother's heart with his careless ways—he was only nineteen, yet he drank heavily and took no interest in higher things. We succeeded in getting two young men to take an interest in him; they take him to church and visit him once or twice a week; the result is that he has stopped drinking, and we believe, is finding his way back to God. We cannot overestimate the value of such work as this—it is the personal touch which counts."

Another says:—"A large part of my time is taken up in visitation among the sick in hospitals and homes, strangers in land and city, young women in rooming houses, maids in homes, the members of the Church, the poor, and also visiting in families in narrow circumstances who go nowhere to church. In all, 2,055 calls were made during the year, and 345 church meetings have been attended." To this deaconess also falls, amongst a myriad of other duties, which there is not space to mention, the distribution to the ministers of the city of newcomers from the old land. These numbered during the year, 1,155. "During the immigration season this occupies many of my mornings, as map and guide have to be carefully studied."

A deaconess working in a Free Kindergarten in a Western city, writes of one part of her work:—"Besides her duties as matron, the deaconess must superintend the Sunday School and conduct a Girls' Club and Mothers' Sewing Class. The Girls' Club presents many a problem. The officers, elected quarterly by the girls from among their number, conduct the business and devotional exercises. With a year's average of fifty-five, the attendance in winter frequently reaches from seventy to eighty. As we devote an hour of nearly every club night to needle-work, the supervising of this in an overcrowded room is no easy task; and would indeed be impossible were it not for the aid of the volunteer helpers."

Another Western deaconess says:—"If we could only realize how often a kind word or act would break down barriers mountains high, we would be far more ready to give a little of the joy within ourselves to brighten other lives. A little incident comes to mind of a home where sickness has been lingering for over a year, and at times death seemed very near to the mother of three little children. In the deaconess massaging the aching limbs, bathing baby and tidying up the house, the mother feebly murmured: 'Ah! it is good to know some one cares about us.'"

From a new city on the North Pacific coast, where the deaconess is supported by the W.H.M.S., there comes the story of how she carried to the wife and two daughters on an island out in the Straits, the sad news of the drowning of a father and son; remaining with them two weeks, during which time she and one of the daughters undertook to visit the lonely ones on the island, and how a young man who had had a fine training "back East," but who had grown utterly careless was led to declare his thirst for a better life.

This message shows a blessed work of helpfulness: "So many of the bread-winners were laid aside with fever during the summer and fall, that they could make no provision for winter's needs. Consequently these families had to be provided with the necessities of life through the winter. One of our business men gave me the privilege of spending $100 for him in this work."

A deaconess, making a preliminary canvass, in behalf especially of young women's work says:—"For the last two months I have spent the mornings of four days each week in canvassing. The information thus gained makes my heart sore. So many, who have attended Church regularly, and even been active in Church work in other places, have fallen away until they seldom asked or desired good. Through this work I have come in touch with many lonely girls; so I feel quite encouraged to go on." One result of the canvass was the organization of a young women's Organized Bible Class. Of the seventy young women gathered at the preliminary 'At Home,' almost fifty were strangers, or strangers to one another."

One labouring in connection with one of the Social Service Homes in one of our cities writes:—

"Daily talks, personal or collective, with girls of the Home reveal a real desire on the part of all to live a true Christian life. In spite of the great overcrowding and the consequent inconveniences, a spirit of cheerful forbearance with one another, and of true appreciation of what is being done for them is beautiful to see."

Superintendent Training Home:

Mrs. E. Livingston.

Requests for information, and applications for admission as students, to be addressed to Mrs. E. Livingston, Superintendent, 60 Grosvenor Street, Toronto, from whom forms of application for admission may be obtained.

A Prayer Circle, composed of those who have at any time been connected with the Home, holds its meetings every Saturday during the session at 7.30 p.m., when every member is prayed for by name.

A Prayer Meeting, under the charge of the Boards of the W.F.M.S. and the W.H.M.S., to which all interested in the work are welcomed, is held in the Home once a month during the session.

The Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home is under the control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and is governed by a Board of Management appointed by the General Assembly.

Its object is the training of women as deaconesses and for work in the Foreign Mission field.

The Training Home is situated at 60 Grosvenor Street, Toronto (reached by Yonge Street cars from Union Station). It stands in the midst of beautiful grounds, and is situated near to the University, the new Knox College site, the Medical College, and the new General Hospital, so that students can conveniently avail themselves of the educational advantages thus offered, and, from the Training Home as a centre, may easily reach any part of the city in which they may be doing practical work.

THE COURSE.

The full course covers two sessions of eight months each, beginning with October. The first six months of each session are devoted mainly to classes and study, the remaining two months chiefly to various forms of practical work. It is necessary to take the full course to obtain the diploma, but in special cases a shorter term is permitted at the option of the Board of Management.

Classes begin in the month of October, concurrently with the opening of Knox College, and continue to the end of March.

DEACONESSSES AT WORK.

The following deaconesses are at present at work in the places mentioned:

1. Lissa Glendinning, designated 1909, St. Andrew's Church, Moose Jaw, Sask.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PROTECTION OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

1. During the past year, there has been no occasion for a meeting of Committee, and the convener received only three applications for advice: one, from the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, as to the properties of two congregations proposing to unite; another, from a congregation, as to the powers and duties of trustees in connection with the sale of congregational property, and some other matters; and the third, from a congregation, enquiring whether, in the event of the congregation approving of the proposed basis of union, and entering the church intended to be formed thereunder, the trusts contained in the deed under which its property is held are such, that the heirs of original donor can, in that case, assert a claim to, and take possession of, that property, if they so desire.

2. At the last Assembly a reference to the Committee was made as follows: "It was ordered, that a request from a respected Elder of the Church, who is also a Commissioner, to the effect that the Church Property Committee be asked to make enquiry as to the system of Mutual Fire Insurance adopted by the United Free Church of Scotland, and also as to the working of Mutual Fire Insurance in Canada, and, if so advised, to draw up a plan for the Mutual Fire Insurance of our church properties, and report to next Assembly, be referred to the Committee on Church Property."

3. The convener at once wrote to officials of the United Free Church, asking for information, and received replies with a number of printed documents. The members of the Committee being widely scattered over the Dominion, no meeting could be called with any hope of a general attendance, so the convener wrote to all the legal and business men on the Committee, giving the information received from Scotland, and asking their opinions on the whole subject referred.

4. From the documents received it appears that the United Free Church has never adopted any system of Mutual Fire Insurance. In 1888 some members of the then Free Church obtained Letters of Incorporation as a Fire Insurance Company, under the name of "The Free Church of Scotland Fire Insurance Trust, Limited," and after the union of 1900, this was, with the leave of the Board of Trade, and by an order of the Court of Session, changed to the "United Free Church Fire Insurance Trust, Limited." The Memo of Association under which the Trust was registered, and regulations adopted by the shareholders under its provisions, set out the object for which it was formed to be—To insure against fire, churches, halls, colleges, schools, houses and manses, belonging to the Free Church, with furniture, libraries, etc., of ministers, professors and officials of that Church. Provision is also made as to capital, shares, meetings, voting, directors and their powers, with other details incident to an ordinary Insurance Company. It has a capital of £20,000, in shares of £10 each, partly paid up.

5. No doubt, as stated in the Memo of Association, as altered in 1907, the Trust was originally established for the advantage "of the body of Christians known as the Free Church of Scotland," and "is now carried on for the advantage of the United Free Church." The advantage to the Church appears from the altered Memo. of Association, as follows: The dividend to shareholders is never to exceed 5 per cent. per annum; the annual profits over and above the dividend shall be accumulated to form a Reserve fund; when that amounts to £20,000, and there are funds otherwise to pay the shareholders their capital with a bonus of 10 per cent., a meeting shall be called, and the shareholders shall decide, either that the bonus shall be paid in cash and the business of the Trust continued, or that it shall be wound up. If decided to continue, the annual profits, subject to payment of the dividend, shall still be accumulated as a Reserve, and so long as that amounts to £30,000, or such larger sum as the directors may determine, then, after providing for debts and liabilities other than insurance risks, the annual profits shall be applied for behoof of certain Church schemes in certain specified proportions. If decided to wind up, the capital is to be repaid the shareholders with the bonus of 10 per cent., and the Reserve paid over to a new Trust incorporated to carry on the same business, or if such a new Trust cannot be formed, paid over to the Trustees of the Church, and when all insurance risks have expired, divided among the same schemes in the same specified proportions. In that way the Church is to benefit, but while the Trust is carried on, the business is managed entirely by the directors, apart from, and independent of, the Church or any Church court. And the Trust has not a single feature of what is known as Mutual Fire Insurance business.

6. Of the legal and business men, 28 in number, members of the Committee from whom opinions were asked, 24 sent answers. One, is of opinion that a great majority of congregations will take advantage of a Church scheme of insurance, but their doing so must be optional, and if there will be a substantial saving by such a scheme, does not hesitate to approve of the step being taken. Another, thinks a return might be got from every congregation of the value of its property, the insurance carried and premium paid, and of losses during the past five years, then by the aid of fire insurance experts a conclusion as to any saving might be arrived at. He adds, however, "I am puzzled to know is it worth the trouble." A third asks, "How would it do to have a Federal Act that all congregational property should be valued periodically, and in case of a fire loss, all congregations should contribute in proportion to the value of their own properties." As to the Church carrying on as one of its schemes, a system of fire insurance, he says: "The Church could not manage such an undertaking." The remaining 21 members all declare that a Mutual system is utterly impracticable, and are also unanimous in expressing the opinion, in more or less emphatic terms, that for the Church to enter upon or engage in any business of fire insurance is most undesirable; the doing so should never be entertained.

7. It is doubtful, if any Church scheme of insurance were entered into, that it would generally be taken advantage of. The doing so could never be made compulsory. As some members have put it, congregations would not surrender their independence of action, and their freedom of choice in connection with this branch of administration; local conditions and special circumstances—sometimes even personal influence—would all have to be considered. Where a church property is subject to a debt, the insurance must be in a company approved of by the creditor. The general acceptance of such a scheme does not seem to have been the experience in Scotland; for at the last annual meeting of the United Free Church Trust, regret was expressed that so much church property, colleges, offices, churches, and manses has not been insured with the Trust.

8. The Committee made no enquiry as to the working of Mutual Fire Insurance in Canada; indeed, making such enquiry was impossible. It had no means of obtaining the names of persons in all parts of the Dominion capable of expressing opinions, and whose judgment could be relied on, as to whether that system works well, or ill. Even if it had the names of such persons, what means had it of obtaining their testimony? Seven Provinces have statutory enactments as to Mutual Fire Insurance, differing materially from one another. According to the nature of these, it may be a success in one Province and a failure in another.

9. If any individuals connected with the Church desire to obtain an Act of Incorporation, as a Fire Insurance Company or Trust, to carry on business, on the same, or on similar, lines as the United Free Church Fire Insurance Trust, they have full liberty to do so. No legislation by, or permission from, the Assembly is required. But while in a small country like Scotland, such a Trust may be successful, carried on with one central office, no agents, paying no commissions, and so insuring stone and brick churches and buildings at moderate rates, the very different circumstances of the Church here must be taken into account.

Extending as it does over such a wide area, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with a large number of the buildings to be insured, small wooden structures, the business could not be carried on without numerous local agents and valuers to inspect and report on properties proposed for insurance, fix rates and adjust losses. The services of competent and reliable men to fill these positions could not be secured without considerable outlay.

10. Under the circumstances before set out, the Committee has not drawn up any plan for a system of insurance, even such as obtains in Scotland. Besides, such a scheme is not aimed at by the Assembly's reference. That deals solely with Mutual Insurance, and a plan for the Mutual Fire Insurance of church properties; something wholly impracticable.

11. The Committee recommends that the Church should not entertain any proposal for a system of Mutual Fire Insurance, and should not as a Church, and as a department of its work, enter upon any business of Fire Insurance.

All which is respectfully submitted.

THOMAS W. TAYLOR,
Convener.

THE BOARD OF SOCIAL SERVICE AND EVANGELISM, ANNUAL REPORT, 1912

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Fathers and brethren,—Our fifty year has ended. We render our account with humility and gratitude. When we consider what needs to be done progress seems very slow. When we look at what has been accomplished we exclaim, "The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad."

This being the year of the launching of the Single Budget, when the Committee on Systematic Beneficence had the right of way, your Board, acting on the suggestion of last Assembly, sent down no questions to Sessions. This report is based, therefore, exclusively on records, correspondence, personal observation and general sources.

1. EVANGELISM.

While there have been fewer Simultaneous Campaigns during the past year the requests for assistance in individual congregations have largely exceeded previous years.

From the far East to the far West appeals have come for help, and as far as possible the Board has responded to these Macedonian cries. Not many letters are like the following, but these two extracts reveal the conditions under which some of our brethren are working:

(1) "This is an augmented charge, and is in a very low spiritual condition, and all the efforts of the ministers in this township for the last twenty-five years have accomplished little in bettering the spiritual condition. Much has been accomplished in raising the moral tone of the community during this time, with the result that many are 'not far from the Kingdom,' yet will not enter into it."

(2) "More than half the people of this community rarely see the inside of a church, and no minister has been able to get them to go to church more than once or twice a year, and some do not go at all. I do not know where you can duplicate the conditions in Old Ontario. These are not a drunken, carousing lot of people, but a most indifferent lot of people from a religious point of view. Unless we have help from outside it will only be a question of months or a few years at the most before the churches will close their doors. Only very strong evangelistic work will, I believe, ever reach them. I simply write these facts to you trusting that you as a Committee may help us."

ST. JOHN, N.B., PRESBYTERY CAMPAIGN.

At the request of the Presbytery's Committee on Evangelism, and in co-operation with the Home Mission Committee, the Board directed a series of campaigns covering the mission fields and augmented charges in St. John Presbytery. The opening services commenced on May 31st, 1911, and the last mission closed on August 4th, 1911. The missionaries were ministers from the surrounding territory with one or two exceptions, and they were assisted by directors of song who have done previous work under the Assembly's Board. Those assisting were Revs. A. H. Campbell, D. J. Craig, J. W. M. Crawford, L. B. Gison, S. J. MacArthur, J. G. Potter, M. H. Manuel, A. D. Stirling, G. Yule, and F. A. Robinson. The directors of song were Messrs. W. J. McBretney, G. E. Knight, T. H. Nichol and W. W. Weaver. Some of these brethren took two or three missions of two weeks each.

The reports that have come in abundantly justify the effort put forth. Looking over the entire territory covered, a leader in our Church's work in the Maritime Provinces says, "The mission has been sanely conducted, and the foundation is being laid for good solid work and organization. I am greatly pleased with the missions and the manner in which they have been conducted."

The pastors have been greatly encouraged and have sent letters of personal appreciation of what the Church is doing for the weaker fields. One who wrote of the terrible indifference in his field says that "the people who had been untouched and who had not been in church for thirty years were reached by the methods and messages." Of the few who rallied around him he says, "they have been helped to believe the more fully in the Bible as the Word of God. They have seen the need of training their children at home and some who spent the Sabbath day in pleasure, are now with their children attending the services regularly. My Bible Class has doubled its attendance and there is a real hunger for the Word of God."

Another speaks of the anxiety on the part of friend for friend, and tells of the new concern to do individual work.

One who characterized the attitude of the people towards the Church as that of "complete indifference," writes, a month after the services have ended, as follows: "Words cannot express our gratitude to your Committee and the Church. The good common sense of the missionaries made possible a work, which we previously deemed impossible. Simplicity, sanity and power were combined in our missionaries. Many have been led to Christ. We are all surprised at the wonderful change in the attitude of the community towards spiritual things."

From all districts the testimony has been that the word of the Lord has been sounded forth with enthusiasm. There has been in the preaching the arrestive note; upon the indifference mentioned the Gospel has been breaking, as Professor Addey puts it, "like a peal of bells," and the many instances of individual transformations show that it has been as music in many ears. Life has become radiant for some—radiant with joy in spite of the taunts of relatives of which one or two speak.

The effect on the Christian people has been very marked. Drummond used to say that "we need not so much more Christians as a better brand of Christians." Many of the workers felt that the great need was to improve the quality of the Church, and the reports show that convictions have been strengthened, sympathies have been freshened and creeds are being worked into deeds and the character of the Church has become nobler and purer because of the work done. And in churches, as in men, character is force and must conquer in the end.

Such words as the following are indicative of the tone of many letters from pastors, who were assisted in some Special Services: "We thank you with all our heart for sending us these men." "Words cannot express our gratitude to your Board and the Church. Much good has been accomplished."

As is always the case missionaries are personally grateful for the blessings that came to them in the work and many have returned to their congregation wearied in body, but greatly refreshed in spirit.

FRASER VALLEY CAMPAIGN.

The recently operated British Columbia Electric Railway running from Westminster to Chilliwack has meant much to the commercial expansion of the Valley. With the exception of Mission City, Agassiz and Haney (main line of C.P.R.) all the congregations in which missions were conducted are on the line, or within driving distance of the electric railway. The campaign lasted from October 29th to December 17th, and was conducted in co-operation with the Westminster Presbytery. The following pastors and professors assisted as missionaries:—Revs. R. J. Douglas, G. C. Pidgeon, D.D.; J. S. Henderson, E. H. Lockhart, John McKay, D.D.; M. G. Melvin, and P. Wright. Messrs. A. O'Donnell and A. R. Gibson, of Westminster Hall, also did most excellent work as missionaries. The directors of song were Messrs. G. E. Knight, J. R. D. McAusland and J. M. Logan. Rev. F. A. Robinson assisted members of the Presbytery's Committee in the direction of the campaign.

Many grateful expressions have reached the Board unsought. A few extracts from letters are given, which will reveal the character of the work accomplished.

From pastors:—

"Nothing in my ministerial experience has been of so much blessing as this campaign."

"I am thankful to our Father in Heaven for the blessing He has poured out on us."

"The situation was saved by the assistance of the Board of Social Service and Evangelism and its representative."

"Our Sunday School is soaring, and the interest is growing. We will soon have to seek new quarters. That was a coward's part you played—made our church too small to hold the people, and then ran away—you ought to be held responsible for a new church. Seriously though—and it is serious—the people cannot understand what has happened and think the old place quite insufficient. We ought to have a building suitable for the church's work in a growing village—with Sunday School rooms—rooms for men's club, etc. We need it for we are hampered in the work that presses us."

"I had no idea what this Board was doing before. I tell you it is a mighty work. The last three weeks have taught me personally the value to the Church at large of the Board of Social Service and Evangelism."

From laymen:—

"At a gathering of friends last night we had a delightful time. The talk was all about the services and the people are at white heat with enthusiasm. They all said that an even greater work had been done at M—— than appeared, and I am certain they are correct."

"Nothing like it in the history of the place for helpfulness. If we are not better citizens the condemnation is on us: we have had wonderful opportunities."

From the wife of a pastor:—

"The added interest and sympathy in the work in this community is most encouraging, and it is fine to have the young men come in of their own accord and speak of these things."

From one whose past life had been marred by vice:—

"I must say it has been a very hard thing for me to follow the life I trusted myself to, for all the temptations and evil habits stare me in the face everywhere I look, but I have had some very happy moments since your departure and I and others have thanked the Saviour for all the goodness shown to me. I have joined the Church and will do all in my power to help the pastor of the Church."

From a missionary:—

"On Sunday night over twenty-five men stated in their own words the new vision they had received, and told the largest audiences ever seen in the church what were their purposes. All classes were represented from the wealthy rancher to the notoriously drunken tradesman."

"Two pastors told their congregations that but for the special services they felt they could scarcely have continued the heavy work any longer, but the added interest and offered service on the part of the people had given them new hope and enthusiasm and they were glad to continue their regular work."

The Presbytery's Convener writes:—

"The most manifest result is the quickening of interest in the churches, and the new life given to pastors. Man after man has spoken to me of the wonderful inspiration it has been, and the new strength they have received. Rev. ——— writes that he has had the best weeks of his life since the meetings closed, and that the toil of the past years is worth while in view of the results of this movement, and he has less reason to be thankful than many others."

Next, there are many conversions, and many backsliders restored. In L——, where they had a Young People's Society of twenty-five with only one church member, over twenty young people have united with the Church. In other places the same rich return, and it is no half-hearted stand. They have come out unreservedly for Christ.

Not the least has been the benefit to missionaries. One of our recent graduates took M—— and is all afire. So are the students. The benefit to me personally is incalculable. I think I ought to take one such mission every year, if the Committee will have me.

The whole colour of the work in the Fraser Valley has been changed. You cannot realize the difference in the outlook and tone of the churches. And I do not think things can ever again be as they were."

The Westminster Hall Magazine for December, 1911, has an article on "The Fraser Valley Campaign." After speaking of the work in general the writer says of one mission:—"The encouraging features of the meetings were the way in which the people attended the services and the number who decided to take Christ as their personal Saviour. Many young people with a quiet determination, surrendered themselves to Christ. On the afternoon of the closing day of the meetings these young people met together with the missionaries in a social way to talk over the great step they had taken and to plan how best to invest their lives for His glory."

The missionaries are back at their work. From these meetings in a more certain way than ever, they have rediscovered the old fact that the simple Gospel story has still its ancient charm and power for our mothers and fathers. The quiet message of the young evangelists was blessed by the Spirit of God, and the watchword of the meetings was amply fulfilled: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

OTTAWA PRESBYTERY PROGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN.

The report of Rev. J. A. McDonald, of Ramsayville, Convener of the Committee on Evangelism for Ottawa Presbytery, shows that special services have been conducted in Prescott and Russell counties, completing the progressive campaign planned for these districts. East Carlton, with the exception of two congregations has also been covered. A number of missions were conducted in Wright and Labelle. In all, nineteen congregations requested and were given special services, eight being in Quebec province. Professor Bieler, of Montreal, was missionary in St. Mark's, Ottawa, and in two French missions.

Reports from individual fields tell of the helpful fellowship engendered among different denominations, of the deepening of spiritual life, of the winning of lives to Christ and of the leading of many into personal service.

The campaign is continuing as rapidly as fields are ready and missionaries available.

INDIVIDUAL MISSIONS.

These include special services, not only in many of the weaker congregations, but also in self-sustaining charges where the Board's experience is desired in planning and directing the mission.

Daily requests for assistance reach the office and that the response to these requests has been of blessing may be seen from extracts from hundreds of letters on file. A few are quoted:—

From Guelph Presbytery:—

"I can never be thankful enough for the arrangements you made and the men you sent. The work desired was more than completed. This town will never be the same again."

From Sarnia Presbytery:—

(1) "We are so glad you secured Rev. R——. He did splendid work."

(2) "There is a splendid spirit as a result of the mission, and God is going to abundantly bless the future. If your missions everywhere are as successful you certainly are doing a noble work."

From Superior Presbytery:—

"This has been a great encouragement to me and has done much to deepen the spiritual life of the people."

From Lanark and Renfrew Presbytery:—

"I regard these meetings as the best thing C—— has ever known. It has given the people a new idea of religion and most of us are better to-day because of the services."

The mission conducted by Rev. W. T. Herridge, D.D., of Ottawa, in St. Stephen's Church, Winnipeg, was one of the most fruitful of all the missions conducted during the year. The mission lasted for fourteen days and in addition to the regular nightly services afternoon meetings for prayer and conference, meetings for children, prayer meetings in homes and at the church, and meetings for men only, were held. The interest deepened and attendance increased from day to day.

With the co-operation of an earnest company of personal workers a great many individuals were reached and responded to the claims of Christ upon their lives. Indirectly the results of the mission extended far beyond St. Stephen's congregation, and other city pastors speak of the blessing that came to their own work as a result of the special services mentioned.

About the same time a mission was conducted by Rev. Alex. Esler, of Calgary, in the Robertson Memorial Church. The section of the city in which this Church is situated is largely occupied by foreigners. The attendance at the nightly services was encouraging, and during the closing days of the mission much blessing was experienced. A large number signified their desire to become followers of Jesus Christ and it is believed that the work has received a great uplift. In both of these city missions the Board's representative, Rev. F. A. Robinson, assisted.

SYNODICAL EVANGELIST FOR ALBERTA.

In response to the request of the Alberta Synod the Board of Social Service and Evangelism appointed Rev. D. J. Craig to the position of Synodical Evangelist for the province named, for a period of one year, from November 1st, 1911.

At the meeting of the Synod's Committee, held at Calgary, in October, a motion expressing satisfaction at the action of the Assembly's Board in appointing Mr. Craig was heartily agreed to.

It was decided to appoint a sub-committee, consisting of Rev. C. A. Myers, Rev. W. D. Reid, Mr. A. Fullerton; and the Convener of the Committee for the Edmonton Presbytery, to have general charge of Mr. Craig's movements, and to receive requests from Presbyteries desiring evangelistic missions.

Mr. Craig has frequently been engaged by the Assembly's Board previous to the Alberta appointment, and everywhere he has been greatly used by God in leading people to Christ and in deepening the sense of responsibility in professing Christians. Testimonies regarding his work have reached the Board from many fields. The two following extracts from letters indicate the way in which he has been received:—

"Mr. Craig was certainly chosen of God as well as of the Committee to be the missionary for this field. He was just the man we needed, and in his hands the cause prospered wonderfully. He has a great faculty for making the truth plain to the understanding. Many evangelists are deficient in that, and their main strength is in persuasion. But Mr. Craig enlightens the mind in such a way that the hearer feels the reasonableness of the gospel, and sees very clearly what to do to get the blessing."

"We are now right in the midst of our work here. Just beginning the second week and let me say that I am very much pleased indeed with the workmen you have sent out and are recommending; you are making no mistake in doing so, I can assure you. Mr. Craig is all that you represent him to be: sane, sound, practical, suggestive. He is indeed a "Teacher of the Word." There is nothing cheap or sensational in his methods and no straining after easy results. He is the right man in the right place."

Associated in the work with Mr. Craig has been a singer of unusual ability in the person of Mr. W. J. McBretney. Mr. McBretney has served the Board in a great many missions during the past three years, and from many sources letters of appreciation have been received. The Convener of the Committee on Social Service and Evangelism for Edmonton Presbytery writes:—

"Mr. McBretney's solo work is of course delightful, but his work with the choir and congregation has been no less successful, and he and Mr. Craig make a fine team."

INDIRECT RESULTS OF MISSIONS.

Recently the Bible Class Magazine had an article, describing a men's class, which was "proving a success in the community and had attracted a record attendance." This class was said to be filling a decided want in the thriving community, "where it is not always easy to attract or hold men and its influence for good cannot well be estimated." This class grew out of a mission directed by the Assembly's Board over a year ago and the pastor states that the man, who is now the successful leader of the class was led into active service through the sense of responsibility that came to him at the time of the special meetings.

Of a mission in a Western city one writes that "the results of the mission extended far beyond this congregation." At a gathering of ministers the pastor of a neighbouring Church told of an incident that occurred at the time of the mission and said it caused him to make his message much more personal, and as a result of the appeal that Sabbath evening much blessing had come. He expressed his personal thankfulness that these services were tending "to bring us all back to the centre of things."

Where a congregation has been aroused to a sense of its indebtedness to the community such testimonies as the following from a business man are not infrequent: "Never before have I seen my fellowmen in the same light; it has not been easy for me to do personal work, but I have been led to see that men need the Saviour and I want to help them to receive Him." This man was moved away from the town where the above words were penned and in his new church home seven hundred miles distant his influence was such as to create a desire for such services as had brought blessing to him and to the congregation to which he had formerly belonged. An application was made for such help as the Board could give. A minister, accompanied by a soloist, gave two weeks and the report tells of much blessing. This is only one illustration of how the work is self-extensive.

GOSPEL SONG.

The power of gospel song has been demonstrated through the experiences of the past three years. Many of the Church's leading soloists have rendered the simplest gospel songs in such a way as to bring to decision many who were "halting between two opinions." In one Western city a cheque for fifty dollars was handed in as a slight appreciation of the blessing that had come through "a sermon in a song." As a result of the impetus given to congregational singing by the mission many churches have found a song service preceding or following the Sabbath evening service to be an attraction and a blessing.

The book the Board still uses and authorizes is "Alexander's Hymns, No. 2, British Edition." Three editions have already been issued. The latest one has in a supplement some of the 1911 compositions and a number of other new hymns that the Committee in charge deemed it advisable to add. The sale of this book, as well as all other hymns and hymn books bearing Mr. Alexander's name, is controlled exclusively by the Board and the Westminster Company. The prices are such as to barely cover cost.

NEW MALE QUARTETTE BOOK. This book contains all the choicest gospel songs of Harkness, Stebbins, McGranahan and other great composers harmonized for male voices. The advance sheets are conclusive evidence that it will be superior to any book of the kind yet issued. It will be ready for distribution in June.

"NEW TESTAMENT EVANGELISM."

Professor Kilpatrick's book on the above subject has been a most helpful and illuminating contribution to the work of evangelism. The publishers report the book a shaving a wide and encouragingly large circulation.

Through the generosity of two or three laymen of the Church the Board was privileged to send a copy of this book to all missionaries and ministers in augmented charges. From the many letters of thanks received, it is evident that the expression of goodwill the gift conveyed and the vital message of the book itself have been of cheer and uplift to our brethren in Home Mission work East and West. One missionary embodies the thought of many regarding the book when he writes:—

"I think no book could be more helpful to men on the frontier, where the social, and material problems tend to steal too much of our attention and leave too little time and thought for the true work of the Church. Dr. Kilpatrick's words restore the equilibrium and show the true nature and place of evangelism."

Several speak of its effect on the preaching and that warmth and life "have come through the reading of it." The letter of a Saskatchewan worker closes with, "the only thing that will help this Western country with all its rushing life, its great ambition, and its deep heart sorrow and thoughtless gaiety, is the gospel."

"To me," writes another, "it is as refreshing as spring water to a thirsty person. I cannot tell you how it has inspired me and helped me in my pulpit and pastoral work."

Not a few letters reveal the loneliness and poverty that fall to the lot of many of our brethren. Extracts from six letters representing missionaries occupying fields that would need a journey of five thousand miles to visit, show how much appreciated this kind of ministry is. Far beyond the intrinsic value of any book is the consciousness of the tie that unites in Christian love and service, and though the gift in the individual case is small the interest and love represented by it is invaluable to the isolated Ambassador of the Cross.]

1. "Only yesterday I was wondering how I could spare $1.25 to send for the book. . . . I have felt the need of such a work as this frequently since coming to the frontier. One's courage often fails as the conflicts with the evils which confront us here continues, but a message like this is sure to set one on the right track again, and strengthen one's hope and his message."

2. "It is very cheering for a poor fellow engaged in mission work on the cold prairie, to receive such kind greetings and be remembered in such a way."

3. "I appreciated very much the kind gift—one that cheers and gladdens the spirit of a man out on the frontier line—and I ask you to express my sincere gratitude to the kindly donors. The volume will prove helpful and serviceable in encouraging and directing and aiding me in my work."

4. "I know not how men of means could have applied their gifts more fittingly than by giving this volume a wide circulation. Their generosity will not be spent in vain."

5. "May the clans of princely laymen increase, and their members multiply. Many a lonely picket on the frontier of our great North West will bless God for their thoughtful sympathy and generous help."

6. "The arrival of a new book is quite an event, especially when it has a living message. One needs some encouragement once in a while in a place where no visitors come—and when a kindly word or message comes there is fresh courage for the great fight."

PASTORS AND CHURCHES have from time to time forwarded their expressions of appreciation at what the Board is doing for Church life and work. From a Northern Ontario field a pastor writes:—

"The great thought in my mind is simply one of great appreciation to feel that the Presbyterian Church is so intensely interested in all its individual congregations. I trust that the work of Evangelism will be enlarged as the years pass."

A New Brunswick pastor says:—

"I shall never let my interest in your Committee wane after this, and I do not think any other Committee has a warmer place in my heart. If ever I can serve in any way I shall consider myself bound to do so by what this mission has accomplished."

From a congregation in Eastern New Brunswick the following resolution was "enthusiastically supported by all present."

"As members of this congregation, and as Christian men and women of this community we hereby express our appreciation of the interest shown in us by the General Assembly's Board of Social Service and Evangelism, and we desire publicly to testify our loyalty to the Lord Jesus Christ the King and head of the Church, and will by God's help do all in our power to further the interests of Christ's Church and Kingdom amongst our fellow men."

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE.

Space forbids the recording of the many expressions of gratitude that have reached the Board from individuals whose lives have been redeemed from the power of evil.

A man notorious for evil living in a Western town writes as follows:—"I thank you from my heart for your kindness, your thoughtfulness to me and for the blessing your services have brought. God is giving me the victory over the sin that blasted my life and with His help I will be true to Him and to His cross."

"You will be glad to know that we are planning to re-establish our home; it is a miracle to me how I have lived through all I have gone through, for I have abused myself body and soul. Regular attendance at church is helping me so much, I always find some sentences either from the Scriptures or in the prayers that seem to be for me alone so exactly do they fit my case. Only yesterday our minister said, 'Do not let any shadow of the past overhang the future.' Those words gave me just the courage I needed. I am seeking to win others to the Saviour, Who has changed my life." After giving instances of those whom he is trying to reach he says, "When you pray for me you will please remember them also, for I know the need of prayer."

RUTHENIAN CAMPAIGN AND AFTER-ASSEMBLY MISSIONS.

At the time of going to press the Board is planning to assist in a campaign among selected Ruthenian congregations, at the request of the congregations concerned, and the Home Mission Committee. A number of the mission fields are also to be manned at the close of the Assembly for a period of two weeks by commissioners, who are volunteering their services. Already for the coming fall scores of applications for assistance have been received. A number of Churches are also looking to the Board from time to time to arrange pre-communion services for them, these annually lasting from the Monday to Friday preceding communion.

POCKET TESTAMENT LEAGUE.

In connection with a number of missions the promotion of the Pocket Testament League has been a feature and the Board has distributed upwards of one thousand copies of God's Word in this way.

WORLD-WIDE PRESBYTERIAN EVANGELISTIC MOVEMENT.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has appointed a Committee on Co-operation in Evangelistic Work with other Presbyterian and Reform Church. It is the earnest desire of that Assembly, through its Committee to unite with the other Churches of like faith and order in arranging for a World-wide Presbyterian Evangelistic Movement. It is felt that the need for a spiritual awakening among the peoples in all Christian lands is great, and that the Churches themselves would be strengthened by a revival among their ministers and members of the evangelistic spirit.

The Committee mentioned has authorized Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., to respectfully ask that steps be taken to have a similar Committee appointed by the supreme judiciaries of the Churches in other countries with a view to correspondence bearing upon the situation in different lands and upon the methods of operation in furtherance of the movement. The proposal made is purely of a suggestive character. The proposal involves the following matters to be duly considered:

(1) That the Chairman and Secretaries of the several Committees appointed by the Supreme Judiciaries of the Churches, should be regarded as members of a World Committee, looking toward a World-wide Presbyterian Movement.

(2) That the Committee consider the advisability of assigning a year such as 1914 or 1915, or both, for evangelistic work by each Church, according to its own needs, as determined by its own Committee, and approved by its own judiciary.

(3) It is suggested that the World Movement should have as features: the stimulating of the missionary spirit at home and abroad; special effort along the line of individual evangelism; the urging the heads of Christian households to realize their responsibilities; effort to increase the attendance upon Sunday Schools and Churches; special attention to work among men, and earnest effort for the increased spiritual support of the ministry by the laity.

RETREATS.

The objects of these ministerial retreats and general outline of the programme are given on pages 250 and 251 of the Assembly Report for 1911.

During the summer of 1911 Retreats were held at Moose Jaw, Lethbridge, Edmonton, Stettler, Souris and Yorkton. Each conference was under the leadership of two specially chosen men, who held the confidence of the Church at large. The following ministers rendered conspicuous service to their ministerial brethren who came together at the places mentioned for spiritual and social fellowship:—Revs. Principal MacKinnon, Professor J. W. Falconer, Dr. Ramsay, J. M. MacInnis and Dr. McTavish.

The confidential character of the discussions makes it impossible to reveal all that was accomplished by the Retreats, but some of the men attending spoke of how disheartened and discouraged they were and that the time had appeared to come when they must give up the work. A new vision came and they went back to their work "to launch out into the deep" with fresh hopefulness. An honoured minister, who presided at one Retreat wrote, "Poor fellows it made our hearts ache and we simply got down alongside of them and talked to them in the frankest and plainest way possible." The minister penning these words says that if his ministry were to cease at once it would have been infinitely worth while if only for what he had seen and felt during a certain Retreat. All the visitors returned from these gatherings with a new regard for the toilers in the great West.

From the ministers and missionaries have come grateful words at the Board's efforts to provide them with such stimulating opportunities. In point of interest spiritual uplift and fraternal helpfulness the Retreats have from the view point of the men on the fields been an entire success. Many speak of the dearth of ministerial fellowship and of how the frank, sincere conferences were a benediction.

Through the financial co-operation of the Home Mission Committee in paying travelling expenses of certain missionaries some were present who could not otherwise have been in attendance. One who attended had not seen the face of a minister or missionary for fourteen months. "We went back," writes one, "to take up the duties of the lonely prairie missionary with renewed strength and determination to win men for Christ."

The following paragraph is the conclusion of the report an Eastern minister makes after speaking at three of these Retreats:—

"I have come back to the East with a burden on my heart along two lines. First we must develop a Christianity in our Eastern churches that can stand the test of transplantation. Second, we must appeal to our young men to give themselves for the work of the Church. The interests of our country as well as the interests of the Church, demand our own and our best men for that great work. I am fully convinced that if Canada is to be saved for Christ it must be largely saved through Canadians."

Plans for a number of Retreats for the present summer (1912) are now well under way and it is believed that these will be as largely attended as is desired now that the experiment has resulted in such large blessing to those the Board and the Committee desired most to help.

SUMMER SCHOOLS.

A Committee representing various departments of the Church's life arranged for a school at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching during August. The attendance was larger than was anticipated and a most enjoyable and profitable conference was held. For the 1912 gathering speakers and class leaders have already been secured. The dates are August 20th to 29th.

At Shoal Lake, Manitoba, a School has been conducted for several years and in common with other Boards and Committees the Board of Social Service and Evangelism rendered assistance in making this a success.

RECRUITS FOR THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY.

In all missions prayerful efforts are made to locate and encourage recruits for the ministry. A number of High School and other students have been enrolled and the Board hopes to communicate with these from time to time by means of letters from men able to send messages that will help to keep these young men true to the purposes formed.

Ministers and Sessions able to form "The Order of Recruits for the Christian Ministry" may obtain information by applying to the Board or to Rev. Geo. E. Ross, B.D., of Goderich, Ont. The splendid work done by Mr. Ross in initiating this Order in Charlottetown, and in enlisting there and in Goderich a large number of recruits, as well as in stimulating others to attempt similar work has placed the Church under a lasting debt of gratitude to him. A movement so vital to the future of the Church in our swiftly expanding country demands the most serious thought and attention of all who have the extension of Christ's Kingdom at heart.

2. SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Last year questions regarding Sabbath observance were sent down to Sessions and the reports that were received, while encouraging in many respects, indicated that there was a growing tendency towards a lax observance of the Sabbath day as a day of worship. There is no reason to believe that conditions have been better this past year.

In many communities the attendance at divine service in the various churches does not adequately represent the population, while the number bent on mere pleasure-seeking appears to increase.

In view of the many insidious attacks being made on the sanctity of the day, and also in view of the serious consequences to the Church and the nation, which would arise from its desecration, it is most important that Christian people everywhere duly observe the day according to Divine appointment, and by their example and influence lead others to a high ideal of its holy purposes.

It is also important that ministers of the gospel from time to time strengthen the convictions and quicken the conscience of the people regarding this important matter.

It is a source of great gratification that the efforts put forth by the officials of the Lord's Day Alliance have met with such encouraging success.

In British Columbia the Attorney-General has promised officials of the Alliance that in organized territory he will give his consent to prosecute for law violations on the complaint of the local authorities, and that in unorganized territory he will take up every question directly through his department when his attention is called to it.

In Quebec the question of the constitutionality of the Lord's Day Act is not yet decided, but it is expected that judgment will soon be handed down.

Through the efforts of the Alliance, application of the Mutual Transit Company for an extension of Sunday traffic facilities was refused.

In giving their consent to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to load and unload boats at Owen Sound and Port Arthur the Government expressly stipulated that the employees thus engaged on Sunday must be given a day of rest during the week.

Under the auspices of the Alliance, test cases were introduced before the higher courts to decide whether it is illegal under the Lord's Day Act for restaurant holders to sell eatables either to be consumed on the premises or taken away, and for druggists to sell cigars.

The judgment of Mr. Justice Middleton as summarized in the annual report of the Alliance is very interesting inasmuch as it affects the interpretation of the law throughout the whole Dominion. The judgment is as follows:—

- (1) Only bona fide restaurants and hotels can do a Sunday trade in refreshments.
- (2) These places must confine their Sunday trade to what is consumed upon the premises; they must not do a merchant's business on the Lord's Day.
- (3) The drug stores must confine their Sunday business to the sale of drugs, medicine, and surgical appliances necessary for the relief of suffering.

The Sunday entertainment problem has become quite serious in some of the larger centres. Usually only a collection is taken at these entertainments and as it is almost impossible to find out who profits financially it is difficult to secure a conviction under the law, which only makes illegal a performance where an admission fee is charged.

The Church should give all the assistance within her power to the Alliance in its effort to prevent the secularizing of the Sabbath through unnecessary concerts and entertainments, which often receive the support of unthinking good people, but which do much to render difficult the work of the Church.

The Sunday Observance Act of Quebec Province has been held to be ultra vires by the Supreme Court. The case may go to the Imperial Privy Council. The Premier of Quebec has said that he will enforce the Lord's Day Act of Canada should the Provincial Act be finally held to be invalid.

3. TEMPERANCE.

During the past year the temperance cause has been steadily gaining strength and making progress throughout our country. In a number of provinces the temperance forces have been handicapped through lack of adequate legislation to enable them to deal effectually with the liquor traffic, yet the work of education has been well maintained, and a public sentiment is being created which cannot much longer be ignored by law-makers.

WORLD WIDE TEMPERANCE REFORM.

Perhaps the most outstanding event in connection with the temperance movement during the past year was the Second Biennial Conference of the International Prohibition Conference, which met at the Hague last September. According to the reports presented at that Conference the principle of prohibition is becoming more and more widely accepted every day.

Iceland enacted constitutional prohibition against the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicants three years ago.

In Finland stringent prohibitory liquor laws were voted in 1908 by the national parliament, but unfortunately these failed to receive the imperial sanction of the Czar.

In Poland there is a strong sentiment against the government spirit shops and tens of thousands have pledged themselves to total abstinence. The movement against intoxicants has spread very widely until now there are many insistent demands for constitutional prohibition.

Sweden enforced prohibition during the strike of 1909, and the remarkable decrease in the rate of mortality in Stockholm and in drunkenness throughout the country in the dry period has led to many demands for permanent and total prohibition. Already four-fifths of the people are under prohibition effected by local veto.

In Norway 8,870 of the votes declared against the liquor traffic and nearly half the cities and towns are under prohibition.

From Denmark comes the report that a petition with 446,000 signatures was presented to the government asking that the people of individual districts be permitted to vote on the liquor question.

Holland is steadily reducing the number of licenses.

Belgium and Switzerland have prohibited absinthe and further restrictions are being put upon the liquor traffic.

In France there is a growing anti-alcoholic group in the Chamber of Deputies.

In Germany the Kaiser and some of the most influential men have ranged themselves against drink and have become open advocates of temperance reform.

Similar reports of more or less stringent prohibitory laws come from Hungary, Bulgaria, Spain and Roumania.

In Great Britain many liquor licenses have been suppressed. Sunday prohibition is effective in Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Scotland is getting a new local veto law and the hours of sale are to be still further shortened.

In New Zealand a referendum in the prohibition of the liquor traffic was submitted to the people. This measure received a majority of the votes polled, but failed on account of the 60 per cent. majority requirement.

The United States leads all other countries in prohibitory legislation. No fewer than 40,000,000 of her people live under local or state prohibition.

THE SITUATION IN CANADA.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND. Reports indicate that a more effective enforcement of the prohibitory law is being secured, and that drunkenness has greatly decreased in the island. Although the law is not perfect the friends of social reform are enthusiastic regarding the results attained.

NOVA SCOTIA. There is not much change in the situation from last year. A most persistent campaign for better law enforcement has been carried on throughout the province under the leadership of Rev. H. R. Grant, Secretary of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance. During the past session of the legislature amendments have been obtained which will make a more efficient administration of the law possible.

NEW BRUNSWICK. There is substantially no change during the year excepting that some additional territory has been brought under local veto.

QUEBEC. The temperance cause has made wonderful progress in Quebec. Only eleven or twelve years ago the province gave a majority against prohibition. Now, out of a total of 1,038 municipalities in the province 767 of them have no licenses there being a gain of 119 during the past year.

The licensed territory, however, include the centres of Montreal and Quebec. According to the Quebec Temperance Alliance report there were issued in Montreal alone 1,152 wholesale and retail licenses, giving that city more retail liquor licenses than Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Hamilton, London, Ottawa, Quebec, Calgary, Edmonton, Halifax and St. John, although these places have a combined population of more than a million people.

The early closing law reported last year has been declared to be a magnificent success and the temperance forces are now working toward still further restrictions of the traffic.

ONTARIO. In Ontario temperance sentiment is steadily growing stronger as evidenced by the fact that local veto and no license territory is being gradually extended, and also by the expressed readiness of both political parties to grant more advanced legislation.

During the past year local veto contests were held in eighty-four municipalities. Fifteen of these were repeal cases, and it is strong testimony to the satisfactory nature of local veto legislation that they all failed. The by-law carried in nineteen municipalities, while in twenty others it received a majority vote, but was defeated by the 60 per cent. requirement.

At present local veto legislation is in force in 311 municipalities. In 152 more no licenses are granted. There are now only 365 cities and towns, villages and townships in Ontario out of a total of 828 where licenses are granted.

During the past session the Liberal party declared its policy on the temperance question:—

- (1) The abolition of the bar.
- (2) Such further restrictions upon the residue of the traffic as will minimize its evil effects.
- (3) The administration of the law by sympathetic officials and its removal from party politics.
- (4) Government inspection of hotels, whether licensed to sell liquor or not, to ensure adequate accommodation for the travelling public.

As far as it goes this advanced policy is in harmony with the policy of the Presbyterian Church as adopted by previous Assemblies.

The Conservative party then put itself on record as in favour of the abolition of treating.

There is certain to be a great deal of discussion of the liquor traffic during the next few years, which will do much to educate the people as to its evils, and hasten the day of complete suppression.

Meantime the Liquor License Law has been amended as follows:—

- (1) Fixing the minimum of spirituous liquors that a wholesaler may sell at five gallons in bulk or one dozen quart bottles, or the equivalent thereto in flasks.
- (2) Increasing the penalties for keeping liquor for sale, making them equivalent to those for selling. The penalty is now $500.00 for either offence.
- (3) Prohibiting any brewer or other person storing liquor for future delivery in any local veto or no-license municipality.
- (4) Prohibiting licensees from cashing pay cheques for workmen.
- (5) Providing for the inspection of hotels whether licensed to sell liquor or not.
- (6) Giving the government power by proclamation to prohibit the sale of liquor even where licenses exist in any territory or district, where any public work is in progress, public work being made to include mining and lumbering operations as well as general construction work.
- (7) Making any intoxicated person found on a street or other public place in veto territory compellable to give the name of the person from whom, and the place in which, he obtained liquor, on a penalty of three months in prison.

MANITOBA. In 1911 there was presented to the Manitoba Assembly a very largely signed petition supported by a deputation of about two thousand persons, asking that a referendum be submitted to the people on the abolition of the bar. No action was taken.

The Local Veto legislation of the province was found to be very unsatisfactory. In a great number of cases on the most trivial technical objections the liquor party have found it possible to secure injunctions from the court and prevent a vote being taken. Even in cases where the by-law was submitted and carried it was frequently quashed on the merest technicalities, and in a number of these cases, notably Carman, the government has granted licenses contrary to their solemn pledge not to do so.

All appeals for amendments to make the law workable having been refused the temperance forces again this year demand a referendum on the abolition of the bar. They succeeded in having the matter discussed in the House, but again their request was refused. What the future policy of the temperance forces will be remains to be decided. In the meantime about 40 municipalities in Manitoba are under local veto with splendid results.

SASKATCHEWAN. The temperance situation in Saskatchewan is far from satisfactory. Two years ago Local Veto legislation was passed. The temperance forces at once brought on contests in seventy-three municipalities, in thirty-seven of which the by-law carried. Technical objections were immediately advanced by the liquor party and the measure was quashed in the great majority of cases, in nearly all of which licenses were granted contrary to the expressed will of the people. It was then decided to appeal to the government to grant amendments to make its own law workable before further contests were attempted. This request the government has so far refused.

ALBERTA. Last year petitions were prepared asking for a local option vote in districts 2 and 3. After accepting the petitions and setting the day for the vote the government found it impossible to have the necessary advertising done as required by law. Accordingly the vote was postponed until the autumn of 1912, the government agreeing to allow a vote in the above districts on the petitions already signed.

Many amendments were asked for at the last session of Assembly by the Moral Reform League of Alberta in order that the law might be strengthened and effect given to the will of the people. These were not granted.

The government still demands a deposit of $100.00 to be made for every vote the temperance people bring on.

BRITISH COLUMBIA. The right of local veto is not yet granted to municipalities. Some important amendments, however, to the license law have been passed. The more important of these are:—

- (1) Making it possible to prevent the peddling of liquor by licensees or others.
- (2) Strengthening the law prohibiting the sale to minors, "giving, delivering, or furnishing for any purpose or upon any pretext whatever intoxicants to minors is prohibited." Thus children cannot act as messengers in the purchase of drink.
- (3) Interdicts may be arrested without warrant if intoxicated, and compelled to give information concerning how, where and from whom the liquor was procured.
- (4) As in the case of the recent amendment to the Ontario law, keeping for sale, as well as selling, is made punishable with severe penalties.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIQUOR LAWS.

Serious complaints have come from various provinces that the existing liquor licence and local veto laws were not being well enforced. A few of the causes given are:—

- (1) Inadequate provision for the enforcement of the law. Officials are made responsible for too wide a territory.
- (2) Municipal responsibility for enforcing provisional laws. This is one of the serious difficulties in Nova Scotia.
- (3) Lack of sympathy on the part of officials. It is clearly evident in some no-license districts in Ontario that there is no vigorous policy of law enforcement against illegal selling. The periodic "raids" would seem to be more for the spectacular effect or for the sake of fines imposed than for any real desire to have the law well observed.

It should be remembered that a law will be enforced by sympathetic officials only. To enact a local veto law and then elect a Mayor and Council not in sympathy with it is sure to bring disaster to the cause of temperance reform. Law enforcement is as much the duty of the citizen as law enactment.

- (4) Lack of strong public sentiment behind the legislature. Law can be effectually enforced only where it expresses the moral attitude of the people toward the traffic. Constant watchfulness, patience and perseverance are required on the part of every good citizen. But usually a knowledge of the determination of the public and the authorities that the law shall be observed is half the battle.

EDUCATION.

The importance of scientific temperance education cannot be over estimated. President Hadley, of Yale University, has said, "Let the common people know what science has said about alcohol and they will banish every saloon from the land. From the pulpit, in the Sabbath School, in the day school, through the press the people should be taught the evils of alcohol. No traffic can offer any justification for its existence when it is condemned alike by scientists, sociologists, labour organizations and the industrial and religious leaders of the country."

Scientific temperance is to be found on the curriculum of the public schools in nearly every province of the Dominion. While reports show splendid results in some localities, it is evident the subject is neglected or entirely overlooked in many others.

The quarterly lesson so often neglected or ineffectively taught in the Sunday School should be carefully prepared for and interestingly presented.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE.

Scientific investigation of the effect of alcohol upon the physical organism has shown the danger, not only of drunkenness, but also of moderate drinking.

Sir Frederic Treves has said that alcohol is a narcotic and should be classed as a drug with cocaine, morphine, opium and be placed under the same restrictions of sale.

It is clear from all this that total abstinence should be constantly taught and practiced, especially among the girls and boys in the Sabbath School.

Besides no great fight will ever be waged against the liquor traffic in any province where there is not a strong body of total abstainers.

GENERAL.

The Board has fought to give every aid within its power to the temperance cause throughout the land. Lists of ministers and laymen willing to assist in campaigns have been kept and from these speakers have been arranged for to assist in local veto contests.

Literature has been prepaid and given free to Presbyterian congregations in localities where campaigns were being conducted and to all others at the cost of production.

Many cases of law violation have been investigated and reported to the authorities for action.

The Secretaries have been visiting congregations, conducting conferences with Presbyteries and addressing general meetings in regard to this important social question.

In addition to all this they have given personal assistance in campaigns in Alberta, Ontario and New Brunswick.

5. RACE-TRACK GAMBLING.

Race-track gambling has received careful attention. It has been extending rather than lessening. Its baneful influence has reached many homes and blighted many lives.

Two events of recent occurrence are noteworthy:—

(1) The new government recognized the certainty of the extension of the vice of gambling and the virtual nullification of the law limiting race meets if various associations were allowed to hold meets on the same track each year, each one for fourteen days. Hence the Minister of Justice led Parliament in legislating to make this impossible and reserving to Parliament the exclusive right to issue racing charters. For this they deserve credit.

(2) But just before this legislation was enacted two blanket charters were granted associations authorizing them to institute tracks and carry on not only race meets, but general sporting events of almost every conceivable kind in every city in Canada. The powers granted are unparalleled and perilous to the best interests of the people. For this they have received deserved severe criticism.

The only safe and the one right thing to do is to make criminal on the race-track, what is now criminal everywhere else, namely, the business of promoting gambling and betting whether by book-maker, pool-seller or mechanical device. Anything short of this is wrong, is moral confusion and mischievous. Nothing less can ever satisfy the conscience of Canada.

5. PERSONAL AND SOCIAL PURITY.

As reported last year, your Board has found its influence greatly strengthened by the Church having entered in a sympathetic way upon redemptive and preventive work in the interests of the young of both sexes, and believes that much more can be accomplished for the suppression of vice and the promotion of personal and social purity by positive effort than by confining its attention to an effort to suppress the evil. Both are important. The one we ought ever to do, but not to leave the other undone.

It will make for simplicity and clearness in this portion of the report if the material is gathered under the following heads:—

(1) THE SUPPRESSION OF VICE.

Your Board has sought, in co-operation with others, to secure the suppression of vice:

(a) By promoting careful investigation of existing conditions in various parts of the Dominion.

(b) By producing and distributing literature showing the necessary connection between tolerated vice and the white slave traffic, the terrible extent of the physical and moral pestilence spreading from tolerated houses of vice, and appealing to the public conscience, and in particular the conscience of Christian people, to regard it as their duty to bring all legitimate pressure to bear upon officials responsible for the enforcement of the law.

(c) By ourselves interviewing authorities, municipal, provincial or Dominion, and pressing for prompt and effective action.

Our redemptive work has brought to us first-hand information of the actual conditions that could have been obtained from no other source, and by no other means. Thus the redemptive work has made it possible to secure action for the suppression of vice to a degree heretofore unprecedented.

The following is the condition of things through the Dominion so far as our information extends:—

THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

Prince Edward Island is free from tolerated criminal vice.

This is almost true of New Brunswick, also, the notorious road houses in the vicinity of St. John having recently been closed. To a very slight extent in centres like Fredericton and Moncton criminal vice occasionally makes its appearance, but it is not openly tolerated and therefore does not get the opportunity of becoming rooted in the community's life.

In Nova Scotia openly tolerated vice is limited almost wholly to the city of Halifax. In that city one of the largest and most firmly seated colonies of vice to be found anywhere in Canada exists, and has existed for generations. It is located in the heart of the city; the houses are numerous, some of them large and run as openly and brazenly as if the business were legitimate and not criminal. No serious attempt is made by the officials to enforce the law; only occasionally, and for the most part when some inmate gives information, is a raid made. The most serious aspect of the situation in that city, however, is the alarmingly widespread lack of moral indignation and concern about this disgraceful condition of things. At the present time, however, there is a "sound of going in the mulberry trees" and the probability is that in the immediate future the light will be turned on to one of the darkest spots in the moral condition of Canada.

QUEBEC.

In Quebec openly tolerated vice is confined to the ancient capital, Quebec city. In 1870 a by-law was passed by the municipal council of that day, the effect of which is to permit in certain quarters houses of shame. This by-law, not having been annulled by provincial action within three months of its passage, according to the law of Quebec, cannot now be annulled except by municipal action. This, however, has not the effect of nullifying the criminal code of Canada, and the shameful business carried on in twenty or more houses is just as criminal as if this by-law did not exist. At the present time the friends of purity in the ancient city are pressing the matter upon the attention of the municipal authorities and should they fail in securing adequate action for the suppression of these dens by these authorities appeal will be made to the Attorney-General of the province, who acknowledges responsibility in such a case for the enforcement of the law, if necessary, over the heads of the local authorities.

ONTARIO, SASKATCHEWAN AND ALBERTA.

In Ontario, as also in Saskatchewan and Alberta, prostitution is not openly or officially tolerated anywhere.

MANITOBA.

This is true also of Manitoba, with the single exception of Winnipeg, and we are glad to be in a position to say that hereafter it will not be necessary to except Winnipeg. The Board of Police Commissioners for the current year has given explicit orders for the suppression of all prostitution in the city, including the old segregated area, and the police are aggressively executing this order. The present mayor was elected on the understanding that his official influence would be upon the side of the complete suppression of this vice. The new police magistrate, the Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, being a Presbyterian, is also a clear-cut suppressionist. These, together with other members of the Board, including at least a majority, have taken action as indicated, and so are doing what is possible to wipe out the stain upon Winnipeg's good name as the result of the disgraceful action of those in power some two years ago.

We believe that the present policy of suppression more truly represents the attitude of the people of Winnipeg as a whole than that of their predecessors and that it is mainly the pressure of the Christian conscience of Winnipeg that has brought about the laudable result which it gives us much pleasure to report.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In British Columbia things are not so satisfactory. However two years ago Victoria closed out its colony of ninety-two prostitutes and has enjoyed immunity from tolerated vice in the interval. The Mayor says: "It is my opinion that the great majority of the people would strenuously oppose any attempt at a re-establishment of the segregated area."

Vancouver has discovered that "segregation does not segregate" and that criminal vice was alarmingly prevalent in residential and rooming sections of the city. A movement, in which the Convener of this Board, Professor Pidgeon, as President of the Moral and Social Reform Council of British Columbia, has led the forces, is on foot and promises early success, to suppress all criminal vice wherever found and to clear the city's good name for the future of having a segregated colony.

The Board has been able to render very great assistance in this movement by making careful investigation of existing conditions, and by its extensive literature dealing with all aspects of this question.

Many of the cities of the interior of British Columbia, such as Kamloops, Revelstoke, Nelson, Rossland, Cranbrook and Fernie, have their colonies of tolerated and in some cases segregated vice that are doing great harm as plague spots in the life of these cities. There are evidences, however, of a stirring of public conscience in these centres that we venture to believe will result in the not distant future in the enforcement of the criminal law.

Prince Rupert and Fort George are similarly afflicted, and while a brave fight is being fought by our missionaries in charge in these cities the evil is extensive and taking firm root.

We regret exceedingly to say that the Attorney-General of the Province of British Columbia has not thus far seen his way to doing what is so manifestly the duty of every Attorney-General, namely, to insist upon the enforcement of the criminal law, as to social vice, whether the local authorities and local sentiment are favourable thereto or not.

LITERATURE.

It will be of interest to members of the Assembly and to ministers and elders of the Church at large to know that the following literature dealing with this question is held in stock at the office of the Board:—

- "Social Vice and How to Deal with It," Rev. J. G. Shearer, D.D.
- "The Social Evil—Toleration Condemned," Recorder Weir, D.C.L.
- "The White Slave Traffic," Hon. Edwin W. Sims.
- "The Crime of Prostitution," Sir Henri Taschereau.
- "Canada's War on the White Slave Trade," Rev. J. G. Shearer, D.D.
- "Segregation or Toleration of Vice in Winnipeg," Judge Robson.
- "The Girl that Goes Wrong," Reginald Wright Kauffman.
- "The Double Standard of Morals and the Social Diseases," Ex-President Chas. W. Eliot, LL.D.
- "Our Laws Affecting Morals and their Enforcement," Rev. J. G. Shearer, D.D.
- "Reports of the Chicago and Minneapolis Vice Commissions."

The following quotations from the last named pamphlet will also be read with interest:—

The Chicago Vice Commission, appointed June, 1910, reporting April, 1911, consisted of thirty members, all representative, many of them distinguished citizens. Several of these were "segregationists," or "tolerationists" before they had investigated conditions in Chicago and forty-two other American cities.

Every one of the thirty favoured the following policy after investigation:—

"Constant and persistent repression of prostitution the immediate method. Absolute annihilation the ultimate ideal."

The report is a volume of four hundred pages. As the Minneapolis report covers substantially the same ground, takes similar positions in its recommendations and lends itself more readily to partial summary, we shall not summarize even the recommendations of the Chicago report. But the opening and closing paragraphs of the Introduction are so pointed and valuable that we reproduce them here. The opening paragraphs are:—

The honour of Chicago, the fathers and mothers of her children, the physical and moral integrity of the future generation demand that she repress public prostitution.

Prostitution is pregnant with disease, a disease infecting not only the guilty, but contaminating the innocent wife and child in the home with sickening certainty almost inconceivable; a disease to be feared with as great horror as a leprous plague; a disease scattering misery broadcast, and leaving in its wake sterility, insanity, paralysis, the blinded eyes of little babes, the twisted limbs of deformed children, degradation, physical rot and mental decay.

That there must be constant repression of this curse on human society is the conclusion of this Commission after months of exhaustive study and investigation—a study which has included the academic with the practical; moral ideals with human weaknesses; honesty of administration with corruption; the possible with the impossible. It has sought to meet all questions fairly; it has made every effort to work with intelligence; it has kept constantly in mind that to offer a contribution of any value such an offering must be, moral; second, reasonable and practical; third, possible under the constitutional power of our courts; fourth, that which will square with the public conscience.

The closing paragraph is a conscience-quickenning appeal to men:—

"To Men—A Closing Word. In closing this introduction the Commission desires to say one more word to those who support this business of women's souls, whether as barterers of the body, or those who demand the service—the Man. There is only one moral law—it is alike for men and women. Again, there is a contract called matrimony, which is a solemn contract made between those who love. It carries with it the elements of vested rights—even a solemn promise before God. A signature represents honour—it is there,—likewise a promise—it is there. Has this contract been kept inviolate? If not, why not?

To one who hears the ghastly life story of fallen women it is ever the same—the story of treachery, seduction and downfall—the flagrant act of man—the ruin of a soul by man.

It is a man and not a woman problem which we face to-day—commercialized by men—supported by men—the supply of fresh victims furnished by men—men who have lost that fine instinct of chivalry and that splendid honour for womanhood where the destruction of a woman's soul is abhorrent, and where the defence of a woman's purity is truly the occasion for a valiant fight.

The Minneapolis Vice Commission, appointed summer, 1910, reporting July, 1911, consisted of fifteen members, representative and able.

A majority (10) were believers in "segregation" or "toleration" before entering on their exhaustive and open-minded investigation.

As the report states, they were a unit in favour of rigorous, persistent enforcement of the law against all public prostitution when they concluded.

It is interesting in this connection to note that in addition to the Chicago and Minneapolis Commissions, whose reports are dealt with in this pamphlet, four other Commissions have investigated the same question, and reported within the last decade or thereabouts.

These are:

The Committee of Fifteen, New York, which reported in 1900.

The Committee of Fourteen, New York, which reported in 1910.

The late Sir Henri Taschereau, Chief Justice of Quebec, who reported on conditions in Montreal in 1905.

Mr. Justice H. A. Robson, of Manitoba, who reported on conditions in Winnipeg, in 1905.

The same conclusions, in effect, are reached by all these Commissions, on the question of administrative policy of police authorities, namely:

Against "Regulation," "Segregation," or "Toleration," and in favour of "Persistent Repression" by enforcement of the law of all Public Prostitution.

(2) PREVENTIVE WORK.

Your Board believes that its greatest service to the cause of personal and social purity has been along the line of prevention rather than cure. It has made an earnest effort to secure or produce the best possible literature aiming at:—

(a) Giving guidance to parents and others in the imparting in a wise way to the young of both sexes the necessary information upon the purposes, the problems and the perils of sex.

It has arranged for one or more consecrated Christian women in each congregation and mission field of the entire Church to assist in the distribution of literature which is intended for the use of parents, and only when these latter so desire, for their young people. Thus a most extensive agency through literature carefully distributed is actively at work from month to month and it seems impossible to over-estimate the necessary beneficent results of this campaign.

(b) An extensive campaign through pulpit and platform has also been planned and vigorously carried on during the past year. The Secretaries render service along these lines constantly. So do other members of the Board. A very large number of ministers, also, availing themselves of the information provided by the Board through its literature, have taken up the campaign in connection with their regular pulpit work.

In addition to this, however, the staff of deaconesses engaged in redemptive work give a great deal of their time to addressing meetings mainly of women and girls through the Church, telling them of the redemptive work and the need for it, and informing the mind, stirring the heart and arousing the conscience of the womanhood of Canada.

The service rendered in this way by Miss M. C. Ratte is known and appreciated from ocean to ocean. Others are following in her footsteps and are already rendering a large service along the same lines.

(c) In co-operation with corresponding departments in other Churches, and with other sympathetic bodies, much has been done to inform the public mind and arouse the public conscience in general by the holding of conventions for the discussion of all aspects of the problem of personal and social purity. Use has been made also of the press, secular as well as religious, to a very large extent with the same end in view.

(3) REDEMPTIVE WORK.

When the Assembly last met the Redemptive work authorized by the Assembly of two years ago had just begun. One Redemptive House had been established, namely in the city of Toronto. That work has been pushed forward vigorously throughout the year. A Home has been opened in Montreal, another in Calgary, another in Sydney and still another is being opened at the present time in Winnipeg.

It is to be noted that these are not institutions and that the Church is not aiming at being the permanent custodian of criminal or feeble minded women, which is the work of the State, but that they are Redemptive Houses, where a ministry of mercy is offered in any form and to any extent called for in each individual case to girls and women in sore need of such a ministry. They are kept for a short period, brought under medical, moral and spiritual influences and as soon as it seems safe to do so are placed under the care of Christian women and given an opportunity to start life over again on a self-respecting and self-supporting basis. Every possible means is used to win them definitely to Christ, while they are under the care of the Board.

Some twelve consecrated Christian women, mostly deaconesses, are giving their time to this work, employed by the Church. The number is being slowly but steadily increased as qualified workers are discovered. We have the valued co-operation also of many of the women of the churches as volunteers.

Jails, prisons, hospitals, police courts, segregated districts, tolerated houses of shame, and the streets at night, are visited and from time to time girls are induced to leave life in the underworld and to accept the help we are privileged under Christ to offer for their deliverance and salvation. No distinction is made on the score of race, colour, nationality or creed, but while we stand ready to extend the hand of help to any women in need of any service we can render, our special aim is to care for and restore:

- (a) The girl that goes wrong in private.
- (b) The younger girls who have gone into the life of vice.

During the past year we have ministered to hundreds of girls one way and another. It is not our policy in this or in any other line of our work to count heads or publish boastful statistics, but we are warranted in saying that several scores of girls, some of them educated, some of them daughters of wealthy people, more of them the daughters of the poor, have been restored to a life of self-respect and self-support, and a large number of them through penitence, to faith and fellowship with our common Master, who said to one of their kind, "Neither do I condemn thee, go and sin no more." Hence we feel warranted in saying that in no department of our work is there more to encourage and cheer than in this redemptive work among girls. No wonder if some stumble and fall once or often. Divine patience and compassion never fail. Neither should ours.

Incidentally we are giving attention to the best methods for the State to follow in caring for her mentally defective and criminal classes and are using our influence to its full extent to encourage methods that aim at the restoration to good citizenship and a useful place in life of those it is compelled on any ground to put under restraint of law.

And in this, as in all our work, we are discovering that the combination of social service adapted to personal, class and local needs, and strong, sane, New Testament Evangelism, is essential to the securing of the largest and most enduring results in the promotion of social and personal purity.

6. CARE OF THE FEEBLE MINDED.

The work the Board has been doing during the past year in reclaiming girls who have fallen, has emphasized, in the judgment of its members, the importance of the various provinces making adequate provision for the segregation and humane care of all feeble minded, and specially those of the female sex, so as to prevent their being victimized by the cowardly and the brutal, and to prevent their doing serious harm as moral derelicts and in the propagation of their kind.

7. IMMORAL LITERATURE, PICTURES, ETC.

Your Board has continued to keep a watchful eye upon the traffic in immoral literature, obscene pictures, etc., and rejoices to believe that there has been much less occasion for action along this line during the past year than during any year since the department was organized, and that this is due largely to the aggressive work done in previous years.

It has joined with other sympathetic bodies in endeavouring to secure from Parliament an amendment to the criminal code, which will make the having in possession of such matter, whether for sale or not, an offence under the code. It is not unhopeful that this will be accomplished at the next session of Parliament.

8. COMMERCIALIZED AMUSEMENTS.

Your Board has given much attention during the past year to the subject of amusements and recreation, especially the amusements that are commercialized. The authorities in the various provinces have in the exercise of their powers of censorship, consulted the Secretaries, in regard to the moving picture shows and the more pretentious theatres.

Great progress has been made in the removing of immorality from the moving picture shows in various provinces. The Boards of Censorship in Ontario and in Manitoba are working admirably and if it were possible for the Christian public to see the enormous amount of what is criminal, or suggestive, or unduly exciting, that is from day to day cut out of these picture shows they would appreciate the service rendered by the authorities and by Boards like this.

A good deal has been accomplished by the change of law in Ontario and Quebec prohibiting the attendance at such places of children under fifteen years of age unless accompanied by adults. Every possible effort should be made in all the provinces to secure the appointment of such Boards of Censorship and the prohibition of attendance of children unaccompanied. New Brunswick has recently passed a law almost identical with that of Ontario.

Your Board regrets that it is not in a position to make so encouraging a report in regard to the ordinary theatres. The Secretaries have personally investigated some of these places of amusement during the year and have been very greatly shocked with the extent to which what is vulgar, suggestive and even grossly immoral, finds a place in not a few of the public play houses. Your Board is of opinion that aggressive action is imperatively needed in the direction of a careful censorship of all theatres and is persuaded that these people's play houses should be very carefully watched by ministers and Christian people generally, and their utmost influence exercised toward the encouragement of the good and the discouragement of what is bad or worthless.

Much can be accomplished in this by seeking to suppress what is evil and by encouraging that which is good in the play of the people alike of children and adults.

Properly supervised play grounds in the summer season are a means of grace, so are public baths and places of recreation generally. Quoting the words of the last Assembly's great deliverance on the Church and Social Questions, "We believe that the play of children and the amusements of adults are of great importance to morals and that they should be brought under social control so as to free them from the evil effects of unrestrained commercialism and make them minister to the physical and moral well being of the people."

9. LAW ENFORCEMENT.

Your Board has continued during the past year to give special attention to the enforcement of all laws bearing upon morals, being persuaded that it is fundamental to the welfare of a nation at large and the promotion of good citizenship, that there should be an universal respect for law, order and authority, and that respect for existing laws is often more important than the securing of new legislation. Your Board would again remind the General Assembly and the Church at large that there is danger of laws being set at naught in consequence of their enforcement being left to municipally appointed and controlled police officers and is of opinion that the ministers and people of the Church in general should exercise every legitimate influence to induce governments to supplement municipal police forces by provincial assistance and insist upon all police officers, whether municipal or provincial, performing faithfully the duty they have sworn to perform in the enforcement of all laws.

10. POLITICAL PURITY.

Your Board begs to submit herewith as its report to the General Assembly on the subject of Political Purity, or Impurity, the following statement submitted to and adopted by the Board at its annual meeting in September. Special credit for the drafting of this report is due to Drs. Thurlow Fraser and W. H. Smith:—

Probably what lies at the basis of the political impurity which exists in Canada is what may be called the "double standard of morality." It is a fact that many men have one standard of morality for their relations with their neighbours in private life, and quite a different standard for their relations with the public, with the country they are supposed to serve. Ever and anon there come revelations which show some public men and public servants to have been grossly dishonest in their relations with the public. Yet probably the majority of these men were, in their private dealings with their neighbours, scrupulously honest. They held it to be no sin to steal from the public.

The revelations in connection with the Department of Marine and Fisheries, and more recently in the Dominion Government Printing Bureau bear this out. These have come to light. Doubtless they are but symptoms of a very prevalent disease. The same type of dishonesty is to be seen in the letting of not a few of the government contracts. A case in point is being freely talked of at the present moment, though your Committee cannot vouch for the absolute correctness of the statements. However, as it came from friends of the government, there is probably a basis of truth in it. The contract for a certain section of government railroad was being let. Although there were many tenders, it narrowed down to a choice between two contractors. One was absolutely sure that he was going to obtain the contract. He based his confidence on the fact that he had contributed $80,000.00 to the government campaign fund. Yet to his surprise the other obtained the contract. What he had contributed does not appear. The point is that the first contractor must have been sure of enormous profits on the contract, when in addition to all else he would put into it, he could afford to invest a contribution of $80,000.00 towards the election campaign fund. Both of these contractors are said to be honest in their dealings with private individuals.

Against these there must be placed some hopeful signs. The fact that very active measures were taken in both the above-mentioned departments of the Dominion Government not only to get rid of, but to punish, public officials who had betrayed their trust, is hopeful. Along with that must go the fact that in one of the Western provinces the Prime Minister and two members of his Cabinet were forced out of office, because of charges of improper relations with certain corporations who were getting franchises; and contracts from the government. Together with this must be taken the fact that some of the departments at least (the instances known to your Committee being in connection with the departments of the Post Office and Militia and Defence) have been letting their contracts to the contractors whose tenders were lowest, irrespective of what their party politics and their attitude towards the government might be.

Along with this question of the "double standard of morality" must of necessity go that which we call the "spoils system." By that we simply mean the fact that many public servants and their supporters hold that it is perfectly legitimate for the members of the victorious political party to benefit themselves and their friends at the expense of the public. It is not always easy to definitely state just how this is done. But the evidences of its having been done some way are perfectly plain. A man, who is but a practising attorney in a small country town, and evidently in rather straightened circumstances, becomes a member of the Dominion Cabinet. In four years' time he is a wealthy man. In ten years from when he enters that Cabinet he is rated among the richest capitalists in the Dominion. It is extremely improbable that he has obtained that by the honest practice of his profession, or by the investment of the very small means which he had when he entered political life. Another, who was bankrupt, became the member of a provincial Cabinet. Within a dozen years after that he also shows every indication of being one of the wealthiest men in the province. The fact that he succeeded in balking all attempts to investigate the means by which he obtained his wealth, would seem to indicate that it had not been acquired by methods consistent with the highest honour. This is one of the most serious phases of public life. It is that men placed in positions of trust to render service to the public, take advantage of the inside knowledge they have, to enrich themselves out of the resources of the country, which the public have entrusted to them.

Not only so, but by the spoils system they admit their friends to share with them in the resources of the public. A case in point may be quoted. In one of the provinces the officials of the Crown Lands Department had found a buyer for certain lands. But in the constituency in which these lands were situated there lived a very active supporter of the Provincial Government. He had done nothing towards the sale of these lands, as the transaction was put through before he was even consulted. Yet he was allowed a commission of $8,500.00. This is only one small instance of a form of corruption which is probably more prevalent than small direct bribery of individual electors.

Another form of the spoils system is that of appointing to positions in the civil service of the Dominion and of the provinces, large numbers of men, whose only qualifications for appointment consist in their subserviency to the political party in power. An example of what is meant by this statement may be given. In one of the provinces the petition of governor of the provincial jail was given to a broken-down hotelkeeper, who through age, infirmity and the use of liquor was entirely incompetent to perform any of the duties of his office. In the same province the positions in the provincial reformatory for boys were given to a group of men, the majority of whom were both profane and drunken, and who were found to be taking liquor in among the boys, whom they were supposed to reform, and drinking it in their presence. These men had no other claim upon the positions than that of having done the dirtiest kind of work for their political party. One of the members of their own political party recently described them as "an unequalled collection of incompetence and undesirables."

In this connection also there are some hopeful signs. The appointment by the Dominion of a Civil Service Commission composed of men of ability and unimpeachable integrity gives the promise of a better day. As yet only the inside service is under control of this Commission. Even there the government retains the right of nominating men for the various positions. But the Civil Service Commission has taken strong ground, and has refused to appoint many of the government nominees, appointing instead men whose qualifications were not political, but fitness for the positions. Consequently the members of the government are ceasing to make nominations, and are allowing their claim of the right to do so to fall into disuse. It will be a matter of great importance when not only the inside service, but also the outside service of the Dominion will come under the control of the Civil Service Commission. It is to be hoped also that the various provinces will follow the example of the Dominion Government in this respect, and will appoint independent commissions to govern their Civil Service.

The blame for this dishonesty in public life must lie not so much upon those who are in public life, as upon the state of public opinion, which is behind them. They are governed by public opinion. If public opinion justifies any conduct, these representatives and servants of the public will practise that conduct. If on the other hand public opinion definitely pronounces certain conduct as base and dishonourable, the representatives and servants of the public will not generally avoid it. Unfortunately public opinion justifies many things in the life of men dealing with the country, which it would not justify in the same man in dealing with private individuals. Even religious people take this stand. Recently a very prominent Sabbath School worker justified the action of a Cabinet Minister, who had made himself enormously rich out of the public resources, by saying that "he had such exceptional opportunities." To her he was quite justified in taking advantage of his exceptional opportunities to rob the public. It is somewhat humiliating to find not a few ministers who take the same attitude, and who not only justify the spoils system and the double standard of morality, but are themselves applicants for positions under the spoils system. So lightly does a large section of public opinion treat graft in men in public position, that when it is was definitely and incontestably proved that the man referred to above had taken graft in one deal to the extent of $8,500.00, the constituency in which he lived elected him as their representative in the provincial house, and have since re-elected him for another term. So long as this low standard is maintained by the public, so long will the representatives and servants of the public practise corruption.

This low ideal is especially manifested in extreme partisanship. Political affinity covers a multitude of sins. Within the past twelve months the Prime Minister of one of the provinces was charged on the floor of the House with having grossly misused his powers in granting railway charters for his own private personal advantage. The opposition called for an investigation. The obedient majority in the House promptly voted that down. Soon afterwards a member of his Cabinet was charged with accepting a bribe of $50,000 from a railway company. Again an investigation was called for, and again the party voted it down. Both men preferred to have the charge hanging over them, than to have it investigated and disproved. And throughout the province their supporters justified them in their action. If it had been men of the opposite party, who were under these charges, and refused an investigation, these same people would have been righteously indignant. But seeing it was their party, the conduct was perfectly justified.

The result of this is that men who are inclined to be unscrupulous know that they are perfectly free to be dishonest, so long as their party is in the majority. They know that their supporters are partisans first, and patriots afterwards. The dishonest political leader is never afraid of a man who is a partisan. The only man, whose opinion he really respects and whose favour he is compelled to court is the man who is independent of political bias.

In spite of many discouraging features, there are nevertheless some encouraging facts in connection with this subject. In one province, where the Prime Minister and two of his colleagues were forced out of office, it was not by the opponents of another party, but by members of their own party that they were compelled to resign. To what extent the opinion was based upon hatred of political corruption, and to what extent on personal animosity and jealousy, it is hard to determine. But it is at least refreshing to find one occasion on which punishment for dishonesty in office is inflicted by members of the same party as those who were guilty. Ordinarily such investigations result in a whitewash.

Reference might be made to the practice of personal bribery in elections, together with impersonation and false swearing. That these are practised to a considerable extent, is proved at every time of election. That both parties are guilty, is shown by the frequency with which we hear of what is called a saw-off. Neither party there wants its record investigated, and so is willing to compromise with the other party and allow matters to stand as they are. However, this is a form of political impurity, which is so well-known that it scarcely needs to be dwelt upon.

What is perhaps not so well known is the corruption on a larger scale practised by certain great corporations. Recently a great railway company was endeavouring to get hold of the franchise for a short, but important railway link, which another company was about to forfeit. A third company was strenuously opposing the transfer of the franchise. A member of the political party then in power in that province is authority for the statement that one vice-president of the first company was present in the lobby of the Provincial House during the debate, and was paying to the members of the House bribes to the amount of $1,000.00 a piece, in order to get their support. Another member of the same party at the same time states that he was called into the private office of a leading official of the opposing railway company, and practically told that he might name his price for his support. The first company won. Within the last few months the two highest officials of that company stated to a friend that they could get anything in the railway line in that province that they asked for. It is evident that so far as the interest of the people of that province is concerned in the matter of railways, that they are entirely at the mercy of one or other of those great corporations, because of the corrupting influence they have over the provincial legislators. This is, perhaps, one of the most serious problems of political life which we have to consider. It threatens to make the people of Canada as subservient to corporate interests, as recent revelations have shown the people of the United States to be.

There can be no ready-made remedy for these conditions. Things are by no means hopeless. There are many hopeful signs. Probably the most hopeful of all is a growing independence of political parties. It does not manifest itself in the forming of new parties. But it is showing itself in the fact that not a few are beginning to break from their old party allegiance, and to vote on principle rather than for party.

The only remedy, which will eventually do away with corruption in public life, is the continual proclamation of a higher ideal of life, of duty and service. So soon as public opinion is lifted to a higher level it will eliminate those evils in public life, which unfortunately are still very prevalent. But that can never be done so long as electors are so bound by party ties that they are ready to excuse any wrong-doing on the part of those, who are of the same political creed as themselves. It is a slow process, but it is the only process which will eventually purify the public life of the country.

"In view of the impending federal election, recognizing the fact that in a self-governing country like Canada political purity lies at the base of national wellbeing, and deploring the existence of low ideals, and corrupt practices, fatal to the existence of free institutions and the moral health of the people, the Board of Social Service and Evangelism of the Presbyterian Church in Canada desires to press upon the members of the Church the duty of opposing electoral corruption in every form and of maintaining the following principles:

"1. It is the duty of every citizen thoughtfully and seriously to discharge the full responsibility of citizenship.

"2. The law of righteousness, which is recognized as imperative in the business and special world rules also in the sphere of politics. The assumption of a double standard must be repudiated.

"3. The interest of the nation is supreme, it should not be subordinated to party, sectional or selfish considerations.

"4. The ballot is sacred. The franchise is a solemn trust not to be bought and sold, but to be exercised as a civic responsibility and as in God's sight.

"The Board further suggests that all pastors deal with this subject in their pulpits before the election."

11. INDUSTRIAL PROBLEMS.

Your Board, following the instructions given by last General Assembly, had printed in convenient form for general distribution the Assembly's deliverance on "The Church and Social Questions." This was sent to all ministers with an offer to fill all orders for general distribution. Your Board is glad to be able to report in regard to this matter as follows:—

That the deliverance received widespread and sympathetic attention by the press, both secular and religious, in Canada, the United States and the British Islands.

The office of the Board has received numerous requests for copies of this deliverance, and communications either commending or criticizing various details in it.

We are of the opinion that the adoption and extensive circulation of this deliverance has contributed largely to the awakening of public interest in social questions generally and in arousing the conscience of Christian people in regard to social wrongs and their responsibility for the righting of these wrongs.

We would call the attention of the Assembly to the continued unrest among various classes of working people in Canada and the United States, and still more notably in the Mother Country, and to the great forward steps taken by the Imperial Government under the leadership of the Prime Minister and the Chancellor of the Exchequer in the direction of removing social injustice and improving the conditions of the toiling masses and the suffering poor.

Your Board has continued to keep in sympathetic touch with employers of labour and employees, and has sought as opportunity afforded in private and public to press upon each the absolute necessity of both being actuated by the spirit of the Golden Rule, and each considering not his own but the interests of the other as well. Your Board is of the opinion that this ministry of our own and other Churches is bearing fruit and contributing not a little to avert social disaster and to promote a spirit of loyalty to the second great command of the Master, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

12. THE PROBLEM OF THE CITY.

The Board, at its annual meeting in September, and since, has given conscientious and careful consideration to the work laid upon it by the General Assembly of last year in deciding to recognize the Problem of the City as a work for the whole Church to undertake, and calling for expert leadership and special methods adapted to the problem as it presents itself in each individual city.

The census of 1911 shows that the urban population of Canada, that is those living in cities of eight thousand and up, is 31 per cent. of the total population as compared with 21 per cent. in 1901. Vast numbers of immigrants, many of them from the great cities of Britain and still more from Northern, Southern and Eastern Europe, as well as considerable numbers from the Orient, pouring into Canada, are crowding into our cities and industrial centres, resulting in a very strong tendency to create overcrowded slums with their attendant evils of disease, vice, ignorance and crime, and, not infrequently, strong antipathy to the Church.

Heretofore the orthodox Churches, following methods adapted to ordinary communities of intelligent, religious people, have for the most part failed to minister to or to get a hold upon these incoming thousands. In many cases, indeed, the Churches have moved out before the incoming mass and have sought more comfortable quarters in the residential suburbs of the city.

Only by exceptional methods, in which are combined Social Service and Evangelism, such as are used in evangelical, religious, social settlements, in which in the spirit and name of Christ His followers seek to understand and meet the needs of these people, whether physical, mental, social, moral or religious, can the Church win the hearts of these people and reclaim the slum and its dwellers for Christ and good citizenship.

The Convener Dr. Gordon and the General Secretary of the Board, together with Col. R. M. Thomson, of Winnipeg, spent some weeks in New York—the General Secretary living in a down-town rear tenement for that period—studying conditions in the tenement slums of New York and the best methods of meeting these conditions.

The Board has also secured the services, beginning March 1st, of Miss Sara Libby Carson, the founder of Christodora Settlement, New York, and of Evangelia Settlement, Toronto, as an expert of exceptional ability and consecration to the service of Christ, to give expert counsel in making careful social surveys of the down-town sections of our cities, and in organizing evangelical, religious, social settlements, one of which is already being established in a neglected down-town district in Toronto, and another likely to be established in the near future in Montreal. Other cities it is hoped to reach with similar ministry later on.

After conference with the Home Mission Committee and with the Presbyterian Women's Union of Winnipeg, and other interested bodies, and at the request of the Presbytery of Winnipeg, the Board has taken over and made itself responsible for the management and maintenance, with the help of the Presbyterian Women's Union, of Robertson Memorial Institute, an evangelical, religious, social settlement worked in connection with Robertson Memorial Church, of which Rev. A. McTaggart is pastor, and doing work mainly among foreigners of various nationalities in the north end of Winnipeg. The Presbyterian Women's Union contributes $2,000.00 per year towards this work and your Board the remainder of what is required, which will be not less than $3,000.00 per year.

The Institute building was provided by the Presbyterian Association, a temporary organization of men in Winnipeg, but the Women's Home Missionary Society, with the approval of the Home Mission Committee, was under obligation to contribute $5,000.00 in annual instalments of $1,500.00 toward the payment for this building. This indebtedness for plant has been taken over by your Board, $500.00 of it having already been paid.

The policy the Board is following, in harmony with that of the Home Mission Committee, in all its plans for this work, as also for its redemptive work among girls, is that it will undertake such work where the local people furnish the necessary building and equipment ready for use, the Board out of its budget providing for the maintenance of the work, securing the necessary workers and taking the responsible oversight. This policy has been adopted after consultation with sister Boards or Committees of the Church in the conviction that it is in harmony with the general policy of the Church and the will of the General Assembly.

Special attention is being given in the larger cities and industrial centres to the conditions under which women wage earners live and labour. In many cases they are inadequately supported and are thus compelled to live in cheap and often unsafe boarding houses, where they are exposed to temptations that are wrecking many young lives.

Some charitably disposed men and women are likely in the immediate future to invest money as private venture in establishing comfortable, safe, Christian boarding houses, for young women who receive small wages, and are thus unable adequately to provide for themselves. It is intended in due course that every legitimate influence be used to secure for all such adequate support.

13. THE PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD.

Your Board regrets that, largely because of the pressing claims of other work, the men of the Church do not seem disposed to organize as generally as is undoubtedly desirable for co-operative effort in the interests of the Kingdom of God and for the good of humanity.

There has been formed recently a Federation of all the Christian organizations of men with a view of stimulating interest in the formation of Brotherhoods in connection with the various Churches and the recent visit of a large delegation of leaders in the general Brotherhood movement of the motherland will, we trust, contribute not a little towards stimulating co-operative religious effort among the men of our own and other Churches.

14. THE MORAL AND SOCIAL REFORM COUNCIL OF CANADA.

The Moral and Social Reform Council of Canada, in which the following bodies are federated for the purpose of promoting Moral and Social Reform, where all see eye to eye, has continued to do a quiet but effective work during the year on which we are reporting. The General Secretary of the Board, is jointly with Rev. T. Albert Moore, D.D., of the Methodist Department of Temperance and Moral Reform, Honorary Secretary of this organization, and the Board has seen that the Presbyterian Church in Canada is well represented at the various meetings:—

The Church of England in Canada.
The Methodist Church in Canada.
The Presbyterian Church in Canada.
The Baptists of Canada.
The Congregationalists of Canada.
The Trades and Labour Congress of Canada.
The Dominion Grange and Farmers' Association.
The Salvation Army.
The Canadian Purity-Education Association.
The Evangelical Association of North America.

Your Board is co-operating in the name of the Church as one of the Units of membership in this Council in pressing for amendments to the Criminal Code:—

(1) In raising the age of consent for protection of girls from fourteen and sixteen years to sixteen and eighteen years respectively.

(2) Making employers of female workers of every class and without limitation punishable under the Code for seduction of any girl in their employ.

(3) Making it an offence for any person to be found in a common bawdy house if unable to give a satisfactory account of himself or herself. Making it easier to establish the reputation of a house of ill-fame and to hold the owner, agent or other person in control of premises used for immoral purposes responsible under the law.

(4) Making the practice of adultery and lewd co-habitation offences under the Code.

(5) Giving constables additional powers of search under warrant for immoral literature, obscene matter and other evidence of immoral practices, also giving magistrates the authority to order the destruction of immoral matter of any kind coming into possession of the authorities.

(6) Opening the way for the more widespread introduction of a system of probation and indeterminate sentence in the care of criminals, especially those who are not old offenders or who have been guilty of minor offences.

15. THE MEN AND RELIGION FORWARD MOVEMENT.

Dr. A. S. Grant addressed the Board at its annual meeting on the Men and Religion Forward Movement, explaining its object and plans and reporting with much enthusiasm upon the great conference held at Silver Bay, Lake George, in the summer of 1911.

The Board has heartily endorsed the Movement and commended it to the co-operation of the ministers and men of the Church. The Secretaries are under orders to do all possible to induce all existing men's organizations to actively co-operate in the Movement. This Movement is not a new organization, but aims at stimulating the men and boys of the Churches to new endeavour along the following lines:—

- (1) Promoting religion among boys.
- (2) Interest in Bible Study.
- (3) Personal Evangelism.
- (4) Social Service and the righting of all social wrongs.
- (5) Developing of interest in missions—city, home and foreign.

The aggressive portion of the campaign planned by this Movement will take place during the autumn of the current year. It is earnestly hoped by the Board that the ministers and men of the Church generally will co-operate in making this campaign the greatest success possible.

16. WORLD'S CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP CONFERENCE.

Under the National Reform Association of the United States a second World's Christian Citizenship Conference is to be held in Portland, Oregon, June 29th to July 6th, 1913, in the interests of all moral and social reforms and of Christian Citizenship in general. All Churches and other sympathetic bodies are invited to send delegates.

17. CO-OPERATIVE SOCIAL SERVICE IN TOWNS AND SMALLER CITIES.

Amherst, N.S., as well as some other towns or smaller cities, is making an experiment worthy of attention. Its leading citizens have combined to support a trained Y.M.C.A. Boys' Secretary, and a Women's Social Service expert. They work in co-operation with the various Churches in seeking the moral and religious uplift of youth and with the schools in promoting their physical and mental development. Attention is given to truancy, to delinquency and indeed to everything concerning the welfare of boys and girls during the years when it is most difficult to hold them in connection with the Church life. No attempt is being made to provide institutions such as Y.M.C.A. or Y.W.C.A., but the plants of the Churches and schools are used to accommodate the various activities.

Rev. E. H. Ramsay, B.A., pastor of the Presbyterian Church, speaking enthusiastically of the benefits of this Movement says of the specialists employed, "they are the link between the secular and the sacred in the town, between the mental and the spiritual guardians of the children. They play into the hand of the school and of the Church; they do not draw young people from the Church; they go on the general principle (and this is an understanding we have) that the spiritual, moral and social life of the people is the affair of the Church, the intellectual and physical life, the affair of the school, and all the affair of the home."

18. PATRIOTIC SUNDAY.

Your Board is pleased to be able to report that Patriotic Sunday, namely, the Sunday nearest to the national birthday, is coming to be observed as an institution of Church life. It has reason to believe that the preaching of Christian patriotism in one way or another was more general in the Churches and Sabbath Schools of the Church in 1911 than in any previous year, and it hopes that more and more advantage will be taken of this golden opportunity to promote the highest type of citizenship.

Patriotic Sunday falls this year on the 30th of June. Your Board, in co-operation with the Sabbath Schools' Committee, has arranged for the subject of Citizenship to be taken up in all the Sabbath Schools and among the Young People's Societies of the Churches, and the Rev. D. C. MacGregor, Associate Secretary, has prepared, at the request of the Board, a special pamphlet on the subject of "Good Citizenship—its Ideals, its Basis and its Duties."

19. REV. D. C. MACGREGOR'S APPOINTMENT.

Acting on the authority given by last General Assembly your Board proceeded to appoint an additional Secretary. After careful inquiry it was decided to offer the appointment to Rev. Donald C. MacGregor, B.A., pastor of Knox Church, Orillia. After due consideration Mr. MacGregor recognized our offer as the call of duty and accepted the appointment. He began his duties in September.

The office of Mr. MacGregor is that of Associate Secretary, having special responsibility for Social Service, as Rev. F. A. Robinson, B.A., is Associate Secretary, having special responsibility for Evangelism; Dr. Shearer's office being that of General Secretary and head of the Department.

The congregation of Knox Church, Orillia, deeply attached as they were to their able young minister, not only consented to his appointment, recognizing that he was being called to a larger sphere of service, but undertook, without any suggestion from anyone outside of their own number, to contribute annually toward Mr. MacGregor's support the half of his salary, namely $1,200.00 per year. This splendid spirit and noble action on the part of Knox Church, Orillia, may well receive special recognition at the hands of the Assembly and prove of inspiration to many other congregations of the Church.

The Assembly will also gladly recognize, with the same enthusiastic appreciation, the fact that the American Presbyterian Church of Montreal, of which the Rev. Dr. Johnston is pastor, is year by year contributing similarly toward the salary of Mr. Robinson at the rate of $1,000.00 per year.

CHARLES W. GORDON }
GEO. C. PIDGEON } Joint Conveners.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON AMALGAMATION OF COMMITTEES ON SABBATH SCHOOLS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

A joint conference of the Executives of the General Assembly's Committees on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies was held in Toronto, August 29th, 1911, with the following in attendance:—

Messrs. A. Macgillivray, W. R. McIntosh, J. M. Duncan, H. Matheson, J. Lowden, A. D. Kerr, A. E. Armstrong, W. A. McTaggart and J. C. Robertson.

After careful consideration the following detailed plan for amalgamation of these two Committees was unanimously approved, as a tentative plan to be submitted to all the members of both Committees for their consideration, before being presented to the General Assembly for adoption.

1. That the work of these two Committees of the General Assembly be administered under a single Committee to be known as the General Assembly's Committee on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, with joint Conveners in the meantime, continuing the work of the two Conveners, and with corresponding Committees in Synods and Presbyteries with joint or single Conveners as each Synod and Presbytery may determine, and that the statistical report be simplified.
2. That the same relations shall exist between the new Committee and the Committee on Sabbath School Publications as now exist between the Committees on Sabbath School and Sabbath School Publications.
3. That the attention of the Committee on Sabbath School Publications be drawn to the proposed consolidation of these Committees with change of name, and they be requested to consider adapting their name to the new conditions.
4. That this new Committee shall consist of eighteen members, together with the Editor of the Sabbath School Publications, the Home Mission Secretary, the Assistant Foreign Mission Secretary, and the Assistant Secretary of Evangelism, and that all the Home Mission Superintendents shall be corresponding members of the Committee.
5. The work of this new Committee shall be a scheme of the Church as the work of the Committee on Sabbath Schools now is.
6. The work of this new Committee shall be administered in the meantime with the aid of the present General Secretary for Sabbath Schools, and the new Committee be empowered to appoint an additional Secretary, when in its judgment the requirements of the work demand such additional help.

(Signed) W. R. McINTOSH, Chairman.
J. C. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

At subsequent separate meetings the General Assembly's Committees on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies endorsed the above report, and at a joint conference held May 10th, 1912, unanimously agreed to ask the General Assembly of 1912 to consummate the amalgamation this year.

(Signed) W. R. McINTOSH, Chairman.
J. C. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH OTHER CHURCHES

To the Venerable, the General Assembly:

In presenting their report on the subject of Union with other Churches, the first and very sad duty of your Committee is to refer to the great loss sustained by the Committee and the Church in the death of the late Principal Patrick. Although he had reached middle life before he left Scotland, Dr. Patrick seemed to experience no difficulty in adapting himself to the widely different conditions that prevail in this new country, and showed a remarkable facility in gaining an intelligent and comprehensive acquaintance with the main features of the general religious situation in Canada. From its very inception, he was an enthusiastic advocate of the movement for the Organic Union of the Churches; and as a private member, and afterwards as Convener, of your Committee, he cheerfully gave his time and strength to the promotion of a cause that was very dear to him.

Your Committee met on the 3rd of April, 1912, on the call of the Vice-Convener, Principal Gordon. The circular calling the meeting was read, and the Convener's action in calling the Committee in the terms of the circular was approved of.

In accordance with the instructions of last General Assembly, voting papers were issued for all the congregations of the Church. These presented the three following questions:—

I. Are you in favour of organic union with the Methodist and Congregational Churches?

II. Do you approve of the proposed Basis of Union?

III. Have you any suggestions or alternatives to offer?

The Secretary submitted the returns of the voting in sessions and congregations, as forwarded by the Clerks of the various Presbyteries. Returns had been received from all the Presbyteries except Trinidad, Dauphin, Prince Albert, and Westminster.

QUESTION I.

Yea	Nay	Yea	Nay	Yea	Nay
6,245	2,475	106,755	48,278	37,175	14,174

Total number of Elders reported to last Assembly.....	9,675
Total number of Communicants reported to last Assembly	287,944
Total number of Elders voting.....	8,718
Total number of Communicants voting.....	155,033

90 per cent. of the total Eldership of the Church voted.
 64½ per cent. of the total Eldership of the Church voted for Union.
 25½ per cent. of the total Eldership of the Church voted against Union.
 54 per cent. of the total Membership of the Church voted.
 17 per cent. of the total Membership of the Church voted against Union.

Of the Elders who voted 71½ per cent. voted in favour of Union, and 28½ per cent. against; of the Members, 68½ per cent. in favour, and 31½ per cent. against; of the Adherents, 72½ per cent. in favour, and 27½ per cent. against.

The combined total vote of Elders, Members and Adherents was 150,175 for Union, and 64,925 against.

QUESTION II.

Yea	Nay	Yea	Nay	Yea	Nay
5,104	2,192	77,993	37,197	27,756	10,316

The total number of self-sustaining congregations, augmented charges and mission fields from which reports were received was 1,730. A majority of the Communicants voted "Yea" on Question I. in 1,391 of the congregations, and "Nay" in the remaining 339 congregations.

All these figures and the percentages based upon them, will be somewhat modified when the returns are received from the other four Presbyteries. The complete returns will be contained in the report to be submitted by the Clerks of Assembly.

QUESTION III.

The Committee proceeded to hear the suggestions of Presbyteries for alterations in the Basis of Union.

144 members of Session, 547 communicants, and 55 adherents, in all 746 returned answers; of these 67 members of Session, 268 communicants, and 16 adherents have suggested federation or cooperation. 77 members of Session, 279 communicants, and 39 adherents have offered suggestions affecting the Basis of Union.

DOCTRINE.

A considerable number of changes were suggested in the Statement of Doctrine, some of them of a minor character, and others of relatively more importance. A number of the Presbyteries, as well as a number of the Sessions and individuals, asked for the addition of an article on prayer; and an equally large number of Presbyteries and individuals desired it to be explicitly stated that the Scriptures are the Word of God. One Presbytery recommended that the Clause (Art. XV., Sec. 2) regarding admission to Communion should read, "All may be admitted to the Lord's Supper who have been baptized and make a credible profession of their faith."

POLITY.

The suggestions in regard to Polity were more numerous. Amongst the more important changes suggested were the following:—

1. The right of examining candidates for the ministry, and the power of ordination, to be vested in Presbyteries.
2. No Settlement Committee to be appointed, but its duties to be discharged by the Presbyteries.
3. The right to make representations regarding the pastoral tie to be vested, not in the "Joint Committee," but in the body entrusted with the oversight of the spiritual affairs of the congregation.
5. The retention of Ordained Eldership, with present powers and duties.
6. The Presbytery's oversight of the charges within its bounds to include the pastoral relation, with the right to receive all representations concerning it, and to continue or to dissolve the pastoral tie.
7. The right of congregations to call their ministers not to be interfered with.

MINISTRY.

Candidates for the ministry to be required publicly to declare their adherence to the "Statement of Doctrine," and for this purpose a fourth question to be put to candidates in connection with their ordination.

No change in the pastoral relation to take place inside of five years.

ADMINISTRATION.

A more detailed report to be submitted to Presbyteries, and not so much to be left to be determined by the supreme court of the United Church.

After a lengthened discussion, a motion was submitted by Dr. Clark, seconded by Dr. Ramsay, and an amendment was offered by President Falconer, seconded by Dr. Armstrong. It was agreed to refer both of these motions to a small Sub-Committee, consisting of Dr. Clark, Convener, Dr. Armstrong, Dr. Mackay, Dr. J. A. MacDonald, and Mr. Strachan. The finding of this Sub-Committee, as moved by Dr. Clark and seconded by Dr. Armstrong, was as follows:—

"This Committee is of the opinion that the large vote of the Church in favour of Organic Union demands some definite action in the direction of closer union between the negotiating Churches, though the strong minority in opposition shows that Organic Union is not possible at present. It recommends that the Union Committee be re-appointed to continue such negotiations as the Assembly may order relating to Union with the Methodist and Congregational Churches in the belief that Organic Union will yet be consummated. The Committee is of the opinion that the Assembly should proceed at once in the direction of co-operation as far as practicable in the mission work in Home and Foreign fields; also in educational work in the Theological Colleges, and in the official publications of the negotiating Churches."

The following amendment was moved by Dr. Sedgwick, and seconded by Mr. Walter Paul:—

"The Assembly rejoices at the large measure of agreement among the negotiating Churches which the proceedings of these recent years have disclosed, and which, it believes, will prepare the way for a larger measure of Union among Christ's people in this land than at present exists.

"The Assembly rejoices that a majority of those voting have declared themselves in favour of the proposed Organic Union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Communions in Canada.

"In view, however, of the fact that about one-half of the membership of the Church have refrained from voting on this question, and that, of those voting about, one-third have expressed themselves in opposition to such Organic Union, both to that Union itself and to its proposed basis, and that this opposition is the strongest in those portions of the Church on which it depends chiefly for support in carrying on her general work:

"In view, too, of the fact that much consideration is due to this opposition, so large and influential, and that in 1905 the Assembly declared 'that a Union of the Churches, to be real, and lasting must carry the consent of the entire membership.'

"In view, further, of the fact that the resolute determination of very many is, that the Presbyterian Church in Canada shall not be suffered to cease to exist:

"In a word, in view of the fact that these negotiations, if continued as they have been conducted hitherto, will lead to an unrest, which cannot but seriously injure the work of the Church at home and abroad: The Assembly, in view of the circumstances set forth above, feels constrained to allow this whole matter of Organic Union to remain, meanwhile, in abeyance.

"The Assembly would cordially welcome whatever measures may seem best fitted to draw the negotiating Churches into closer and more friendly relations to one another and to encourage and facilitate their brotherly co-operation in, for example, if practicable and properly safeguarded, Theological Education and Home and Foreign Mission work."

On a vote being taken, three voted for the amendment, and sixteen for the motion.

The Secretary subsequently examined the large number of suggestions forwarded by the different Presbytery Clerks, and, in most cases, unclassified. His report is to the effect that, in addition to the points dealt with in the suggestions from Presbyteries, changes are suggested in several of the articles of the Doctrinal Statement and in most of the matters dealt with under the head of Polity. A large number expressed a desire for a time limit of the pastorate, varying from four to ten years. The opposition to the Settlement Committee is very pronounced amongst the members and adherents of the Church, as is their desire to retain unimpaired their right to call their ministers. Several individuals suggested that the negotiating Churches unite immediately, as far as possible, in the work of Theological Education. One Presbytery, and a large number of individuals, while strongly in favour of Union, request that no effort shall be made to consummate Union, unless there is a majority in its favour of, some say seventy-five, others eighty, and others ninety-five per cent. In some cases, the actual number of those in a congregation who voted for some form of Federation or Co-operation, as an alternative to Organic Union, was explicitly stated, while in other cases an indefinite statement was made. The number of votes for Federation or Co-operation, actually reported, was 665.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. D. McLAREN,
Secretary.

DANIEL M. GORDON,
Acting Convener.

RESOLUTIONS ON CHURCH UNION.

The Special Committee of Assembly on the matter of union and relative documents unanimously recommend the following as the deliverance of the Assembly:—

The Assembly rejoices at the large measure of agreement among the negotiating churches which the proceedings of the recent years have disclosed and which, it believes, will prepare the way for a larger measure of union among Christ's people in this land than at present exists.

The Assembly believes that the fact that a large majority of those voting have declared themselves in favour of the organic union of the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches is a strong indication that the ultimate result of the present movement will be the consummation of such a union and pledges itself to do all in its power to maintain and deepen the unity of spirit which has marked the course of the negotiations and to continue to promote the fraternal intercourse and conference with the other churches which have made the present vote possible.

In view, however, of the extent of the minority which is not yet convinced that organic union is the best method of expressing the unity sincerely desired by all, the Assembly deems it unwise immediately to proceed to consummate the union, but believes that by further conference and discussion practically unanimous action can be secured within a reasonable time and meanwhile resolves as follows:—

1. That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee to arrange with the other negotiating churches for the further delimitation of territory within which they shall severally establish new missions as well as for the further application of the principle of co-operation already adopted by the Assembly.

2. That it be an instruction to the Foreign Mission Committee to confer with the Mission Boards of other churches with a view to co-operation in every possible way.

3. That it be an instruction to the Committee on Social Service and Evangelism to confer with the Boards of other churches with a view to co-operation in every possible way.

4. That it be an instruction to the Committees charged with the publications of the church to enter into correspondence with the similar committees of the other churches as to the possibility of combining their work in whole or in part.

5. That it be an instruction to the Boards of the Colleges to consider the possibility of co-operating with the colleges of other churches situated in the same localities, so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in teaching.

6. That the Union Committee be authorized in conjunction with the Union Committees of the other negotiating churches to provide for the oversight of union congregations already existing or that may be formed but not organically connected with any of the three churches.

7. That all suggestions made by presbyteries, sessions or individuals or that may be made before the first of November, 1912, be referred to the Union Committee for their consideration in the hope of removing objections and with a view to further conference with the committees of the other negotiating churches.

8. That the following names be added to the Union Committee to fill vacancies, namely: Principal Mackay, Principal Gandier, Rev. J. A. Clark, Rev. R. G. Macbeth, Rev. A. S. Grant, Lieutenant-Colonel MacCrae, Hamilton Cassels, Mr. Edward Brown, Mr. James Gibson, Mr. James Rodger, Mr. W. G. Brown, Prof. Welsh, and Mr. James Balfour, thus constituting the whole committee as follows:—

Dr. W. J. Clark, (Convener), Dr. Ramsay (Vice-Convener), Dr. Forrest, Dr. Sedgwick, Dr. John MacMillan, Dr. E. Smith, Dr. T. Stewart, Dr. T. C. Jack, Mr. James Ross, Mr. Anderson Rogers, Mr. D. McOdum, Dr. A. T. Love, Dr. Robert Campbell, Principal Scrimger, Professor Welsh, Mr. R. W. Dickie, Dr. Armstrong, Dr. Herridge, Principal Gordon, Dr. M. MacGillivray, President Falconer, Principal Gandier, Dr. Milligan, Dr. R. P. Mackay, Prof. Kilpatrick, Professor Ballantyne, Dr. Somerville, Dr. J. L. Murray, Mr. A. S. Grant, Mr. D. Strachan, Dr. Fletcher, Dr. Lyle, Dr. Ratcliffe, Mr. R. G. Macbeth, Dr. DuVal, Prof. Bryce, Mr. J. A. Clark, Mr. W. G. Brown, Principal Dyde, Dr. McQueen, Mr. G. A. Wilson, Principal Mackay, Dr. E. D. Maclaren (Ministers), and the Hon. David Laird, President Murray, Mr. James Balfour, Mr. Edward Brown, Sir John M. Gibson, Dr. J. A. Macdonald, Dr. R. D. Fraser, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Mr. J. A. Patterson, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Lieutenant-Colonel MacCrae, Mr. Walter Paul, Mr. James Rodger, Mr. James Gibson, Lieutenant Governor McGregor, Mr. T. C. James, Judge Forbes and Lieutenant-Governor Rogers (Elders).

9. That the following be appointed as Associate Members for purposes of consultation and that from these alternates be chosen:—

REPORT ON CHURCH UNION.

The Committee recommend the following as the deliverance of the Assembly:—

The Assembly rejoices at the large measure of agreement among the negotiating churches which the proceedings of these recent years have disclosed and which, it believes, will prepare the way for a larger measure of union among Christ's people in this land than at present exists.

The Assembly rejoices that a large majority of those voting have declared themselves in favor of the proposed organic union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational communions in Canada, and believes that organic union will soon be consummated.

The Assembly reaffirms the position taken by previous assemblies that organic union is the end to be aimed at and striven for; and assures the other negotiating churches of its sincere and ardent desire to complete such union within a brief period. In view, however, of the extent of the opposition, indicated by the vote, the assembly deems it unwise to proceed to the immediate consummation of the union, but resolves as follows:—

1. That it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee to arrange with the other negotiating churches for the further delimitation of territory within which they shall severally establish new missions, as well as for the fuller application of the principle of co-operation already adopted by the Assembly.

2. That it be an instruction to the committees charged with the publications of the church to enter into correspondence with similar committees of the other churches as to the possibility of combining their work in whole or in part.

3. That it be an instruction to the Boards of the Colleges to consider the possibility of co-operating with the colleges of other churches, situated in the same localities so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in teaching.

4. That the Union Committee be authorized in conjunction with the Union Committees of the other negotiating churches to provide for the oversight of union congregations not organically connected with any of the three churches.

5. That the suggestions as to a modification of the proposed basis of union made by presbyteries, sessions or individuals, or that may be made before the first of November, 1912, be referred to the Union Committee for their consideration, in the hope of removing objections and with a view to further conference with the committees of the other negotiating churches.

6. That the following names be added to the Union Committees to fill vacancies, namely: Principal Mackay, Principal Gandier, Rev. J. A. Clark, Rev. R. G. Macbeth, Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant, Lieutenant-Colonel MacCrae, Hamilton Cassels, Mr. Edward Brown, Mr. James Gibson, Mr. James Rodger, Prof. Welsh, Mr. W. G. Brown, and Mr. James Balfour, thus constituting the whole committee as follows:—

Dr. W. J. Clark, (Convener), Dr. Ramsay (Vice-Convener), Dr. Forrest Dr. Sedgwick, Dr. John MacMillan, Dr. E. Smith, Dr. T. Stewart, Dr. T. C. Jack, Mr. James Ross, Mr. Anderson Rogers, Mr. D. McOdrum, Dr. A. T. Love, Dr. Robert Campbell, Principal Scrimger, Professor Welsh, Mr. R. W. Dickie, Dr. Armstrong, Dr. Herridge, Principal Gordon, Dr. M. MacGillivray, President Falconer, Principal Gandier, Dr. Milligan, Dr. R. P. Mackay, Prof. Kilpatrick, Professor Ballantyne, Dr. Somerville, Dr. J. L. Murray, Mr. A. S. Grant, Mr. D. Strachan, Dr. Fletcher, Dr. Lyle, Dr. Ratcliffe, Mr. R. G. Macbeth, Dr. DuVal, Prof. Bryce, Mr. J. A. Clark, Mr. W. G. Brown, Principal Dyde, Dr. McQueen, Mr. G. A. Wilson, Principal Mackay, Dr. E. D. Maclaren (Ministers), and the Hon. David Laird, President Murray, Mr. James Balfour, Mr. Edward Brown, Sir John M. Gibson, Dr. J. A. Macdonald, Dr. R. D. Fraser, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Mr. J. A. Patterson, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Lieutenant-Colonel MacCrae, Mr. Walter Paul, Mr. James Rodger, Mr. James Gibson, Lieutenant-Governor McGregor, Mr. T. C. James, Judge Forbes and Lieutenant-Governor Rogers (Elders).

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee's report of last year was referred by the General Assembly to the Senates and Boards of the Colleges and to the Presbyteries for their consideration, and the Committee had before it at their meeting in May, the findings of these bodies in regard to that report. Returns were received from twenty Presbyteries and five Colleges.

Taking up the report under its various heads it was found that Section I., "Recruiting for the Ministry," was generally approved. In the case of sub-sections 2, 5 and 7, dissent was expressed in a few cases and several emendations were proposed.

Section II., "Training of Candidates for the Ministry." The returns showed that there was a general approval of the principles laid down in last year's report, that the standard of ministerial education must be high, and its main object to train the average man for the average congregation. In regard to sub-section 3, there was a pronounced division of opinion in regard to the establishment of an optional English course, a majority favouring the retention of Greek and Hebrew as compulsory in the normal course. In a few cases dissent was expressed from sub-section 10.

With reference to the proposed Emergency Course, a considerable majority expressed approval. A number of suggestions were made for modification, and one or two alternative courses were submitted. All of these will be available for the use of any body whom the Assembly may appoint to deal with this matter.

In regard to Section III., "The Financial Problem," universal approval was expressed of the proposal to increase the minimum salaries of ministers and student-missionaries.

The proposal to establish "An Assembly Board of Education" was generally approved by Presbyteries, while the Colleges reporting were evenly divided.

The Committee after careful deliberation agreed unanimously upon the following recommendations to the Assembly:—

I. Recruiting for the Ministry.

The Committee were gratified to find that this important matter has been taken to the heart of the Church and the main proposals of last year's report are now embodied in the policies adopted by the several Boards and Committees of the Assembly. We recommend that the promotion and oversight of the work of recruiting be now remitted to the proposed Board of Education.

II. The Training of Candidates for the Ministry.

(a) The Regular Theological Course.

It is proposed that the present Theological Curriculum be so revised as to embody the following principles and suggestions:—

1. It is of the first importance that the standard of education should be a high one. So far from entertaining any thought of lowering it, we desire to lift it to a higher plane alike of culture and efficiency.
2. The main object of a college training should be to fit the majority of students for practical efficiency. A certain number should be prepared for the work of scholarly investigation, but the great majority should be made trained speakers, teachers, pastors, and moral and religious leaders.
3. The Committee recommend that the normal course of preparation for the ministry of the Church include the study of Hebrew and Greek; but in cases where the student has not taken Greek and Hebrew as part of his arts course, the Senates of the Colleges shall, with the consent of the Board of Education, give him the option of omitting one of these languages on the understanding that an adequate substitute, satisfactory to the Board, be provided.
4. That certain studies be prescribed in Arts as forming part of the proper preparation for the work of the ministry. For example, at some period in his college course, the student should study, among other subjects, Psychology and Sociology and should give special attention to the study of English.
5. The English Bible should be taught very thoroughly. It is not sufficient that the student should be acquainted, however intimately, with certain brief portions of Scripture. He should have a broad comprehensive knowledge of the outlines of Scripture history and doctrine from Genesis to Revelation, and this is possible only through the study of the English Bible throughout the entire course of study in the Theological College. He should master Biblical Theology and Biblical Sociology.
6. The relation of the Church to present-day social and moral problems and the principles of social service should be given a larger place in the Theological Curriculum, either in the Department of Practical Theology or by special supplementary lectures. Students in Theology should study local religions, social and industrial conditions, under the guidance of a professor, and become familiar with various institutional efforts for the relief of poverty, prevention of crime, and other forms of social service.
7. The student should be carefully trained, both physically and mentally, that he may be able to deliver the message of the Gospel with freedom and power.
8. Some system of options or of honour courses should be interwoven with the regular theological course, to allow of specialization and to stimulate higher scholarship.
9. That all students preparing for the ministry should have an adequate course in the principles and methods of Sabbath school work and missions.

(b) The Emergency Course.

In view of the unparalleled and increasing demand for trained workers in our Home Mission fields, we recognize the need of having some special means for expediting the preparation of men for the ministry, and are of the opinion that something like the minister-evangelist course will be needful for some time to come; but since certain modifications in the present minister-evangelist course seem desirable, the Committee recommend the Assembly to continue their approval of an emergency course, and to appoint a committee including representatives from each of the Colleges to consider the different proposals, which have been offered to this Committee and prepare a detailed plan of study.

III. The Financial Problem.

As this matter is to be presented to the Assembly by the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees this Committee thinks it unnecessary to make any further recommendation.

IV. An Assembly Board of Education.

The Committee recommend that a Board of Education be appointed, consisting of twelve ministers and six elders, with the Senate of each Theological College represented on it. It shall not be the design of this Board to interfere with the autonomy or individuality of any College of the Church, or the Boards thereof, but it shall deal with the general educational policy of the Church, and specifically:

1. Shall consider special cases in the education of students, and the educational standing of ministers applying to be received into the Church, and report to the General Assembly.
2. Be in charge of special efforts to secure recruits for the ministry, and provide ways and means of prosecuting this work.
3. Provide for the religious needs of students attending any of the educational institutions of Canada.
4. Visit Church educational institutions, including Colleges, Boys' Colleges, Young Ladies' Colleges, and Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home.
5. Report to the Assembly upon all applications of Colleges for Church approval or patronage.

We feel that this Board of Education would provide a much needed unity and co-ordination in the educational activities of the Church. It would bring into conference representatives of the several Colleges of the Church, where matters of common interest could be discussed. It would consider and report to the Assembly upon any proposals regarding changes in the regulations of the Assembly respecting theological education.

C. W. GORDON,
Convener.

REPORT RE TRAVELLING EXPENSES OF COMMISSIONERS

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Your committee on Travelling Expenses of Commissioners appointed by last Assembly "to launch and successfully float" the new scheme for payment of such expenses from a common fund under the regulations prescribed by said Assembly, begs leave to report:

Scattered over the whole Dominion as the members of the Committee were, it was impossible for them to meet and confer, but the views of each were presented to all through correspondence, and it was left to the Convener to give practical effect to the conclusions thus arrived at. This was done through letters published in the Presbyterian and Halifax Witness, and by circular letters addressed to the several Presbyteries, and by cards and explanatory circulars sent out to all appointed commissioners.

Your Committee submits herewith statements showing in detail the quota assigned to each Presbytery and the amount contributed by each Presbytery complying wholly or in part with the Assembly's injunction.

A summary of such statements shows that 30 out of the 68 Presbyteries appealed to responded, sending more or less of the full quota assigned to them.

A statement is also submitted showing in detail the claims upon the fund by each Commissioner from every Presbytery contributing, and the total contributions from the Presbytery and total of claims presented. The total contributions amount to $4,952.46, of which sum $3,844.96 was contributed east of Manitoba and $1,107.50 west. The net proceeds, after deducting all expenses, of which a detailed statement is submitted for audit, is $4,837.96.

The total claims presented, individually considered and regulated by enactment of last Assembly, amount to $7,970.09. Of these, $7,476.09 are from east of Manitoba, and $493.71 west. The deficit foreseen by your Committee when it was resolved to meet this year in Edmonton amounts to $3,132.13.

The matter of this deficit gives most concern to your Committee. The scheme, carefully considered by the special committee of Assembly last year, submitted to the Assembly, and unanimously adopted, provided for raising a fund annually which would defray the average expense of all Commissioners for the next decade—the ratio of representation remaining as in the past, and the place of meeting being on the whole as previously. This would require about $15,000, or $16,000, per annum, or the equivalent of 10 cents per family throughout the whole church. In some years there would be a slight surplus to meet the deficit of another year, but this amount would suffice to meet the average expense for 10 years. To pay from a common fund the expenses of all Commissioners entitled to a seat, on the proposed terms of 3 cents per mile by shortest available route of travel, one way, less $5.00, if the Assembly should meet at Edmonton, would require at least $30,000. It was felt that this would swamp the scheme immediately on launching it if time were not given to accumulate some surplus before appointing a meeting of Assembly in the extreme West, and therefore the enactment of Clause 2, Sub-section (c), Minutes of Assembly, 1911, p. 68 (refer to said clause).

Your Committee desires the Assembly to aid it in this matter, and therefore recommends:—

1. That the Assembly will assume the responsibility of meeting the deficit of this year, apportioning it to the several schemes of the Church pro rata, and placing to the credit of your Committee sufficient, in addition to what has been contributed by Presbyteries, to pay, promptly and in full, all properly certified claims.

2. Should the Assembly not see its way to do as recommended above, your Committee recommends that Clause 2, Sub-section (c); Minutes of last Assembly, page 68, be amended to provide that instead of increasing sufficiently the flat rate of deduction of $5.00 from each Commissioner, the amount due to each Commissioner if the fund permitted, be paid at such percentage of his claim as the amount on hand will warrant—60 per cent.

To balance accounts, if Clause 2, Sub-section (c), of Minutes of last Assembly, p. 68, be literally followed:—

This would wipe out all claims (42) west of Ontario, producing $493.71; also Toronto claims (13), producing only $59.00; also Algoma claims (3), producing only $55.30; also Truro claims (2), producing only $41.79; also one claim from Glengarry (1), producing only $14.00.

101 Commissioners would be left to contribute $24.50 each, amounting to $2,474.50 making a total of $3,138.30.

The Presbyteries from which these Commissioners come have been loyal to the enactment of Assembly.

Many of them have given up their own schemes for the payment of their Commissioners' expenses, and if the Assembly does not provide for the payment of the deficit this year, the individual Commissioners are to be penalized and mulcted for the loyalty of their Presbyteries.

With regard to the future of the scheme, your Committee recommends that it be continued with the following changes regarding it:—

1. That the Assembly shall, not only with respect to the interest of such a fund, but on the general ground of economy and greater efficiency, take the proper steps to reduce the ratio of representation of Presbyteries in the General Assembly from one in six to one in ten, providing that no Presbytery shall be unrepresented, and that a Presbytery shall be entitled to an additional minister and elder if on its roll there are five or more beyond the highest exact multiple of ten.

2. That instead of estimating the mileage for each Commissioner from his home to the place where the Assembly is appointed to meet, the mileage shall be estimated from the seat of the Presbytery, i.e., from the city or town from which the Presbytery derives its name. (Only 8 of the Presbyteries in the Church are not so named, and these may choose the place from which such mileage is to be reckoned.)

3. That the Assembly shall, in the most emphatic way it can, enjoin all Presbyteries to contribute annually to the fund their equitable proportion. (This was undoubtedly the intention of the Committee last year, and doubtless the Assembly in unanimously adopting its report, submitted with a view to give practical effect to what the Presbyteries of the Church in response to the remit sent down to them had by a very large majority agreed upon, intended to require all Presbyteries to contribute their equitable proportion. The scheme cannot possibly succeed if Presbyteries consider themselves at liberty to be on or off from year to year as it may seem to tend to their own advantage.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee by

JOHN THOMAS WILKINS,
Convener.

OVERTURES

FROM THE SYNOD OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

I.—Re STANDARDS OF THE CHURCH.

At Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and within St. James' Church, there, Thursday, the fifth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, the Synod of the Maritime Provinces met, and was duly constituted.

Inter Alia. Mr. F. Baird submitted the following overture to the General Assembly, and was heard in support of the same:—

Unto the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, indicted to meet in the city of Edmonton or in the city of Toronto, on the first Wednesday in June, nineteen hundred and twelve:

1. WHEREAS, it is believed by many that error would be checked and the interests of true religion advanced if more emphasis were laid upon the Standards of our Church, it is therefore respectfully overtured by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, that the General Assembly take steps with a view to having all Colleges under its control give a prominent and a permanent place to the teaching of the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.
2. AND WHEREAS FURTHER, it is known that the action of subordinate Church Courts in consenting to modifications of the questions relating to the Standards, and of office-bearers of the Church in expressing views which are contrary to the Standards, has militated against the peace and unity of the Church, and has been found to be inimical to the interests of true religion, it is
 - (a) THEREFORE, respectfully overtured by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, that the General Assembly enjoin Sessions and Presbyteries in no manner to change, interpret, modify or delete, any of the questions prescribed by the Assembly for use at the licensure of Students, the ordination of Elders, Ministers, or the induction of Pastors to Churches or Professors to Chairs in our Colleges.
 - (b) AND IT IS ALSO OVERTURED, that the General Assembly solemnly admonish all Elders, Ministers and Professors to keep inviolate their ordination vows, and refrain from giving expression to views which unsettle the Church or which conflict with the Standards.

He moved, duly seconded, as follows:—

That the overture be received by the Synod and transmitted with approval to the General Assembly, indicted to meet in the city of Edmonton or in the city of Toronto on the first Wednesday in June, nineteen hundred and twelve.

It was moved in amendment by Mr. T. F. Fullerton, duly seconded, as follows:

That the overture be received and transmitted simpliciter.

It was moved in further amendment by Mr. G. A. Sutherland, duly seconded, as follows:—

That the overture of Mr. Baird be received, and that the whole question be referred to a large and representative committee to report to the next meeting of Synod.

The discussion was proceeding when the hour of adjournment arrived.

THOS. SEDGWICK, D.D.,
Clerk of Synod.

The same day and place and at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, the Synod of the Maritime Provinces met, and was constituted.

Inter Alia. The Synod resumed consideration of Mr. Baird's overture.

The question being taken, the second amendment was lost.

It was thereupon moved in further amendment by Mr. A. Rogers, seconded by Dr. Smith, as follows:—

THAT the overture now before the court be transmitted to the General Assembly with the request that the whole subject of the teaching of the Standards in the Colleges under its control, and subscription thereto in licensure, ordination and induction vows be carefully considered, and a deliverance be given in order that the purity and peace of our Church may be preserved.

Which amendment was carried.

It was moved in further amendment by Mr. T. F. Fullerton, seconded by Mr. A. J. McArthur, as follows:—

THAT Mr. Baird's overture be laid on the table, and that this Synod respectfully overture the General Assembly to take into its consideration the whole subject of the teaching of the Standards in the Colleges under its control and subscription thereto in licensure, ordination and induction vows, and that a deliverance be given in order that the purity and peace of our Church may be preserved.

Which amendment was carried, and being put against the main motion, and as a substantive motion, was in like manner carried, and became the judgment of the Synod.

Messrs. Fullerton and Rogers were appointed to support this overture before the General Assembly.

Dr. Sedgwick dissented from this judgment on the ground that this action of the Synod does not, as he believes, represent the feeling of our faithful people throughout the bounds; who in no way desire the serious changes which he fears will follow from it.

To this dissent there adhered Mr. James Ross, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Wright,

Mr. J. A. Maclean, Mr. W. A. Fraser, Mr. Alister Murray, Judge Forbes, Mr. F. Baird.

II.—Re OPTIONAL COURSES IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:

At the meeting of the Synod of Manitoba held in Winnipeg in November last it was agreed to present an overture to your venerable court in regard to optional courses in theological studies. This is hereby, therefore, presented in accordance with the resolution passed at the meeting stated above and is as follows:

Dr. Fraser moved, Dr. Baird seconded, that in accordance with the resolution of last year laid on the table, we overture the General Assembly, asking for optional courses in the study of theology in our colleges. The motion was carried, Dr. Farquharson dissenting.

That resolution of November, 1910, reads as follows:

THAT in view of the large expansion of the field of knowledge and the great amount of time requisite to acquire a working knowledge of the Old Testament Hebrew and the New Testament Greek, we recommend, (1) that all theological courses should contain effective instruction in the Physical, Mental, Historical and Social Sciences, and a thorough training in English Literature, and,

THAT there be an optional Theological Course entirely in English, which in addition to Theological subjects shall give a special advance course in the above mentioned sciences and in English literature.

III.—Re APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

At Montreal, and in Knox Church there, Thursday, the fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the Presbytery of Montreal was duly constituted.

Inter Alia. On motion of Dr. W. J. Clark, seconded by R. W. Dickie, it was resolved to overture the General Assembly as follows:

INASMUCH as the present system of appointing Committees of Assembly, to serve during its sessions is unsatisfactory in that certain of the Commissioners are appointed on several Committees, while other members are not appointed at all, this Presbytery of Montreal humbly overtures the General Assembly to order

THAT the Business Committee shall nominate a Selection Committee, whose function it shall be to select and submit to the Assembly for its approval names of Commissioners to serve on all special Commissions and Committees to serve during the sittings of Assembly, or such other method as the Assembly deems wise.

FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF OTTAWA.

IV.—Re WORSHIP.

At Ottawa, and within Bank Street Church there, the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, which day and place the Presbytery of Ottawa being met and constituted.

Inter Alia. Mr. J. W. H. Milne presented an overture, bearing on Public Worship in congregations, and moved its adoption, which was seconded by Dr. Ramsay and agreed to. The overture is as follows:

WHEREAS there are many members and ministers of the Presbyterian Church, who feel that the order of service commonly used does not give the people sufficient opportunity for participating in public worship;

WHEREAS the young people of our congregations are not accepting the privileges granted them in taking part in religious exercises;

WHEREAS confession with the mouth is necessary for the spiritual life and well-being of the Christian Church;

THEREFORE the Presbytery of Ottawa humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to take such steps as may be deemed advisable in order to afford the members of the congregations greater opportunity to participate in the service, and would specially recommend that the Assembly's Hymnal Committee be instructed to insert in the new edition of the Hymnal suitable selections of Scripture for responsive reading in public worship.

Messrs. J. W. H. Milne and P. W. Anderson were appointed to support the overture before the Assembly.

V.—Re AN OVERSIGHT AND OMISSION IN THE WORK OF LAST GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

At Morrisburg, and within Knox Church on Tuesday the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, which day the Presbytery of Brockville met and was constituted.

Inter Alia. Your Committee on Remits would further call the attention of the court to the fact that an overture from this Presbytery to the last General Assembly (Appendix to Minutes, page 296), though received by the Supreme Court, had not been acted on; and would recommend that the matter be again sent up.

It was pointed out by the Clerk that an overture upon the matter was not necessary. The Assembly had ordered that the overture be referred to a small committee to report to next Assembly, but had neglected to appoint such committee. (Minutes, page 33.)

It was, thereupon moved by Mr. Woods, seconded by Mr. Gollan, and carried, That the Clerk be instructed to draw the attention of the Clerk of Assembly to the matter, with the request that such Committee be appointed, and, if Assembly should see fit, instructed to report before the close of the Assembly.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

WHEREAS, according to the Rules and Forms of Procedure, Presbyterian Church in Canada, section sixty-seven (67), the appointment of a representative elder is made once a year, and holds good for two (2) months after the close of the annual meeting of the General Assembly;

AND WHEREAS many Presbyteries feel the necessity of having the appointment of representative elders made before the March meeting of Presbytery in order to have the Standing Committees of Presbytery appointed at that meeting;

AND WHEREAS, the section above referred to seems to render a second appointment necessary within two (2) months after close of General Assembly;

THEREFORE IT IS HUMBLY OVERTURED by the Presbytery of Chatham that the Venerable the General Assembly change the said section by striking out the word "two," (2), and substituting the word "eight," in order that the appointment may hold good until the end of the year in which the Assembly meets.

X.—Re TRAVELLING EXPENSES OF COMMISSIONERS.

At Battleford, and within the manse there, Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twelve years, the Presbytery of Battleford being met and constituted.

Inter Alia. The Presbytery agreed to transmit the following overture to the General Assembly:

Unto the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, indicted to meet at Edmonton, on the fifth day of June:

WHEREAS the plan devised for procuring funds to defray the travelling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly, namely an apportionment at the rate of ten cents per family, works out unfairly in the case of Presbyteries having within their bounds many unorganized fields, which are debarred from the privilege of having a Commissioner to Assembly, because they have neither ordained missionary nor elder; and

WHEREAS the carrying out of this plan militates against the successful operation of the plan adopted by the Assembly last year for the unifying of the work of the Church under one general fund;

THEREFORE it is respectfully overtured by the Presbytery of Battleford that the General Assembly take into consideration the advisability of including the travelling expenses of Commissioners in its annual "budget"; or by such other measures as it may deem best to obviate the inequality of the burden, which the practical outworking of the plan already adopted has revealed.

Inter Alia. The following overture re full and accurate Statistics from Foreign Mission Fields was moved, seconded and adopted:

THAT WHEREAS at present it is impossible to gather from the Assembly minutes, the "Presbyterian Year Book," or any other source within our Church, full and accurate information re the statistical and financial strength of our foreign mission fields; and,

WHEREAS it is desirable that such information should be easily available both to ministers and people; and,

WHEREAS our foreign mission fields are for the most part organized Presbyteries of the Church;

BE IT RESOLVED that this Presbytery of High River do respectfully overture the Venerable, the General Assembly to require all its foreign mission fields, in addition to the yearly reports now given, to make statistical and financial returns similar to those made by the Home Presbyteries, and that these reports be enrolled in the Assembly minutes along with those from the Presbyteries in Canada.

XII.—Re DIVORCE.

At Vernon, and within St. Andrew's Church, on Tuesday the fifth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the Presbytery of Kamloops met, and was constituted.

Inter Alia. An overture from the Session of St. Andrew's Church, Vernon, re the attitude of the Church on the question of Divorce, was presented, and on motion of Rev. G. C. F. Pringle, seconded by John G. French, Presbytery endorsed the same, and instructed the Clerk to transmit it to the General Assembly.

The overture is as follows:

OVERTURE FROM ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, VERNON, B.C., TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

The Session of St. Andrew's Church, Vernon, B.C., in the Presbytery of Kamloops met, according to adjournment, in St. Andrew's Church the morning of September fifth, nineteen hundred and eleven, and agreed to present the following overture to said Presbytery for transmission to the General Assembly.

Unto the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, indicted to meet at Edmonton or Toronto, on the first Wednesday of June, 1912.

WHEREAS the questions pertaining to the relation of divorced persons to the Church are continually being forced upon ministers and Sessions for decision,

AND WHEREAS these decisions bring frequently upon these officers of the Church the odium of bigotry, laxity, or prejudice and so disturbs the harmony and efficiency of the congregation;

AND WHEREAS a pronouncement of the General Assembly prescribing the duties of minister and Session in these matters would avoid such uncertainty and unpleasantness;

AND WHEREAS further we believe it is time that our highest Church court should state definitely for the guidance of our own people what they consider right in these matters;

THEREFORE it is respectfully overtured by the Session of St. Andrew's Church, Vernon, that the General Assembly take the matter into consideration and give answers to the following questions such answers to have the effect of Church law:

FIRST Question. (a) Should a member of a congregation, who has been divorced be recognized by Session as still a member or should his or her name be removed from the roll? (b) Shall the legal grounds upon which divorce was granted affect the case?

SECOND Question. (a) Is it permissible for ministers to perform marriages when either party to the marriage has been divorced? (b) Shall the legal grounds of the divorce be taken into consideration?

THIRD Question. (a) If a legally divorced person, who has been legally remarried should seek admission to Church membership, shall his request be granted? (b) If already a member shall his name be removed? (c) Does the difference in legal grounds of divorce affect the case?

FOURTH Question. Will any penalty or penitence do as a substitute for dismissal if dismissal is prescribed?

FIFTH Question. In the case of a member, who marries a woman who has been divorced for her adultery, what action should the Session take?

SIXTH Question. Shall your decisions in these matters be considered retroactive in any sense?

The Session closed with prayer.

Inter Alia. Mr. R. J. Wilson, seconded by Dr. A. S. Grant, presented the following overture:

WHEREAS there is a budget of a million dollars prepared for the different departments of the general work of the Church;

AND WHEREAS there is now an additional demand on the congregations for the Assembly Expense Fund;

AND WHEREAS the Assembly Fund now pays the expenses of various Committees of the Church;

AND WHEREAS the Commissioners to the General Assembly are equally interested in the work of the Church with any Committee of which the expenses are paid;

THEREFORE the Presbytery of Westminster humbly overtures the Venerable the General Assembly to consider the advisability of incorporating the Assembly Expense Fund in the budget for 1913;

The overture was received and adopted by Presbytery and members of Presbytery, who may be Commissioners were instructed to support the same before the Assembly.

XIV.—Re THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION, AND THE SUPPLY OF MINISTERS.

At Manitou, and within St. Andrew's Church there, on Tuesday the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twelve years, at nine o'clock in the morning, the Presbytery of Rock Lake met, according to appointment, and was duly constituted. Sederunt, etc.

Inter Alia. The Committee, appointed to draft an overture re Theological Education, and the Supply of Ministers, presented their report through Mr. Beveridge, Convener. After consideration, it was moved by Mr. Macintosh, seconded by Mr. Stewart, and agreed: That the overture as read be adopted, and that Mr. Beveridge be appointed to support the same before the Assembly.

OVERTURE re THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION, AND THE SUPPLY OF MINISTERS.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, indicted to meet in Edmonton on the first Wednesday of June, 1912:

WHEREAS the whole question of Theological Education, and of the supply of men for the ministry was reopened by the last General Assembly, convened in Ottawa, and by its action in remitting the question to the Colleges and Presbyteries of the Church for their consideration and advice, and

WHEREAS it is desirable to have as adequate a supply of well trained men for the ranks of the ministry as possible, and in our present system there are many palpable disabilities experienced by colleges, the students and the Church at large, and

WHEREAS the object of the Church in instituting the present course, consisting of the regular and Minister-evangelist departments (the latter confined to Manitoba College halls), viz., to cut off the special or literary courses that used to maintain, and at the same time to give us an adequate supply of competent men, has not been realized, inasmuch as the other Colleges, notably Knox, Montreal and Halifax Colleges are still sending up men with much inferior standing to the M.E. course and getting them passed off on the Church, and

WHEREAS the M.E. course, as maintained in Manitoba College, while not achieving its purpose, has resulted disastrously to the college by driving all the regular course men to the other colleges, and leaving it virtually with the status of a missionary training school, and

WHEREAS there is manifest need of some course that while not requiring men to study Greek and Hebrew, for which many men, particularly those who start late in life, have no adaptability or fitness, and who would get little or no benefit from these studies as now pursued in our colleges and yet would make excellent ministers;

THEREFORE the Presbytery of Rock Lake would respectfully overture the Venerable the General Assembly to the effect that the Minister-Evangelist course be done away with, and that some such alternative course as that suggested by the Assembly's Committee on Supply at the last meeting in Ottawa—a course wholly in English, and open to all candidates for the ministry, who prefer it, be substituted therefor. See Report, page 289, section 5.

THAT the regular course, as at present in vogue, embracing the study of Greek and Hebrew, be still maintained as the authorized standard course of preparation for the ministry, and that the alternative course proposed be made to cover all cases not taking this course.

THAT the course in English should not be so framed as to permit of an easy access to the ministry by men possessing inferior educational advantages, but should be made as exacting in every respect as the regular or standard course, and

THAT while not enjoining any college to provide for teaching in this special course, yet any college wishing to propose men for the ministry shall be required to bring them up to this standard; and lastly,

THAT in order to the proper standardising of the Courses in all Colleges a Board of Education, as suggested by the Committee on Supply, be appointed to prescribe all questions and examine all papers submitted by theological students as candidates for the ministry, and any other functions or duties conferred on the Education Board by the General Assembly.

XV.—Re CHURCH UNION.

At Toronto, within St. James' Square Church there, Tuesday the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the Presbytery of Toronto met and was duly constituted.

Inter Alia. Mr. D. Strachan submitted an overture, of which notice had been previously given, and was heard briefly in its support. The following is the text of the overture:

WHEREAS the question of Union between the Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian Churches of the Dominion has now been before the Church for a long term of years;

WHEREAS the recent vote taken upon this question throughout our Church has not been decisive;

WHEREAS a very large proportion of the Church looks earnestly towards some better conditions of Church life than at present obtaining;

WHEREAS it is in every way desirable that the matter should not take end in the present stage:

THEREFORE, it is respectfully overtured that the Venerable, the General Assembly, at its next ensuing meeting should:—

- (1). Reaffirm its former decision in favour of the general principle of Union;
- (2). Revert to its former proposals of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and seek the co-operation of the negotiating Churches, and any others that may be interested, for the purpose of federation in our common work, and;
- (3). Either continue the present Committee, or appoint such other Committee as may be necessary for the purpose of giving effect to this decision.

On motion of Mr. Strachan, duly seconded, it was agreed to transmit the overture simpliciter.

Re COLLEGE AT SASKATOON.

At Yorkton, and within St. Andrew's Church, on Wednesday, the eighth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, which time and place the Synod of Saskatchewan met, and was duly constituted.

Inter Alia. On report of the committee on the Residential College, Saskatoon, the Synod unanimously agreed to recommend the General Assembly to approve of the establishment of a College at Saskatoon, in affiliation with the University, such College to be devoted at present to the accommodation and general oversight of students attending the University with a view to entering the Presbyterian ministry, and to authorize such instruction to be given in Hebrew, New Testament, Greek, Apologetics and History, as is usually given in the affiliated courses in other universities, provided the guarantee of financial support is adequate.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31ST, 1911, AND CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SCHEMES OF THE CHURCH FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 29TH, 1912.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee on Statistics respectfully presents the following report:

The Clerks of Presbyteries are charged with the responsibility of securing statistics from the congregations and mission stations within the bounds. Special difficulties have this year stood in the way of securing full and accurate returns. In several cases, new Clerks were appointed during the course of the year, and there was not time for them to become familiar with their new duties. In many cases the missions were not supplied during the winter, so that it was all but impossible to gather the information required to make an accurate report. Your Committee in sending out the blank forms for statistical returns and Presbytery Roll attached to each of the forms printed instructions to aid the Clerk in making up his report. The statistical tables were arranged as in the past: 1. Self-sustaining Congregations. 2. Augmented Charges. 3. Ordained Mission Fields. 4. Student Mission Fields. 5. French Evangelization Mission Fields.

The double page contains on one side the statistics and finances for year, ending December 31st, as furnished by the congregations to the Presbytery Clerks, on the other, the contributions to the Schemes received by the Treasurers, East and West, for the year ending February 29th. Each group is arranged in alphabetical order, but in several Presbyteries the arrangement might be greatly improved.

Your Committee would again call the attention of the Assembly to the recommendation passed last year that the Statistical Committee of Presbytery should be made up of the Clerk, the Conveners of Home Missions, Augmentation, French Evangelization, Sabbath Schools and such others as might be deemed best.

The purpose of those forming the Statistical Committee of Presbytery is to secure that the information furnished to the Clerk of Presbytery may be supplemented by the Conveners of the several Committees from the information in their hands, and that a complete and accurate report be secured. Were this Committee to meet and have on hand all material available there is no reason why a very full and accurate report should not be furnished. This should obviate also, the necessity of using the figures of last year as has been done in many cases.

Your Committee would urge the General Assembly to enjoin Presbyteries to secure a complete report of their statistics and finances. More than one Clerk has reported that he found it impossible to get any reply from the field, even after repeated writing. Many of the mission fields have no person in them charged with the responsibility of making returns, so when they have no missionary labouring among them at the time when the Clerk of Presbytery is gathering data for his report, no reply can be obtained. The column, which shows the amount received for salary from other sources is altogether misleading, for especially in the Presbyteries west from Superior, the amounts reported do not correspond with the claims paid during the year by the Home Mission Committee. This column should be omitted altogether or made absolutely accurate. The blank forms prepared for obtaining returns from congregations and mission stations asked for information to enable the Clerk to prepare the Presbytery Roll, and the statistical and financial report. Forms were also provided on which to report Licensures, Ordinations, reception of Ministers from other Churches, and Deaths in the Ministry. Request was made that there should be given a complete list of the congregations forming the pastoral charge and of the stations forming the mission field, but during the year this has been found very incomplete. This further difficulty in the Treasurer's Office in the Western Section has been experienced. During the summer a certain group of stations make up the field supplied by the missionary. During the winter the fields are readjusted, new combinations are formed. These new, temporary combinations are made by Conveners, but no intimation of the change is sent to the Treasurer, either by Clerk of Presbytery or Convener of the Presbytery's Home Mission Committee, so that it is found exceedingly difficult to credit accurately the mission fields with the contributions received for the Schemes. Because of the lack of men for winter work these adjustments had to be made for the supply of ordinances, but such changes should be promptly reported in order that contributions to Schemes may be accurately credited to stations.

The Treasurer's books had to be arranged for pastoral charges and mission fields from the Roll of Presbytery for March 31st, 1911, but the Clerks of Presbytery make their statistical and financial returns for congregations and mission fields as grouped at December, 1911. It will be a marvel indeed if inaccuracies do not occur in the tables as given.

There is given not only the sum total for each Presbytery, but also the increase or decrease as compared with the preceding year is shown. There is also a summary of the statistics, finances and contributions to Schemes of the Synods, and a comparison of the grand total of the whole Church with the preceding year.

A table has been prepared, showing the average giving of the several Presbyteries for Stipend, for Schemes and for all purposes.

As last year this table estimates the value of the manse at $75.00. These figures do not show with accuracy the average giving in a number of the western Presbyteries, which report very few communicants and take no account of the actual contributions, but your Committee had no way of making any accurate calculation except from the figures furnished in the statistics of the Presbytery. The average congregational giving of the whole Church shows:—

$10.11 per family, and $5.59 per communicant for Stipend.

3.68 per family, and 2.04 per communicant for Schemes.

5.25 per family, and 2.91 per communicant for Schemes, including donations, etc.

30.00 per family, and 16.60 per communicant for all purposes.

A comparative statement is given of statistics covering the year 1875, the date of the Union, and the years from 1904 to 1911. This table gives a comprehensive view of the whole Church's statistics and finances under the following departments:—

1. Church Courts. 2. Ministers and Missionaries. 3. Congregations. 4. Contributions for Congregational purposes and for Schemes. In this table the figures in some respects differ from those furnished by Clerks in the Presbyterian Statistics and by the Treasurers for Schemes. An attempt has been made to include the money given to Missions, such as the Gwalior, by the Women's Societies, and by the Students' Missionary Societies of the Colleges and others. The reports on Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies have been used to supplement the Presbyterian Statistics.

The number of families reported is 163,788, being an increase over last year of 3,641.

The number of communicants is 295,935, being an increase of 7,991 over last year, being 2½% increase.

The number who were received on profession of faith was 15,610, being a decrease of 1,059 for the year, being 5⅔%.

Those who united by certificate were 19,013, being an increase of 2,477.

It would appear that the increase in the total membership is a little over two from each family that was added. This is what might be expected from this source alone. But when we turn to those making profession of faith, we find it took nearly eleven families to furnish one. Last year only one person out of ten families came forward to make profession of faith in Christ. The report for this year is, therefore, less favourable. When we take into account the very large increase to our population during the year from the United States and from Great Britain, a considerable majority of whom must have been Protestants, did we receive our fair share of this increase when we added only 3,641 families? The 160,500 families of last year by natural increase through marriage should have made up half that number of new families.

The optimism must be blind indeed, which can find satisfaction in the figures given. The great work of the Church is to win souls to Christ and build up souls in Christ, and one of the ways in which we learn that souls are won to Christ is that they come out openly and confess His name. Only God can measure the increase in the spiritual statue of His followers. Statistics cannot accurately gauge anything, but they can give us a somewhat reasonable approximation, and there is no other way in showing growth in membership.

The financial returns show that $1,562,866 were paid for salary, a very goodly increase of $67,729 over last year.

Arrears of stipend again bulk far too large for a year, when business was so prosperous, being $8,158. The percentage of arrears is not very high, but doubtless these arrears occur in congregations where the salary of the minister is near the minimum, and therefore, they will pinch all the more sharply. Presbyteries should look carefully into all the cases within its bounds and take immediate action to have them paid.

The total amount reported by congregations, as given for Schemes of the Church, and for other missions not under the control of our Church, but in which both individuals and congregations are interested, amounted to the sum of $981,835. This sum, when compared with the contributions for Schemes shows that a very considerable sum was given for missions outside the pale of our own Church. This manifests the Catholicity of our people, but if carefully scrutinized, would also show that in some cases the members of our Church are exploited for so-called mission enterprises, which are under the control of no responsible body. The amount given for Schemes, reported by Treasurers from congregations is $603,365, and including donations, etc. (exclusive of transfers from Reserve and Building funds) is $774,412, being $25,788 less than the estimate for 1911 of $800,200.

The amount raised for all purposes was $4,820,062, showing an increase of $313,428. The value of Church property was increased by $1,228,510, while there was added to the debt only $334,670, which is surely satisfactory if the figures are accurately reported.

The following paragraph appeared in last year's report:—"A comparison of statistics and finances would seem to show that the activity of the Church has been expending itself on the raising of money rather than securing additions to the Church membership on profession of faith." This might be repeated this year with even greater emphasis.

The table of average giving per family and per communicant compares favourably on the whole with last year. We have not yet nearly reached the present modest ideal of $5.00 per communicant for Schemes of the Church. No Presbytery has attained that honour. The Presbytery, which comes nearest to that standard is Westminster.

It is manifestly unfair to single out individual congregations, because in many cases legacies are paid through the congregational treasurer, and the congregation gets credit for contributions, which do not represent the normal giving of the members. Comparisons are not only difficult, but also untrustworthy, where there is a small communicants' roll, but a large number of adherents who contribute liberally, and also, where there have been specially large donations given. For these reasons your Committee does not go into minute comparisons. Your Committee is of the opinion that the statistics should put in the forefront the contributions of congregations as such.

The Presbytery Rolls call for attention on the part of the Assembly. There is no fixed principle seemingly as to how the roll should be made up by Presbyteries. This is especially seen in the case of foreign missionaries. In some Presbyteries they are placed on the appendix to the roll, in others they are constituent members. This affects the constitution of the General Assembly. One Presbytery has the name of a missionary of India on its roll, which entitles it to an additional member of Assembly. A neighbouring Presbytery has two India missionaries on the appendix to its roll. These as constituent members would entitle it to another Ministerial Commissioner. There should be uniformity. Another Presbytery has placed upon its roll the name of a missionary, who belongs to and is returned by the Presbytery of Honan. And several foreign missionaries are not found on any roll.

Although the total contributions for all purposes do not show so large an advance as last year's, yet the increase is very gratifying. When we take into account the adverse weather conditions, both East and West, the result is almost surprising. Throughout Central Ontario the extreme heat in the end of June and early part of July caused in many parts almost a complete failure in the crops, and in the West in large districts the farmers were compelled to leave their grain unthreshed, and the failure of the railways to provide transportation facilities left them with the grain on their hands unsold. Taking these and other things into consideration, it is evident that the Church as a whole has not only been awakened to a deeper sense of the meaning of stewardship, but that it remains awake. As systematic weekly offerings are extended in the Church, the results will be increasingly satisfactory. There is danger of the Presbyteries leaving the whole business of oversight of the missions in the hands of the official supervisors, and failing as a Presbytery in giving its counsel and help in introducing better methods of finance. The difficulty in securing ample revenue for our missionary enterprises has to be attributed to want of system in the method of raising it in the congregations, and lack of knowledge or carelessness on the part of those who have the management of congregational affairs.

The contributions to the Schemes in the Western Presbyteries show there is a deepening interest in the foreign mission work of the Church, but in a number of Presbyteries they are disappointing indeed. During the past two years there has been a manifest falling off in the contributions to Home Missions. There was a persistent demand on the part of Western Presbyteries that the minimum salary be increased and also, that the Home Mission Committee guarantee the salary of every man employed by it. This has practically been done with the result that there has been a decrease of interest and liberality in the maintenance of the work under the care of the Committee.

Yet on the whole the report on its financial side is most encouraging. There is, however, evidence to show that many congregations follow in the old, old way of depending on a spasmodic effort in February by a special collection for the Schemes to meet their responsibility for the support of the mission work of the Church. From many quarters the report was that owing to the stormy weather in February, collectors could not make their annual visits, nor could people get out to Church to present their offering. While this system of missionary finance remains in force, there will be perennial disappointments and failure. It is true that an every individual canvass will not result in an every individual contributor, but it is also true that an every individual canvass will result in a much larger number of contributors, and a largely increased offering on the part of those who contribute. Evidently Paul's ideal for the Corinthian Church was a universal contribution, for he says, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him that there be no gatherings when I come." There will not be an assured and steady income for the Church's work until system is introduced into all our congregations, and until every member of the Church conscientiously acknowledges himself as a steward of God administering the talents of whatever kind he has had entrusted to him by God. To accomplish this desirable end, Presbyteries might well undertake a campaign of instruction and offer of help to enable congregations to get their financial methods upon a sound basis. Such a campaign of stewardship would result in a spiritual uplift and outlook as men have not before experienced. But the Church needs men first for her work, and in order that these may be obtained, she must set herself to win a multitude of men for Christ, and out of this multitude pray the Lord to thrust forth labourers into His harvest.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That Presbyteries be enjoined to give special attention to securing complete and accurate returns from every congregation and mission station.
2. That the Committee on Statistics of each Presbytery be composed of the Clerk, the Conveners of Augmentation, Home Missions, French Evangelization, Sabbath Schools, and such other members as may be deemed necessary, and that this Committee see that there are no discrepancies in the different statistical reports presented to the General Assembly.
3. That special attention be given to the formation of the Roll of Presbytery, that it contain only the names duly authorized by the Church, and that it contain a full list of the congregations and mission stations as at March 31st.
4. That when changes are made in the names of congregations, or mission stations, or in the groups forming the pastoral charge, or mission field, the Presbytery Clerk shall immediately notify the Treasurers of the Church, and thus enable them to correctly report contributions to the Schemes.

5. That Presbyteries be enjoined to fully consider and deal with the matter of statistics and finance as set forth in report to the Assembly at the first ordinary meeting after the Minutes of Assembly have been printed, and distributed, or as soon thereafter as possible, with a view to ascertain the increase or decrease in the several congregations, what congregations, if any, have failed to report, or have not contributed to all the Schemes of the Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Convener.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA

The Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in Canada begs to submit to the General Assembly its annual report for the past year.

The Trustees have continued to exercise a careful supervision over the investments of the Church, and also of Knox College. They have also looked after the collection of moneys bequeathed to the Church and its various Schemes, and have applied them to the funds especially directed by the respective testators, as appears by the report of the auditors of the Church.

Whenever any questions have arisen regarding the construction of Wills, or as to claims on estates, the Trustees have always endeavoured to avoid litigation, and bring about a settlement satisfactory to the parties interested.

In accordance with the instructions given to them at the last General Assembly, the Trustees have had under consideration prospective sites for a building for the general purposes of the Church, and the result of their inquiries has led them to believe that a site and building cannot be acquired without making an annual expenditure for the office of the Church greatly in excess of what is now being paid. They recommend that they may be empowered to continue their inquiries and to take such action as may seem to them desirable.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. MORTIMER CLARK.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:

We certify that all our requirements as Auditors have been complied with, and we report that we have examined the books of your Treasurer, Rev. J. Somerville, D.D., for the year ending February 29th, 1912, and have seen certificates and securities for the Church's investments.

We have audited the Balance Sheet and Accounts, and, in our opinion, they are properly drawn up, so as to give a correct view of the Church's affairs, as shown by the books of the Treasurer.

Further, we beg to report that the system of accounting meets every requirement.

The securities are all deposited in the Safe Deposit Vaults of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and are in perfect order.

As an evidence of the careful selection of mortgage securities, we have much pleasure in reporting that there is no interest in arrears.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE, 1911-1912 (EASTERN SECTION)

Your Finance Committee is thankful to be able to report prosperity for the Funds of the Church in the Eastern Section during the past year. The total amount received during the year ended February 29th last, was $136,532.38, which, though $1,661.29 less than during the preceding year, is considerably more than for any preceding year in which there was not very special efforts made to wipe off heavy debt.

With the exception of the College and Home Mission Funds, all have credit balances, and the debt of the College Fund has been reduced by a larger amount than that by which the expenditure for Home Missions exceeded the income for the year.

The following comparative statement indicates how the receipts rank with those of each of the preceding years:

Audited and verified,

GEO. G. DUNSTAN, Chartered Accountant,
Auditor.

Halifax, Canada, 11th April, 1912.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

I beg to report having made an audit in detail of the books and accounts of the Church —Eastern Section—Rev. Dr. McCurdy, Agent, for the year ended 29th February, 1912.

The books have been audited regularly month by month. Receipts from congregations and from other sources, and revenue from invested funds have been closely followed and verified by comparison with the Treasurer's cash books. Vouchers embracing the necessary particulars covering both revenue and expenditure have also been examined and verified in regular order.

Again, I have examined the securities as enumerated by the Treasurer for report and find same in hand and in order.

I have pleasure in stating at this time that, in my opinion, every detail of the Church's office has had most careful attention, and the records kept in such order as to clearly exhibit the true position of affairs.

I have audited and verified the various statements presented by your agent as at 29th February, 1912. These I find correct being a true copy of the books of record as mentioned.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. G. DUNSTAN,

Chartered Accountant.

OBITUARY NOTICES

REV. ARCHIBALD McLEAN, D.D.

The Rev. Archibald McLean, D.D., was born in Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1833, and came to Canada in 1850, locating in Elgin County. After an honourable college course he was ordained and inducted into St. Andrew's, Blyth, with which Belgrave was associated. For forty years he served St. Andrew's, and for over forty years he was the efficient Clerk of the Presbytery of Huron. His name will long be honoured in the wide community in which he laboured. In 1903 Queen's University bestowed upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. He retired from the active work of the ministry in 1906, and was called to his rest January 22nd, 1912.

REV. THOMAS PATON.

The Rev. Thomas Paton was called to his rest and reward on December 25th, 1911, after an illness extending over two years. The last year of his life was one of growing weakness borne with patience and resignation. Mr. Paton began his active work as representative in China of the National Bible Society of Scotland, and Evangelist of the Church of Scotland. Later, he served the British and Foreign Bible Society in the same land, visiting nearly every province of that empire. Ill health forced him to retire from the work in China, and he came to Canada, where he laboured with great self-sacrifice in the Kootenay district, in Barrie Presbytery, and at Merritton in the Presbytery of Hamilton. Mr. Paton was a missionary enthusiast; his whole soul went out to the heathen world. He was a man of deep sympathy, self-sacrificing to a degree seldom seen, full of faith and good works. He rests from his labours, literally worn out in the service of the Master whom he loved so well.

REV. JOHN BURNETT, B.A.

The Rev. John Burnett, B.A., died at Dorchester in the Presbytery of London, October 4th, 1911, after a brief but severe illness. Although scarcely having reached his prime he was privileged to serve the Master in Keady, Trowbridge, and Dorchester. The Presbytery of London passed the following resolution, relative to his decease:—"That this Presbytery expresses its deep sense of sorrow at the loss by death of the Rev. John Burnett, who during his short stay amongst us, endeared himself to all his fellow Presbyters by his genial manner, Christian spirit and readiness to help in every good work for the furtherance of the Master's Kingdom. His keen interest in the advancement of Christ's cause led him to spare no effort to accomplish his purpose, and his untiring zeal was manifested in every enterprise which he undertook in carrying on our Lord's work. A good, sound preacher, a loyal Presbyter, a regular attendant on our courts, we shall miss him; but we realize that our loss is his gain, as the Master has called him to higher service."

PRINCIPAL W. PATRICK, D.D.

The Reverend William Patrick was born in Glasgow, Scotland, on September 8th, 1852. He achieved remarkable distinction in classical and philosophical subjects during his university course, and was also a leader in the activities of the students. He studied theology in the Free Church College in Glasgow and took first rank in all Scotland in the exit examination. He was ordained in 1878 as minister of the Free

Church of Kirkintilloch and after some years was translated to St. Paul's, Dundee. In 1900 he became principal of Manitoba College, Winnipeg, and continued to discharge the duties of that office with great diligence and ability until his death on September 28th, 1911. Principal Patrick combined in himself extraordinary intellectual capacity with unusual gifts of a practical character. He was a strong and lucid preacher who delighted in setting forth the great truths of the Christian faith. He was a vigorous and careful teacher of theological students and the Church at large mourns him as a great leader in matters of ecclesiastical procedure and especially in social reform movements and in the discussion of Church Union, of which from the beginning he was one of the chief advocates.

REV. DANIEL GORDON.

The Rev. Daniel Gordon was born in Blair Athole, Scotland, ninety years ago. At an early age, under the ministrations of the Rev. Wm. C. Burns he experienced a change of heart and gave himself up to the study of the ministry. In the midst of his student course the Disruption occurred and he threw himself with fiery energy into the lists on behalf of the Free Church. He was ordained in 1848 and came at once to Canada. After a few months he settled at Indian Lands, where he continued to be minister for twenty years, and where in 1864 his work was marked by a great revival of religion. In 1871 he accepted a call to Harrington, in Western Ontario, and there he served the Master until his health broke down in 1891 and he was obliged to give up the active duties of the ministry. Mr. Gordon was a man of passionate enthusiasm, of vivid imagination and of intense and fervid faith. His preaching, in both Gaelic and English followed in the old paths in the matters of doctrine, but was marked by much force of treatment and sometimes by startling outspokenness in defence or advocacy of the truth. He died after a very brief illness on the eleventh of February, 1912, at the home of his son in Winnipeg.

REV. J. A. CARMICHAEL, D.D.

The Presbytery of Regina desires to record its sense of great loss in the death of their most highly honoured member, the Rev. J. A. Carmichael, D.D., Superintendent of Missions, for Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Dr. Carmichael was the minister of Knox Church, Regina, for over twelve years, where he was looked upon as a preacher of unusual power, clear in his thinking, eloquent in his presentation of truth and practical in his application of the same. As Superintendent of Missions he was known as a zealous and untiring worker, who brought tact and sound judgment to bear upon the many questions that arose in connection with his wide field. His sympathy and counsel meant much to the missionary in his hardship and isolation. His messages to our Church courts were listened to with a sense of added seriousness and responsibility and we feel that the Presbyterian Church in Canada is poorer for his removal. We give thanks to the Giver of all Good for having raised him up and men of his faith, and power to give themselves so wholeheartedly to the welfare of the Church. We pray that His guidance may be vouchsafed to us as we continue in the work which His servants have laid down. Especially do we commend the widow in her bitter grief and the sons and daughters of the home bereft, to the tender compassion of the Heavenly Father, who afflicteth not willingly. Dr. Carmichael was ordained at Washington, D.C., in May, 1875. He was minister at Manassa, Va., from 1875 to 1877; minister at Columbus, Ont., from 1877 to 1890; minister at Regina, Sask., from 1890 to 1903, and Superintendent of Missions from 1903 to 1911. He passed to his reward on November 11th, 1911, and was buried at Kildonan, Man., where sleep Drs. Robertson, Black, and Nisbet, heroes of the faith in Western Canada.

REV. W. A. J. MARTIN, D.D.

The Rev. W. A. J. Martin, D.D., minister of Zion Church, Brantford, died June 26th, 1911, at the comparatively early age of forty-nine years. Hereceived his training for the ministry in Knox College, Toronto, and graduated from that institution in 1889. His first field of labour after licensure was a new mission in Toronto, known as St. Paul's, which under his energetic and fostering care rose to the status of a congregation, and is now a large and flourishing pastoral charge. From St. Paul's, Toronto, he was translated to the large and important charge of Knox Church, Guelph, in which he laboured with zeal and efficiency for about two years, when the earnest and pressing call of Zion Church, Brantford, came to him, and was accepted in 1889, his induction taking place May 11th of that year. From that date to the close of his ministry he filled the pastorate of that very prominent and large congregation with marked ability and success. The General Assembly, which met in Vancouver in 1903, called him to the convenership of the Foreign Mission Committee, Western Section, the weighty and responsible duties of which in addition to those of his pastorate, he continued to discharge till the time of his death with an energy and devotion that won the appreciation of the whole Church. In 1910 Knox College conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity—an honour as gracefully worn as worthily bestowed. The high place he held in the confidence, esteem and affection of his brethren in the Presbytery it would be difficult to express. With all the elements of character that go to make a strong man there was combined in him, the gentleness and sympathy of a tender heart.

REV. ALEXANDER FALCONER, D.D.

The Synod would place on record its appreciation of the life and labours of the late Rev. Alexander Falconer, D.D. Early on Sunday morning, July 23rd, 1911, he died at Elmsdale, N.S. Born at Riverton, Pictou County, in 1838, he attended the educational institutions of his native county, prosecuted his academic and theological studies for the gospel ministry at the West River Seminary, and later at the Presbyterian College, then located at Truro, and supplemented his course by a post graduate term in Edinburgh. He was ordained in 1862, and became pastor successively in Zion Church, Charlottetown; St. James' Church, Dartmouth; Greyfriars' Church, Trinidad, and Prince Street Church, Pictou. During the greater part of his pastorate in Pictou he was Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee, Eastern Division. In 1896 he was elected Moderator of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces. In 1899 he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Presbyterian College, Montreal. In 1906 he was chosen Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. With rare qualifications of head and heart he punctually and efficiently discharged the responsible duties pertaining to all the important positions which he occupied during his long and busy life. He was a ripe scholar, a deep theologian, an evangelical preacher, a ready writer, a man of remarkably sound judgment, conscientious and courageous character, and a faithful workman in the services of Christ and the Church. Three years ago he resigned his pastoral charge in Pictou, and since his retirement from the active duties of the ministry resided in Halifax. As pastor, preacher and presbyter in public and in private life he was held in high esteem by all who had the privilege of knowing him. It can truthfully be said of him that he passed his years "wearing the white flowers of a blameless life," and now he rests from his labours and his works do follow him.

ROBERT MURRAY, LL.D.

The late Robert Murray, LL.D., was born in Earltown, Pictou County, about eighty years ago. He studied for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in the institutions of his native province. Having turned his thoughts to journalism he was never ordained or settled over a pastoral charge, but on the completion of his theological course accepted the position of editor of the Presbyterian Witness, Halifax—a position which he filled with distinguished ability for more than half a century. During this time he was a highly esteemed member of our Church courts, by his wise counsel rendering valuable assistance in the solution of many a difficult problem. By his great editorial gifts exercised through the columns of the Presbyterian Witness he wielded an influence far beyond the bounds of our own Synod; and by his wise counsel and love he was able to guide many difficult issues to successful results. By his active sympathy with all needing and deserving causes, he was able to forward the interests of many of our philanthropies. By his poetical endowments he has left behind him a heritage of song which will continue to edify the Church of Christ. These and many other qualities contributed to give to the late Dr. Murray a distinguished place which posterity will continue to recognize. He died in Halifax on December 12th, 1910.

REV. ALEXANDER GRANT.

Rev. Alexander Grant was born in the district of Gairloch, in the Highlands of Scotland, in the year 1817. He was educated in the Free Church College, Edinburgh, and licensed by the Presbytery of Lewis in 1862, and for several years did good work in Scotland before coming to this country. He came to Nova Scotia at the invitation of the Home Mission Board of the Lower Provinces in 1870, and after a while was called to Lake Ainslie, where he remained until December, 1894, when he retired and made his home at Whycocomagh until his death, May 13th, 1911, in the ninety-fourth year of his age. He was highly esteemed by his brethren and greatly beloved by his congregation, who greatly appreciated his ministry, and whose universal testimony was that he "walked with God."

REV. JAMES MCGREGOR MACKAY.

The Rev. James McGregor MacKay was born in the year 1819, at East River, St. Mary's, Pictou County. By earnest efforts he secured his preparatory education at New Glasgow, and prosecuted his studies at West River, Pictou County, being one of Dr. Ross's first students. In 1854 he was licensed, and in the following year was ordained and inducted into the charge of Parrsboro, which at that time had ten preaching stations, and was forty miles in length. In 1860 he was called to Economy and Five Islands, where he remained for eighteen years. His next charge was at Woodstock, N.B. Here he laboured for four years, taking many long journeys to reach the spiritually destitute. In 1882, Mr. MacKay was employed in the vast Home Mission field of the Presbytery of St. John, in which he remained for two years. Laborious as the work was, he found it congenial. In 1884 he accepted a call to Shediac, Shemogue and Port Elgin. After thirty-seven years of service he retired from the active duties of the ministry in 1892, and took up his residence in New Glasgow, N.S. It is noteworthy that from the time of his ordination till the time of his death he never missed a meeting of Synod; never had a month's holiday; and during his public ministry there was only two Sabbaths on which he was unable to preach. Mr. MacKay was a man of pronounced convictions on all moral and spiritual questions. His physical powers were remarkable, and were used unstintedly in his Master's service. As a preacher he was evangelical; as a presbyter he was loyal to the Church of his fathers; as a friend his hospitality was unfailing. His heart was set on having the gospel proclaimed in every land to every creature. On September 1st, 1911, in the ninety-third year of his age, he was called to his eternal reward, leaving a fragrant memory as a good minister of Jesus Christ.

REV. ARCHIBALD MACKENZIE, B.D.

The Synod would place on record their sense of loss in the removal by death after severe illness, borne with exemplary patience and Christian fortitude of their dearly beloved brother, Rev. Archibald MacKenzie, for fourteen years a member of this court while minister of Douglas. As a court of the Church, we thank God for the gifts bestowed upon our late brother, and for the blessings that have come through him to the congregation to which he ministered, the community in which he lived and the Church he so loyally served. To his widow and sorrowing relatives we extend our deepest sympathy, trusting that the hope in which he rejoiced so greatly and rested so securely may be theirs in like measure and that the comfort of God may abound unto them.

REV. M. W. BIRON.

The Synod learns with regret of the death in comparatively early manhood of Mr. M. W. Biron, which occurred in June of last year, places on record its sense of appreciation of the manner in which Mr. Biron overcame great difficulties in obtaining his education, expresses gratitude for the services he rendered in the cause of French Evangelization and Home Missions. The Synod records also an expression of sympathy with Mrs. Biron.

REV. T. G. THOMPSON.

The Synod desires to place on record the loss sustained by the Church in the death of the Rev. T. G. Thompson. Mr. Thompson, after studying in Glasgow University, came to this country and finished his course in Knox College. Not many years after his ordination the call came to him to take up mission work in Vancouver. This he accepted and to him belonged the honour of organizing the first Presbyterian Church in that Western City. Coming back East, he laboured in Waterdown, Hamilton, Vankleek Hill and Westboro. Mr. Thompson possessed excellent gifts for the work of the ministry, and these he used with great diligence in the charges where he was stationed. Personally he was a man of genial character, ever cordial towards his brethren and ever ready to take his share of Presbyterian work. The Synod extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved widow and son, and commend them in their sorrow to the God of all consolation and help.

REV. JAMES MYLES CROMBIE.

The Rev. James Myles Crombie died at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, where he had been a patient for eight days, after a serious operation, April 9th, 1912. He was an alumnus of St. Andrew's University, Scotland, at which venerable institution he received his training for the ministry. He came to Canada early in 1885 and on June 20th of that year he was ordained and inducted by the Presbytery of Ottawa to the charge of Cumberland. Early in 1889 he was translated to Cote Des Neiges in the Presbytery of Montreal. In this charge he remained eight years, and for five years afterward he gave valuable help in developing suburban mission stations, giving special attention to the first Colony of Presbyterians settling in what was then known as the Montreal Annex, now an important part of the city, and out of that small beginning has grown the large and flourishing congregation of MacVicar Church. On July 7th, 1902, he accepted a call to Victoria Church, of which he remained pastor for seven years. For the past three years he was in indifferent health, although his death was sudden at the end. Mr. Crombie was a man of superior culture and a congenial companion, with most engaging manners, and his brethren mourn his decease at the comparative early age of fifty-six years. His widow is commended to the loving care of the God of all consolation.
